Notes for DEMPSEY GRIFFIN:

GRIFFIN, DEMPSEY 1782-1865 TATTNALL [Huxford's POWG]

Dempsey Griffin was born in South Carolina in 1782, the oldest of three sons Of Thomas Griffin who died in Tattnall County, Georgia in late 1811. Their mother's name is unknown.

Dempsey's brothers were James (Vol. I) and John.

John moved to Telfair County and was living in Ware County in 1837.

Dempsey's step-mother was Mrs. Lucy Griffin who had previously been married to Israel Baxter, Sr., by whom she had one son, Israel Baxter, Jr. (1787-1864). They separated and then she married Adam McNealy and had one son, Colonel William McNealy (5/15/1795-4/16/1855). Adam McNealy died in 1796 after which Lucy married Thomas Griffin.

Israel Baxter, Jr. and William McNealy moved to Jackson County, Florida in 1824 where they became prominent citizens. Mrs. Lucy Griffin was appointed administrator of Thomas Griffin's estate in Tattnall County on January 13, 1812.

Dempsey lived in the Tattnall County area as a young man. He was a soldier in the War of 1812, enlisting as a private in Captain Alfted Cuthbert's Company in the Regiment of Colonel Johnson known as the "Republican Blues", in Savannah, Georgia on January 22, 1815 and was honorably discharged on February 23, 1815. For this service, he made a bounty land application and was granted 160 acres of land in 1855.

Dempsey Griffin was married twice. His first wife was Jemima Reaves. They were living in Chatham County in 1820 with one male child under ten. Nothing further is known about this child; apparently he died young.

About 1827 Dempsey and his brother, James, moved to Ware County for a brief time.

James then moved to Bryan County and Dempsey moved to Chatham County. Jemima. died in 1829 at Spring Hill in Chatham County, Georgia. By 1830 Dempsey was living in Bryan County.

Dempsey's second wife was Mrs. Mary (Strickland) Keaton, daughter of Gadi Strickland and widow of Kadar Keaton by whom she had three minor children. She was born in Washington County, Georgia about 1806. They were married in Tattnall County in 1835 by Reverend Isham Peacock (Vol.VI).

In 1837 he and his brother, James, returned to Ware County where, on December 8, 1837, Dempsey bought Lot #206, 8th District of Ware County 490 acres for $400.00 from Mark Addison. This land is near Schlatterville, near Laura Walker State Park, close to High Bluff Primitive Baptist Church of which James was a member.

On December 18, 1839, Dempsey sold this land to Elias Waldron for $400.00. It was at this time that he moved to Liberty County where he is found in the 1840 census. James Griffin remained in Ware County.

Dempsey and Mary Griffin were the parents of four children:

1. Mary "Molly" b. 1836, m. Willoughby Strickland, (1835-1884).
2. Francis Dempsey b. 1837, m. Georgeann Strickland.
d. 7/22/1914.
3. Hester b. 1840.
4. William Jackson b. 5/27/1843, m. Mary Jane Baxter, (1849-1926), dau. of Wiley Baxter, (1828-1896).

By 1850, Dempsey Griffin and his family were living in Tattnall County where Mr. Griffin lived for the remainder of his life. He died on December 17, 1865 at his residence near Watermelon Creek.

Mrs. Griffin was granted a widow's pension for his service in the War of 1812. She died on April 22, 1884. It is not known where either of them are buried. They were of the Baptist faith.

Both William Jackson Griffin and Francis Dempsey Griffin were Confederate soldiers. They served in Captain Phillip Tippin's Company G (Tattnall Invincibles), 47th Regiment, Georgia Infantry, Jackson's Brigade, Walker's Division, Hardee's Corp., Joe Johnston's Army of Tennessee, CSA. Francis Dempsey was promoted to 2nd Lieutenant on August 1, 1863.

William Jackson was a Baptist Minister and is buried in the Ebenezer Freewill Baptist Church Cemetery near Glennville, Georgia.

Note: The children of Mrs. Griffin by her first marriage were:

1. Kader Lawson Keaton b. 11/30/1826 ' m. Julia Ann Shaw, 2n/1847, d. 1/26/1884. (1827- 1897).
2. William H. Keaton, (Rev.) b. 1827, m. Georganne Parker, 9/5/1883, b. 1842, dau. of Soloman Parker and his 2nd wife, Jane Baxter.
3. Lydia Keaton b. 1834, m. William Poppell, 3/7/1855, son of Gideon. She was a widow in the 1860 census of Tattnall Co. Ga.

