Notes for THOMAS B ANTRIM:

Dr. Thomas Antrim, Physician and farmer, was born June 30 1814, in Clinton County, Ohio, and is the youngest of the four children of Thomas and Rachel (Jenkins) Antrim natives of Virginia, and of (Irish) and Welsh descent. Dr. Antrim left his native state when six years of age, came with his parents to Wayne County, Ind., and remained about sixteen years, then moved to Wabash County, and thence to this county in 1853, where he has since remained, and has a good farm of eighty acres. December 27 1838, he married Lucinda W. Massey, a native of this state, which union was favored with eight children -- Rebecca J., deceased; Rachel E., Mahlon F., deceased; William D., deceased; Milton F., James F., George B. and Sarah C. Dr. Antrim earliest and strongest predilection was for the practice of medicine. He did much reading in youth, and after marriage he applied himself thoroughly to the study of his chosen profession. He is truly a self-made man. He was formerly a Whig, having given his first vote for Henry Clay; afterward, he became identified with the Anti-slavery party, and was a conductor on the underground railroad. He is now an earnest Republican; was elected Justice of the Peace in 1882, and is the Recorder-elect of this county.

Notes for JAMES FARIS ANTRIM:

School teacher: Recorder of Jasper County and partner in Antrim and Dean Hardware store in Rensselaer, Ind. JAMES F. ANTRIM, a self-made, energetic young man, a son of Dr. Thomas Antrim, was born in this county April 17, 1857. He was reared upon a farm, but having a desire for books, he early sought after knowledge, and thus ascertained that by arduous study he was enabled to lift the veil of hidden mysteries and disclose truths to his inquiring mind. Close devotion and the exercise of his God given intelligence have made him the young man of fame that he is. He has attended the State Normal School at Terre Haute, the Normal School and the Business Institute at Valparaiso. He began teaching on a six month's license, and has since held two eighteen-months' and two-years licences, and is now regarded as one of Jasper County's most prominent teachers, having frequently assisted the County Superintendent in holding his examinations He has been, and is now, a reporter for several newspapers and periodicals. Thus has our subject been favored in overcoming obstacles to his onward course of progression, which leads men from the farm to become the first in the ranks of all professions. Mr. Antrim is an earnest, working Republican as well as an upright, industrious, economical young gentleman, and one of the brightest promise. In addition to the amount expended on his education, he has purchased forty acres of land in Gillam Township, this county.
