1. WILLIAM<sup>1</sup> BENNETT was born Abt. 1765, and died 1813 in Queensbury N.Y.. He married MIRIAH ----?. She died 1820 in Hartford, N.Y..

Notes for WILLIAM BENNETT:

William Bennett is somewhat of a mystery. He has possibly lived in three different places, in accordance with census records around the year 1790 there was a William Bennett in Argyle, N.Y. Also in Queensbury, N.Y. living next door to Abraham Wing who was a Quaker. Then in 1810 William may have been living in Luzerne, N.Y.

Elijah W. Bennett son of William signed an affidavit in 1854 pertaining to the children of William. The affidavit says William Jr. died in Queensbury 25 March 1813, unmarried, served as a private in an artillery company in the war of 1812.

Jeremiah Bennett died out in Iowa in 1853. Margaret Bennett died in Hartford 1829. Elijah W. Bennett was in Kingsbury, N.Y. in 1840.

William Bennett, was born in Warren County, New York, March 24, 1816. His father Jeremiah Bennett, also a native of New York, was a leading farmer. His (William's) mother's name was Susannah Wilkerson. The family moved to Iowa in 1843 and were residents of that state for twelve years. He then moved to this county and settled upon his present place. Mr. Bennett was united in matrimony in his native county, in 1838, to Miss Mary Ann Somerville. The result of this union is six children now living: Margaret E., now Mrs. Wm. Chipps; Eleanor; Nancy, now Mrs. Joseph Baldmout; William S., Richard W., and George M. Both Mr. and Mrs. Bennett have been members of the Baptist Church for twenty years. He owns a good farm well stocked and abundantly watered. It is fairly improved and in a fine state of cultivation. Mr. Bennett is one of the oldest settlers and most highly respected men in the township.

Notes for REBECCA ROSS:

Rebecca Ross, could have been the daughter of any of 3 brothers that lived in Johnsburg, Warren County, NY. I was unable to find any wills for these Ross families. So all I could go by is the Census records from 1830 which leave a lot to be desired. Here is what I found, which simply indicates that she may have been the daughter of any one of them. Rebecca would have been 12-13 years of age in 1830.

	age	(under 5)	(5-10)	(10-15)	(15-20)	(20-30)	(30-40)	(40-50)
Hiram Ross	Boys		1		1	2		1
Hiram Ross	Girls			2	2	1		1
Elisha Ross	Boys			1	1	1		1
Elisha Ross	Girls			2	1	1		1
Elijah Ross	Boys	1			2			1
Elijah Ross	Girls		2	2			1

My feeling is that it is probably Elisha Ross only because Rebecca and Jeremiah Bennett Jr. named their first born son Elisha. But I have no proof of this. Frank Bennett

9. JAMES<sup>3</sup> BENNETT (JEREMIAH<sup>2</sup>, WILLIAM<sup>1</sup>) was born October 10, 1821 in Johnsbury N.Y., and died June 10, 1896 in Residence at Thurman.. He married SARAH HACK 1845 in Johnsbury N.Y., daughter of DANIEL HACK and NANCY HALL. She was born September 02, 1825 in Johnsbury N.Y., and died October 25, 1918 in Athol N.Y..

Notes for JAMES BENNETT:

James Bennett and his wife Sarah Hack made the difficult journey from Johnsbury, NY to Iowa by horse and wagon back in the mid 1840's. It is possible that he made the trip at the same time as his father Jeremiah, the dates seem to bring on that conclusion anyway. It has been told to the family that a cow was attached to the rear of the wagon for milk, and a bucket attached in such a way to the wagon that the movement of the wagon churned the milk into butter as they traveled. Their first born son John S. Bennett was born in Iowa. Some time between the time that John was born in 1846 and the time Roland was born in 1848 James Bennett his wife Sarah and son John had returned to Johnsbury, NY to live out the rest of their years.

James, Sarah, son John S., and his wife Rosella Labrum, along with two of John & Rosella's children Walter age 13 months and Emma L. age 22 years, Roland Bennett and his daughter Sarah who died at age 14 years, are all at rest in what is commonly referred to as the Garnet cemetery, or Wesleyan Church Cemetery on Mill Creek. Located on the Garnet Lake Road, heading south out of Johnsbury, NY on this road, cemetery will be on the left side of the road.

