Generation No. 2

2. CHARLES² AUSTIN(*WILLIAM*¹) was born 1726 in Ireland, and died 1771 in Wake Co., NC. He married MARY Abt. 1745 in Ireland. She was born Abt. 1730 in England, and died Abt. 1795 in Wake Co., NC.

IMMIGRATION-FAMILY HISTORY: "Some Descendants of William and Ruth Austin of North Carolina and Virginia" by Boyd Lamar Austin, Jr., Stewart R. Austin, and David E. Sims, Jr., published by Austins of America Genealogical Society, August 1990. Editor's Note: The information received from the authors of this article expands considerably on the article "The Austin Family of Stanly and Union Counties of North Carolina" by D. Nance August 1987.

Charles and Mary came to America prior to the Revolutionary War with their seven children. They brought their family bible with them and it was still in the Austin family in 1929. After Charles died about 1771, Mary married a Mr. Hood, and they had a son, Charles Austin Hood.

William and Ruth, Charles' parents, came from Ireland to Southampton County, Virginia. William died about 1770, so their immigration took place prior to that date. It is presumed that Charles and Mary did not come to America at the same time as William and Ruth, but at a later date. Charles' nephew, Bryant (son of John) had located in the Hillsborough District of Wake County, North Carolina, and that is where Charles and Mary settled.

FAMILY HISTORY: Notes of Janet Austin Curtis, AFAOA genealogist, in possession of AFAOA. In addition to other-wise cited printed sources, she lists the contributions of: Mrs. Bonnie Austin Petteway of Charlotte, NC; Mrs. Fred D. Austin of Charlotte, NC; Mrs. R.W. Grey of Livonia, MI (1963)

Tradition in the Charles Austin, Jr. family states that he was born in Virginia and orphaned at 15 (1771) at which time he ran away or at least left home and went to Wake Co., NC. This is the basis for the death date for Charles, Sr. " In the old Family Bible, which was supposed to have belonged originally to the first Charles, it is stated that the family came from Ireland. However, Inez Austin Bemis stated that the family was English, which is certainly possible, since England ruled Ireland for some six hundred years, and a great portion of the population was, indeed, English. Inez was also supposed to have the Bible in her possession at the time of her death, but I never saw it even though I lived with her off and on for many years. At her death in 1944 it was probably taken by her brother, James Madison Austin, or her sister, Winnie Austin Carpenter. No one knows where it is now." - D. Nance

BIBLE: "JIMMY, An Austin Chronicle" by his mother Elizabeth Reid Austin, 1993. 118 Newman St. , Greenville, SC 29601. In possession of the AFAOA Southern genealogist. "the old Bible Charles Austin brought to this country...is in the possession of descendants of Bonnie Austin Petteway, wife of Dr. George W. Petteway. Mrs. Petteway and Mrs. Fred D. Austin published research on the Austin and Little families in "The Monroe Enquirer", Monroe, NC under the auspices of the John Foster Chapter, DAR, in the late 1950's." (Feb 1959?)

Notes for MARY:

FAMILY HISTORY: After Charles died about 1778, Mary married a Mr. Hood, and they had a son, Charles Austin Hood. (Some historians believe that Mary was pregnant with Charles' son at the time of her marriage to Mr. Hood. This was not an uncommon occurrence). The birth, marriage and death of Charles Austin Hood was recorded in the family Bible, brought to this country by the first Charles. The Bible was in the possession of Inez Austin Bemis of Palm Springs, FL., but upon her death in August, 1944, it disappeared. Notes that were copies of portions of that Bible were found among her papers.

- viii. SARAH AUSTIN, b. 03 Sep 1766.

3. JOHN² AUSTIN(WILLIAM¹) was born 1727, and died in NC.

Notes for JOHN AUSTIN:

FAMILY HISTORY: John was a brother to Charles Austin from information contained in Charles Austin's family Bible. It is unknown if John settled with his father in Virginia or if he went to North Carolina prior to 1770. Later we find Michael and Richard, two of his sons, in the Richardson Creek, North Carolina area. Land grant records show that sons John, Michael and Richard, received land in the Richardson Creek area.

CENSUS: 1790 NC, Anson, Fayette Dist. Numbers stand for: males over 16, males under 16, and females. John Austin 3-1-1; John Austin 3-0-0; John Austin 1-0-0. There is also a Michael 1-2-4. This implies that this John Austin is still alive in 1790, and in fact that there is one more John than accounted for in this database. Research is needed.

CHILDREN: Some confusion exists as to whether John or Richard was the father of the children that are assigned to John . Jane Austin Edwards says that John is the father of these children. The dispute concerning the proper lineage is in the ambiguity of the notes that are quoted from Charles' family bible, where Charles describes Bryant, Michael and Richard (known to be brothers) as his nephews. Charles does not identify the father, so it is open to question. D. Nance, in his article "The Austin Family of Stanly and Union Counties in North Carolina" (published in 'Austins of America' in August 1987) lists Richard as the father, and since the article " Some Descendants of William and Ruth Austin of North Carolina and Virginia" published in 'Austins of America' in August, 1990, follows D. Nance's article, it also lists Richard.