The Keaton family is found in the earliest records of Princess Ann County, Virginia. Some moved to old Beaufort County, North Carolina in the early 1700's. "Kader" was an often used given name in the Keaton family in Virginia, North Carolina and South Carolina.

Mrs. Mary (Shicidand) Keaton Griffin made a widow's pension application for her husband's service in the War of 1812, which was granted. In the application, she stated that her husband, at the time of enlistment, had black hair and blue eyes and was 5'11 " in height.

Mrs. Mary Griffin died on July 22, 1884 at her residence at Matlock, Tattnall County, Georgia.

Sources: Information contributed by Elmer Parker and additional research by E. L. Williams.

Note: Dempsey Griffin signed his name "Demsey Griffin" on his bounty land application. Also, Mrs. Mary Griffin stated in her widow's pension application that she had not been married prior to her marriage to Dempsey Griffin.

GRIFFIN, James 1793-1860 WARE

JAMES GRIFFIN was born about 1795 in South Carolina. His parents' names are at present unknown. The 1840 Census indicates he was born between 1790 and 1800, whereas, the 1850 Census says he was 47 years old. The former is considered correct, and he was probably 57 years old in 1850 instead of 47.

Likewise his wife's age is indicated to have been before 1800, in the 1840 Census, but the 1850 Census shows her 42 years old. As the oldest son, William, was born 1815, she was probably born about 1798-1800. Her name was Nancy and she was said by descendants to have probably been a Burnside.

To James Griffin and wife were born:

1. William b. 1815, m. Cynthia Strickland.
2. Dempsey b. 1825, m. Mary E. Dowling.
3. James b. 1829, m. Isabelle Jones.
4. Edward T. b. 1833, m. Mary Margaret Mizell.
5. Alfred b. 1836, m. Nancy.
6. Elender b. 1837, m. Henry Strickland.
7. Washington b. 1840, m. _____ Albritton, daughter of Thomas.

James Griffin and family lived in Bulloch and Bryan counties until they moved to Ware County about 1835. They settled in territory now in Brantley County, in the vicinity of High Bluff Church. There he bought land and built his home. He had a good sized plantation in operation at his death.

He had seventeen slaves and one of these attacked him with a knife and disemboweled him, with fatal results. This in March, 1860, on his plantation on Big Creek. The slave was captured and hung.

Mrs. Griffin died in December, 1859, only four months before her husband's tragic death. Both were buried at High Bluff Church. The graves are unmarked. In the creation of Pierce County out of Ware in 1858, the Griffin family was cut into that county. The sons William and James were the administrators of his estate, and were dismissed in 1861, having closed out the estate.

Mr. Griffin was 2nd Sergeant in Capt. James Walker's company of Ware County militia in the Indian War in 1838.

Notes for DEMPSEY GRIFFIN:

Excerpt from The Story of Brantley County: Volume 1, p 114

"Dempsey Griffin served as a private in Captain James Walker's Company of the Ware County Militia. He mustered into service on June 9, 1838 and served for a period of 71 days. His father, James Griffin, served in the same company as 2nd Sergeant.

On September 22, 1862 Dempsey Griffin answered the call of his country once again. He enlisted in Waynesville as a private in Company G, 7th Georgia Cavalry, Gary's Brigade, Confederate States Army. On a muster roll dated March and April of 1864 he is listed as absent without leave. According to family legend, when he returned to service he was in trouble. The excuse that he gave was "he had to go home to put in a crop." His service papers describe him as being "blue-eyed, red faced," and physical build as "low and chunky".

The seventh Cavalry had several lengthy encampments: Camp Dorchester, in McIntosh County, located seven or eight miles east of Riceboro Poste Office, near Dorchester; Camp Rogers, Bryan County, Georgia; and Camp Young, Louisa County, Virginia, located near the Louisa County Courthouse. The 7th Cavalry was present in Appomattox with General Robert E. Lee when the Confederacy was surrendered. Dempsey Griffin is listed on the Appomattox Paroles and took the oath of allegiance on tht day. Gary's Brigade burned the bridge behind them when they left Richmond."