I, Frank Bennett received an e-mail from Mike Bills who is related through Permelia Bennett who married David Bills. Mike says he has old church records from the Wesleyan Methodist Church, James & Sarah Bennett were very active in that church along with several other Bennett's. James was in that church from around 1857 until he moved to Thurman around 1892. On March 5, 1881 a Stewards meeting was held at James Bennetts home. He was elected trustee of church property on December 2, 1885. Other Bennetts in the church were, John & Rosella Bennett, Charles & Maggie Bennett, Sophronia Bennett, and Henry Kenyon with wife Nancy Bennett.

Today, Dec. 19, 2002, I recieved a packet of information from Charlotte (Bennett) Holford of Washington State pertaining to Jeremiah Bennett b. 1786. Jeremiah and Susannah lived in Iowa. They had several children. One of these children was William Bennett b. 1816, who at the time of the following letter was living in Missouri with his wife Mary A. (Somerville) Bennett. Charlotte (Bennett) Holford is a descendent of William & Mary Bennett, and has the original letter. The letter is from his brother James and Sarah Bennett.

Notes for SOPHRONIA BENNETT:

Sophronia (Bennett) Combs, was married three times but never had any children. She was very small and short in stature. Slightly over four feet tall. She wore high heeled , high buttoned shoes. In her early years, she was a rather proud person; and to a small child (like this one was) her pierced ears and earrings , were very noticeable. After the deaths of her husbands, she went to live with Janles (C) ( I have to assume that (C) is Combs ) " Jimmie Bennett " Family. After a while her health became very poor and her memory failed. She entered the Warren County Nursing Home where she died.

The Warren County Nursing Home back at the time when Sophronia died was called Almshouse, and the Almshouse Cemetery. She is listed as being buried in the Almshouse Cemetery printed out by Tom Lynch of the Warren County Municipal Center. I Franklin K. Bennett Sr. found her head stone in the Almshouse cemetery in 1999 under the name of Sophronia Combs.

Marriage Notes for SOPHRONIA BENNETT and SAMUEL STANTON:

This article was taken from the Adirondack Journal in a colum titled 100 years ago: September 1899.

A wedding in high life on the summit of Harrington Hill was celebrated. The contracting parties were Samuel Stanton, a prominent resident of that neighborhood, and Mrs. Sophina Bennett. (note that name is spelled differently) The ceremony was performed by Judge Louis Reoux at the residence of the bride's cousin, Norman Bennett. A wedding breakfast, which was greatly enjoyed, was served immediately after the ceremony.

Notes for MARY JANE (GASKILL) LYONS:

Mary Jane Lyon was the sole beneficiary of Richard W. Bennett's will.

Obituary of Mary Jane Lyon (Hedrick Journal, December 16, 1925).

Mary Jane Lyon, daughter of Charles and Almira Lyon, was born in Mount Pleasant, Henry County, Iowa, August 15, 1841, and died at the home of her son, R. A. Bennett, in Hedrick Tuesday morning, Dec. 8, 1925, at 2:20 o'clock, aged 84 years, three months and 23 days.

She had the distinction of being the second white child born in Henry County. Her girlhood days were spent in the home of her parents, a Baptist parsonage, her father being a Baptist preacher in Mount Pleasant. Here she received her education and grew to young womanhood.

Just a few years before her marriage to Aaron Gaskill of Hedrick in 1859, she with her parents moved to this vicinity. To this union were born two children, Mrs. Mary Bennett, of Piedmont, Oklahoma, and Charles Gaskill, of Vancouver, B. C. Her husband Mr Gaskill, died while serving as a soldier in the Civil War.

In 1866 Mrs. Gaskill was united in marriage to Richard W. Bennett, of Hedrick. To Mr. and Mrs. Bennett were born two children, Mrs. Ida Meier and Richard A. Bennett, both of Hedrick. Mrs. Bennett was a real mother to the two children of Mr. Bennett by a former marriage, Charles D. Bennett of Delta, who survives, and Mrs. Millie Ritter, who has been deceased for more than 30 years.

