Notes for WILLIAM MIDDLETON:

From: Rlkuehl@aol.com <Rlkuehl@aol.com>

The Sam and William you found in 1810 were brothers. They moved from CT together. I have quite a bit of documentation on that. Sometime after 1820

Samuel moved from Washington Co. to Warren Co. (Warren was part of Washington until 1813. William was found in the 1850 Washington County, NY., census aged 83 and living with his son Lewis and family.

There was an article in the Boston Transcript, 3-20-1935, #9927 It stated that " there lived in Hartford, Washington, Co. , NY. William & Samuel Middleton, who , as I was told many years ago by an aged daughter of Samuel, were brothers." The 1810 & 1820 Washington Co. census bear this out. Both William & Samuel are listed on the same page.

I Franklin K. Bennett found William Middleton's grave stone today 6/20/1999 in the East Hartford cemetery. His stone was laying on the ground, and all that was visable of his name was "eton" the rest was grown over with sod (dirt & grass) I uncovered the stone and took photographs of it. The stone itself is still in excellent condition with rather large letters & numbers. The stone has the following written on it:

In Memory of William Middleton
Who Died
March 15, 1851
In the 84 year
of his age
Dust to dust, ashes to ashes

William was probably the son of William and Abigail.

William was found in the 1850 Washington Co., NY census aged 83 and living with his son Lewis and family.

There was an article in the Boston Transcript, 3-20-1935, #9927. It stated that "there lived in Hartford, Washington Co., NY, William and Samuel Middleton, who, as I was told many years ago by an aged daughter of Samuel, were brothers." The 1810 and 1820 Washington Co. census bear this out, both a William and a Samuel were listed on the same page.

William and his wife, Anna are buried in the East Hartford Cemetery.

More About WILLIAM MIDDLETON:

Burial: 1851, East Hartford Cemetery, E. Hartford, NY.

Notes for ANNA ----?:

There is a book entitled "Story of Hartford" in that book it lists the different generations of William Middleton, but one error that I found is William's wife. They show her name as "Anne", however her cemetery records and on her grave stone which I saw myself today, 6/20/1999 state that her name was "Anna". She is buried next to William Middleton, and her stone although still standing has suffered from the elements & is difficult to read. I took photographs of her stone. This cemetery in east Hartford, on Blood Street is no longer being maintained, the grass and brush are taking the cemetery over. What a shame that we should stand by and let the final resting place of our early settlers go slowly but surely back into nature to be forgotten forever. About half the stones in this cemetery are already down on the ground, and being consumed by mother earth. The following is written on Anna's stone:

Anna wife of William
Middleton died Feb. 10, 1829
In the 56th year of her age
Stop render now as you pass by
As you are now so once was I.

3. SAMUEL<sup>2</sup> MIDDLETON (WILLIAM<sup>1</sup>) was born 1769 in New London , Connecticut., and died July 04, 1838 in Warrensburg, Warren Co. NY.. He married NANCY (ANNE) BURROWS WFT Est. 1794-1820 in New London, CT., daughter of ELISHA BURROWS and SARAH FISH. She was born 1781 in Groton, New London, CT, and died April 22, 1849 in Warrensburgh, NY.

Notes for SAMUEL MIDDLETON:

The Sam and William you found in 1810 were brothers. They moved from CT together. I have quite a bit of documentation on that. Sometime after 1820 Samuel moved from Washington Co. to Warren Co. (Warren was part of Washington until 1813)

Both Samuel and William where living in Hartford, NY, then Samuel moved to Warrensburg, NY with his family. "Burrows Family" p.1297;located in New London Public Library

Samuel is buried in Middleton Cemetery in Warrensburg,NY

Much of the information concerning the descendants of Samuel and Nancy "Anne" was found in the "Burrows Family" mentioned above.

Samuel is said to have moved to Washington Co, NY along with his brother, William, between 1800 (when they were both listed in the New London, CT census) and 1810 (when they were found in the Washington Co, NY census). They both lived there until somewhere between 1820 and 1830 when Samuel is found in the Warren Co., NY census. Samuel died in Warren Co., and William died in Washington Co.

Warren was a part of Washington Co., until 1813.

