Notes for John Blood:

The first notes of the Bloods of Ruddington come by the way of a book on Methodism in Ruddington and its links with the Framework Knitters written by Stuart Jennings in 1993. On page 19 it is written that by the early 1820's a group of Primitive Methodists was recorded as meeting in Ruddington at the house of John Blood and his family of twelve. This cottage was probably the house which can still be seen at 39 Church Street, though it has long lost the thatched roof which was also referred to.

More About John Blood:

Burial: August 30, 1833, Ruddington, Nottinghamshire

Christening: April 25, 1777, Nether Broughton, Leicestershire

Notes for Jane Triage:

Baptism on the 25 December 1782 in the parish of Barton In Fabis, Jane , daughter of Ann Triage. Copy of transcript on file. Under the IGI the names of Trees and Trice will also be found. In the baptisms for the parish of Barton In Fabis can be found that a Henry and Mary Triage had children in Barton from 1785 onwards. On the IGI those children are listed under Trice, but Henry Trees married Mary Daft in Newark in 1784.

Looking at earlier Triage families from the IGI there was a family of Triage in Barton in Fabis in the 1720s and before that in Clifton with Glapton which is the next parish, so they do have a long pedigree in this area.

Notes for William Henson:

In 1881 William Henson and family were living in St. Mary's parish, in Nottingham, at #5 Ryeland Crescent. Henry is a cotton weaver in the 1881 Census, born at Wysall, his wife Eliza, not Elizabeth, age 31, born Ruddington, and his children Elizabeth (11), George (9), Hannah (6), also William's unmarried sister Hannah (20), a hosiery stitcher, a boarder George Price (20) a stocking framework knitter.

A search of the Ruddington parish register revealed that William Henson had married Eliza Blood on 29 March 1869 in the presence of Robert Blood and Harriet Choulerton. (Copy on File)

The marriage certificate shows that William Henson was the son of a William Henson, a framework knitter. Since William junior was born at Wysall, it seems logical that William senior would have been married there. On 11 July 1848 William Henson married Catherine Elliott at Wysall in the presence of a John Harwood and a Hannah Smedley. William was from Bradmore, the son of Richard Henson, a labourer. Catherine, who was under 21, was the daughter of Thomas Elliott, a labourer.

MY DEAR ERNEST Blood:

MANY THANKS FOR YOUR MOST INTERESTING LETTER OF THE 28TH SEPT.. I AM VERY SORRY I MISSED YOU IN AUGUST AND THAT YOU DID NOT LOOK ME UP FIVE YEARS AGO--I CAN ONLY HOPE NOW THAT YOU WILL COME THIS WAY SOON, AND THAT I MAY HAVE THE PLEASURE OF SEEING YOU THEN. I SHALL BE 92 YEARS OF AGE ON THE 7TH NOV.-JUST THREE WEEKS-SO THE SOONER YOU COME THE BETTER ! NOW AS TO FAMILY HISTORY-

I AM DIRECTLY DESCENDED ON THE FATHER'S SIDE FROM EDMUND BLOOD OF MACKNAY NOW MAKENEY HOUSE NEAR DUFFIELD IN DERBYSHIRE-ABOUT 6 MILES NORTH OF DERBY. HIS FATHER AND GRANDFATHER HAD LIVED THERE AND THE FAMILY WAS SAID TO HAVE BEEN GERMAN ORIGINALLY. HE, EDMUND TOOK SERVICE ABOUT 1595 WITH LORD INCHQUIN OF COUNTY CLAIR IN IRELAND, AS CAPTAIN IN A BATTALION OF INFANTRY WHICH LORD INCHQUIN RAISED AND TOOK OVER TO COUNTY CLAIR. EDMUND BLOOD PROBABLY SOLD HIS HOUSE AT MAKENEY. IT IS A LARGE PLACE NOW-IF IT HAS NOT BEEN PULLED DOWN SINCE I LAST SAW IT SOME NINE OR TEN YEARS AGO. EDMUND TOOK HIS WIFE WITH HIM TO IRELAND, AND EN ROUTE, ON BOARD SHIP SHE PRESENTED HIM WITH A SON AND HEIR,WHO WAS NAMED NEPTUNE-A NAME WHICH HAS BEEN USED IN THE FAMILY EVER SINCE. EDMUND FITTED HIMSELF OUT WITH A CASTLE-"KILNABOY"AND A HOME "BOHERSALLA" AFTERWARDS "APPLE VALLEY" AND A GREAT DEAL OF LAND, SOME OF WHICH DESCENDED TO ME ON MY FATHER'S DEATH IN 1896. IN 1676 HE WAS A MAGISTRATE AND M.P. FOR ENNIS THE "COUNTY TOWN" IN THE DUBLIN PARLIAMENT.

I PUBLISHED AN AUTOBIOGRAPHY A YEAR AGO, STYLED, "FOUR SCORE YEARS AND TEN" IN WHICH I GAVE SOME DETAILS ABOUT THE FAMILY,BESIDES MY OWN ADVENTURES.