Liz Austin Carlin, Austin Families Assn genealogist, has placed the children with John. Primarily because John appears in the records of Anson Co., but she has not found any record of John's brother Richard.

James Allen Austin was born in Ireland on March 10, 1764, and came to this country with his parents (Charles and Mary). He married Fanny (Frances)

Snipes and settled on Richardson Creek near the old Nance Mill. James is buried beside his wife and grandson Clement Nance near the old homestead. James and Fanny reared ten children.

IMMIGRATION-MARRIAGE-CHILD: From "County of Anson, North Carolina" published by Anson County Heritage, NC., 1995, page 73, article no.

21 'Austin History': "Before the war (Revolution), Irish -born James Austin (1764-1849) came to America with his parents, Charles and Mary, and their several children. James married Fanny Snipes of Wake County. They moved to Anson County and settled on Richardson Creek. Their second child was Berry (1796- ?) who was the father of Mary A. Austin (1823 - 1885). Mary A. married Andrew Moore (1820 - 1880), son of Elijah and Jane Simpson Moore."

1790 census living in Wake Co., NC, married, no children. 1801 bought property in Anson Co., NC from Michael Austin.

James Allen and his wife, Frances (Fanny) moved from Wake County to Anson County before 1800.

He and Fanny, along with Clement Nance, a grandson, are buried near the old Nance Mill, Richardson Creek, North Carolina in the (now overgrown) Reddin Staton Cemetery. The family is listed on the Anson County census of 1800. ESTATES: James Allen Austin's estate was settled during the January Term of Court, Union Co., NC, 1850, Book 'B' pg. 57. His son-in-law, Henry Baucom, administrator. Fanny Snipes Austin's estate was settled Jan. 3, 1852 (Book 'C' pg. 259). 7. BRYANT AUSTIN³ SR. (JOHN²AUSTIN, WILLIAM¹) was born Abt. 1751 in Ireland, and died Aft. 1800 in Stanly Co., NC. He married MISS OSBOURNE Abt. 1770 in Stanley Co., NC. She was born Abt. 1752 in Ireland, and died in Stanly Co., NC.

Notes for BRYANT AUSTIN SR.:

MARRIAGE-REVOLUTION: "The Austin Family of Stanly and Union Counties of North Carolina" by D. Nance, published in "Austins of America" August 1987, page 232. Bryant Austin and Miss Osborn settled on Rocky River, in what is now Stanly County, NC., just above the Coble Mill. He lived there during the Revolutionary War and was among the regulators who Governor Tryon refused to pardon. Bryant fled from Hillsboro and settled in the wilds of Stanly (then Anson) County. Tryon's officers went to his home to arrest him, but he offered them a barrel of brandy if they would leave and say nothing about him. They went on their way with the barrel in their cart, and left him to be the ancestor of a large and influential family.

FAMILY HISTORY: Gayle B. Austin, 3838 Margaret Wallace Road, Matthews, North Carolina, 28105 has written a history of Bryant and it is in the Historical Society, Wadesboro, NC.

REVOLUTION: www.britannica.com Website of the Encyclopedia Britannica: Governor Tryon was the appointed Governor of North Carolina, and in 1771 was advised by the governor's council to call out the militia and march against the rebel farmers called "Regulators". Tryon ordered General Hugh Wadell to approach Hillsborough (northwest of Raleigh in today's Orange County) by way of Salisbury (north of Charlotte, in Rowan County) but Wadell's force of 284 men was repulsed by a large body of Regulators (I'm sure that Bryant was in this group). Intending to go to Wadell's aid, Tryon and his force of 1000 men left Hillsborough on May 11, 1771, and on the way rested at Alamance Creek (Alamance County is just east of Greensboro, NC). Just five miles away was the army of the Regulators, 2000 strong. The battle of Alamance began on May 16, after the Regulators rejected Tryon's demand that they disperse peacefully. The Regulators, ill equipped, were no match for Tryon's militia, and were defeated. Tryon took 15 prisoners, seven of whom were executed later. Many regulators escaped and moved on to other frontier areas of North Carolina and beyond; those who stayed were offered pardons in exchange for pledging an oath of allegiance to the royal government.

MILITARY: Bryant was a regulator prior to the Revolution and had some part in the Battle of Alamance in 1771. A warrant was issued for his arrest under the authority of the royal governor, and he fled to the wilds of Stanly County. When the officers finally found him, Bryant bribed them with a barrel of brandy, and he was left in peace. Other Austins were active in the Revolution, including Bryant's brother, John, and Charles' and Mary's son, John.