There was also a Benjamin(1814), Barnet Packer(1820), and Nathaniel(1810) Middleton in Warren Co. in 1859. The only discrepancy is that in the 1880 Warren Co, NY census it states that Nathaniel's parents were born in Ct. That is where Samuel was born so that makes it a good assumption that Nathaniel is the son of Samuel. But, according to the same 1880 Warren Co., NY census the parents of Barnett and William were born in NY. But FOR THE TIME BEING I am listing these men as sons of Samuel (William (1)).They were all born in N.Y. and lived in Warren Co., and AS FAR AS I KNOW Samuel was the only Middleton to move to Warren Co.

She was born December 26, 1783, and died August 20, 1848.

Notes for GEORGE MIDDLETON:

In the 3/20/1935 Boston Transcript, #9927 it was stated that George Middleton,wrote an article entitled "Battle of Groton Heights".

The death notice mentioned above said "Major George Middleton, Syracuse, NY. Jan. 19, 1861 at 91. He was claimed to be the senior member of the Masonic fraternity in the United States. It is said that the Major was present at the Fort Griswold massacre in Connecticut, when Col. Ledyard and most of his garrison were massacred in cold blood, after their surrender to the British, under the command of the traitor Arnold."

George and his family first lived in New London Co. moving to Windham Co. between 1790 and 1800. By 1840, George was found in the 1840 Wayne Co., NY census. He lived there until sometime after 1856, when he moved to Syracuse in Onandago Co. where he died in 1861. While living in Newark, Wayne Co. he served as mayor. George, his wife, Mary, their children; George H. Ann Telford, Abby Waldo and Mary Tracy are all buried in the Willow Ave. Cemetery in Newark, Wayne Co. NY. as are many other members of this family.

In the 1850 census of New London Co, CT, there was an eight year old male, Benjamin F. Middleton, living with the Gilberts. He was born in NY. He was probably a child of one of Harriets brothers.

There is a discrepancy about Harriet and Horace's wedding date. The LDS IGI states they were married on 2-17-1838 in Old Lyme. The film (002075) of New London vital statistics shows them being married on 8-8-1833. The 1850 New London Census seems to backup the 1833 date because the ages of the children show they were married long before 1838.

There were four children of Orlando and Amelia Middleton's baptised on 6-18-1847 by Rev. Henry Chase of New York, New York. I found three of these children, Nathaniel,Orlando, and Catherine, on the 1850 NY City, W4 p.82

On March 10, 1853, Orlando and Amelia obtained a divorce in NYC.

By the 1860 census, Orlando had remarried and was living back in New London. None of the four children from his marriage to Amelia were enumerated with him. What happened to the four children?

In the 1890 Special Veteran's Census, there is a "Orlander F. Middleton"

In the 1900 NY,NY census, Orlando & Lidia were residing with two of their three were still living.

Orlando must have died between 1902, which was the last time he was listed in

Notes for GEORGE MIDDLETON:

There is an article written in the Adirondack Journal on August 10, 2002, page 5, concerning a George D.
Middleton who was born c 1855. I don't have any idea if this George Middleton is the same as the one George Middleton listed here. However the story is to good to be passed over. So here it is.

100 years ago, Summer, 1902.

George D. Middleton, 45, of Pottersville, who shot and killed his wife at that place on June 20, 1901, paid the full penalty for his crime with his life, which ended July 29, 1902 in the electric chair at Clinton Prison, Dannemora. He maintained his innocence of the crime to the end, claiming to have no recollection of shooting his wife. He said he loved her and could not understand how he could have killed her.

He ate a good breakfast consisting of potatoes, eggs, bread and butter and coffee before his end. It was just one minute and 24 seconds from the moment Middleton seated himself in the chair that Dr. Ransom pronounced him dead. At the autopsy the brain showed no signs of insanity.

On Williams death certificate, it said he was the son of John and Sophie. There are many circumstances that tie William to New London Co. He returned there for the death of his daughter and D.B. Middleton is listed on the death certificate as "next of Kin". He also was in New London for the 1860 census. (He was also shown living with John & Sophia in Brooklyn in 1860). In this 1860 census John says he was born in CT. These are some of the things that caused me to call John a son of William (1) and Lucy. For many years William was the president of Fulton Fish Market in Brooklyn. In the 1900 Brooklyn census, Elizabeth was a widow living with her children, Sarah, Floyd D. and Louise, all of whom were single. She states that she had borne nine children, six of whom were alive in 1900.

