Notes for John Buchanan:

John Buchanan

Copyright, Robert W. Scott, 1998.

John Buchanan ca 1779-6 May 1847, farmer and merchant, was one of the earliest land purchasers in Ripley and Switzerland Cos. The son of Revolutionary War Soldier George Buchanan, John was probably born in central Pennsylvania; moved with his family to Westmoreland Co., Pa., after the revolution and then to the Blue Grass Region of Kentucky about 1790. John's first record comes in 1801 when he and three brothers lived on Benson Creek in Franklin Co., Ky. The four brothers probably moved to Indiana in 1802. John Buchanan of Dearborn Co., Ind., along with partner William Phillips, purchased several hundred acres in September 1804 near modern Florence, Switzerland Co., Ind. John and wife, Rachel, then living in Jefferson Co., sold this tract in 1815.

John is listed in the 1807 Indiana territorial census in Dearborn Co., and voted in an 1809 Dearborn Co. election. Next, John purchased two quarter sections in what is now Brown Township, Ripley Co. on the Jefferson Co. border on Aug. 25, 1809. On Sept. 5, 1815, John purchased land from his father-in-law, Jacob Short, on the Indian-Kentuck Creek, just downstream from Manville in Milton Twp., Jefferson Co.

John's movements have not been completely determined, but are suggested by the marriages of his daughters. Until 1940, Indiana law required marriages to occur in the county of the bride's residence. His daughters were married as follows: Nancy, 1816 in Jefferson Co; Dorcas/Tolitha, 1822, Switzerland Co.; Elizabeth, 1831, Decatur Co.; Eliza, 1832, Switzerland Co. Two other children, son, Wilson, and daughter, Nancy Short, are both buried near Greensburg.

Whatever the involvement in Decatur Co., residence there was brief. John and Rachel Buchanan were members of the Manville Christian Church in Milton Township, by 1836. They moved to Craig Township, Switzerland Co. about the time he purchased land and property on the road from Port William (Carrollton, Ky.) to Versailles on 17 Dec. 1838. This purchase included two stores and inventory. Rachel appears a membership of the Braytown Christian Church founded about this time. John's first marriage is often listed as being to Tabitha Freeman. John is named as a son-in-law in will of Elisha Freeman, recorded in Hardin Co., Ky., and also in Jefferson Co., Ind., on 10 April 1818. The will does not give the daughter's first name. But since Freeman lived in Lincoln and Garrard Counties, and this group of Buchanans did not, the will may refer to another John Buchanan.

John's marriage to Rachel Short on 6 May 1813 in Jefferson Co. John and his inlaws, Jacob and Elizabeth Short, are all buried in the Old Bethel Cemetery in Craig Township. Old Bethel was a Baptist Church that was vanished before the formation of nearby Spring Branch Church formed in 1853. Rachel lived 1850 in Craig Township with her father, Jacob Short, in her household. She bequeathed her entire property for the education of youngest son, George A. Buchanan, at Bethany College in Virginia. John's will in Switzerland Co. favors children of the second marriage.

Children of John Buchanan and Tabitha Freeman (?)

1. Martha Buchanan b. 1792/93 (age 57 1850 census) She m. 8 July 1819 in Jefferson Co., George Henry. Family lived 1850 in Brown Co., Ind. Her age in 1850 must have been copied wrong or this is the wrong couple. John would have been about 13 in 1792.
2. Wilson Buchanan 1795-25 July 1833 He m. 9 Jan. 1817 in Jefferson Co., Zella Forester, died 23 June 1843, both buried Star Baptist Church Cem., Greensburg.

From Tom Thatcher's genealogy file:

Wanita Lucas writes that in the 1920s or 1930 there was a swindle in Indiana involving a law firm which promised a share of a large Buchanan fortune to anyone who was descended from William Henry Harrison Buchanan. A lot of quickie Buchanan genealogies were done, and Wanita believes this is where Hu got his his information.

Wanita has found a record of John Buchanan, son of George Buchanan and Esther Campbell, who was born in Pennsylvania in 1778, and came to Indiana early with his brothers. John died in Switzerland Co., Indiana in 1847 and in his will he names Martha and George Henry as legatees along with his other children.

John and his brothers built a blockhouse to defend against Indian attacks, mentioned in the Indiana history, "Biography and Historical Survey of Harrison, Jefferson, Crawford and Clark Counties."