She is survived by her children, Mrs. Mary Bennett, of Piedmont, Oklahoma; Charles Gaskill, of Vancouver, B. C.; Mrs. Ida Meier and R. A. Bennett, of Hedrick; Charles D. Bennett of Delta, and 26 grandchildren and 22 great-grandchildren, and a host of friends, who all loved Grandmother Bennett, as she was affectionately called by her numerous friends.

Funeral services were held at the M. E. church on Thursday afternoon at one o'clock, conducted by Rev. George Filmer. A male quartet from the church sang the hymns which she loved, and often sang herself, and O. J. Jerde sang a beautiful solo. Interment was made in the Brooks Cemetery.

According to my father Ken Bennett, Roland was called Rolly by the Bennett family, and was kind of a hellian. His occupation was as a stage coach driver.

As it happened Dad and I where out looking for graves of some of the Bennett family up in the Johnsborg area, we stopped at the Old Wesleyan Cemetry on the Garnet Lake Road an when Dad saw the grave stone for Roland Bennett he spoke right out and said Rolly, and then explained to me that he remembered his family refering to a Rolly Bennett that was a stage coach driver, and somewhat of a hellian, back when Dad was a young boy. Of course Roland had died a few years before my Dad was born. Dad said that he had forgotten all about Rolly till he saw his grave stone, & then it came back to him about the family talking of this man.

Notes for CHARLES DAVID BENNETT:

Charles David Bennett, passed away on Tuesday (S. R., Nov. 25, 1936)

Charles David Bennett, one of Delta's most substantial residents, passed away at his home shortly after noon, Tuesday, November 17, after a short illness of about 10 days. Mr. Bennett had been in poor health however, for some months, suffering from ulcers of the stomach, and had been treated in recent weeks at the hospital in Oskaloosa, at which time there was grave concern to his condition. He recovered to all outward appearances and had been making his daily trips down town until Sunday, November 8, when he was confined to his bed.

Charles D. Bennett, was born Feb. 13, 1864, the son of Richard and Camelia Smiley Bennett, and would have been 73 years old his next birthday. He was born at Hedrick, Iowa, and has lived his entire life, with the exception of several years in Wyoming, in Keokuk County. After leaving Hedrick he moved to Sigourney and after a few years residence there moved to Delta in about 1907.

He leaves to mourn his departure a son, Ned B. of Los Angeles, California, three daughters, Mrs. Earl McMullen of Delta, Mrs. L. A. Reynolds of Los Angeles, California and Mrs. Ralph Eastburn of Delta, a daughter-in-law, Mrs. John Bennett of Bremerton, Washington, one sister, Mrs. Ida Meier and a brother, Richard A. Bennett, both of Hedrick, also ten grandchildren.

Two sons and a daughter have preceded him in death, Emily and Rees dying when small and John of Bremerton, Washington seven years ago.

Mr. Bennett united with the Methodist Episcopal church in early life while a resident of Hedrick. He was a member of the Masonic Lodge and the Order of the Eastern Star.

He was known to all as a true friend and will be greatly missed not only in the home but by all his associates. He was kindly, congenial disposition. He was young at heart and a real pal to his grandsons and the small boys of the neighborhood who loved to congregate in the home.

Funeral services were held Friday afternoon, November 20, 1936 at the Delta Methodist Episcopal church 2:30 conducted by the Rev. E. L. McClure, pastor of the church.

Interment was made in the Springfield Cemetery.

Masonic services were conducted at the grave with H. F. Wagner of Sigourney in charge. ----- Delta Press.

Notes for EMILY STERRAT REES:

Sunday afternoon the people of Sigourney were shocked to learn of the very sudden death of Mrs. Charles Bennett, of Sigourney. They had not dreamed that she was ailing. At dinner time she went to the table and sat down with her family and ate a hearty dinner. She arose from the table and went to her room and to bed. Shortly a child was born, and in a few minutes the mother was dead. The cause of her death was the breaking of a blood vessel, thus choking her.

The funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon in the Methodist Church, conducted by Rev. Charles N. Pace. Interment in the Springfield Cemetery.

The bereaved husband and the entire family have the sympathy of the entire community.

Emily Rees, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Rees, was born Feb. 22, 1863, at Columbus, Ohio, and departed this life June 3, 1906, aged 43 years 3 months and 11 days. When she was thirteen years old she joined the Methodist Episcopal church and has been a member ever since.

