Notes for Ofard Messer:

When Ofard was three years old he was walking with Uncle Livy and someone came out of the bushes and shot Uncle Livy in the forearm. He was holding Ofard's hand at the time and the bullet went through his arm just missing Ofard's head by a few inches. Later that day all the relatives wanted to get their guns and shoot this person but decided that wasn't a good idea. Evidently the shooter wanted our Grandfathers land. Later that year it was supposed, that the shooter set fire to the homestead and everything the family had burnt along with the house. Therefore, pictures before that time and paperwork was lost forever.

Notes for James Madison Woods:
Hi Sue & Richard,

Been a while. I got back on the family tree kick again and ran across you in ancestry.com. I pretty well documented that Pleasant Woods & Margaret Gabbard was Grandpa Mats Ma & Pa. I found it through the census. I Think Samuel Jr is Pleasants Dad but I'm having a hard time documenting it. Went down to Kentucky this summer and had a nice visit with Tommy & Pat Burdette. They showed us around the old home place where Aunt Eva and Dad grew up. We even went buy the cemetery where Grandpa Mat & Grandma Ruhama are buried. I took some pictures of the graves if you want I can email them to you. Hope you guys have been doing good. We are all fine. Seems like everybody back home sure is getting old. Hope it ain't catching. Maybe someday we can get together and have some dinner. I better get before I bore you to death.

See Ya

Notes for Laruhamah Murray:

AKA: Laurie, Laura, Ruhamah, Ruhannah, Ruth Amy

Source: The original records reflect that the following names were used:

On Eva's birth certificate - Ruhannah

On Eva's marriage certificate - Ruth Amy

Note: By Sue Bourne - My Grandmother Eva Mae Woods Noe Messer, in all the years I lived with her and after reviewing all her documents I always thought Great Grandmother's name was Ruhamah. After researching this information because of various names she went by and the incorrect spelling by others, I discovered her real given name to be "Laruhamah". She was named after an one of her mothers relatives Loruhamah Ball (one spelled with o the other with an a).

Also in my grandmothers files she said there were 16 children, I can only find 13. Still looking as of 1/2005.

Note by Sue Bourne: It looks like Stephen was married to two women at the same time. If you check the birth dates of the children you will notice that the dates overlap.

There is still a great deal of work that needs to be done to sort out this family. Grave stones may help.

According to the Kentucky Land Grant Between 1835-1870 832 acres of land were purchased by Messers: Stephen owned 100 acres in 1835, Jesse owned 378 acres in 1857-1860, Thomas owned 184 in 1859, and Elijah owned 170 acres in 1870. All this land was in Hazard, Perry Co., Kentucky area. There is a Messer Cemetery along the Messer Branch. I would not be surprised if all this land was in the same area. More research is needed.

Stephen is found on the following census records:

Came to Clay Co., Kentucky abt. 1840, married, had a family then abandoned them and went back to North Carolina.

Mix up between Johns two wives and the children:

I believe Mary Robinson had the first 4 children and the last 2 children were Martha's. When she died early in life the 2 children were raised by others and supposedly they called them the Hensley children. This is all speculation until we find more concrete evidence.
