Notes for [POSSIBLY] ELIZABETH SIMMONS:

I don't have any definite evidence that Elizabeth Simmons was the first wife of Francis Scrivener. I'm basing this on circumstantial evidence, particularly the name of George Scrivener. This is the first instance of George in this line and I'm assuming that he was named for his maternal grandfather. George Simmons was a neighbor of Francis Scrivener and his daughter Elizabeth was of the right age to be married to Francis. Elizabeth Simmons was not married when her father wrote his will in 1764. Francis and his first wife married abt 1770 and had their first child, Mary abt 1770. Francis and his first wife named a daughter Elizabeth. Also their daughter Ann named a daughter Elizabeth S. Dowell.

[which could be either Elizabeth Simmons or Elizabeth Scrivener or it could be Elizabeth Susanna.] Again, this is just speculation.

Children of FRANCIS SCRIVENER and [POSSIBLY] SIMMONS are:

- i. MARY⁸ SCRIVENER¹⁰⁰, b. Abt. 1770, Anne Arundel County MD; d. 1852, Anne Arundel County MD; m. JOHN WOOD, 03 August 1809, Anne Arundel County MD; b. Bef. 1755, Anne Arundel County MD; d. 1819, Anne Arundel County MD.
