15. FREDERICK CHARLES⁴ BAKER I (ALMA [NMN]³ BATES, FREDERIC [NMN]², WILLIAM¹) was born 19 May 1915 in Sharon, [Mercer] Pa, and died 25 Mar 1998 in Youngstown, [Mahoning] Oh. He married MILDRED [NMN] WILSON 08 Oct 1938 in Youngstown, [Mahoning] Ohio USA, daughter of CHARLES WILSON and RUTH ALTER. She was born 07 Oct 1915 in Wilkinsburg, [Allegheny] Pa, and died 29 Mar 1993 in Hubbard, [Trumbull] Ohio USA.

Notes for FREDERICK CHARLES BAKER I:

Birth Certificate spelling "Frederic".

He worked at Republic Rubber 1934 until May 1941. Then for United Engineering and Foundry, Youngstown, Ohio, for 36 years, May 2 1941 to July 31, 1977, Retired at the age of 62.

He also worked various part time jobs, in accounting and as a motion picture projectionist.

Fred held many offices. He was Sec-Treasurer of the UE&F social and athletic association for 10 years, financial secretary of the union for 17 years, and president of the Wean retirees from 1978 to 1982.

He also was an avid golfer, bowler, and postage stamp collector.

Frederick is responsible for all of this family tree data. He started gathering the information in the 1950's. He received input from Christopher Baker starting in 1955, until Christopher's death in 1960, and from Jane Hallam, Birmingham, England, in 1995.

In 1980, James Wilson of Miami, Florida, helped put the Wilson family together. Jim Wilson is the son of Mildred Baker's half brother.

In his youth, Frederick was a Boy Scout, but was not high up as most scouts were. Fred had lessons to learn how to play the piano and also the banjo. Fred admitted he was not much as a musician. He was able to teach banjo, guitar, and Hawaiian guitar while still attending high school. He played banjo in a dance band for a short time in the early thirties.

During that period, he was enrolled in a school of elocution and spent many hours of training, memorizing and acting in children's plays.

This taught him never to have stage fright. His teacher, Maude Freegard, said "never let the audience know you've made a mistake, keep going."

In high school, he sang in the East High School Glee Club, and then in the boys choir of the Baptist Church. He tried many churches, going with his pals for six month periods until he settled on the Baptist Church, where he stayed until he married. He transferred to his wife's church (see marriage notes) which was one of the churches he attended for a six month period with one of his pals.

He had not graduated from high school, and emerging out of the Great Depression, accepted a job opening at Republic Rubber Company, where other family members worked. He attended night school for many years training to be a machinist. His specialty led to gear cutting.
