Notes for JOHN W. CARDEN:

Evagreen Carden says that John W. Carden had four wives. She said Frank's mother was a Redwine. No proof of this yet. Two wives have been proven as Sarah Blissitt and Sarah Camp by marriage records.

She also said that John Killed a man fighting over a woman and left town at midnight to flee from the law. He evidently moved to Alabama as that is where Lem was born and then later to Tishomingo Co., Mississippi. He supposedly changed his name to Cardinel for a short period to avoid the law.

Frank and Mattie had no children.

Frank is not listed in the Blissitt family bible, all other siblings are listed.

Notes for FANNIE E. HAMMETT:

Fannie was sick and Frank wanted to stay and help take care of her. Fannie's mother said people would talk if he stayed and she would rather they go ahead and get married. Fannie could not even stand up so they held her up during the ceremony. She lived about a month after they were married.

Her headstone is to the right of Frank's and her name is listed as Cardinel and his as Carden, which supports the story from Evagreen Carden.

Notes for DOLL C. CARDEN:

Doll C. Carden gave the following interview to Hubert Parker. Hubert parker was his nephew, son of Carrie Parker who lived in Texas.

July 1954, interview with Doll C. Carden, Hubert's uncle. He was 80 years old and lived in Villa Rica, Georgia. He went with us to the Smyrna Cemetery and told me the following: There were seven Carden boys that came to America from Ireland. Andrew J. ("Jack") Carden came to Georgia while the Indians were still here --- was one of the first settlers. He had a home in Pike Co. and was a farmer. This was where all of his children were born and some of his grandchildren, too. He was Section Foreman on the Southern Railroad, the first railroad built in Georgia -- from Atlanta to Savannah. He was living at the home-place during the Civil War. There was fighting on the old home-place during the war. They derailed the train there. The cars were filled with dried peas that we were trying to get to our men down south. They were starving, just about. When those railroad cars turned over dried peas went everywhere and our cows ate them. Those cows bursted when those dried peas swelled. Killed all 'em and left the family without any milk. Grandpa, Jack Carden, wasn't killed in the war. He dropped dead at the creek, a'fishing. He is buried at Liberty Hill, in Pike Co., in the old Carden Cemetery. His wife, Adline Crawford Carden is buried at the same place. That's near the new Goggins Station on the railroad. Adeline and Jack Carden had eight children: Tom, John, Henry, Buck, Catherine, Becky, Mary and Andrew. Henry Carden, my father, married Molly Blissitt, my mother. He was born in Pike Co., and she was born in Monroe Co. He was buried in Monroe Co., Georgia. (Uncle Doll had previously said that his father died and was buried near Atlanta??). Molly, my mother, was buried at Smyrna Cemetery, up near Dallas, Paulding Co. Mamie was 12 yrs old when our father died. I don't know my parent's birthdays; they were about the same age. They had seven children. They were: Dave J., Doll C., Carrie, Sam, Mamie, Matt and Annie. Grandfather, William Blissitt, married Nettie (Mary Antionette) Burt. He was a Baptist preacher, educated and wrote a beautiful hand. All of his brother's (4) enlisted at the start of the war but he preached a year before he enlisted. He went to Griffin, Georgia, and had his Confederate suit tailor-made. Molly was a baby when he left home for the war. They had 4 children: Sally, Bud, Molly and Annie. They were all born in the same house, same as all of Molly Carden's children (that is me and my brother's and sister's)-- in Monroe Co. During the war Grandmother Blissitt buried her meat under the smokehouse to save it, when the Union soldiers came. They killed all the stock and burned the outhouses. William S. Blissitt died in Virginia and was buried there. Aunt Nan, grandma's sister, lived with her. They were Burt's. Bud Blissitt married Liza Mattock (Maddock?). Sally married John Carden; Nancy Annette (Annie) married Andrew J. Carden; Molly (Marian B.) married Henry Carden. The Carden's were brothers, sons of Jack (Andrew J.) and Adline. Aunt Annie and Uncle Andrew had eight children: Della and Ella were twins. I married Ella and Della married Marcus E. Caldwell; both are buried at Smyrna Cemetery. Nan Carden married Walt Cole. He is still living in Anniston, Alabama Jack Carden lives at Rockmart, Georgia. Bradley Carden married Will Cole, then remarried a Mr. Fuller and lives in New Jersey. Ab Carden is buried at Smyrna. Mary Carden married Charlie Smith. He is buried at Smyrna and she lives in Anniston, Alabama. I have told this the best I can remember it. Doll C. Carden, July 1954

