Generation No. 1

1. Henry Jackson "Jack"<sup>2</sup> Clay (Mr.<sup>1</sup>) was born Abt. 1851 in Russell Co., VA, and died Abt. 1917 in NC?. He married (1) Unknown Abt. 1874 in TX?. She died Bef. 1881 in TX?. He married (2) Margarett (Attaway) Smith 09 May 1881 in Nocona, Montague Co., TX, daughter of Willis Attaway and Milbury Riddle. She was born Abt. 1857 in Wood Co., TX, and died May 1894 in Maxwell, Pontotoc Dist., Chickasaw Nation, Ind Ter (now Pontotoc Co., OK). He married (3) Mary Ellison Abt. 1906 in NC/VA?, daughter of Elizabeth Ellison. She was born Abt. 1865 in NC.

Notes for Henry Jackson "Jack" Clay:

Raised as an orphan according to reports from other family members.

A family story goes that H.J. left home (TX/OK?) in 1901 when his youngest son, Willie Wade was about 7 years old. He supposedly went to California to find work and never returned.

Source: Personal recollections of Orin Clay, son of Eracho Charles Clay as related to Douglas E. Clay.

Author's Note: H.J. may not have went to CA, but instead went to NC looking for work, perhaps near his mother's birthplace. In personal correspondence from Thomas J. Clay, his nephew, to my father Thomas W.S. Clay in 1925, it stated that his uncle Jack Clay had died in NC 8 years ago. From that statement it would seem to indicate that H.J. died about 1917 in NC.

Author's Note: Henry Jackson is somewhat of a mystery man. I have been unable to find him in the 1870, 1880 or 1900 census records. Will continue the search as there should be a record of him somewhere.

Notes for Margarett (Attaway) Smith:

Margarett entered her marriage with Henry Jackson with two children from a previous relationship.

Author's Note: Willis's wife Milbury appears to have died since the last census. In 1870 he is married to Nancy (Samples) Attaway, widow of Elisha Attaway who died in 1865 during the Civil War. It is quite possible that Elisha is Willis Attaways brother. The children listed in this record are probably a mixture of his, hers and theirs.

The town of Maxwell was located 1 mile west of the present Maxwell Cemetery, 11 miles NW of Ada, OK on Hwy 3W, then 3 miles north. Locator signs that were present in 1998 were: Braum Ranch, Maxwell Church, and Co. Rd. 346.

Source: Personal recollection of Orin Clay, son of Eracho Charles Clay. Eracho's brother, Albert Clay and his son, Garrett were unable to find the gravesite in later years as related to Douglas E. Clay, son of Garrett Clay.

Marriage Notes for Henry Clay and Margarette Smith:

H.J. Clay and Mrs. Margaret A. Smith's marriage license is on film #1024887 on file with the Family History (Genealogical) Library, Salt Lake City, UT.

Child of Henry Clay and Unknown is:

Notes for Cleo Clay:

Cleo is buried in the Maxwell Cemetery which is located off highway 3W, 11 miles NW of Ada, OK and about 4 miles north on Co. Rd. 346. Co. Rd. 346 is about 3 miles from the Highway 59A turnoff. The town of Maxwell, OK used to be about 1 mile west of the Maxwell Cemetery. Go north to the first left turn, then go to the first left turn again and that is where the town of Maxwell, OK was located.

Caretaker of the Maxwell Cemetery is Mary Steel, tel. 580-332-1821.

Today, Maxwell is one of Oklahoma's many ghost towns. It was located in Maxwell Twp., Pontotoc Co. at 14, T5N, R4E; 11 miles NW of ADA, OK on Hwy 3, then 3 mi. No. It had a school, post office, mill, cotton gin, jail, blacksmith and a doctor. In 1876, the settlement of Maxwell, OK was located in the Pontotoc District of the Chickasaw Nation, Indian Territory (now Pontotoc Co., OK).

Children of Henry Clay and Margarette Smith are:

Author's Note: A Clay descendant from a different line wrote to the Social Security Administration to obtain an SS-5 form for William Alexander Clay and his brother Dick Clay. When she received her copies, one stated that the parents of William A. Clay were Green Clay and Elizabeth Pounds. The one for Dick Clay stated that his parents were Henry Jackson Clay and Margaret Ataway. On the form she received, Dick had written that he was born 13 November 1878, place of birth unknown, and that he was 58 years old living in Guthrie, OK in 1937. This is the only Dick Clay that she found on the SSDI. According to her great uncle, Dick was 10 years older than William Alexander Clay. The family was always told they were brothers and not cousins. She believes that the possibility of two Dick Clay's is real and the information for both has been compacted and messed up. One Dick Clay died in Guthrie, OK at age 81, and one Dick Clay died in Checota, OK at age 90. Yet, only one SSDI record is found for Dick Clay and nothing for Richard Clay. In my research I found her Richard Clay had married Ada Cutsinger in McIntosh Co., OK.

We now have another family puzzle.

Children of Richard Clay and Iva Richardson are:

- + 9 i. Theodore "Ted"<sup>4</sup> Clay, born 01 April 1909 in Logan Co., OK; died 28 May 1980 in Guthrie, Logan Co., OK.
- + 10 ii. Henry "Jack" Jackson Clay, born 09 March 1912 in Logan Co., OK; died 19 June 1967 in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma Co., OK.
- + 11 iii. William David Clay, born 31 August 1916 in Logan Co., OK; died 23 October 1970 in Guthrie, Logan Co., OK.
- + 12 iv. Alice Marie Clay, born 14 January 1918 in Logan Co., OK; died 27 November 1991 in Guthrie, Logan Co., OK.
- + 13 v. Lee Russell Clay, born 09 May 1921 in Logan Co., OK; died 30 April 1967 in Guthrie, Logan Co., OK.