In the 1910 Brooklyn City Directory, Elizabeth "wid of Wm" was living with her daughter, Sarah, at 29 Cambridge Place. When I looked in the 1910 Brooklyn census, I could not locate this family.

1935 in her home on top of Lamb Hill, Bolton, Warren County, NY.. She married LEVI PRATT Abt. 1861, son of JEDEDIAH PRATT and RUTH LAMB. He was born August 1830 in Bolton, Warren County, NY., and died February 03, 1910 in his home on Lamb Hill, Bolton, Warren County, NY..

Notes for LYDIA SMITH:

Lydia (Smith) Pratt lived at the top of Lamb Hill on the left. The house sat back off the road about 100 yards and was still standing in 1980. The windows were all gone and the barn had fallen in. One time while I was hunting up there I stopped by the house and could see were they had buried some of their trash, kicking around the loose dirt I uncovered an old toy metal doll carriage about 6 or 7 inches long, with dry rotted white rubber wheels, and part of the hood on the little carriage was rusted away. You couldn't help but wonder which one of our relations as a little girl had played with this little baby carriage. Lydia lived to be 95 years of age, and in fact it was told to me by my mother Ethel Bennett that Lydia was up on top of the mountain behind her house picking blueberries when she was 95 years old. That mountain behind the house was referred to as Lydia's mountain. She was laid to rest in the Warrensburg Cemetery.

More About LYDIA SMITH:

Burial: 1935, Main Warrensburg Cemetery, on Hudson St. Warrensburg, NY.

Notes for LEVI PRATT:

Levi Pratt lost one son in 1854, and his wife and other three children all died in 1860. The three children all died within a few days of each other in December of 1860. In a book titled "Turn-of-the-century Scrapbook" By: William Preston Gates there is a newspaper obituary for Levi Pratt that states the following: Levi Pratt died thursday night at his home on Lamb Hill, Bolton, in the eightieth year of his age. He is survived by a widow, five sons and three daughters - Orlen, Bert, Judd and Fred Pratt, of Bolton, and Dennis of knowlhurst ; Mrs. Clarence Putney, of Bolton ; Mrs William Ainsworth, of Warrensburg, and Mrs. Ruth Hill, of Caldwell. The funeral was held tuesday at the Lamb schoolhouse at 2 P.M. , the pastor of the Bolton Landing Baptist church officiating. Interment in Green cemetery.

I, Frank Bennett went to the Bolton Town Hall in Bolton to see if they could tell me where Green cemetery was located. I have never heard or seen a cemetery by that name in this region. They pulled out a 3x5 index card that was from the same news article and it said Green cemetery. Then I had them look up his death certificate, and according to the death certificate he is buried in the Lamb Hill cemetery. Also of interest was that the Bolton town clerks could not find a cemetery by the name of Green cemetery in the township of Bolton. I know one of his daughters is buried in the Lamb Hill cemetery & her stone is still standing. I would assume that his grave is marked by one of the many field stone markers near her grave. The death certificate states he was 79 years and 7 months of age at the time of his departure. It also states he died of Bronchitis, & that his father & mother where Jedediah Pratt & Ruth Lamb.

In the 1880 census of Kings Co, NY, Nellie and her two children were living with her parents. There was no mention of the whereabouts of Henry. But Henry A. Middleton, clerk living on 296 9th was listed in the Brooklyn City Directory. But Nellie and Henry did have Henry in 1882 according to the Brooklyn birth records.

By the time the 1892 city directory came out, Nellie was listed as the "widow of Henry".

In the 1900 Brooklyn census Nellie was shown as being born in March 1860 (40yrs old) and living alone. Was this the same Nellie? If this is the same "Cousin Nellie" as mentioned in Marjorie Leighton's baby book, then she was still alive in 1914, when Marjorie was born.

The family shown here were found in the Kings Co. 1900 and 1910 census. I have no proof yet that this John is for sure the son of George W and Anna, except the birth dates and birthplaces are the same.

