

Descendants of John B. Boyett

Generation No. 1

1. JOHN B.³ BOYETT (JACOB BALLARD² BOYTE, JOHN¹ BALLARD) was born Abt. 1793 in North Carolina, and died Bef. 05 Mar 1856 in Marion County, Georgia. He married (1) UNKNOWN in North Carolina. She died Bef. 1850 in Marion County Georgia. He married (2) JANE ROGERS 28 Sep 1850 in Randolph County, Georgia. She was born Abt. 1812 in Georgia, and died Unknown in Louisiana.

Notes for JOHN B. BOYETT:
[Boyet.FTW]

John B. Boyett is the earliest ancestor that I have been able to document in my lineage. He first appears in Columbus County, North Carolina in the 1820 U. S. Federal Census. He later migrated, in 1831, with his family into Georgia probably looking for good farmland. John served in the War of 1812.

Georgia is the only state in the nation which did not initially sell land as it became available. The land was distributed in a number of Land Lotteries. Each lottery had different guideline for which an individual could "draw" land. Often these people were vetrans of wars, or widows and orphans of vetrans. Much of the land in Georgia was taken from Native Americans who were relocated to reservations.

In the 1800s as land opened up and people migrated westward Georgia served as a "Gateway" to the west. People who wanted to travel westward were required to secure a passport from the state of Georgia.

Notes for JANE ROGERS:

After John B. Boyet's death his wife, Jane, along with her husband's eldest son (from a previous marriage) John T. Boyet, his wife Eliza, and their children moved from Marion County, Georgia to Buck Horn, Bienville Parish, Louisiana in 1859. She is listed in the 1870 Federal Census of Bienville Parish, Louisiana as Jane Boyd with her two youngest step-daughters Anna and Laura. All three were listed as being born in Georgia.

Notes for NANCY BOYETT:
[Boyet.FTW]

Nancy Bows is listed in the household of John B. Boyet in the 1850 U. S. Census, Marion County, Georgia. She is listed below several younger children that were born in Georgia. She is listed as being born in North Carolina, as is John B. Boyett.

In 1830 John B. Boyet's household included a female that matches the age of Nancy.

I feel that Nancy is an elder child of John B. Boyet that has possibly been widowed and returned to her father's home. John T. Boyet the eldest son of John B. Boyet has a daughter named Nancy listed with him in the 1850 Marion County census. She is possibly named after Nancy Bows.

- ii. MARTHA W. BOYETT, b. 13 Nov 1843, Georgia; d. Unknown.

Notes for MARTHA W. BOYETT:
[Boyet.FTW]

Although Martha's tombstone reads "Born November 13 1850" I feel that this date is an error. When one reviews U.S. census records from 1850 and 1870 her age recorded on both documents reflect that she was actually born in 1843.

Notes for MARY BOYETT:
[Boyet.FTW]

I have used the birth information recorded on Mary's (Mollie's) tombstone. Her age listed on the Bienville Parish 1870 U.S. Census indicates that she was born in 1853. I do not feel that one census document warrants listing her birth date different from that recorded on her tombstone.

6. JOHN T.⁵ BOYETT (JOHN⁴, JOHN B.³, JACOB BALLARD² BOYTE, JOHN¹ BALLARD) was born 23 Sep 1839 in Stewart County, Georgia, and died Unknown in Webster Parish, Louisiana. He married VIRGINIA DRAPER 23 Feb 1866 in Bienville Parish, Louisiana. She was born in Webster Parish, Louisiana, and died Unknown in Webster Parish, Louisiana.