She was born 13 Sep 1877 in Paulding Co., Georgia, and died 15 Nov 1949 in Paulding Co., Georgia.

Notes for DOLL C. CARDEN:

Doll C. Carden gave the following interview to Hubert Parker. Hubert Parker was his nephew, son of Carrie Parker who lived in Texas.

July 1954, interview with Doll C. Carden, Hubert's uncle. He was 80 years old and lived in Villa Rica, Georgia. He went with us to the Smyrna Cemetery and told me the following: There were seven Carden boys that came to America from Ireland. Andrew J. ("Jack") Carden came to Georgia while the Indians were still here --- was one of the first settlers. He had a home in Pike Co. and was a farmer. This was where all of his children were born and some of his grandchildren, too. He was Section Foreman on the Southern Railroad, the first railroad built in Georgia -- from Atlanta to Savannah. He was living at the home-place during the Civil War. There was fighting on the old home-place during the war. They derailed the train there. The cars were filled with dried peas that we were trying to get to our men down south. They were starving, just about. When those railroad cars turned over dried peas went everywhere and our cows ate them. Those cows bursted when those dried peas swelled. Killed all 'em and left the family without any milk. Grandpa, Jack Carden, wasn't killed in the war. He dropped dead at the creek, a'fishing. He is buried at Liberty Hill, in Pike Co., in the old Carden Cemetery. His wife, Adline Crawford Carden is buried at the same place. That's near the new Goggins Station on the railroad. Adeline and Jack Carden had eight children: Tom, John, Henry, Buck, Catherine, Becky, Mary and Andrew. Henry Carden, my father, married Molly Blissitt, my mother. He was born in Pike Co., and she was born in Monroe Co. He was buried in Monroe Co., Georgia. (Uncle Doll had previously said that his father died and was buried near Atlanta??). Molly, my mother, was buried at Smyrna Cemetery, up near Dallas, Paulding Co. Mamie was 12 yrs old when our father died. I don't know my parent's birthdays; they were about the same age. They had seven children. They were: Dave J., Doll C., Carrie, Sam, Mamie, Matt and Annie. Grandfather, William Blissitt, married Nettie (Mary Antionette) Burt. He was a Baptist preacher, educated and wrote a beautiful hand. All of his brother's (4) enlisted at the start of the war but he preached a year before he enlisted. He went to Griffin, Georgia, and had his

Confederate suit tailor-made. Molly was a baby when he left home for the war. They had 4 children: Sally, Bud, Molly and Annie. They were all born in the same house, same as all of Molly Carden's children (that is me and my brother's and sister's)-- in Monroe Co. During the war Grandmother Blissitt buried her meat under the smokehouse to save it, when the Union soldiers came. They killed all the stock and burned the outhouses . William S. Blissitt died in Virginia and was buried there. Aunt Nan, grandma's sister, lived with her. They were Burt's. Bud Blissitt married Liza Mattock (Maddock?). Sally married John Carden; Nancy Annette (Annie) married Andrew J. Carden; Molly (Marian B.) married Henry Carden. The Carden's were brothers, sons of Jack (Andrew J.) and Adline. Aunt Annie and Uncle Andrew had eight children: Della and Ella were twins. I married Ella and Della married Marcus E. Caldwell; both are buried at Smyrna Cemetery. Nan Carden married Walt Cole. He is still living in Anniston, Alabama Jack Carden lives at Rockmart, Georgia. Bradley Carden married Will Cole, then remarried a Mr. Fuller and lives in New Jersey. Ab Carden is buried at Smyrna. Mary Carden married Charlie Smith. He is buried at Smyrna and she lives in Anniston, Alabama. I have told this the best I can remember it. Doll C. Carden, July 1954