!BIRTH-DEATH:Church Archive Records

I am not sure of the whereabouts of this person. But in the Kings Co, NY 1910 census there is a listing for a John Middleton, born 1862 in N.Y. married to an Evelyn. They have a 17 year old son named Cornelius. I have no proof this is the correct John, but his mother's name was Cornelia, so this could be a connection. I can't find this family in either 1900 or 1920. I am adding this information now, and can change at a later date if proof is found one way or the other.

She was born July 13, 1871 in Stony Creek N.Y., and died August 31, 1892 in Stony Creek N.Y..

Notes for FREDERICK B. MIDDLETON:

Frederick B. Middleton married Edith Van Dusen, daughter of Zina Van Dusen. They had a son Franklin Fayette Middleton. When Franklin was about 4 or 5 years old, a second son was born Zina Middleton. Edith (Van Dusen) Middleton and her son Zina both died shortly after childbirth. That left Frederick B. Middleton the father, and his first born son Franklin Fayette Middleton. Shortly after the death of his wife and second son, Frederick B. Middleton, whom I am told was a heavy drinker, abandoned his son Franklin F. Middleton and left for parts unknown to any of his family. Frederick B. Middleton turned up at his sister's door one rainy night in Chicago years later with a friend. Both men were described as drunk and seeking shelter. This was the first time that his sister had heard or seen him since they lived in New York State. She told him he could stay, but his friend would have to go. Frederick B. Middleton and his friend both left and were never seen again. Years later his sister hired a private detective to try and find her brother Frederick, but they never found him. Meanwhile his son Franklin Fayette Middleton was taken in by his grandfather on his mother's side, Zina Van Dusen & his second wife Lottie (Goodnow) Van Dusen.

She was born July 01, 1890 in Caldwell N.Y., and died November 23, 1978 in Warrensburg, N.Y..

Notes for FRANKLIN FAYETTE MIDDLETON:

Franklin Fayette Middleton was taken in by his grandfather on his mother's side, Zina Van Dusen & Zina's second wife Lottie (Goodnow) Van Dusen. They only kept him a short while. Franklin Fayette Middleton told me that Zina approached him one day and said I'm sorry son but I can't even afford to put shoes on my own children's feet, so you are going to have to go to an orphanage. Franklin was sent to an orphanage down in Schenectady, NY. A short time later the orphanage was closed down due to the deplorable conditions that existed there. As a result any counties that had children in that orphanage, became responsible to house and feed them. Franklin F. Middleton was then taken to the Warren County home, also known as the Alms house, or poor house. A man named Lawrence Pratt b. May 1857, was called Captain Pratt because he was the river boss that ran logs down river to the mill. Each morning and evening he would stop by the Warren County Home with his team of horses, wagon and his crew of rivermen, to get water. One day he saw young Franklin Fayette Middleton swinging on a fence gate and went over to talk to him. Lawrence started making it a point to stop & talk with the boy each day. After discussing it with his wife Adeline (Cilley) Pratt, Lawrence Pratt stopped by the Warren County Home one morning and told the head person to have that boy ready when he came back through that evening. Lawrence and Adeline Pratt had decided to adopt Franklin Fayette Middleton and raise him as their own. So then Franklin Fayette Middleton, became Franklin Fayette Pratt.

He worked and lived at the house and farm he inherited from his Grandfather Jonathan and Father Alfred on Bolton Road.

Notes on Arthur J. Bennett:

He was a very hard working farmer and building laborer until the death of his wife Daisy. He worked for the well-to-do Bixbie's on the Lake and selling milk and other farm produce. He had an excellent reputation as a hard working man. Upon the death of his wife, he became an alcoholic and never returned to his former self. He had little if any love for his two children. This was especially true for his son Curtis whom as a boy he would put coal in his stocking at Christmas and thought it was hilarious. Curtis remembered only once him being generous after returning from the Army during World War II, he had a drink with him at a local bar and he asked if he could borrow some money, and his Father gave him ten dollars. The last few years of his life were spent with his daughter Marie and finally a Old Age Home/Farm near Warrensburg.

!BIRTH-MARRIAGE-DEATH:Personal Knowledge of Rusty Craig Kuehl, San Diego, CA

When Russell was only a year old, his mother died and his father took him back to Cambridge, Ohio. There the child was raised by his paternal grandparents, William and Maggie Craig, while his father returned to St. Louis where he was employed as a railroad conductor. In September 1924, Perry remarried and took Russell back to St. Louis to live with them, where he remained until adulthood.

