Notes for MARY ELIZABETH ?:

family stories say Mary was full blooded cherokee indian. Yet to be proven...but from my research over the past six yrs I beleive this story is true.. Okay from William F. Donalson line He has a photo of Mary. On the back it states that Mary sister was part of the "Trail Of Tears" this is the proof I was looking for.

Notes for GEORGE WASHINGTON SANDERS JR.:

George was a minister and recorded songs. He had a lovely voice and it was said people would cry when he sang "Put My Little Shoes Away"

As a young Man, On his way back from Missouri he was chased by indians and spent a night in a tree , hiding while they camped under it; the next day he arrived in Vincennes safely.

George and Emily had three sets of twins. Three of the boys made it to adulthood.

Thursday dec 20. 1928 (sent to me By Peggy Robinson from Knox Co. Indiana

MOTHER OF FOURTEEN DIES; WAS INVALID BEFORE BIRTH OF FIRST; 10 SURVIVING

SANBORN, Dec 20, - Mrs. Bertha Martin, died in her home one and one half miles east of Sanborn between twelve and one o'clock Thursday morning, after an illness of about two weeks, with a complication of Influenza an ex-opthalmic goitre.

The Martin Family have all been ill with influenza and the condition in the home was pitiful. One scarcely able to wait on the other, the parents and seven children, the youngest not yet two years old.

Bertha Sanders was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Washington Sanders and one of nine children in the home. She was born June 18, 1888. and was united in marriage to John Martin at a very early age. Three months before the birth of her first child Mrs. Martin became paralysed in her lower limbs from her hips, and has never been able to walk. Since that time she has been forced to do her household duties in a wheelchair.

There has been fourteen children born in the home since the mother has been in this condition. Four of them preceded her in death. Ten children and the husband survive. The children are: Dolphus of Bruceville, Mrs. Mattie Rincher, Of Huron, Miss Cleo , of Detroit, Michigan, John, Ernest, Elizabeth, Helen, Hubert, Wallace, And Melbert at home. Two Brothers, John Sanders of Linton, Ed Sanders of Bicknell, And three sisters, Mrs. Dora Rose of Linton, Mrs Ernest Fuel of Marco, And Mrs Mollie Goodman of Newberry. and several other relatives, and friends survive.

No funeral arrangements have been announced.
