Buddy Bragg, age 24, appears in the 1900 census. He is listed as a hired laborer, working for John Myres, age 73. In the same census, page 269A, is Buddy's mother, Eliza, age 48, listed as widowed. On page 274B, William S. Morgan and his family appear. Buddy will marry William's youngest daughter, Oceola (Ola) sometime prior to 1904.

R.J. Bragg and wife Ola appear in the 1920 Tipton Co. census. R.J. is listed as 47, Ola is 37. Three children are listed: Willie Clifton, age 15; Eunice, age 10; Beula, age 8. All members of the household were born in Tennessee and all are able to read and write. This census information was supplied by Quintin Bradshaw, who notes that his maternal grandparents, George Larimore and Catherine Isabelle Murrin Larimore, are listed just above the entry for the Braggs. Ola Morgan Bragg was a sister to Quintin's paternal grandmother.

The Friday, Dec. 24, 1926 edition of the Lauderdale Co. Enterprise contained this item:

Mr. and Mrs. R.J. Bragg spent Sunday with his son, Mr. Willie Bragg, at the Walker farm.

From a 1926 edition of the Lauderdale County Enterprise newspaper:

Mrs. Willie Bragg and son, W.C. Jr., of the Walker Farm, spent Monday and Tuesday with her father, Mr. McCullough.

From the December 25, 1926 Lauderdale County Enterprise newspaper:

Square Dance Aboard

Dad told us boys we could have a square dance down on the new ferry boat that night, if the weather permitted.

My brother and I saddled up our horses and rode all over the county, inviting everyone to a square dance down on Hatchie River, Christmas night. Late that evening, we rigged up 10 or 12 small bottles filled with kerosene, using short pieces of rope for wicks – stinging them all around on the boat, just in case we needed some lights. The weather was beautiful, and we had a wonderful crowd.

There were several wagon loads from Tipton County. Our father invited the high sheriff of Lauderdale County, Mr. Andrew Craig, who had just been re-elected to that office for his third term. Mr. Richard Brackin and my cousin, Egbert Parker, played the fiddle; W.C. Bragg and I picked the guitar. We would take turns making music and dancing. If someone came from Tipton County, we would pull over to that side and invite them on the boat, without ever stopping the music or dancing. We had a wonderful time riding and dancing across Hatchie River that night on the new ferry boat.