As a young man searching for job opportunities, Russell moved to New York where he met Marjorie Leighton. She was the daughter of Harold Leighton (who had been born Harold Levey in Boston) and Bessie Middleton. Bessie was a descendant of colonists and patriots who came to America on the first Mayflower voyage. There they were married and by 1947 were back in Cambridge with three children.

The Craigs left Cambridge and between 1954 and 1957 they lived in California, Nebraska and New York.

In 1958, again residing in California and after being married almost 22 years, Russell and Marjorie obtained a divorce. Marjorie and the children remained in the San Diego area for many years, before the children moved to other states.

In 1969, Marjorie moved to Cedar Rapids, IA to be near her married daughter and grandchildren. She died there of lung cancer on November 2, 1972 and is buried in Bertram Cemetery outside of Cedar Rapids. She rests there alone, as her daughter and family all moved out of state in the ensuing years.

In March of 1973, suffering from cancer of the stomach and Hodgkins Disease, Russell took his own life. He was buried in St. Louis, in the Parkwood Cemetery beside his mother and father.

Notes for KENNETH KARL BENNETT:

Kenneth K. Bennett was a man with integrity, honesty, and was a man I am proud to call father. He was one of the hardest working men that I have ever known. Men who worked under him have told me he was tough but always fair to work for. In his younger days he told me that he worked on the farm, has stood barefoot in a fresh cow pod to keep his feet warm on a cold morning when chores had to be done. He cut ice blocks out of a lake with saws and put the blocks on a wagon where the blocks could be delivered to peoples homes for their ice boxes. He has cut wood and sold it. Painted and papered peoples homes. Then in 1938 he got a job at the Bus Garage for Warrensburg Central School. The garage was located in Pasco's barn with a dirt floor, and although it is gone now, it was in the same place were Jack Toney has his meat market today, in 1997. Back in those days the bus drivers wore uniforms. The uniform consisted of a hexagon shaped service cap with a bill on it, What I would call a waste jacket, tie, pants that were puffed out at the thigh and tight at the knee, with leather Leggings from just below the knee to the top of the shoes. Dad's bus was mainly blue with a red and white stripe that went all the way around the bus just under the windows. Then up by the front door was a big gold number 1. Needless to say there were lots of stories over the years of break downs, stuck in the mud stories, upset teachers, and mad parents when their kid was put off the bus and had to walk home for mis behaving. He fully retired from this job in 1972. He started work in 1938 for a wage of $12.00 a week and retired in 1972 at a wage of about $11,000.00 a year. Dad & Mom always had a large garden, as well as a chicken business. The chicken business was comprised of 6,000 baby chicks in the early spring that grew up and sold out by labor day each year. Plus Dad was a sales person for a garden tiller company. He used to demonstrate how good the tiller worked for folks by using his own tiller, and then if he made a sale he got a commission on that sale. He also used to till up other peoples gardens for a fee. Dad was a very inventive man, designed the first V shaped snow plow for a garden tiller that I had ever seen. Later he designed and built not only a single stage but also a double stage snow blower for the same tiller. I remember a representative of that tiller company came up to see Dad one time, and while he was up here he took note of these accessories that my Dad had built, wouldn't you know these items were offered as accessories on those tillers the following year, But Dad never got any credit or money for his ideas at all. Dad was an excellent woodsman, loved the sport of hunting and fishing. I've sat and listened to many a hunting and fishing story. Dad used to have a British 303 rifle years back that he hunted deer with, it had 16 notches in the forearm for bucks he had taken. He later owned two more deer rifles, one was a 300 automatic Savage rifle, which seem to bring him bad hunting luck for many years, and then he bought a Remington 30-06 which seem to bring back the luck of old. He hunted for the last time with me at age 72, and not really expecting to see anything that morning sitting just up into the woods about 100 yards off the road, when all of a sudden out of no where four deer almost ran over him, they were all does so he let them go. He said one stopped so close to him he could have reached out with his rifle an touched it. Any way it made his day to have a story to tell when I came down off the mountain to meet him, and that made my day too.