She was sick but a few minutes. All that loving hands could do would not bring her back again. Dear one , Farewell.

Notes for GEORGE MEIER:

George Meier, a prominent citizen of this township, and one of the best men in the community, hung himself in an oat bin at his farm, northwest of Hedrick, Saturday morning, while suffering from overheat. Mr. Meier had complained of feeling badly the night before, though it was not supposed his mind was affected. He arose Saturday morning early and went to the barn, but was not missed until about breakfast time, when a search was instituted and he was found hanging in the oat bin by his son, Clyde B. Meier, of Hedrick, and his brother-in-law R.A. Bennett, about 7:30 a.m.

Mr. Meier was a man of unusually even temperament, and his suicide shocked everyone who knew him, as he was about the last man in the community who might be expected to do such a deed. He was very prosperous and well-to-do, and had just sold his farm for the nice sum of $48,000.

The funeral was held Monday afternoon at 2:30, at the Hedrick M. E. church conducted by the pastor, Rev. P. M. Conant, and interment was in the Brooks cemetery.

George Meier was born on a farm six miles northwest of Hedrick, on August 5, 1859, and was aged 59 years ten months and 16 days at the time of his death. On March 17, 1887, he was united in marriage with Ida E. Bennett, of Hedrick, and to this union were born five children--Mrs. Lona Clark, of Fremont; Mrs. Jennie Burns of Webster City; Clyde B., of Hedrick and Hubert, at home; one child dying in infancy.

Mr. Meier lived on the farm which was his birthplace until the time of his marriage and since that time on the place which was his home at the time of his death. At the age of 21 he was converted, and on February 4, 1896 he and his wife united with the Methodist Episcopal church at Hedrick. For some time he had been a member of the board of stewards of the church. He enjoyed the religious services and was always in his place at the Sunday school and church when it was possible for him to attend.

Mr. Meier had been working in the hay field on Friday and was overcome by the heat. There is no question that a mental derangement caused by the intense heat led to the act which resulted in his death.

He leaves to mourn his departure his wife, four children and five grandchildren. He was a kind husband, a loving parent, an upright and honest man in business and a good neighbor and will be greatly missed by all who knew him.

Notes for FRED RICHARD BENNETT:

Fred was always the kidder with a good sence of humor. Loved baseball, gardening, fishing, his children and grandchildren. He was a whistler, (but you could never quite figure out what the tune was). He was a good listener and seemed to hear "between the lines" picking up on things others didn't have a clue about. He was always tinkering with things. Fixing this or that. Always working on something but willing to stop if you wanted his attention. He shared his Chicklet gum. He used Lava soap. This recollection was given by one of Freds grandchildren.

Notes for EDITH LYDIA WEIPERT:

This recollection was given by a grandchild.

Little Granny Bennett. Small but mighty. This little lady loved to go for walks, even well into her eighties, she could outwalk just about anyone. When I would go to visit she would usually want to go to the store. I would reach for the car keys and it was then she would make the announcement that we were going to walk! And we did. Gramma pushed that cart up and down every single aisle. She would get the three or four items we needed for lunch and after going through the check out stand (she knew every checker) we would then go for a "short zip" through the park. As soon as we got back to her house she was ready to jump right into making our four course lunch! Gramma liked to talk about family history. She had good stories about her brothers and sisters and the fun things they did while growing up on a farm. Memories about her brother when he jumped out of the barn loft hanging onto an umbrella. Or the other brother who set the barn on fire while trying to smoke out a rabbit that was under the floorboards. She helped her mother in the kitchen get food ready for the farm hands during grain harvest. Her sisters shared a bed with her. Mornings were chilly. They rushed to the woodstove to warm up. One of her favorite stories was about when her mama had the twins. It was nice to see the expression on her face when she would recall tiptoeing into her mother's bedroom and taking her first peek at the two tiny new members to their family. The babies were so small. They were little enough to fit in a shoe box together. They stayed snug and warm in the bread warming compartment of the cookstove! When I was young and visiting at Gramma's house, she had cards and coloring books, dolls and books, cookies and cakes, just about anything you could desire. We had good food, good fun, a cozy bed, and a warm lap for hugs. While I was older and taking my children to visit Gramma, I could relive some of those wonderful memories as she shared her home and self with her great-grandchildren. I would take my family history records to her and ask her to look at them. She would do her best to recall memories. We looked at pictures and shared a lot of love. We went through notebooks of information. When she got tired she would shut the book and say "That's enough of that!" But, within a few minutes she would be opening up the notebook again, just to make sure the information was correct..... Gramma liked flower gardening, especially tulips. She used cream and sugar in her morning cup of coffee. Toothpicks were a must after every meal. She used Dove soap. She enjoyed knitting. She would make hats and mittens for all her grandchildren. As they outgrew "Gramma's knitting" she continued making hats to donate to organizations.