I THINK SOME COPIES FOUND THEIR WAY TO YOUR SIDE OF THE WATER, AND WAS FAVORABLY NOTICED.

I AM THE 8TH DESCENT FROM EDMUND BLOOD, THE 7TH OF US IN IRELAND, ALL MY FOREFATHERS HAVING LIVED IN COUNTY CLAIR, AND THE SUCCESSION HAVING GONE FROM FATHER TO SON. I REMAINED ABOUT 10 YEARS AFTER MY FATHERS DEATH IN 1896, AND THEN SOLD MY PROPERTY UNDER THE ACT OF 1903, COMMONLY CALLED "THE WYNDHAM ACT" MY 1ST COUSIN CHARLES NEWMAN BLOOD, STILL LIVES IN CO. CLAIR AND REPRESENTS THE SENIOR BRANCH OF THE FAMILY THERE.

WHEN CAPTAIN EDMUND BLOOD WENT TO COUNTY CLAIR IN 1595, PEOPLE OF HIS NAME SEPARATED IN DERBYSHIRE AND PROBABLY STAYED THERE. I CAME ACROSS THE NAME TWICE IN DERBYSHIRE, ONCE IN BIRMINGHAM AND ONCE IN LONDON; IN EACH CASE THE OWNER OF THE NAME BEING CONNECTED WITH THE IRISH BRANCH OF THE FAMILY.

I SHOULD SAY THAT YOU ARE UNDOUBTEDLY A MEMBER OF THE ENGLISH BRANCH OF THE FAMILY.

ONE OF THE IRISH BRANCHES WENT TO AMERICA IN THE 17TH CENTURY NAMELY THE ELDEST SON OF COLONEL THOMAS BLOOD OF SARNEY IN CO. MEATH, WHO "STOLE THE CROWN". I HAVE BEEN IN TOUCH WITH TWO BLOODS WHO WERE PROBABLY HIS DESCENDANTS, BOTH IN GOOD POSITIONS IN SOCIETY IN YOUR COUNTRY.

ONE OF THE BALLY RILTY FAMILIES, COL.JOSEPH BLOOD LEFT A MOST INTERESTING BOOK BEHIND HIM IN MANUSCRIPT, CONTAINING MOST VALUABLE NOTES ABOUT VARIOUS BRANCHES OF THE FAMILY AND ABOUT INDIVIDUALS. IT IS KEPT IN HIS SON'S BANK BUT I WILL GET IT OUT FOR YOU WHEN YOU COME OVER. A VERY GOOD FELLOW AN EX-VOLUNTEER OFFICER, LIEUT. COLONEL FRED W. BLOOD, IS SERVING OUR PEDIGREE, WHICH WAS LAST OVERHAULED BY MY FATHER AND PRINTED ABOUT 50 YEARS AGO. FRED BLOOD

LIVES AT BIRKENHEAD, SO YOU WILL BE ABLE TO SEE HIM, AND HE IS SURE TO WANT YOU TO STAY WITH HIM, WHEN YOU COME OVER.

IT IS CURIOUS THAT UNTIL MY FATHER'S TIME WE DID NOT TAKE THE TROUBLE TO KEEP UP WITH OUR RELATIONS IN ENGLAND.

I PUT SOME MUCH TIME IN INDIA-32 YEARS ACTUALLY IN THE COUNTRY-THAT I DID NOT LIKE THE IDEA OF LIVING IN IRELAND WHEN I RETIRED FROM THE ARMY IN 1907. AND SO FORTUNATELY FOR MYSELF I SEVERED MY CONNECTION WITH THAT COUNTRY IN GOOD TIME. NOW THINGS DO NOT LOOK TOO WELL IN ENGLAND, AND THERE MAY BE UNPLEASANT NEWS BEFORE LONG-BUT I HOPE WE MAY ONLY AT THE WORST, HAVE A SHAKEOUT AND CLEARANCE OF RUBBISH.

WE ARE JUST BEGINNING TO FEEL A LITTLE WINTRY JUST NOW, AFTER A LONG CONTINUANCE OF SUMMER. BEST WISHES-

YOURS SINCERELY

B. Blood

Notes From the Trenton Times on July 11 1906:
" OPEN CAMP MEETING AT SIMPSON GROVE" TREVOSE PA. 11 JULY

Simpson Grove Camp was opened last Nite. Despite the showers a large number of people assembled. The Rev. W. F. Graeff pastor of the Messiah Methodist Episcopal Church Philadelphia was the speaker of the evening. His subject was " Evangelism" . He declared that if mankind watch for the saving of other, the evils of politics and bickering in religion would cease.

The Rev. Dr. John W. Sayers spiritual director of the camp and pastor of Trinity Church, Chester, then spoke. " Far and above all Christian pleasures and fellowships" he declared, " the great aim of Simpson Grove meeting will be the winning of sinners to Christ".

The "Chaulauqua" hour in the morning will be continued under the leadership of the Rev. Dr. George Henson pastor of the Gethsemane Methodist Episcopal Church Philadelphia. Besides the religious feature of the meeting talks and discussions upon outside problems and affairs will be quite an interesting feature.

