Notes for DANIEL BURKHART:

Little Pigeon Missionary Baptist Church Publication, date unknown (circa mid 1950s):
"How It All Began"

Little Pigeon Church was organised in 1840 and Daniel Burkhart gave the first land for the church, 2 1/2 acres. Then in a few years the Burkharths started to bury some of their family here. Then it was agreed to start a free cemetery for the community. The first families to use the cemetery were Burkhart's, Egnew's, Pierson's, Patmore's, Bufkin's, Alley's, Grigsby's, Townsend, Martin's and Varner's. About the beginning of the Civil War many families began to bury here.

Notes for GEORGE WASHINGTON BURKHEART:

[Brkhrt from MAA.FTW]

George's death certificate gives his date of birth as 10 October 1829. The death certificate says that he died at age 79 and that he was a male. His color is white and he was widowed. The funeral home was Jacobs & Mayhall Funeral Home in Rockport, Spencer, IN. It also says that his wife was Anna Burkhardt. I don't know if this is a mis-reading of Ammi or if there was another wife. The obituary appeared in the Rockport [, , IN] Democrat on 7 May 1909. It said that George died 1 May 1909, and that he was buried in Sunset Hill Cemetery. His death certificate says that his occupation was a nurseryman.

Census: 1850, Ohio Twnshp, Spencer, IN

Notes for ALBERT G. DAWSON, SR.:

"History of Warrick, Spencer and Perry Counties, Indiana - Hammond Township" by Goodspeed Bros. & Co. - published in 1885:

ALBERT G. DAWSON, Sr., an early pioneer of Spencer County, Ind., was born June 16, 1816, in Clermont County, Ohio, and is the third son in the family of eight boys and five girls, born to Joseph and Nancy (Miseltoe) Dawson, both natives of Virginia, in which State they were married. Soon after their marriage they removed to Clermont County, Ohio, where they lived upward of thirty years. They then removed to Hamilton County, Ohio, where they passed the remainder of their lives, with the exception of one year spent in Spencer County, Ind. The former died about 1852, and his wife four years earlier. Albert G. Dawson, Sr., received his education in the primitive log-schoolhouse of the frontier. In his twenty-second year he came to Spencer County, Ind., and rented land of Samuel Hammond, living in a small hut on the present site of Grandview. November 22, 1838, his marriage with Permelia Adams was solemnized. Five children were born to them, none of whom are now living. In 1840 he bought the farm where he now lives. About two years later he commenced flat-boating on the Ohio and Mississippi. He was the owner of the boats, running two and three during the winter season. He was in New Orleans when President Lincoln delivered his first inaugural address. He made only one trip after the war. Mrs. Dawson died July 11, 1852, and January 23, of the next year, he married Caroline Fagin, who died March 28, 1854. One child was born to this union. November 11, 1855, he married Cynthia A. Burkhart, a native of Spencer County, Ind. To them thirteen children have been born, nine of whom, Millard F., Albert G., Isabella (now Mrs. Alber Byrne), Christopher C., Laura, Ella (now Mrs. Wesley Tuton), Mary E, Cora A. and Franklin C., are living. Mr. Dawson has a good farm, well improved, and is well known as an honest and upright citizen.

Notes for BENJAMIN FRANKLIN BURKHART, SR.:

"History of Warrick, Spencer and Perry Counties, Indiana - Clay Township" by Goodspeed Bros. & Co. - published in 1885: BENJAMIN F. BURKHART, one of the leading farmers of Clay Township, was born in Nelson County, Ky., May 20, 1833, being the oldest son of J. and Mary (Wilkinson) Burkhardt, both natives of Kentucky. His father, a wagon-maker and farmer, came to Spencer county about 1840, and located in Clay Township, where he remained until his death, which occurred May 29, 1870. His mother died in August, six years later. He received but a limited education in youth, and worked at home on the farm until attaining his majority. In 1852 he bought eighty acres of land on Section 30, where he now lives. He has added to his first purchase 165 acres, and now has a good farm. January 8, 1853, he was united in marriage with Laura Powell, by whom he is the father of ten children, all but one of whom are living. They are Lavina (now Mrs. H.L. Anderson), Joshua, Sophia A. (wife of S. Woodruff), Josephine, Benjamin F., Olie, Bell, Georgie and Charles. Mr. Burkhardt is a member of the Masonic fraternity, and both he and wife are members of the Baptist Church.