He married CHARLOTTE HARVEY Abt. 1907, daughter of FRANKLIN HARVEY and MARY BENNETT. She was born 1890 in North Creek, N.Y., and died January 09, 1966 in North River N.Y..

Notes for HARLON JOHN BENNETT:

Harlon and his wife Charlotte did not get along well at all. It has been said that they argued a lot, and then one night Harlon woke up to see his wife Charlotte holding a gun to his head. At that point they separated. They had been separated for about a year when Harlon, was hit and killed by a train. This incident happened on March 1, 1910. The Post Star News Paper March 3, 1910 reported the following: NORTH CREEK MAN KILLED BY TRAIN: Harlon Lee Bennett Found Dead Near Mechanicville Roundhouse. Harlon Lee Bennet, formerly of North Creek and for the last four months a resident of Mechanicville, was found dead near the tracks at the Boston and Maine roundhouse in the latter place yesterday morning. He was cut and bruised and his spine was fractured. He was taken to the emergency rooms in the Railroad Young Men's Christian Association building and DR. J.M. Purcell was called, but life was extinct. Coroner W. A. Johnson ordered the removal of the body to H. B. Mace's undertaking rooms and the man's father at North Creek was notified.

Bennett was about 23 years old, and has been breaking in as a fireman for the Boston and Maine road. What train struck Bennett is not known, as regular and switching engines had passed both ways shortly before the body was discovered by an engineer of one of the yard engines.

Charlotte married April of 1910 to Dennis La Pell of Long Lake. During this time the son of Harlon and Charlotte, who was kept by his mother Charlotte, after their separation, was being neglected by being left for long periods of time with nothing on but oil cloth diapers and very undernourished. Neighbors reported this to Harlons mother Margaret. Margaret went to the house and took the baby home with her. Charlotte never even asked what happened to the baby, but was obviously relieved that it was gone and she could get on with her life and forget the past. The son Kenneth Karl Bennett was then raised by his grandmother and grandfather, Margaret and Charles Bennett, who are also buried in the Bates Cemetery. When Kenneth turned 16 years of age, he decided to get a job at a local grocery store in North Creek. To do this he had to get a copy of his birth certificate. On his birth certificate he was listed as Boy Bennett. One day when he was working as a clerk at the store a woman came in, did her shopping and made out a check to pay for the goods purchased. He recognized the name as his mother's, Charlotte La Pell. He only saw her that one time in his life that I'm aware of. She on the other hand had no idea that it was her son waiting on her. In the nineteen fifties I can remember on various occasions when we had been up to our camp at Goodnow Flow in Neucomb, we used to stop in North River, at a man's house named Mose Ordway. He was an old friend of my father Kenneth's. As it turned out, Charlotte lived in a small house just above Mose Ordway's house, so Dad used to stop and ask Mose if his mother needed anything. However Dad never went to see her himself, and us kids never got to meet her. When Charlotte died, in her obituary it claimed that Kenneth was her step son and she left him ten dollars, which her family by her second marriage came an asked Dad to sign a waiver so there wouldn't be any problems with her property holdings. Dad immediately signed off saying he wanted nothing of hers.

Charlotte La Pell is buried with her second husband, William D. La Pell in the North River Protestant Cemetery. Turn left off route 28 onto the thirteenth lake road in North River, follow the thirteenth lake rd. to Cemetery Road, turn right and follow Cemetery Road until you see the cemetery on the right.

Notes for GORDON LEE BRYAN:

This note was taken from Denny Bryans Family Tree notes.

