Notes for Mary Natalie Martin:

Mary Natalie married Robert C. Chambers, her daughter's father-in-law, after her first husband died. The 1900 Census shows that she had 10 children, 6 were still living. Natalie lived at 1019 N. 10th Street in Paducah in 1920.

Notes for Nicholas C. Vincent:

Family Lot 341 in Sec. 22 at Oak Grove Cemetery was purchased on December 5, 1881 by the husbands of the Martin sisters. They were: Nicholas Vincent (husband of Mary Natalie Martin), Joseph Henry Hazotte (husband of Emma Theodorinine Martin), and August Brahic (husband of Blanche J. Martin).

Notes for Robert C. Chambers:

According to the 1870 IN Census of Floyd County and the 1880 KY Census of McCracken County, Robert was born in England. According to my mother, Hattie Hazotte Collins, Robert's first wife and child died in France during childbirth when he was 19 years old. Thereafter, he started his emigration to Detroit, Michigan. He arrived in New York in 1847, and in Detroit before 1850. While in Detroit, Robert worked in a plant nursery. Later, Robert moved to New Albany, Floyd County, Indiana. There, he married Rebecca Wright on April 9, 1860. In about 1875, Robert moved his family to McCracken County, Kentucky.

Children of Mary Martin and Nicholas Vincent are:

X, Lot 8 (Source: Cemetery Records.).

Notes for Emma Theodorinine Martin:

Emma married Joseph Henry Hazotte on April 18, 1865 when she was 17-years old. He was 34-years old and professor of language at the local college. As a side line, they operated a grocery with August Brahic below their residence at 701 Trimble (now Park Avenue). Their oldest child, Charles Henry Hazotte (my grandfather), had to work in the grocery when he was a young man. Joseph was 55-years old when he died on May 14, 1886. After his death, apparently Emma married a Dalton that must have died shortly thereafter. McCracken County records show that Emma Dalton married J. Wallace Bray on December 20, 1888. The Paducah City Directory of 1890-91 lists Emma Bray living at 701 Trimble and operating a restaurant. J. Wallace Bray is listed at the same address - his occupation potter. The city directory of 1894-95 lists Miss (apparently she is a widow) Emma Bray living at 710 Trimble. Emma Hazotte (she reverted to her maiden name) was living at 321 N. 12th Street during the 1900 Census (Genealogy.com lists her as Hayotte). She is listed as a widow, owning her home free of mortgage, and daughter Mary and family are living with her. Emma married Louis Mathurin Cornillaud on January 12, 1903. They made their home at 1132 N. 10th Street in Paducah. According to the city directory of 1904, Emma no longer operated the restaurant. It was now operated by an Ed Pearson. The city directory of 1916-17 lists Emma as the widow of Mathurin Cornillaud and she is still living at 1132 N. 10th Street. Emma was still living at 1132 N. 10th Street when she died on January 9, 1924.

Notes for Joseph Henry Hazotte:

In 1854, Joseph emigrated from France to New Orleans. He taught French at the University of Louisiana Female College in New Orleans. Joseph could read and write seven languages. In 1857, he traveled to Paducah, KY to study Indian habits during his summer vacation. He liked Paducah and decided to stay. In Paducah, he taught French and Bookkeeping at Commercial College and later Paducah College. Joseph met his future wife when she was a child and waited for her to grow up. Joseph was married to Emma Martin at her father Charles Martin's house by a Catholic Priest in 1865. Thereafter, they lived upstairs at 701 Trimble Street (later renamed Park Avenue - the building is now an historical site). It is known that their second child was born there in 1868. Joseph and Emma had a grocery below the residence from approximately 1874 until his death in 1886. Joseph and Emma had a partner in the grocery business during part of this time. The partner was August Brahic, Sr., Emma's brother-in-law. Joseph and Emma traveled to France to visit on two occasions. Joseph's burial services were held at the Catholic Church. Francis Gourieux, Jr. has a great picture of Joseph made in about 1870.

Obituary from The Paducah Daily News of May 15, 1886:

Mr. J.H. Hazotte Dead. About 4 o'clock p.m. yesterday, at his residence on the corner of Poplar and Trimble streets, Mr. J.H. Hazotte died of a lingering illness. His dissolution had been expected for some weeks and came as no surprise, though a deep affliction, to his family. Mr. Hazotte was a native of Loraine, France, and his birthday was on November 21st, 1830, making him in his fifty-sixth year at his death. In early life he came to the states and settled in Louisiana, afterwards teaching as a professor in a female college in New Orleans. In 1857, he removed to Paducah and settled here. He took up and taught a French school, and being highly educated met with fair success. He was perhaps one of the best classical scholars in the city and was also a fine linguist. He possessed perhaps one of the best classical libraries in the state. He was married here in 1865 to a Miss Emma Martin, and his wife and three sons and two daughters survive him. Mr. A. Brahic was a brother-in-law of the deceased, Mrs. Brahic being about his only close relative here. During the past twelve years, Mr. Hazotte has been engaged in the grocery business at his place of residence and until failing health interfered did well. Ever a pleasant gentleman, Mr. Hazotte had many friends. These will deeply regret his death and extend to his bereaved family all sympathy. The remains were buried from the Catholic church this afternoon at 3 o'clock. Services were conducted by Rev. Father Jansen and many friends were present.