Ancestors of President Buchanan:

Descendants of Thomas, of Donegal

by Patty Hopkinson

President James Buchanan's genealogy has been fairly well established for a number of years. Many people have tried to closely tie their own lines into the Presidents line based on family legends and wishful thinking. I receive a large number of letters every year with comments such as "my great grandfather said he was a 1st cousin to President Buchanan" or "my grandmother said her father was a 3rd cousin of President Buchanan's." Most of these family rumors tend to be untrue and mainly came about during the 1930's "Buchanan Estate Scam" where letters were sent out to anyone with the name Buchanan claiming they were entitled to a share of a nonexistent multi-million dollar estate. Often, these letters went on to claim that President Buchanan was at one time head of the Clan (blatantly untrue). Some of these letters stated that if you could claim close kinship to the President that your share of the estate would be larger. For anyone to even claim to be a third cousin of the President, they must be descended from Thomas Buchanan, of Donegal (or sometimes referred to as Thomas, of Rathmelton). As the rest of this article will show, many descendants of Thomas are known.

I appreciate comments and will do my best to answer questions about the genealogy presented here or about Buchanan genealogy in general (pattyh@vantek.net). Figure 1 shows 6 generations of Buchanans. I have attempted to distinguish between what has been established to a reasonable certainty as fact and information that is speculation and not backed up with evidence. I will begin by expanding on this chart working from top (generation 1) to bottom (generation 6), working left to right.

Generation 1

President James Buchanan's great great great grandfather was George Buchanan, of Blairlusk, born 1648, Dumbartonshire, Scotland. He inherited Blairlusk in 1662 from his father. In 1674 he sold Blairlusk to his brother William when he moved to Deroran, Co. Tyrone, Ireland. He married Elizabeth Mayne in 1675 and had 4 known sons: John of Tyrone, William of Tyrone, George of Munster, and Thomas of Donegal.

Generation 2

John Buchanan, of Tyrone, born in 1676, Co. Tyrone, Ireland. In 1703 he married Catherine Black and they had three known sons (not listed in Figure 1) and probably as least more daughters whose names have escaped us over the generations. His known sons were John, Samuel and Thomas. Many generations of descendants for these 3 sons are well know and will be the subject of a future article.

William Buchanan, of Tyrone was born circa 1677 in Co. Tyrone, Ireland. He married Jean and had several children. The exact number has ranged from 10-13, depending on which source you choose to follow. The 13 children are: Patrick, Robert, William, Arthur, Walter, Jeanette, John, George, James, Thomas, Margaret, Andrew and a daughter (name unknown), all born in Ireland. William and Jean are the ancestors of the Buchanans of Meadville, PA, and early settlers in Cumberland, Crawford, York, and Adams Counties in PA, some of whom went into NY, OH, and as far south as MO. Their descendants will be the subject of a future article.

George Buchanan, of Munster was born circa 1678, Co. Tyrone, Ireland. George was the ancestor of some Buchanans in Louisville, KY, including a George and Andrew Buchanan, both in Louisville in 1857. How exactly they descend from George is unknown.

Thomas Buchanan, of Donegal (or sometimes referred to as Thomas, of Rathmelton) was born in 1680, Co. Tyrone, Ireland. He supposedly married Jean Buchanan (allegedly a cousin). This marriage is alleged by only one source and is subject to scrutiny. Thomas and Jean had 3 verified children: William Alexander, Thomas, of Fawn Twp., and Robert Alexander See generation 3 below for descendants. Many have tried to add their ancestors as children of this couple, but have offered no proof. A George, Samuel and Elizabeth are 3 such speculative children.

Generation 3

William Alexander Buchanan was born circa 1698 Co. Donegal, Ireland. He has also been referred to as William, Alexander and Alexander William. He married an unknown woman and had at least 2 children: John, and Jane. Some have tried to include a James Buchanan (who married a Jane Prindle) and a George Buchanan (who married Esther Campbell) and a Robert Alexander. Both James and George are highly speculative and unlikely. No proof has ever been offered to support these claims. Robert Alexander was his brother, not his son. See generation 4 for information on descendants.

Thomas Buchanan, of Fawn Twp. was born circa 1700, Co. Donegal, Ireland. He settled in Fawn Twp., PA and had several issue.

Robert Alexander Buchanan, born circa 1702, Co. Donegal, Ireland, married Catherine McDonnell and had: James, Margaret, Robert Alexander Jr., Thomas, William, and George. The first 4 children were born in Ireland, the last 2 were born in NY. In 1837 they moved to Wallkill Valley, Ulster/Orange Co., NY. Some have speculated that Robert Alexander belongs in another section of the tree. Some have placed in as a son of William Alexander above. Most of the evidence supports his placement here.