Notes for CALVIN EDGAR ATKINS:

Mr. Cal Atkins, was born April 11, 1886, and sweetly fell asleep in Jesus Sept. 13, 1918. He was united in marriage to Miss Annie Carden May 3, 1908. Their union was blessed with 4 girls and 2 boys. He professed a hope in Christ and joined Antioch Baptist Church in August, 1908, and lived a consecrated Christian life until God called him home to rest with those he loved so well that had gone on before. He bore his sufferings with patience and said that he was only waiting for God's will to be done. I can say to his bereaved wife and children not to mourn, for he is not dead but only sleeping that sweet sleep that our dear Savior slept, and some day you all can join him. He was always ready to lend a helping hand to the sick and needy in any way he could, but how my heart goes out for his wife and children. He left an aged father and mother and 4 brothers, a loving wife and six children. He was laid to rest at Antioch in the presence of a large number of loved ones and friends. Funeral services were conducted by his pastor, Rev. J. A. Edge. (Cedartown Standard, Thursday, October 24, 1918)

Notes for IVA ADELINE CARDEN:

Peddling Knowledge; by Iva Carden Blissitt 3/31/2001

To this day I recall that I wanted to be a teacher - a School teacher. Faint hope for people as poor as the Cardens in Hatley. Hatley is in Crisp Co., Georgia.

As I grew up there was a nine-grade school at every cross road in Crisp county, but no full fledged high school. One School in the county added a tenth grade every year and to get to Cordele High was a virtual impossibility for country students.

We Cardens lived on the Wilcox-Crisp county lines. Crisp county students could go to Wilcox county schools for a fee of six dollars per month. But who had six dollars during the horrible depression years? I started to Pitts High School after finishing the ninth grade. I had to drop out in March because we did not have tuition money and it was time to buy guano and seeds for the next crop.

I started again in the fall, but again in the '30's when time came to buy guano and seeds I had to drop out.

Well, in 1936 I started the tenth grade for the third time. My wonderful principal, J. R. Burgess Jr., called me to his office and said, "Don't quit this time before talking to me. I'll try to see you through and since you've gone so far twice before, I'm going to give you some credit. I am going to give you test over three subjects and if you pass them, I am going to give you the units for them."

I passed the subjects with good grades - got the credit and units and graduated with 19 units rather than the sixteen required then.

A cousin let my father borrow $8.00 to pay for my class ring. My class of 31 graduated in May of 1937 (in cap and gown).

I went from Cordele to Cedartown after graduation to visit cousins, Lucy, David and S. M. Carden. While on the trip I took a job as an in-training nurse in a private hospital in Cedartown.

I met and married my husband in September of 1937. My, what a year 1937 was!

We lived with my husband's childless Aunt and Uncle - Lillian Blissitt Thacker and Earl L. Thacker. Neither of us had a job for six months. The pickings were mighty lean.

My husband worked on FDR's (Franklin D. Roosevelt) WPA program for about six months. Then he got a job with the county. His job was to guard convicts at work. My, how good a check seemed!

Then he went to work at the Goodyear Mill in Cedartown.

On February 26, 1939, we had our daughter, Nancy Jane Blissitt. She was named for her Blissitt great-grandmother, Nancy Jane Blissitt.

Four years later and several courses later, I had my wonderful son. His name : William Phillips Blissitt Jr., DOB 1/28/1943. We called him "Billy". When Billy was a year old my husband went to the U.S. Army to fight during WWII.

My dream of teaching was still burning! How? I heard that the extension service of the University of Georgia was conducting a class in Cedartown and it would cost $16.00.

Where was I going to get $16.00? I asked my aunt to keep my baby so I could go to some fields and pick cotton to get $16.00. She agreed and I picked cotton. I was paid $ .50 for every one hundred pounds I picked. I usually got 250 pound in a day and one day i got three hundred pounds, but I managed to get my $16.00 plus $2.00 to pay on my books.

The course was History of the South. The book was $4.00. Believe me, divine guidance intervened. A teacher asked me if I wanted to share a book. For $2.00 each, we bought the book and shared it. I made 84 on the course! My first college course!

In 1940 I heard that tests were being given in Rome, Georgia for people who were interested in enumerating the Federal Government Census. I went to Rome, took the test, and got an appointment to do the census in the Cedartown district.

This job was an education in itself. When the check came I was so delighted! Frankly, I didn't know there was that much money at the mint!

My mother agreed to keep my daughter in the summer of 1940 so I could go to summer school at Georgia Evening College (forerunner to Georgia State). I loaded up with four courses and since classes at Georgia Evening College could not begin until 4:00 P.M., I went to Emory University and enrolled in the Demonstration School which gave two credits (or 10 quarter hours). I managed to pass all 6 courses. When I went to get my 2-year Teacher's Certificate, the lady in charge (Janie Hearn) looked at my record and said, "My God, you can't do 6 courses in ten weeks - "Well", I said, "I just did."

And the War of Wars (WWII) came along. Help was needed everywhere so I left school for a whole quarter met with the second shift crew to work in the mill. The mill was making linings for tires for military equipment. Two jobs!

I went on Saturdays to Jacksonville Alabama State College. I did three courses in one year - they all were accepted in Georgia toward my A. B. degree. I did a few night classes in Marietta, Georgia through the AAETES program. AAETES was Atlanta Area Teachers Educational Studies. It was sponsored by the University of Georgia.

When my husband had to go to war, I quit the mill. However, I did what I could to help the war efforts as roll bandages for the wounded, go to pray for our men and women in uniform.

Food was scarce and I worked several summers in connection with Extension Service. I operated the local Cannery. This was so interesting and satisfying.

One time while I was at Georgia Evening College, my husband lost a job. I was in the middle of a semester - no job- no money - board due. Well, I went to the State Employment Office and got in line with lots of men and a few women looking for work. When I reached the clerk he said, "I can't give you any encouragement." I replied "I'm looking not looking for encouragement. I'm looking for a job."

As he filled out the application he asked if I knew the Carden man who bought and sold chicken and eggs in Crisp County. I said "he is my grandfather."

The clerk said my grandfather took him into an organization (secret). He found me a job. He said I would not like it, but it would pay me $15.00 a week. It was sorting dirty clothes at the Briarcliff Laundry. Well, I guaranteed him I could sort dirty clothes. This facility was owned by Mr. S. Candler. He raised my pay to $20.00 per week in a short while.

I also wrote papers and did research for other students to get college money.

I went to work as a teacher in 1940. I was given an 8th grade with 25 students. It was a self-contained class. Some of the boys were well passed the age for the grade. There were nine grades at Fish Creek School, Polk Co., Georgia at the time. This was the last year the 8th and 9th grades were taught at Fish Creek.

During my first year at Fish Creek, my principal was fired for drinking on the job. I was a told I had to be in charge of the basketball team and take them to the county tournament. I did. We won!

I worked lots of Saturdays in a 5 and 10 cents store. I used the $2.00 I earned on Saturday to pay for my daughter's and my school lunches the next week.

I tutored some children for pay and lots of them for free.

When I did all the college work I could count toward a degree by extension and correspondence, I began pulling it all together. Georgia Evening College gave degrees only in Business Administration, so I transferred to Oglethorpe University.

When my work was transferred to Oglethorpe University everything I had done was accepted. So, I did my senior year at Oglethorpe and graduated in 1946 with an A.B. degree. I majored in education.

