

Descendants of Captain William Barron

Generation No. 1

1. Captain William² Barron (James¹) was born 1740, and died Abt. 1780 in Richmond County, Georgia. He married Prudence Davis Abt. 1760. She was born Abt. 1742, and died 1796 in Warren County, Georgia.

Notes for Prudence Davis:

Deed Book QQ, p. 156] Prudence BARRON, late of Wilkes County, decd., did by her last will & testament appoint James WILLIS & Samuel BARRON, exors. WILLIS & BARRON made a sale of the personal estate of Prudence BARRON & now about to make sale of the real estate. We the undersigned indemnify the exors. for the sale already made & about to be made, 19 October 1796. (signed) Samuel BARRON for Nancy BARRON, Jacob GARRARD, John (X) SMITH, Polley BARRON. Test: R. B. WASHINGTON, A. LIPHAM, J.P. Rec 17 March 1798.

[Source: Wilkes County, Georgia, Deed Books A-VV, 1784-1806, by Michal Martin Farmer, 1996, p. 529].

Note that all of the individuals who signed off to sell Prudence Barron's personal and real estate have the surname of Barron, with the exception of Jacob Garrard (a proven son-in-law of Prudence) and John Smith (believed to be a son-in-law). The above abstracted item appears in Wilkes County, GA, deed records. Prudence Barron's will is lost.

In addition, John Smith bought Prudence Barron's land two years later:

[Deed Book RR, p. 293] 9 January 1798, Samuel BARRON to John SMITH, both of Wilkes County, for $200, 100 acres, part of tract granted to Prudence BARRON on Little River waters, on N. side of said land, lying in an exact square, adj. N. by MILLS & PORTER, E. by PORTER, S. & S.W. by BROOKS, W. by LIPHAM. (signed) Samuel BARRON. Wit: Wm. TRIPLETT, A. LIPHAM, J.P. Rec. 18 July 1799.

Notes for Sarah Hollingsworth Martin:

"IN MEMORIUM

Mrs. Sarah H. Barron was the daughter of John Martin who moved from North Carolina and settled in the Lawrens (sic) district where Mrs. Barron was born. Her parents moved thence to Tennessee and afterward to Alabama. From Alabama, the next move was to Pike Co., GA., settling near where Griffin was afterward located. Here sister Barron grew to womanhood and there she was united in marriage with James Barron, settling at his home near Jones Mills. Three children, Thomas, James and Mary Ann were born to her. After the death of her husband in 1856, she remained upon the old homestead, reared her children and directed them in the way they should go.

The War coming on, her boys were summoned to the tented field to fight for their country. This left her almost alone but, by industry and well directed energy, she made a support and clothed her boys in the service.

The War closing, her two sons returned home, married and settled to themselves. Her daughter marrying, remained at the old home for six or eight years when she moved to Texas with her husband and James, also, moving to Texas. Mrs. Barron rented out her farm and cast her lot in Texas with her daughter. Here she remained for fourteen years. In the meantime her other son (Thomas) sold out in Meriwether, moved to Texas, remained for three or four years, became dissatisfied and returned to his old county. Mrs. Barron returned with him and spent her last days in the community in which she had so long resided.

Mrs. Barron was baptized into the fellowship of the Baptist Church at Friendship in July 1850. In all her Christian life we never knew her to take any misguided steps. She always seemed to have her heart and mind set upon what God had promised his children in the end.

As a wife she was a helpmeet indeed. As a mother she was all that her children could ask. While she was indulgent and kind, her government was firm and unbending. As a neighbor she was always ready to grant any reasonable favor. The night was never too dark nor the weather too inclement for her not to respond to the call of an afflicted neighbor. A cordial welcome always awaited her coming. The children of the entire neighborhood loved her for her kindness to them. Her charity knew no bounds as long as she was able to respond to the promptings of her great heart.

Aunt Sally, as she was familiarly known to all, is gone from our midst and her form reposes beside that of her husband. She was ready, extending her hand to those around her dying couch, she bade them farewell and gently breathed out her last. Her last words bore testimony that God is faithful in his promise that he will never leave nor forsake us.
Ye fleeting charms of earth, farewell. Your springs of joy are dry,
My soul now seeks a better home, a brighter world on high.

A. J. Cooper"

Copied in June 1980 by Thomas W. Barron at the Sesquicentennial of the Enon Primitive Baptist Church, Ga, GA. The church was founded 19 June 1830 and James Barron attended this meeting and was one of the first members.

Burial: Rocksprings Cemetery, Nacogdoches County, Texas

Notes for Emily Jefferson Thrash:

Some sources claim that Emily Jefferson Thrash Barron died in 1885. This information is totally inaccurate as her youngest child was born in 1887. The 1920 census of Nacogdoches County, Texas also shows her living with her daughter, Sallie, and son-in-law, Isaac David Parmley. [Emily was my great grandmother and she died on February 11, 1935 and is buried next to my great grandfather in the Rocksprings Cemetery in Nacogdoches County, Texas--jb] An earlier census in 1900 shows Emily Jefferson Thrash Barron living with her husband, James Turman, and their two youngest children.

1900 Nacogdoches County Census:
