Notes for JOHN HOLLETT:

Information and notes from the research of Doug Hollett:

JOHN HOLLETT. Born in England.

The earliest Hollet recorded for this family line is "John Hollett" of Henstridge, Somerset County, England.

John's birth date is unknown, but believed to be in the early 1700's.

No information has been found about John's wife, or other family members.

John's son, also named "John", brought his family to Great Burin, Newfoundland.

Research in this family line has been very interesting for two special reasons. In all other family trees I have hit a dead end in the early 1800's, and have not been able to discover from where these families came, prior to their life in Newfoundland. Information for the "Hollett" family that I received has led me back to the early 1700's, as well as to a definite place in Somerset County, England.

As the data was received I was surprised to discover that both my mother, and my father, were descendants of the same line. Three children of Thomas Hollett and Martha Chant are my direct ancestors, Maria, Mary, and Philip.

English records show "Hallett" instead of "Hollett", even Thomas Hollett (3rd generation) and Martha Chant's marriage record shows "Hallett". All records in Newfoundland show "Hollett".

In my research I have found several other families of "Holletts" who came to Sound Island, Placentia Bay, Newfoundland. I believe they may be related as they came from Dorset County, England.

Notes I have about the will of John's son, "James", seem to tie these families together.

Other records of Holletts have been found that have not yet found their place in our family tree.

Thanks to Edward Hollett of Penticton, British Columbia; Susan Buckley of Pepperill, Mass. USA; Carrie Dancy of Mount Pearl, Newfoundland,; and Wayne Hollett, who still lives in Burin, Newfoundland. With their help as well as others, I have been able to add to my own research and develop quite an extensive family tree for our "Hollett" line

Child of JOHN HOLLETT and UNKNOWN is:

- i. JOHN² HOLLETT, b. 02 Sep 1736, Henstridge, Somerset England; d. 23 Jun 1819, Great Burin, Newfoundland.

Generation No. 2

2. JOHN² HOLLETT (*JOHN*¹)^{1,2} was born 02 Sep 1736 in Henstridge, Somerset England³, and died 23 Jun 1819 in Great Burin, Newfoundland. He married DINAH HOLLETT^{4,5} Abt. 1770 in England⁶. She was born 1747 in Henstridge, Somerset England, and died 18 Dec 1826 in Great Burin, Newfoundland⁷.

Notes for JOHN HOLLETT:

Information taken from " The History of Burin " By It's Senior Citizens 1977

Authentic information regarding the early settlers of Burin is practically non-existent. Tradition, however points to Dr. Walsh, an Englishman, who apparently escaped from a British Man-O-War which was patrolling the Newfoundland coast. It seems he hid in Burin for 4 years in a place called Doctor's Cove, near Lewin's Cove before moving to Great Burin where he met the Hollett family, who were at that time fishing in Newfoundland during the season and returned home to England in the fall. Dr. Walsh persuaded the Hollett's to settle in Great Burin about 1749. I think this may have been the family of John Hollett.

Information from Rennie Wagg:

" Doug Taylor feels that Doctor's Cove was at what was later to become Great Burin, not Lewin's Cove as reported by the Senior Citizens. "

I also have a DOB for John of 2 Sep 1736 in Henstridge,Somerset,England.

Notes from the research of Doug Hollett:

John and Dinah and their family came from England to Great Burin, Newfoundland in the late 1700's.
No record of any daughters has been found, but their son James, in his will, refers to brothers and sisters

Arras, France
April 11 1812

Mr. Joseph & Phillip Hollett
Burin, Newfoundland.

Having a opportunity to forward this letter from france to england, we have embraced it by writing a few lines to you, not hearing from you since writing of date Aprl 11, 1811, which caused suspicion in us that you never received it which served to inform you that your brother James Hollett departed this life April 10 1811, after about 6 weeks illness.

In the first place, he was seized with a fever which, after a few days proved to be smallpox but, being sensible to the last, he requested in his illness that he would wish a will to be made out so as to avoid disputes after his decease, and leaving the affaire to us we acted according to his request which shall again forward to you a copy of it,

Signed, Samuel Newman, John Foote

Arras, France

Sundries remaining which will be remitted you as soon as the lord pleases to make a way for our escape and, if deprived of this, we shall remit by some trusty friend the following:

Cash in hand, after expenses of the funeral, one watch, two rings, and one to be braised and forwarded, also clothes which he had desired to be given to his friends. Signed, Samuel Newman, John Foote

Notes from the research of Doug Hollett:

While sailing from Burin to England to continue his education, James was captured at sea in February 1809 from a ship named the "Hawk", by the French. As a prisoner of war during the "Peninsular War" (1808 1814) between Great Britian and France during the reign of Napoleon, he died in a prison hospital of smallpox.

Arras is located 112 miles north of Paris on the Scarpe River

1. Henry HOLLETT. Son of THOMAS HOLLETT & MARTHA CHANT.

Born October 25, 1805 in Great Burin, Newfoundland.

Died October 16, 1875 in Great Burin, Newfoundland.

Henry Hollett was a fishing captain, and while fishing on St.Pierre Bank, a storm came up and they had to go to St.Pierre for shelter. While they were there they had to pay dues, a certain amount of money. Henry thought this was too much and refused to pay, so he was put into a French prison. The French and English weren't on good terms at that time. It was just a wooden structure and they made him work by day and sleep on an old mattress by night. Henry had a knife in his pocket, and at night instead of sleeping, he used to start cutting a hole, putting his sack over it during the day and cutting again the next night, until the hole was big enough to crawl through. He got out and went down to the wharf, got a dory and rowed across to Lamaline. When they unlocked his cell to put him to work, he was gone. (This story is told by Stella Inkpen, a niece of Henry. She also tells of seeing her grandmother Maria (Hollett) Foote wearing a special ring that had belonged to Henry's wife. This ring was made of glass on mica and had hair inside, which was from Henry's wife, Caroline's head. I believe another granddaughter Melvina now has possession of this ring.)

Notes for MARIA OR MARIAH HOLLETT:

Notes from the research of Doug Hollett:

The following is a copy of Maria (Hollett) Foote's Will.

In the name of God, Amen.

I, Maria Foote of Burin in the Southern District of Newfoundland, widow, being of perfect mind and memory, thanks be given unto God, do make and ordain this my last will and testament, that is to say principally and first of all I give and recommend my soul unto the hands of the Almighty God who gave it, and my body I recommend to the earth, to be buried in a decent Christian burial at the discretion of my executors.

And as touching such worldly estate wherewith it has pleased God to bless me in this life, I give, demise, and dispose of the same in the following manner and form.

First I give and bequeath to Samuel, my well beloved son, half of my land, with the exception of the garden in the front of the dwelling house, with a strip of land the same width in the front of it and extending to the water, also a portion of waterside to my beloved granddaughter Maria Foote, if she requires it, if not the said piece of land to go to her father Samuel Foote, and with the land aforementioned also dwelling house and stage to be his and his heirs forever.

And also one third of any money I may be possessed of at my decease, and all my cattle, and one fourth of the household furniture.

To my well beloved son Thomas, I give half my land, being the part which he now occupies (toward the Vigus property), to be his and his heirs forever, also one third of any money I may be possessed of at my decease, and one fourth of the household furniture.

To my well beloved daughter Susan Wagg, one third of any money I may be possessed of at my decease, with all my wearing apparel, and one fourth of my household furniture.

To my well beloved granddaughter Maria Foote, one fourth of my household furniture, one bed, bedstead and bedding.

To my well beloved granddaughter Sarah B. Foote, one bed. The remainder of the bedding to be divided between my sons Samuel and Thomas, and my daughter Susan.

Also I appoint my sons, Samuel and Thomas, executors of this my last will and testament, revoking and disannulling any and every other former testaments, wills, and executors, ratifying and confirming this, and no other to be my last will and testament.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this eighteenth day of February, One Thousand, Nine hundred and One.

Signed by Maria Foote, in the presence of the inscribers, Samuel Foote, and Edward Hollett.

Notes for THOMAS FOOTE:

I've included both Thomas Foote and Hickman and the Thomas Foote and Hollett families to show the possible connection, however I have no proof of a direct link between the two families.

Notes and comments originated from the research of Doug Hollett:

The earliest "Foote" recorded for this family line is Thomas Foote of Foote's Cove, Pardy's Island, Newfoundland.

It has been said that Thomas came originally from Scotland, although no documentation has been found.

Another source said they came from England. I searched the I.G.I. files for both places, and could find no clues.

There are "Foote's" recorded in many counties in both Scotland and England.

Thomas Foote is an ancestor on my mother's side of the family.

I also discovered a William Foote who is an ancestor of my father.

Thomas and William were married to sisters, Maria and Mary Hollett.

Thomas married Maria on November 05, 1838; and William married Mary on November 03, 1842.

I suspect that Thomas and William may have been brothers, or at least cousins.

Foote's Cove where they lived was not a very big community.

I have received data from several correspondents about other Foote families in Burin in the late 1700's and early 1800's. A link has not been confirmed with any of these, although I believe they may also be related.

Thanks to Reta Atkinson of Guelph, Ontario; and Susan Buckley of Pepperill Mass. USA

I have added quite a bit to my own research into the Footes of Burin

Thomas and Maria lived and had their first six children in Foote's Cove, Pardy's Island, Newfoundland, then in the early 1850's, he bought land at Stepside, on Burin Island, called Hooper's Point.

This was changed to Foote's Point, and is still known locally by that name.

The last three children's births were then recorded as being from Stepside.

Supreme Court Records showing the dispersment of Thomas' estate claimed by Maria, show the value at Two Thousand and Six hundred dollars.

This was done on March 09, 1880.

Will of James Vigus of Burin North

In re
James Vigus deceased

This is the last Will and Testament of me James Vigus of Burin North, Merchant.

1. I hereby revoke all former wills by me at anytime made and declare this to be my last will and testament
2. I hereby appoint my wife Sarah Vigus and my nephew Willis Vigus to be the executors of this my will.
3. In the event of the death of my said wife Sarah Vigus before application is made to the Supreme Court for a Judge thereof for the probate of this my will, I appoint my said wife's niece, Melida I. Bowdridge to be the executrix hereof jointly with the said Willis Vigus in the place of my said wife in that (???)t deceased.
4. I give the following specific legacies: - [1], to my said nephew Willis Vigus [a] the sum of one thousand dollars in cash [b] my watch and chain. [2] to my executors a sum of money sufficient to purchase an annuity of twenty dollars per year for my sister Bridget Wagg during her lifetime; which said sum my executors shall immediately invest with some Canadian Life Insurance Company for the purchase of the said annuity.
5. Should my said wife Sarah Vigus survive me, I give, devise and bequeath to her, subject to the specific legacies enumerated in paragraph 4 hereof, all my land, tenements and hereditaments(?); also all my business premises, books-debts, stock, goods, wares and merchandise, schooner, fishing year and outfit; also all my moneys, negotiable instruments, stocks and bonds, shares in companies, securities for money, and all investments of whatsoever nature and kind, also all my household furniture, goods, chattels and personal effects; and also all the rest, residue and remainder of my estate of whatsoever nature and kind and wheresoever situated.

To my sister Bridget Wagg the sum of fifty dollars [b]. To my nieces Bessie Mayes(?), Sylvia Mitchell, Beatrice Mitchell, Mabel Vigus, Vertie Vigus, Melinda Parsons and Martha Philipson, the sum of Fifty Dollars each. [o] To the Trustees of the Methodist Church at Burin, in memory of my wife, for such uses in connection with the said Church as they may determine, the sum of One Hundred Dollars.
7. In the event of the net realization of my estate falling short of the sums necessary for the payment in full of all the legacies enumerated in paragraph 6 hereof [the legacies enumerated in paragraph 4 hereof having been first paid in full]: I direct that the legacies named in paragraph 4 be first paid and given to the parties therein named, and the entire residue of my estate divided amongst all the legatees named in paragraph 6 hereof in proportion to the amount of the legacy to each named in the said paragraph; and in the event of the net realization of my estate exceeding the sums bequeathed under this will, I direct my executors to divide the residue among all the legatees named in paragraph 6 hereof in like proportion as the said legatees would suffer loss in the event of the net realization of my estate paying insufficient to pay the legacies in full.
8. While I leave the matter of the binding up of my estate entirely to the common sense and the business discretion of my executors, yet I suggest to them the advisability of binding it up in such a business like and leisurely manner as they may deem best in the interests of the estate, having regard to the fact that I would like to see my nephew Willis Vigus, in so far as his financial and business ability would permit, buy out from my estate, and carry on in the name of Vigus, the business which is now being conducted by me at Burin.

9. In an attempt to make my intentions abundantly clear, I repeat that the bequests named in paragraph 4 of this will are to take effect in priority to all other bequests and irrespective of whether my wife survives me or does not survive me; paragraph 5 is to take effect if my wife survive me and stands null and void and of no effect is she does not survive me; paragraph 6 is to take effect if my wife does not survive me, and stands null and void and of no effect is she does survive me.

In testimony whereof I have hereto subscribed my hand, this seventeenth day of January A.D. 1917. James Vigus. Signed by the said Testator as and for his last will and testament, in the presence of us, who, in his presence, at his request, and in the presence of each other, have hereunto our names subscribed as witnesses Louise Sanders of St. John's, Clerk to R.A. Squires, Richard Anderson Squires of St. John's Solicitor

Whereas I James Vigus did on the seventeenth day of January A.D. 1917 make my last will and testament I do by this writing change certain things therein and add this codicil to my said will to be taken as a part thereof. I desire that the amount left to my wife's niece Matilda L. Bowdridge be One Thousand Dollars besides the One Hundred and Fifty Dollars named in paragraph 6 and that this sum be paid her before the residue of estate is divided among those named in paragraph 6. Also that Two Hundred Dollars be invested by my executors to keep my lot in the Burin Cemetery in order and One Hundred Dollars be given to the Trustees of the Methodist Church instead of as the amounts are named in paragraph 6 of my will. I also desire that all the legacies and bequeaths by me in paragraph 6 be given to the legatees as the amounts are named there, if there is a sufficient sum to pay them; but in the event of the net realization of my estate exceeding the sum bequeathed under my will I direct my executors to divide the residue as follows:-To give my wife's nephew Frederick J. Tipple [son of Thomas Tipple] the sum of Two Hundred Dollars, and whatever is then left to be equally divided between my nephew Willis Vigus and my wife's niece Melinda L. Bowdridge instead of paying the various legatees mentioned in paragraph 6 the benefit of the proportion of anything that my estate may realize over the sum bequeathed under my will. In testimony whereof I have hereunto subscribed my hand this twenty third day of August A.D. 1917 James Vigus.

Signed by the said Testator as and for a codicil to be annexed to his last will and testament in the presence of us, who, in his presence, at his request, and in the presence of each other, have hereunto our names subscribed as witnesses. William G. Hollett Burin, Merchant Lydia Hollett Burin, wife of William G Hollett. I wish my Neice Melida G. Bowdridge, to act with my wife and Willis Vigus as Executors to my will. Notes from the research of Judy Foote:

I searched through 2 registers for the burial record for George and it's just not there. I searched both PANL, Parish Records, Methodist/United Church, Burin, Box 4, Burials 1897-1937 and Burin Burials 1844 - 1896 and he's not there, one must assume either George was buried somewhere else or he never had a tombstone. If it's the latter case I would have expected an entry for him in the burial register, but there isn't one. Could he have been another religion?

Notes for GEORGE VIGUS:

Information and notes from the research of Doug Hollett:

George was a merchant in Stepside, and after the birth of their first two children they decided to leave Newfoundland for Toronto, Ontario in the summer of 1906 just before the birth of their daughter Mildred (my mother).

George became involved with construction and carpentry work.

He built a home at 25 Millicent Street, Toronto, where the family lived.

He died of tuberculosis when my mother was only eleven years old.

Ellen, my grandmother was a wonderful cook and sometime after George's death she ran a bakery shop on Dufferin Avenue. She unfortunately gave away more than she sold to people whom she thought were in need. She became a member of the St.Clair Church of the Nazarene, and began taking me with her when I was about eight years old.

After the death of her second husband, Walter Manuel, she moved into my parent's home where we shared a bedroom, and many happy memories

Buried in Prospect Cemetery, Toronto, Ontario.

