Notes for ROBINSON CROSS:

Robinson Cross and his wife, Ann Fields, left England in 1818 to immigrate to Canada. Their vessel sank near Nova Scotia, Canada and their only child saved was son, Joseph. One daughter died aboard ship and was buried at sea and the others drowned. Later they had other children. The family stayed in Nova Scotia for two years before moving on to St. Thomas, Upper Canada and then later settled on the East 1/2 of Lot 20, Concession 5, Euphemia Township, Ontario, Canada. Robinson took up farming as soon as he had cleared some timber off the land. There were no roads, just Indian trails through the forest. Robinson supported the opening of a public school by signing up three of his children at $7 each to defray expenses such as the teacher's salary.

From the Glenwood, Iowa Opinion 18 Sept., 1913:

The Emerson community was shocked Monday morning, September 15, to learn of the sudden death of Miss Emma Cross, daughter of George Cross. Miss Emma was never of robust health and died after a short illness of less than a week of Infantile Paralysis with diabetic complications. She was born on the home farm, near Emerson, June 12, 1886. The funeral was held at her home in Emerson, Tuesday afternoon, Sept. 16, being conducted by Rev. W.A. Morgan, her pastor for the last three years of her life. She was laid to rest beneath beautiful flowers, mute tokens of love from her many friends. Her Christian character and fidelity of friendship might well be emulated by all. She leaves to mourn her loss, a father, four sisters, the one who was soon to be her husband and a host of friends.