George was remarried in 1937 to a Isabel Hersh.

George was a Methodist Minister and a district superintendent of the Methodist Church. When George died he was serving as President of the Ocean Grove Meeting Association in Ocean Grove New Jersey. He died in his home at that location.

George was buried in Westminster Cemetery after services at Gethsemane Methodist Church at Broad and Westmoreland Streets.

Notes for George William Blood:
George William Blood was my dad, and being the baby of the family has left me at a disadvantage when it came to the family history. My dad died when I was 12 years old and I still remember taking the call from the hospital and my mom being told that dad had died the night before. Both mom and dad had worked all their lives and I only known of the few last years when dad worked as a shipper for American Engineering on Wheatshaf Lane by Frankford Junction. It was only in talking to mom that I would learn that at one time dad had been a weaver in a carpet mill, and his job was described as a full wolten weaver. The story goes that dad could pull up a corner of a carpet and tell how well it was made.

The story goes that mom and dad lived by 2nd and the Boulevard where Grandpop Byrne had a store. The city directory of 1930 list George Blood at 2924 Waterloo Street. From there they move to 2020 East Venago Street and then onto 2073 East Atlantic Street. Dad never had a license to drive so we always had to take a bus or a train to the shore. Dad love the shore, he had purchased a double lot 60x100 at a stand on the boardwalk when I was just a baby (1949) without telling my mother, when she found out later she was furious. This is something I would do. The house was build later at 1809 Surf Avenue right across from Lou Booth's.

Burial: July 23, 1962, Our Lady of Grace Cemetery

Notes for Catherine Margaret Byrne:

Catherine Byrne was born on October 3 1904 at 2630 Almond Street which could be her parents residence at this time period. Her father in his younger years worked in a coal yard as a driver this could be George B. Newton Coal Co. and that is how he met Annie, Catherine's mother. Peter was later injured in an accident in the coal yard and took a job in the office. Later he would open up a store in area of Martha and Lehigh and then moved to Lawrence and Rockland. Mom always worked in the mills and usually made good money making "piece work" as an "invisible mender" in the hosiery mills. The more piece you could turn out, the more you made, and if you were let go from one place, you could walk down the street and get a job in the next place if you were that good. But according to mom it was the unions that killed the mills and drove them South. She believed that for the most part the mills owners took care of the good workers and did reward them for a job well done. And when the Unions came in they were asking for just too much and it was time to close down and they did.

During the War mom worked in the Frankford Arsenal at Bridge Street making .45 cal ammo. I am now hearing stories of how some of the ammo made it home to Venago Street and the coal bin and a certain kid by the name of George hit one with a hammer and almost took a wall down.

After a move to Atlantic Street about 1954 and Cappie Steaks on Frankford Ave mom was working at Kuhn and Blum at Amber and Willard Street.

364. Robert Peter⁸ Blood (George William⁷, Robert William⁶, George⁵, Robert⁴, John³, William², William¹) was born June 09, 1928 in Philadelphia, and died January 01, 1972 in Pittsburgh. He married Gertrude M. Reinhard January 12, 1950 in Heidelberg, Germany. She was born June 09, 1924 in Heidelberg, Germany, and died January 02, 1986 in Pittsburgh.

Notes for Robert Peter Blood:

Robert Peter Blood was born on the 9th of June 1928 at St Mary Hospital in Fishtown Section section of Philadelphia. Both Bobby and George were only about a year apart so that in growing up they got to hang out together. The family was living in the area around 2nd and the Blvd as the boys were going to Saint Ambrose School. The boys would come over to Grandmother's house for lunch and after school as mom would be working. And poor Aunt Nellie or Nora would have to put up with their acting. It was not long before the magical words were heard: " Nuts to you Aunt Nellie" and the front door would be slammed.

Both Bobby and George went to Northeast Catholic High School. Robert Class of 1946 and George Class of 1947. Robert enlisted in the regular army on the 14th of June 1946 at Philadelphia and while stationed in Germany at Heidelberg he met Gertrude M. Reinhard (Trudy).

Robert made Sergeant on 1 February 1949.

Robert was discharged on 12 January 1950 at Heidelberg with service of 3 years, 6 months 29 days. and then reenlisted 13 January 1950 at Heidelberg Germany. The reason is so that he could he could marry Trudy . An enlisted male could not marry a person in occupied country under military law. So that Robert had to resign , marry and then reenlist. Which, a lot of other service men and women did.

Robert was awarded the WW II Victory Medal and Army of Occupation Medal. He was listed as a Radio Repairman and this came in to play when he left the service and went to work for Bell Telephone and later At and T Long Lines. Robert worked at 9th and Race Street in Philadelphia, in Erie and in Pittsburgh Pa. In a November 1967 issue of Long Lines Magazine "Bob Blood" is listed as a plant manager of the Erie plant at the northwest tip of Pennsylvania." Along with staff of 18, he keeps that connection to the world working."