George and Ellen are buried in Section 18, lot 4584

Will of James Vigus of Burin North

In re

James Vigus deceased

This is the last Will and Testament of me James Vigus of Burin North, Merchant.

1. I hereby revoke all former wills by me at anytime made and declare this to be my last will and testament

2. I hereby appoint my wife Sarah Vigus and my nephew Willis Vigus to be the executors of this my will.
3. In the event of the death of my said wife Sarah Vigus before application is made to the Supreme Court for a Judge thereof for the probate of this my will, I appoint my said wife's niece, Melida I. Bowdridge to be the executrix hereof jointly with the said Willis Vigus in the place of my said wife in that (????)t deceased.
4. I give the following specific legacies: - [1], to my said nephew Willis Vigus [a] the sum of one thousand dollars in cash [b] my watch and chain. [2] to my executors a sum of money sufficient to purchase an annuity of twenty dollars per year for my sister Bridget Wagg during her lifetime; which said sum my executors shall immediately invest with some Canadian Life Insurance Company for the purchase of the said annuity.
5. Should my said wife Sarah Vigus survive me, I give, devise and bequeath to her, subject to the specific legacies enumerated in paragraph 4 hereof, all my land, tenements and hereditaments(?); also all my business premises, books-debts, stock, goods, wares and merchandise, schooner, fishing year and outfit; also all my moneys, negotiable instruments, stocks and bonds, shares in companies, securities for money, and all investments of whatsoever nature and kind, also all my household furniture, goods, chattels and personal effects; and also all the rest, residue and remainder of my estate of whatsoever nature and kind and wheresoever situated.

To my sister Bridget Wagg the sum of fifty dollars [b]. To my nieces Bessie Mayes(?), Sylvia Mitchell, Beatrice Mitchell, Mabel Vigus, Vertie Vigus, Melinda Parsons and Martha Philipson, the sum of Fifty Dollars each. [o] To the Trustees of the Methodist Church at Burin, in memory of my wife, for such uses in connection with the said Church as they may determine, the sum of One Hundred Dollars.
7. In the event of the net realization of my estate falling short of the sums necessary for the payment in full of all the legacies enumerated in paragraph 6 hereof [the legacies enumerated in paragraph 4 hereof having been first paid in full]: I direct that the legacies named in paragraph 4 be first paid and given to the parties therein named, and the entire residue of my estate divided amongst all the legatees named in paragraph 6 hereof in proportion to the amount of the legacy to each named in the said paragraph; and in the event of the net realization of my estate exceeding the sums bequeathed under this will, I direct my executors to divide the residue among all the legatees named in paragraph 6 hereof in like proportion as the said legatees would suffer loss in the event of the net realization of my estate paying insufficient to pay the legacies in full.
8. While I leave the matter of the binding up of my estate entirely to the common sense and the business discretion of my executors, yet I suggest to them the advisability of binding it up in such a business like and leisurely manner as they may deem best in the interests of the estate, having regard to the fact that I would like to see my nephew Willis Vigus, in so far as his financial and business ability would permit, buy out from my estate, and carry on in the name of Vigus, the business which is now being conducted by me at Burin.
9. In an attempt to make my intentions abundantly clear, I repeat that the bequests named in paragraph 4 of this will are to take effect in priority to all other bequests and irrespective of whether my wife survives me or does not survive me; paragraph 5 is to take effect if my wife survive me and stands null and void and of no effect is she does not survive me; paragraph 6 is to take effect if my wife does not survive me, and stands null and void and of no effect is she does survive me.