Notes for JOHN AUSTIN:

REVOLUTION-LAND: "The Austin Family of Stanly and Union Counties of North Carolina" by D. Nance, published in "Austins of America", August 1987, page 232. John was also a member of the Regulators and there was a warrant issued for his arrest. Tryon's officers traced him from Hillsboro to Salisbury where he, with a Mr. Mills, was arrested and compelled to take the oath of allegiance. He then came to what is now Union County and settled between Rocky River and Richardson Creek. He is known to have only one child, John, Jr. John received a land grant #4344 in October, 1783 for land on the South side of Rocky River.

Settled on Richardson Creek near his brother, Richard. They both sold their land and went west about 1820. Received land under Grant 5138 on the North side of Richardson Creek, July 10, 1797.

FAMILY HISTORY: Notes of Janet Austin Curtis, AFAOA genealogist, in possession of AFAOA. In addition to other-wise cited printed sources, she lists the contributions of: Mrs. Bonnie Austin Petteway of Charlotte, NC; Mrs. Fred D. Austin of Charlotte, NC; Mrs. R.W. Grey of Livonia, MI (1963). Anson County census 1790-1800 shows 6 sons, 3 daughters. Might be the Michael Austin of Fayette County, Georgia, listed in the list of Revolutionary soldiers in the 1827 Land Lottery.

CENSUS: 1790 and 1800 NC, Anson County, Fayette District; 1810 SC, Chesterfield, p 255; 1820 GA, Gwinnett; 1830 GA, Campbell (obsolete-now Fulton) p 201.

LAND: 1827 Georgia Land Lottery: resided Fayette County, Wests District. Revolutionary War service.

1. Dated 26 May 1798 and proved later in Oct 1805, "Michail" Austin sold 100 acres (L&M-12, Anson NC) on the east side of Richardson's Creek to Benjamin Thomas. Originally granted to Michael on 10 Jul 1797, this land adjoined and was situated to the south east of Benjamin Thomas's land. Michael Austin moved to Chester County SC. There, he lived near David, the son of Benjamin Thomas. Interestingly, there is a Gideon Austin also living in SC near David Thomas and Michael Austin. From the ages indicated in the census, Gideon is possibly the son of Michael Austin.

2. On 11 Apr 1811, Gideon Austin and William Brown of Chester County SC sold 8 acres (P-751, Chester SC) on Susey Boles Creek to Silas Kolb. The land was part of 350 acres granted to Catherine Brown on 23 Jan 1773. Witnesses were John Smith and Ezekiel Thomas. I believe this was David's brother Ezekiel. However, in Chester County SC, David lived on a branch of Carter's Brach of Susey Boles Creek. Nearby was neighbor Jeremiah Thomas. From deeds it is known that Jeremiah was the son of Jonathan Thomas. Interestingly, our David's brother named Ezekiel also had a son named Jonathan. Was Ezekiel listed in South Carolina Records the son of Jeremiah? And who were these Jonathan Thomas's of South Carolina?

3. On 10 Jul 1815, Gideon Austin sold his interest in a piece of land to Noble Brown. The deed (P-193, Chester SC) reads: " ... a certain piece or dividend of land left to my beloved wife Ann by her father James Brown as may be seen by reference to his Last Will and Testament recorded at Chesterville"

Notes for JOHN CULPEPPER AUSTIN:

Also Known as Pap. Homesteaded 160 Acres in McNairy Co. 1852 (Family History). I have no evidence for this.

Family history (verbal) says he came from Rome Georgia (Floyd County). If so he wasn't there long as he was mentioned in the 1850 GA census of Paulding County Georgia and in the McNairy County TN census of 1860.

I have a copy of a deed conveying 80 acres of land on December 24, 1859 to John Austin which was situated in Chewalla, TN. On the property was a Steam (sic) saw and grist mill. This land was "knocked" off at auction to settle a debt of the previous owners - A B Hamner, W W Little and also G W Graham of $1263 plus court costs of $14.19. John "stole" this good land for the princely sum of $825. Sheriff was W D Jopling. Clerk was Joseph Walker.

CENSUS: 1830 GA, Campbell (obsolete-now Fulton) p 201; 1834 GA Cobb Co., 5 people; probably 1840 GA, Paulding Co., p 110; 1850 GA, Paulding, Dist 950, p 63.

BIRTHDATE-SPOUSE-CHILDREN: 1850 GA, Paulding, Dist 950, p 63.

6. MARRIAGE: From the 1850 census it appears that Charlotte and Pleasant were recently married and that she was a widow with two children: Emilene Laciter 12 and John Newman 10. In 1860, John is called John Lassiter. This event is only conjecture from the census. It appears also that the William Austin 2 yr., is most likely a grandson of Pleasant, s/o William who lives next door.