J. O. "Josh" Burkhardt Obituary:

Bullet Victim Buried Sunday - Funeral Held Under Auspices of K.P. Lodge - One of the largest funeral crowds ever assembled in Spencer county witnessed the last sad rites of as the remains of J. O. Burkhardt was consigned to its last resting place in Little Pigeon cemetery Sunday. There were no services at the house, the K. of P. lodge taking charge of the body as soon as the hearse arrived. They placed the coffin in the hearse and the procession started for the cemetery about 3:15 p.m. Upon arriving at the cemetery it was found the church would not accomodate even a small fraction of the crowd and it was decided to hold an open-air service. An auto truck was placed for the speakers, and the body was placed nearby under the shade of the trees. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. W. C. Polson, pastor of the Rockport Baptist church, assisted by Rev. Charles Herring of the Grandview Baptist church. The following obituary was read by Rev. Polson: "Twas in the early morn of June 21, 1923 that the sad news came that J. O. Burkhardt had passed away at St. Mary's Hospital in Evansville, leaving only that that is moral to return to us that we might place it in its last resting place to await the sounding of the trumpet of God, when he shall again come forth to meet the Christ whom he loved and served. Jos, as he was familiarly called, was born Dec. 16, 1868 in Spencer County, where he spent a noble life. He died at the age of 54 years, 6 months and 5 days. He was the son of Charles W. and Elizabeth Burkhardt, who proceeded him to the world beyond, as did his sister, Mrs. Will Gorman. He leaves to mourn here, a companion and fives brothers, Joe Burkhardt of near Little Pigeon, John and George of Rockport, James of near Degonia, Frank of Warsaw, Ill., and one sister, Mrs. Mattie Gorman of Newtonville, Ind., also his twin nieces, Lelah and Lena Gorman whom he has cared for several years. He united with the Little Pigeon Church and was baptised in the year of 1889 under the pastorate of Rev. Stevens, and lived a faithful member until death. He said in his last hours to Rev. McCoy that he "was trusting in God who has power to help when all others fail." His last words to his wife were, "All is well with me." It can be truthfully said "a good man has fallen," for he was a good citizen, a good neighbor and a kind friend to all who knew him. He was a member of the town board of Chrisney and was pleasant in all business actions of the same. He was also a member of Cedric Lodge, Knights of Pythias No. 286, in Chrisney, which he joined twenty-eight years ago, having received the medal of honor after being a member for twenty-five years. A crowd of between 750 and 800 persons viewed the remains, which did not represent more than 40 per cent of those present. At the grave the ritual of the K. of P. lodge was held over the body of this departed brother. Then these men fell back to give place to give place to the procession of Ku Klux Klan], seen approaching up the slope. The crowd gave way as fifteen robed and masked Klansmen carrying a fiery cross made of red carnations formed a circle about the grave. A stillness, that was almost uncanny, fell upon those present. In a clear, penetrating voice one of the hooded men began to speak. During the brief address he deplored the untimely death of J. O. Burkhardt, "a brother Klansman." Following the address, a prayer was offered by another of the robed band while the others knelt reverently at the grave. This concluded the ceremeony and the robed figures passed on and reentered the auomobiles parked at the roadside. Thus is written the closing chapter of the earthly career of oe of nature's noblemen, a product of Spencer county. Card of Thanks We wish to take this method of thanking all those who so kindly assisted us during the recent untimely death and burial of J. O. Burkhardt. Especially do thanks the neighbors, the K. of P. Lodge and the Knights of the Ku Klux

Klan, for the sympathy, the fraternal ceremonies and the beautiful flowers. Mrs. Ida Brukhart and relatives source: unknown Spencer County newspaper

Notes for JAMES KILLIAN:

From "History of Warrick, Spencer and Perry Counties, Indiana", Illustrated, 1885, page 521:

JAMES KILLIAN, one of the substantial farmers of the county, is a native of Decatur County, Ind., born December 30, 1833. At the age of twelve years he left the parental roof to seek his own fortune. He went to Louisville, Ky., where he established a small fruit stand, selling blackberries, oranges, etc. He continued in this business for about three years when he hired as a cook on a flat-boat going from Louisville to New Orleans. Becoming tired of river life, he rented a farm in Spencer County, Ind., which he conducted several years. February 29, 1859, he was united in marriage with Nancy E. Burkhart, after which he rented a farm in Clay Township, and in connection with his farming bought tobacco for a wholesale house in New York. In 1868 he bought 120 acres of land on Section 29, where he has since resided, and to which he has added fifty acres. He is the father of six children, John M., Mary M., Anna N., Laura B., Robert W. and Myrtle. Mr. Killian's parents, George W. and Mary A. (McCloud) Killian were natives of North Carolina and Ireland respectively. They were married in Virginia and soon after removed to Decatur County, Ind. where they passed the remainder of their lives.

