

Descendants of Duvernia WHITE

Generation No. 1

1. DUVERNIA¹ WHITE was born 28 Aug 1825 in South Carolina, and died 19 Aug 1904 in Tippah County, Mississippi. He married NANCY LITTLE, daughter of ISAAC LITTLE. She was born 30 Jul 1824 in Alabama, and died 01 Jun 1898 in Tippah County, Mississippi.

Notes for DUVERNIA WHITE:

Duvernia (in records his name is spelled many ways- Duverniah, Devernia, Deverney, Duvernor, etc!) enlisted in the Confederate Army on August 1, 1862, with the Co. E (Buncombe Fighting Cocks) Regiment Mississippi Calvary-later reorganized as 1 Regiment Mississippi Partisan Rangers. He enlisted at Ripley for a term of 3 years.

In the 1860 census, Tippah County, MS, Duvernia and family were farming. The value of Duvernia's land was $500. The name Duvernia was passed down by several of this children and their children; as well as the name Ralph Verdy.

Duvernia outlived his wife, Nancy, and lived out his final years on his farm with daughter Mary (Mary J. or Matilda Mary?- this Mary was born Aug 1859 so probably Matilda Mary??) son Isaac and his wife Georgia.

His obituary:

SOUTHERN SENTINEL August 25, 1904

Ripley, MS

Mr. Devernia White

An aged and highly respected citizen of near Dumas died last Friday. Mr. White's health had been bad for some time and his eyesight had entirely left him. He served in the Mexican War under Jefferson Davis.

His remains were interred in the Hardin cemetery near Fellowship church

She was born 23 May 1858 in Mississippi, and died 14 Sep 1928 in Tahlequah, Cherokee, OK.

Notes for THOMAS JEFFERSON WHITE:

From "Daddy's Stories" Taped stories by Burgess Witt and edited by his daughter Mary Dondlinger, April 27, 2001. Burgess was the son of Ben Witt and Frances Elizabeth "Fanny" White Witt.

Thomas Jefferson White and Frances Elizabeth Hodges White (Grandpa and Grandma White):

My Grandpa White raised apples. Winesap apples mainly. Dad built a cellar for him to put the apples in for storage. Grandpa would go down there in the wintertime and cull them out. He put straw down in the bottom of the wagon to protect the apples and took them around the to sell by the peck all the way to as many bushels that you wanted.

They were living about a mile and a half west of Grandview School. He weighed about 170-175 pounds and was about 5 feet 11 inches. She weighed less than a hundred pounds. I think he died in 1924 and was buried at Crittenden Cemetery. There were living the Grandview area at the time mama and dad married. They lived in Arkansas before and had lived in Mississippi before that. The house where I was born was half a mile south of where they lived.

Grandpa White and grandma got up at 4:30 the year round. In the wintertime he would go out and harness his horses if he was going to be working them. They didn't have a well. They had a cistern. It was dug I don't know how deep, probably 25 feet. They caught rainwater. That was their drinking water. In the early twenties they had a well drilled. It took the guy two maybe three years to drill it. It went down 350 feet before finally they got water. When they got it up and drank it, it wasn't any good. IT had an oil scum on it
I like to go by Grandpa and Grandma White's house on the way home from school so I could get an apple from their root cellar.

Grandma White chewed tobacco. She would keep chews up on the top part of the porch by the roof.

Notes for MARY EMALINE WHITE:

Mary and Winner Ingle were married on 18 Oct 1914, Tahlequah, OK

Mary took in laundry to pay for piano lessons for her daughter, Phyllis.

When I would sun bath during the summer and Grandma would get on to me! She told me that she and her sisters, Eula and Fannie, would make a paste out of flour and water and cover their skin with it when they had to pick cotton so they would not get dark and leathery. She always said "Well, I'll swan". She loved to eat toast with butter and sugar at night. And did that woman love Jesus! She never once in her life drank alcohol or tobacco, never touched a playing card, and never danced. But she did love to sing. Once when I was in college I went to Wichita and could not get her on the phone. Finally tracked her down. She had been at the hospital sewing lap blankets for the old people. She was 80 at the time.