Notes for JOHN T. BOYETT:
[Boyet.FTW]

"John T. Boyet has been interested in agricultural pursuits in this section of the country since 1859, and is the owner of a fine plantation, which he has brought to its present state of farming perfection through his own management and energy. He was born in Stewart County, Ga., September 23, 1839, to John Boyet, who was born in the Old North State. At an early day the latter removed to Georgia with his father, John B. Boyet, Sr., and became a prominent citizen of Marion County, serving as high sheriff of that county for a number of years. John B. Boyet was a soldier in the War of 1812. John Boyet, the father of the subject of this sketch, grew to manhood in Stewart County, and when a young man went to Marion County, where he married Miss Eliza Chapman, a native of Pike County, Ga. After farming in that State for a number of years he removed to Louisiana in 1859, and located on the farm on which he now resides in Webster Parish, and on this farm his wife passed from life in 1888. John T. Boyet, whose name heads this sketch, grew to mature years in this parish, and up to 1861 made his home with his father. In March, 1862, he enlisted in the Confederate Army, being mustered into the Twenty-seventh Louisiana Infantry at New Orleans, and served until the war was over, being in a number of important engagements: Chichamauga, Grand Bluff, Port Gibson, Baker's Creek, Black River and the siege of Vicksburg. He received two wounds, one in the shoulder by a piece of shell, and a gunshot wound in the thigh. After his parole and return home from Vicksburg he began farming, and made one crop, at the end of which time he received notice of his exchange, was ordered to his regiment, which he joined in Alexandria, where he was held in reserve until the close of the war. After the surrender he returned home, and once more proceeded to make a living by the cultivation of the soil. He was without means and by working as a farm hand for some three years he managed to save some means, and purchased a piece of land on time for $1,500. He was compelled to labor very hard for three years, but at the end of that time his farm was his own. He then purchased enough more land to make his acreage 500, and after farming this place for ten years he bought the farm where he now resides. The home tract consists of 500 acres, with about 300 under cultivation, and besides a fine new house which is on his place, he has convenient and fair outbuildings. He lost by fire a handsome residence a few years ago, but has since rebuilt. By his own earnest endeavors he has acquired his present property, a fact that speaks well for his ability as a man of business. He was married in this parish in February, 1867, to Miss Virginia Draper, a daughter of Philip Draper. She was born and reared in this parish, and here her children have been born, their names being: Sarah V., Eliza, Philip M., Henry C., Maude, Thomas C. and an infant son. Francis S. died at the age of seven years, and two children died in infancy. Mr. and Mrs. Boyet are members of Fellowship Church, and are well known throughout this region as hospitable, charitable people, and excellent and obliging neighbors."

Notes for NOEL H. BOYETT:
[Boyet.FTW]

"Noah (sic) H. Boyet is a merchant and farmer, and both callings have been remarkably successful. He is a native of Georgia and was born in Marion County on March 23, 1845, coming to this State and county with his parents in 1859, and from here enlisted in the Confederate Army, in 1862, when but seventeen years of age. He served in the Twenty-seventy Louisiana Infantry until the close of the war, participation in the siege of Vicksburg and in several skirmishes. After the close of the war he returned to Webster Parish and turned his attention to tilling the soil, an occupation that received his attention exclusively for a number of years. In 1880 he engaged in the dry-goods business, his establishment being near the south line of the parish, but upon the building of the Vicksburg, Shreveport & Pacific Railroad Mr. Boyet started a branch store at Dubberly. In 1885 he moved to this place, and here has followed merchandising up to the present time. He has a large store-room and an excellent line of goods, which he disposes of at a very reasonable rate. He purchased a strip of land near the town, erected thereon a substantial residence, and has it otherwise improved. Mr. Boyet commenced the battle of life empty handed at the close of the war, but by the free exercise of brain and brawn and a judicious amount of economy he has accumulated a competency. Although his school days were very limited he has acquired a fair business education, and is sufficiently versed in the affairs of the every-day life to become a successful man of business. He was married on January 16, 1868, to Miss Mary Ann, a daughter of David Lard, she being a native to Louisiana and of Webster Parish. Mr. Boyet and his worthy wife have had a family of eight children born to them: Daniel W., Benjamin, Shelly B., Anna, Louisa, Elizabeth, James B. and Mandil. Mr. Boyet has always been public spirited, and at all times has shown himself to be honorable in every particular, and a keen and far-seeing business man."