Notes for EFFIE BURKHEART:

Mary Ann Bridges, 06/05/2001: Effie is my great grandmother. She is buried in Covington Oklahoma in one of those cemeteries in the middle of the prairie where the wind DOES come sweeping down the plains. Anyway, Effie brought with her from the Burkheart Homestead in Indiana to Arkansas to Missouri to Oklahoma cuttings from a rosebush. (did y'all follow that?)The rose bush is on the fence by her grave in OK. Last year, I got 14 cuttings and 3 survived (my first efforts at roses). So I am getting ready to plant my cuttings on a trellis by the gate that goes into my yard. After it gets going, I will give cuttings to my sisters. Kinda neat, huh?

W. W. KELLAMS, surveyor of Spencer County, Ind., was born December 9, 1857, and is the fifth in a family of eleven children born to the marriage of G.R. Kellams, who was born in this county June 6, 1828, and Maria Egnew. G.R. Kellams was a soldier of the late war, going out as first lieutenant of Company H, Forty-second Regiment Indiana Volunteers. He was promoted to captain, and from that successively to major, lieutenant-colonel and colonel, and was honorably discharged in July, 1865, after participating in some of the most hotly contested battles of the war. He is a Democrat, a Mason, and at present is engaged in the practice of law and as collection agent at Gentryville. W.W. Kellams, subject of this sketch, after receiving a good common school education in youth, turned his attention to teaching at eighteen years of age, and after continuing that five years, took a course in the State Normal at Terre Haute. In 1880 he began the study of law, and in 1883 was admitted to the bar at Indianapolis. He is a Democrat in politics, and the fall of 1884 was elected to this present position as Surveyor of Spencer County.

Letter to Lou Gates (name from Joe Brady) about Wilson Montgomery and Elizabeth Burkhart yielded the following email.

January 23, 2000

Dear Lou Gates,

I got your name and address from Joe Brady. He thinks we might be distant cousins and that you might know more about Nancy Jane Montgomery and/or Wilson A. Montgomery. See the very bottom of this to see the emails between him and I.

While looking on the internet for Nancy Jane Montgomery, dau of Wilson Montgomery, I found the ancestry page created by Joe Brady.

<http://pedigree.ancestry.com/cgi-bin/pedview.dll?ti=0&Ind=2818&File=12980>

It has Nancy Jane Montgomery, dau of Wilson A. Montgomery (father and mother unknown) and Elizabeth Christiance Burkhart dau of Selman Hobbs Burckhart and Mary Hunt.

My question to him, and now to you, was did he know of any other siblings for Nancy Jane. I know "my" Nancy Jane was married to Wilson Montgomery but she had two sisters not listed on his page: Gertie and Myrtle. He only has George W., Isora Z., Thomas K., and Ester E. Listed as her siblings.

Hi Vicki,

I received your letter with queries about the BURKHART family. I must say it is always neat to find a new cousin. But....I am sorry I don't have any other info on Wilson & Elizabeth Montgomery than what you have.

I haven't worked on my Burkharts in awhile, so I had to brush my memory. :-) I hunted for my granddad Charles Donaghe, son of Ellen Jane Burkhart, in Texas in 1880 for the longest time. and by chance I found them in Mo. right next door to the Montgomerys. It sounds like the family traveled back and forth from Mo, to Tx and Ok. and back to Mo. Do you have any idea how they traveled?

Do you have anything on Ellen Jane? I cant find a marriage record for her 1st marriage to James B. Dobson. I would be happy to exchange info with you. I do have a bit on Ellen Janes family. I also have a picture of she and her 3rd husband. Do you have pictures of any of the Burkharts?

I have Lawrence Co census books for the years 1860 & 1880., If you need me to look up anything.

I am sorry that I havent anything to offer you. My desire is to find families on all the siblings of my Ellen Jane., and yes, I would love to have info on your family. I will send you mine also if you would like. Let me know.

A cousin,

DELLA MYRTLE⁶ GREENE (EFFIE⁵ BURKHEART, GEORGE WASHINGTON⁴, CHRISTOPHER³, GEORGE² BURCKHARTT, GEORGE FREDERICK¹ BURCKHARDT, SR.) was born Oct 03, 1880 in Rockport, Spencer, IN, and died Dec 24, 1973 in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma,OK. She married CARROLL FRANKLIN BRIDGES Sep 15, 1903 in Rockport, Spencer, IN, son of BENJAMIN BRIDGES and ELIZABETH COOPER. He was born Oct 15, 1876 in Rockport, Spencer, IN, and died Aft. 1885.