When I was 26 years old, I was sent to Antioch School as its principal. I was daring enough to try anything I thought would work. It's a shame we must become afraid of some of the nonsense consequences.

When I went out to Antioch to look around - as I was going to be its principal, a man in the community came to me and said, "Are you what Buck Anderson sent here for our principal?"

I said, "Yes sir, I am that very thing." He retorted by saying, "We'll have a man here before opening date." "That's all right," I said. "I'll be here on these steps and get nine checks." Incidentally, this man became one of my strongest helpers in our community activities.

It was at Antioch that I learned a new term for cursing. The child came in and said, "That boy cussed me!" I asked, "What did he say?" He replied, "He called ma a fat-so."

We lost a lovely, wonderful little student in the 5th grade. He died from a ruptured intestine he received at home one weekend while playing football. It was a sad occasion.

After three years at Antioch, I was transferred back to Fish Creek as principal where I remained for the next 19 years.

I continued the education process. I enrolled at the University of Georgia in Athens to work on a Master's degree. Here we go again - night classes, Saturday classes, and a Master's in Education in 1953. (And not too many thoughts since.)

In 1966, we moved from Polk Co., Georgia to Decatur, Georgia. Once in the Atlanta area, I was given the job as head (principal) of the school at the Fulton County Juvenile Court. We dealt with children from Atlanta and Fulton County.

When asked if we ever "followed up" on our children, I replied, "Oh Gee! We don't ever catch up!" This was a great experience. Sad, indeed! But, eye opening.

One case that was so amusing to me was the case of the young (13 years old) girl who was brought with her baby girl into court. I attended the hearing with the girl. The father, an 18 year old, was brought over from county jail to stand trial. The young girl was very unlearned and ignorant and could not give a good testimony. The mother of the 18 year old father laughed and made as much fun of the girl as the court would allow. Judge Elmo Holt told the male's mother many times to sit down and stop the laughing. He finally said, "I'm charging your son with statutory rape. Now laugh that one, off."

The young girl cried very hard. She and I walked together back to the school area. I asked, "Why are you crying?" She said, "The judge sent him back to county jail and he didn't rape me." I asked if she knew the meaning of statutory rape. Well, she didn't, and I explained that he had said over and over he didn't love her.

She asked, "Mrs. Blissitt, what would you do?" I replied, "In your case, I'd ask the judge to put him in the electric chair." She said, "Mrs. Blissitt, I know what's wrong with you." "What," I asked. "You just don't know what true love is!" I said, "If what you've got is true love, I don't want to know."

Later when I told this story to Judge Holt we had a good laugh. And Judge Holt often asked me, "Blissitt, have you found out about true love yet?"

Once I had a young man in the school office for fighting. The fight took place on the campus at recess. I asked

"Freddie Joe, what have I told you about fighting?" "Well, Miss Blissitt, you just don't understand." "what is it I don't understand?" I asked. He said when I'm mad, I'm mad all over."

While serving as principal of a school in Polk County, I had two little girls have a fight at recess on Friday afternoon. I had them come in the office and listen to my sermon on "No fighting - Be a lady."

On Monday morning, the father of one of the girls who was fighting came into the school office and demanded to see the little girl who had fought his daughter. "Say what?" I asked. He replied, "You didn't Whup her Friday." "No," I said, "and I didn't whip yours either." He continued his threats and quarrelsome remarks until I said, "You get out of here before I have to call Lester Litesey or John Redding to take you out." (Lester was a funeral director and John was the county Sherriff.)

Indeed, I had a wonderful time at my job! Wonderful kids and great parents and Oh! Such lovely co-teachers. I will not call teacher's names lest I leave out some good ones. I truly worked with some great ones.

No one could have worked with finer lunchroom people or custodians. My bus drivers were mostly good.

I hear from some very wonderful people now who have beautiful success stories to tell. All in all, I am grateful for the opportunity I had in the field of education.

As I peddled the knowledge, I did it very seriously. No teacher ever enjoyed it more!