Grandad farmed most of his life on a 120 acre farm two and a quarter miles west of Greenbrier Church, in Greenbrier Twp., Greene Co., Iowa. He was a Funk's seed corn dealer many of those years. Grandad purchased the first 'M' Farmall produced. He liked being first. He was very handy with a welder and used it to his advantage on the farm. He made his own heavy duty machinery trailer, sickle mower for the tractor, and many other items. He also was a talented woodworker. He made many toy barns for the grandkids, and nativity scenes for the church. He had a very nice assortment of woodworking tools.

While always busy farming, welding, or woodworking, he always found time for fishing, which he loved. I went with him many times to Swan Lake or Dunbar Slough with our cane poles to catch some bluegill and sunfish. It was not uncommon for Grandad to go fishing almost every night in the summer. He always kept an ample supply of nightcrawlers below the windmill in the top of the well for anyone who would go with him. I remember always looking forward to hunting nightcrawlers with Grandad when I stayed there. Grandad also liked to hunt rabbits in the grove west of the house which my dad planted as a project in 4-H when he was young. He would skin the rabbits and Grandma would fry them up to taste much like chicken fried steak. At age 6 or 7, Jill thought that was exactly what we were eating one Sunday dinner until we told her toward the end. She cried and cried, upset that we had killed that rabbit.

Grandad liked to have fun with his family, friends and neighbors. My dad told me of a 4th of July one year, when Grandad got up at 4:00 A.M., got a few sticks of dynamite and put them in a bucket, hoisted them up in an old tree, and set them off. The huge bang was said to have waken the neighborhood for miles around. It was his way of celebrating the 4th, and he didn't want anyone to beat him to it.

When Grandad relaxed (and it didn't seem like he hardly ever did), he really enjoyed playing cribbage, his favorite card game. The family gatherings would not be complete, without a Sunday afternoon cribbage match.

Grandad started and ran the "Greenbrier Church Student Loan Fund" for students of the area that needed a loan for college. It has been used by many needful students, for many years.

Grandad was a very fine man who was well-respected in the community, by friends and by his family. He worked very hard and provided for the family that he and Grandma raised, of which he was very proud.

Notes for GRACE BELLE NAYLOR:

These notes taken from Denny Bryans family tree.

Grandma and Grandad were always fun, I never remember either of them in a bad mood. It was always fun to go stay all night with them on a weekend, or just go see them on Saturday. There was always something to do there.

Grandma and Grandad went to the Greenbrier Church every Sunday, where they always sat in the same pew, 3rd row from the back, left side as you walk in. When we stayed with them on Saturday nights, we always had to have our baths so we would be ready for church the next day. Sunday mornings started with Grandma hollering upstairs, "Denny! Time to get up!" at 5:30 sharp! Although church didn't really start until 9:00, they did not want to be late, and always went a little after 8:00 so that they could socialize with their friends at the church. The church was in fact the social place of the community.

Grandma was a wonderful Grandma. Always happy to see you and you were always treated first class. Grandma always kept plenty of cookies, in the cookie drawer, and good cold lemonade or ginger ale in the refrigerator. She was a very good cook. Her fried chicken was to 'kill' for!!

Grandma had some funny phrases such as, "It would puke a snipe" referring to something she thought was awful or disgusting, and "just like poop on a griddle" referring to Grandad because he was always bouncing from one thing to another and didn't sit still long.

When they relaxed, Granma and Grandad always sat in their rocking chairs and tuned into their favorite radio station, KMA in Shenandoah, where they listened to Henry Fields and heard the latest farm news and Granma got some good cooking recipes.

Grandma and Grandad were very caring people. Granma's sister Bess died at a young age with two young children, Merle (Tobe) and Pauline. The father, Elmer, could not give them proper care, so Granma and Grandad took the kids to their home and family and raised them. It was this kind of love that made it hard for you to ever want to leave their house.

She was born December 21, 1901 in Johnsburg, N.Y., and died November 23, 1986 in Denham Springs, Louisiana.