Notes for CHARLIE EUSTACE GRIFFIN:

From The Story of Brantley County Georgia Volume 1, 1999, p. 113-114:

Charlie Eustace Griffin was born on May 25, 1905 in Pierce County, Georgia (now Brantley), near the town of Hoboken. Eustace was the son of Pleasant Udolphie Griffin and Vallie Viola Altman. Vallie Altman was the daughter of Noah Altman and Julia Ann Barber. Julia was the oldest daughter of Henry Obediah Barber and Nancy Stephens. Pleasant Udolphie Griffin was the son of Pleasant Dempsey Griffin and Jane Elizabeth Thornton. Pleasant Dempsey Griffin was the son of Dempsey Griffin and Mary Elizabeth Dowling, and the grandson of James Griffin, Sr. and Nancy Burnside, who were some of the first white settlers in this area.

Eustace's mother, Vallie, died of appendicitis in 1907 when Eustace was less than 2 years old and his younger brother, Preston, was only 3 months old. His father married Julia E. Gibson and fathered four more children. Eustace was married on August 22, 1926 to Mary Viola Dowling, daughter of John Randall Dowling and Vandelia Hickox. Viola was born on February 19, 1912. Eight children were born to the couple:

1. Estelle Aline Griffin was born on August 29, 1927. She was married on May 25, 1946 to Cecil Lynn, the son of Charlie William and Ethel Lynn. Aline died December 6, 1979 from a car accident and is buried in Greenlawn Cemetery near Waycross, Georgia.

2. Maurice Eustace Griffin was born January 28, 1929. He was married on December 10, 1946 to Ruby Louise McNatt, daughter of William Dudley McNatt, Sr. and Eliza Willis McNatt. Ruby died on February 14, 1994 after a long battle with cancer. She is buried in Mt. Calvary Baptist Church Cemetery. Maurice remarried on July 19, 1997 to Mrs. Joyce Herrington Parm Jackson, daughter of James R. and Allie Herrington.

3. John Elvin Griffin was born August 7, 1930. He was married on August 3, 1948 to Evelyn Redding, daughter of Edgar and Effie Redding. Elvin died April 8, 1958 from leukemia and is buried in High Bluff Cemetery.

4. Carl Donal Griffin was born on May 26, 1932. He was married on November 11, 1955 to Betty Patsy Keener, daughter of Jewel Mae Keener.
5. Lawrence McCoy Griffin was born on August 2, 1938. Lawrence died May 6, 1940 and is buried in High Bluff Cemetery.
6. Delmus Jasper Griffin was born March 2, 1941. He was married on September 12, 1958 to Mertice Steedley, daughter of Jack and Irene Steedley. Mertice died on June 29, 1986 after a battle with cancer. She is buried in High Bluff Cemetery.
7. Vannie Iris Griffin was born September 13, 1943. She was married on May 12, 1961 to Olen Sherman Carter, son of Oden and Susie Carter.
8. Avery Wayne Griffin was born March 28, 1945. He was married on June 3, 1966 to Diane Edwards, daughter of Silas and Mamie Edwards.

The couple lived on a farm in a rural area near Hoboken, Georgia. The home where they lived was built by Eustace's father, Pleasant Udolphie Griffin and is over 100 years old. The house still stands on the property now owned by their son, Carl Griffin. The original buildings, many of which are now gone, included a smokehouse, a wash shelter which included a boiler used for making cane syrup and killing hogs, a tobacco barn, a pack house, and a corn crib. A number of crops were grown on this farm including tobacco, pecans, corn, and sugar cane. Eustace worked as a county school bus driver for many years. After his retirement, laying chicken houses were built on the property, which he and Viola worked along with their son, Delmus.

Eustace and Viola were both faithful members of Mars Hill Primitive Baptist Church. Both of their funeral services were held there. Viola died on July 7, 1988 after a long illness. Eustace died surrounded by family on April 22, 1990 after a battle with cancer. He is buried beside Viola at High Bluff Cemetery near Schlatterville. Each year on the date of Eustace's death, the family holds a reunion at the homeplace near Hoboken. Submitted by: Cathye Griffin Betzel and Larry Griffin, Route 1 Box 176, Hoboken, GA 31542.