Family Lot 341 in Sec. 22 at Oak Grove Cemetery was purchased on December 5, 1881 by the husbands of the Martin sisters. They were: Nicholas Vincent (husband of Mary Natalie Martin), Joseph Henry Hazotte (husband of Emma Theodorine Martin), and August Brahic (husband of Blanche J. Martin).

Notes for Louis Mathurin Cornillaud, Sr.:

Louis Mathurin came from France to the United States in 1860. He and his brother Joseph are in the Augustus Daval household during the 1860 Census and are listed as laborers. In the 1880 Census, Louis Menard is in household #146, Mathurin Cornillaud is in household #147, and August "Gus" Legeay is in household #148. According to his obituary, Mathurin emigrated from France in 1859 and settled in McCracken County in the midst of the French settlement four miles from (down)town Paducah on the (Old) Cairo road. There he amassed a fortune as a truck gardener. Mathurin sold his farm and retired in 1900. He and his first wife left for France on September 6, 1900 and announced that they might make France their home. However, they returned to Paducah and built a house at 1132 N. 10th Street shortly before his first wife died on December 28, 1900. Mathurin married Emma Martin on January 12, 1903. Emma's obituary in 1924 lists her as his widow. Note: Mathurin is pronounced mass-a-rain, Cornillaud is pronounced Corn-e-o.

Notes for Charles Henry Hazotte:

Charles Henry was known by his middle name. Henry worked in his father's grocery at an early age. When he was old enough, he got a job at Ben Weille & Son where he stayed for the next 46 years. According to the city directory of 1894-95, Henry lived at 1107 Broadway. The 1900 Census lists Henry living at 1205 Jackson Street. The city directory of 1904 lists Henry at 1205 Jackson Street. In 1905, Henry completed his new house at 1842 N. 12th Street. After Henry's first wife died, he married Fannie M. Rhodes and moved to Hinkleville Road near Holt Road (where the Mall is today in the year 2000). At that location, he had a well known orchard and grew beautiful flowers. Henry specialized in Dahlias. After Henry left Weille's, he sold custom made suits made by A. Nash and later J.B. Simpson. His clientele included most of the professional people in Paducah and also U.S. Vice President Alben W. Barkley. At some point in the 1940s, the 12th Street house was renumbered 1742. After Henry's daughter Hattie died, the house was used for several years as a Spouse Abuse Center. The house still exists in the year 2001.

Notes for Elizabeth Chambers:

Elizabeth Chambers is also known as Lizzie. She had a long illness and died from Erysipelas, a contagious skin disease due to Streptococci.

Notes for Fannie M. Rhodes:

Fannie was an excellent seamstress. She made custom clothes for several family members and business women in Paducah.

Child of Charles Hazotte and Elizabeth Chambers is:

Notes for Walter Harrison Collins:

Walter and Nora were married on July 11, 1909 in Obion Co., TN. During the 1910 Census they were living on a rented farm in Fulton Co., KY in District 2. Walter is listed as a farmer. In about 1912, he started his employment with the

I.C.R.R. as a boilermaker. Walter and Nora were living in Paducah in 1919 when Nora first became ill. She died in 1920.

On August 31, 1922, the residence of Joseph H. Walker, master mechanic of the Illinois Central Railroad, was bombed during the national railroad strike. The house was located at 229 Harahan Boulevard in Paducah and the front porch was damaged. Walter, a boilermaker at the Illinois Central and a resident of 304 S. 4th Street, was charged with the bombing on September 19th. According to Hattie Hazotte, a railroad attorney (who was a friend of her father, Henry Hazotte) knew that Walter was being framed by the railroad (in order to get a national injunction to stop the strike). The attorney suggested that Walter hire an attorney that had recently arrived in Paducah. The attorney was L.B. Alexander and he had just been admitted to the bar. The railroad attorney fed Alexander information (through Hattie) to help him defend Walter's innocence. Walter was found not guilty. The favorable outcome of the case made Alexander famous and over the years he became quite wealthy. After this case, Alexander did not charge Walter for any routine legal service for the remainder of Walter's life.

Walter and Hattie were married on December 7, 1922 and went to New Orleans for their honeymoon. While in New Orleans, Walter was conned out of all his cash. They were lucky that Hattie had some cash pinned to her slip. A year or so later, Walter was promoted by the Illinois Central to the position of Boiler Inspector.

During World War II, Walter was in Evansville, IN. He was a supervisor at the local ship yard that was building LSTs (Landing Ship Tanks). They had 15 under construction at all times until D-Day.