In testimony whereof I have hereto subscribed my hand, this seventeenth day of January A.D. 1917. James Vigus. Signed by the said Testator as and for his last will and testament, in the presence of us, who, in his presence, at his request, and in the presence of each other, have hereunto our names subscribed as witnesses Louise Sanders of St. John's, Clerk to R.A. Squires, Richard Anderson Squires of St. John's Solicitor

Whereas I James Vigus did on the seventeenth day of January A.D. 1917 make my last will and testament I do by this writing change certain things therein and add this codicil to my said will to be taken as a part thereof. I desire that the amount left to my wife's niece Matilda L. Bowdridge be One Thousand Dollars besides the One Hundred and Fifty Dollars named in paragraph 6 and that this sum be paid her before the residue of estate is divided among those named in paragraph 6. Also that Two Hundred Dollars be invested by my executors to keep my lot in the Burin Cemetery in order and One Hundred Dollars be given to the Trustees of the Methodist Church instead of as the amounts are named in paragraph 6 of my will. I also desire that all the legacies and bequeaths by me in paragraph 6 be given to the legatees as the amounts are named there, if there is a sufficient sum to pay them; but in the event of the net realization of my estate exceeding the sum bequeathed under my will I direct my executors to divide the residue as follows:-To give my wife's nephew Frederick J. Tipple [son of Thomas Tipple] the sum of Two Hundred Dollars, and whatever is then left to be equally divided between my nephew Willis Vigus and my wife's niece Melinda L. Bowdridge instead of paying the various legatees mentioned in paragraph 6 the benefit of the proportion of anything that my estate may realize over the sum bequeathed under my will. In testimony whereof I have hereunto subscribed my hand this twenty third day of August A.D. 1917 James Vigus.

Signed by the said Testator as and for a codicil to be annexed to his last will and testament in the presence of us, who, in his presence, at his request, and in the presence of each other, have hereunto our names subscribed as witnesses. William G. Hollett Burin, Merchant Lydia Hollett Burin, wife of William G Hollett. I wish my Neice Melida G. Bowdridge, to act with my wife and Willis Vigus as Executors to my will. Captain Charlie Hollett of Great Burin, commanded the vessel the "Herbert and Ruby" owned by E.M. Hollett, Great Burin. She sailed from Change Islands in November 1919 with a cargo of fish for Oporto, and was never reported after leaving port, presumed lost with all crew members.

Relatives and friends gave up all hopes of ever hearing news of the ill-fated vessel in March 1920.

In the Epworth Cemetery the tombstone for his wife, records his death as March 1920.

Notes for STELLA MAY FOOTE:

From Tsunami 1929: The Silence of the Sea:

"What One Woman Remembers" Part I

Stella Foote, born 1890 at Stepside, resided in Shalloway with her husband, Oliver Inkpen. She vividly remembered November 18th, 1929. The first tremor occurred, around four in the afternoon. She thought the rocky mountain behind her home was experiencing a landslide. Running out with her two month old baby in her arms she was met by her two other children and a nephew amazed at the motion of the ground beneath their feet. When the tremor appeared to have passed, Oliver and his brother walked to Great Burin by way of connecting bridges. They were barely able to reach safety in Great Burin when a tidal wave struck. It was getting dark and by the light of an oil lamp, Stella was ironing baby clothes, when she heard an awful swishing sound, and looking out the window, saw the boiling white water sweep away the bridges. She thought her husband was drowned. She gathered the children together and Uncle Tom Moulton and another man urged her to hurry to higher ground. One of them took the baby in her cradle and one took four-year old Hazel and they all went up the hill to Stella's mother-in-law's house. They had just left the beach when the second wave struck. It was worse than the first because it swept away many houses and stages which were in its path.

Part II: "What One Woman Remembers "After the second wave struck, Oliver and his brother tried to return to Shalloway by using a small boat which was sometimes used as a ferry and started out. They met the third wave which tossed the boat around but they finally reached their stage which was miraculously still there. When Stella had left the house to run to higher grounds, Stella had blown out the lamp, thus leading Oliver to believe that the house was gone in the wave. Yet, it too was miraculously still there. Around two o'clock in the night at the harbour area, the water was invisible: covered by a solid bridge comprised of floating wharves, stores, warehouses, flakes, boats and debris. By daylight they were amazed to see floating barrels of pork, beef, molasses and everything imaginable that had been let loose from the stores and business firms.

" God saw that you were getting tired and a cure was not to be.
So He put his arms around you and whispered, 'Come with me.'
With tearful eyes we watched you suffer and saw you fade away, although we loved you dearly,
we could not make you stay.
A Golden Heart stopped beating, hard-working hands came to rest.
God broke our hearts to prove to us
He only takes the best. "