Generation 4

John Buchanan was born in 1716, Co. Donegal, Ireland. John married circa 1750 Jane Russell and had 12 children: Sarah, William, Catherine, Samuel, Thomas, Elizabeth, James, John, Archibald, George, Robert and Margaret. Jane Russell has been incorrectly referred to as Jane Trindle Russell. This is a confusion with a Jane Trindle who married a John Buchanan and settled in TN. They are 2 distinct and separate lines. See generation 5 for details on their descendants

Jane Buchanan, born circa 1720, married Thomas Hays.

Generation 5

Sarah Buchanan, born 1752, Co. Donegal, Ireland, married William Morrison and had issue.

William Buchanan, born 1753, Co. Donegal, Ireland, married Elizabeth McCrea and had George, Robert, Samuel, John, Alexander, Mary and William. Many of these children's descendants came to the US.

Catherine Buchanan, born circa 1755, Co. Donegal, Ireland, married first a man named Houston (first name unknown) and married second a man named McClelland (first name unknown).

Samuel Buchanan, born circa 1757, Co. Donegal, Ireland, married in 1790 Sarah Kirkwood and had John and 4 other children (names unknown).

Thomas Buchanan, born 1759, married an unknown woman and had at least one child Thomas. Elizabeth Buchanan, born 10 DEC 1760, Co. Donegal, Ireland, married James Moore and had issue. There is only one source that includes Elizabeth as a daughter of John Buchanan and Jane Russell.

James Buchanan, born 1761, Co. Donegal, Ireland, married Elizabeth Speer and had: Mary, James (President of the US), Jane, Maria, Sarah, Elizabeth E., Harriet E., John, William Speer, George Washington, and Edward Young. It has been alleged that James, prior to his marriage to Elizabeth Speer, was married to a Mary Jane Edmonstone and had a son George born in 1782. This same source alleged this marriage was in Ireland before James came to the US. This first marriage is unproven and no real documentation has been provided. See generation 6 for information on descendants.

John Buchanan, born 1763, Co. Donegal, Ireland. John took over the family farm in Ireland. His wife's name is subject to some debate. Some sources claim his wife was Hannah Campbell, others claim Margaret Hay, others have claimed his was Nellie Reid, and still others have offered other names, which have been eliminated from contention. The number and names of his children have also been the subject of some debate. They have been known to include all or some of the following: James, and unknown son that allegedly married into the "Big Reid" family (perhaps his son John or William), Samuel, William, John, Mary and Hannah.

Robert Buchanan, born circa 1767, Co. Donegal, Ireland, married Sarah Brown and had several children: David, James, William, Robert, a daughter (name unknown), Sarah (Sally), and 2 other daughters (names unknown). Robert's inclusion as a son of John Buchanan and Jane Russell was reported by only one source.

Archibald Buchanan, born circa 1764, Co. Donegal, Ireland, was likely unmarried. George Buchanan, born circa 1766, Co. Donegal, Ireland, was likely unmarried. Margaret Buchanan, born circa 1769, Co. Donegal, Ireland, and was likely unmarried.

Generation 6

Marriage: 1675

Children of George Buchanan and Elizabeth Mayne are:

- i. Of Donegal Thomas Buchanan, born Abt. 1675 in Tyrone County, Ireland; died Unknown; married Jean Buchanan; died Unknown.

Notes for Of Donegal Thomas Buchanan:
Thomas Buchanan, of Donegal (or sometimes referred to as Thomas, of Rathmelton) was born in 1680,

Co. Tyrone, Ireland. He supposedly married Jean Buchanan (allegedly a cousin). This marriage is alleged by only one source and is subject to scrutiny. Thomas and Jean had 3 verified children: William Alexander, Thomas, of Fawn Twp., and Robert Alexander See generation 3 below for descendants. Many have tried to add their ancestors as children of this couple, but have offered no proof. A George, Samuel and Elizabeth are 3 such speculative children.

Notes for Jean Buchanan:

One source claimed that Jean Buchanan was a cousin of Thomas Buchanan's but this was never proven.

- ii. Of Tyrone John Buchanan, born 1676 in Co. Tyrone, Ireland; died Unknown; married Catherine Black 1703; died Unknown.

Notes for Of Tyrone John Buchanan:

John Buchanan, of Tyrone, born in 1676, Co. Tyrone, Ireland. In 1703 he married Catherine Black and they had three known sons (not listed in Figure 1) and probably as least more daughters whose names have escaped us over the generations. His known sons were John, Samuel and Thomas. Many generations of descendants for these 3 sons are well know and will be the subject of a future article.