Notes for IVON HERBERT BENNETT:

Ivon Bennett & his family moved to Bremerton, Washington during WWII to work there. His daughter Betty also worked at the shipyard (of course she lied about her age). This is where she met Neland E. Westbrook, her husband to be. His parents were born in LA. His older brother Armond was drafted into the Marine Corp he was married, and about to ship out. Neland quit school, went to welding classes and got a job at the ship yard so that he and his mother could be close to Armond until he shipped out. Neland's father (Ira) a bit of a rascal, was separated at the time from Neland's Mother. Armond died at Okinawa. Neland because of circumstances, felt it was up to him to look after his mother. Neland and Betty ran away to another town and got married. Then they came back to Baton Rouge LA. to live. Neland was in the Army for a time and was kept from shipping out by his mother claiming he was her sole support. Neland and his father Ira both worked and retired from Exxon Refinery, (ESSO Standard Oil) .

Ivon Bennett was buried at the Stewart Creek Cemetery, Quincy, Columbia County, Oregon. He is the only Bennett there. The history is interesting. The little town of Quincy, was first called Stewart's Point because a Mrs. Stewart was buried on that point of land, northwest of the old school house. This point reaches out into the swampland quite a ways, Mrs. Stewart became gravely ill and died, and no cemetery being started, she was buried on the point of land jutting out into the swamp, and it was named Stewart's Point after that. This event happened before the founding of Quincy in 1882. Source: "Stewart's Point" in CCHV: 10 location T7N R4W S3. Ivon died in Clatskanie, Columbia, Oregon.

Notes for KENNETH KARL BENNETT:

Kenneth K. Bennett was a man with integrity, honesty, and was a man I am proud to call father. He was one of the hardest working men that I have ever known. Men who worked under him have told me he was tough but always fair to work for. In his younger days he told me that he worked on the farm, has stood barefoot in a fresh cow pod to keep his feet warm on a cold morning when chores had to be done. He cut ice blocks out of a lake with saws and put the blocks on a wagon where the blocks could be delivered to peoples homes for their ice boxes. He has cut wood and sold it. Painted and papered peoples homes. Then in 1938 he got a job at the Bus Garage for Warrensburg Central School. The garage was located in Pasco's barn with a dirt floor, and although it is gone now, it was in the same place were Jack Toney has his meat market today, in 1997. Back in those days the bus drivers wore uniforms. The uniform consisted of a hexagon shaped service cap with a bill on it, What I would call a waste jacket, tie, pants that were puffed out at the thigh and tight at the knee, with leather Leggings from just below the knee to the top of the shoes. Dad's bus was mainly blue with a red and white stripe that went all the way around the bus just under the windows. Then up by the front door was a big gold number 1. Needless to say there were lots of stories over the years of break downs, stuck in the mud stories, upset teachers, and mad parents when their kid was put off the bus and had to walk home for mis behaving. He fully retired from this job in 1972. He started work in 1938 for a wage of $12.00 a week and retired in 1972 at a wage of about $11,000.00 a year. Dad & Mom always had a large garden, as well as a chicken business. The chicken business was comprised of 6,000 baby chicks in the early spring that grew up and sold out by labor day each year. Plus Dad was a sales person for a garden tiller company. He used to demonstrate how good the tiller worked for folks by using his own tiller, and then if he made a sale he got a commission on that sale. He also used to till up other peoples gardens for a fee. Dad was a very inventive man, designed the first V shaped snow plow for a garden tiller that I had ever seen. Later he designed and built not only a single stage but also a double stage snow blower for the same tiller. I remember a representative of that tiller company came up to see Dad one time, and while he was up here he took note of these accessories that my Dad had built, wouldn't you know these items were offered as accessories on those tillers the following year, But Dad never got any credit or money for his ideas at all. Dad was an excellent woodsman, loved the sport of hunting and fishing. I've sat and listened to many a hunting and fishing story. Dad used to have a British 303 rifle years back that he hunted deer with, it had 16 notches in the forearm for bucks he had taken. He later owned two more deer rifles, one was a 300 automatic Savage rifle, which seem to bring him bad hunting luck for many years, and then he bought a Remington 30-06 which seem to bring back the luck of old. He hunted for the last time with me at age 72, and not really expecting to see anything that morning sitting just up into the woods about 100 yards off the road, when all of a sudden out of no where four deer almost ran over him, they were all does so he let them go. He said one stopped so close to him he could have reached out with his rifle an touched it. Any way it made his day to have a story to tell when I came down off the mountain to meet him, and that made my day too.
