He married Agnes Leger November 06, 1887 in Worcester, MA, daughter of Louis Leger and Marie Breault. She was born December 17, 1870 in St John, New Brunswick, Canada, and died November 14, 1944 in 636 Plantation Street, Worcester, MA.

Notes for Romain Cormier:

Aunt Dot remembers her grandmother Cormier, Agnes. She was just like our grandmother, very pleasant and happy and got up very early every day and baked bread and pies.

Aunt Dot remembers sleeping on the front porch in their house in Worcester and her Grandmother waking up every day at 5AM to bake. Aunt Dot slept on the part of the porch outside the kitchen window and would get up early and wave to her Grandmother in the kitchen and then go back to sleep. She has very fond memories of her Grandmother, who also spoke and sang in French.

One Day Romain (Her Grandfather) had fallen asleep in the living room and when he woke up it was dark, and he thought he had gone blind. He was screaming Agnes! Agnes! I am blind! in his french accent.

There were a very devout Catholic family. Romain was a train engineer, mild mannered, and very religious. He died when Aunt Dot was 10.

- 158 vi. Adele Cormier, born June 30, 1897; died May 15, 1966 in California.

Notes for Adele Cormier:

Adele was very religious and a 3rd order Carmelite. She hooked up with a stage actress named Mattie Bussetti Guarnieri. She took Dell to New York to live with her. Aunt Dell loved her family and did not want to leave them. Mattie was very manipulative and told Dell that if she moved with her she would go back to the church, which she never did. Dells family missed her very much and tried to get her away from Mattie, to no avail. There were yearly visits when Mattie and Dell lived in New York and Mattie wasn't happy about this, so she took Dell and moved to California in 1944. Aunt Dell then did not get to visit her family again until 1953. she died at the age of 66 in 1962. Mattie kept Dell right under her thumb. Aunt Dot went out to California in 1954 when she was 28 and visited Mattie and Dell. She said Mattie was very controlling and always had to have HER way. They were watching Liberace on the TV and Aunt Dot told Mattie she did not care for Liberace as a person, you know, and she said Mattie got very upset and started clutching her heart and went out on the porch and said she was having an episode or something over that. She was very dramatic and manipulative. She said the day Dell left for California with Mattie Dells' mother died. Our grandmother was very close to Aunt Dell and they knew their mother was dying, and Aunt Dell asked Grandmom what should she do because they already had their tickets to California, etc., and Grandmom said, Dell, you do whatever you have to do. Dell left the day her mother died. I'm sure she had to be very upset about this and it further illustrates Mattie's willingness to serve herself, to take Dell away the day her mother died.