Notes for DELLA MYRTLE GREENE:

[Brkhrt from MAA.FTW]

Under the direction of Anderson Funeral Home. Della's husband left the family some time after 1910, so Della and the children moved in with her parents. Some time later, Sidney H. Greene (Papa Greene) homesteaded a farm in northwestern Arkansas. Della got a teaching job in Lake City, Arkansas and they all became ill. They then moved to Willow Springs, Missouri in the Ozarks. Della later returned to Lake

City and her mother raised the children. Meanwhile, Della's sister Elsie and her husband, moved to Tulsa, Oklahoma where they operated a cafe. Sidney Bridges lived with them and attended junior high school. Della's brother, Arthur, became a government surveyor and worked throughout the west. He got oilfield work and became chief engineer of Sinclair Prairie Oil's Gasoline Plant No. 6 in the Garber-Covington field. Sidney and Effie moved to Rollo, Missouri, but Sidney's health was failing. Arthur persuaded them to move to Oklahoma. Della got a job in the Sinclair Company school and the company teacherage to live in. The Hamiltons operated the country store. Papa Greene soon died. Arthur developed kidney disease and died about 1928. Effie Greene died in 1936. Jerry remembers her as a sweet old lady.

Notes for CARROLL FRANKLIN BRIDGES:

[Brkhrt from MAA.FTW]

On the birth certificate for Robert Carroll Bridges, it gives the birth location of his father as , IN. Carroll attended Purdue as a high school student, but did not complete his studies. Carroll tried running his father's farm, but was unsuccessful, then bought a ferry at Rockport, Spencer, IN, and built a house on the bluff. The ferry business failed. Carroll moved to Hammond, Louisiana where he had relatives, leaving his family. He eventually moved to New Orleans where he worked in the shipyards during World War I. He was awarded a badge for his patriotic contribution. Gerald E. Bridges, son of Sidney Hampton Bridges, has this badge. Carroll later worked as ship's carpenter on United Fruit Co. boats. Sidney Bridges visited his father, Carroll, in the New Orleans French Quarter in 1930.

She was born Apr 03, 1909 in Philpot, Daviess, KY, and died Aug 10, 2000 in Fort Wayne, Allen, IN.

Notes for WILLIAM JAMES BURKHART:

Pauline Harley Gibson as told to Joyce Harley Stinnett (Joyce's email to Deb Burkhardt of 5/30/2001): She told me how Bill worked in the lumber camp for Uncle John and said he stayed at their house a lot because of their work. Then she said he lived with his Aunt Lib Willingham. She said she didn't know what her name was but everyone called her Aunt Lib. Maybe she wasn't actually his aunt but Pauline thought she was because he called her that. Since she said everyone around called her that, maybe it was just a sentimental name he had for her. I will ask Pauline as soon as I talk to her. I do know there were a lot of Willinghams in the area. They were still there when I was a girl. I will send this I just learned I have a new message from you.

Sybil Burkhardt Howe (email of 7/17/2001): Lois Jean Burkhardt, she was the daughter of Oral and Thelma Burkhardt. Oral was Daddy's oldest brother, he had three children, two girls and one boy. I can't remember the name of the baby girl, but Edwin was the name of their son, Lois Jean was my age, that is how I can remember her as we played together. I lived on the hill with my Gackie and Annie, this is when Mother and Daddy got married, Lois Jean lived down the hill from our house, We all lived on the same lane, and right at the bottom of the lane, Aunt Fanny lived, so I spent a lot of time going up and down that lane as a little girl. In the Burkhardt house, lived Grandpa Burkhardt, Aunt Alta, Oral and his family. This was before Aunt Alta married Charlie

Willen.

Notes for RUTH LEONA GREEN:

[Brkhrt from MAA.FTW]

Ruth was born in a railroad car outside of Wilbert, LA. The family lived on the railroad because Ruth's father, Peter L. Green, was the foreman for the crews laying track between Lafayette and Baton Rouge. The family followed the crews. Not long after her birth, there were terrible floods in south Louisiana. All birth certificates in New Orleans were lost to the floods, including Ruth's. Years later, after her husband's death, she had to prove she existed -- tough job. The birth certificate was re-created at that time. No one can remember where she was Christened. The family was Catholic at the time so perhaps this information can be tracked through the Catholic Diocese. Ruth died at Our Lady of the Lake Hospital of cancer. She was unconscious her last couple of days. Her dautthers, Ellen, Bonnie and Mary Ann were there, although Mary Ann was asleep on a cot in the room. She was 59 years, 1 month and 14 days old. He home address was 8841 Darby Avene in Baton Rouge, Louisiana. In the last few years of her life, Ruth was a Secretary of Belfair Elementary School in Baton Rouge, Louisiana.

More About RUTH LEONA GREEN:

Burial: Apr 12, 1972, Greenoaks Memorial Park, Baton Rouge, East Baton Rouge Parish, LA

Cause of Death: Cancer

Occupation: Secretary at Belfair Elementary School, Baton Rouge, LA

Religion: Catholic

Marriage Notes for ROBERT BRIDGES and RUTH GREEN:
