

Descendants of Christopher Herrmann

Generation No. 1

1. CHRISTOPHER¹ HERRMANN¹ was born 1810 in Baden, Germany², and died November 03, 1879 in Buffalo, Erie County, New York^{3,4}. He married MARGARETHA SCHMIDT⁵. She was born 1812 in Bavaria (Bayern), Germany⁶, and died April 15, 1891 in Buffalo, Erie County, New York^{7,8}.

Notes for CHRISTOPHER HERRMANN:

Christopher Herrmann is the patriarch of this Herrmann family from Buffalo, New York. His route of migration from Baden, Germany to Buffalo has not yet been determined. I am not sure if Christopher and Margaretha married in the United States or in Germany. Christopher Herrmann arrived in Buffalo about 1834. He was first found in the 1842 Buffalo city directory living at 22 Batavia, listed as a watchman. Christopher was found working as a saloonkeeper in 1855 and working at the New York State Arsenal in 1860. In 1870, he and his family were living at 405 Ellicott. Christopher never owned a home so there were no papers left behind of land records. There was no will and no probate records at the time of his death. On November 3, 1879, at the age of 69 years, Christopher died at the home of his daughter, Christine and her husband, Charles E. Young (Maidwell). They lived at the corner of Sycamore and Jefferson. Christopher's home was at 620 Michigan. He lived there with Margaret, his wife, and their grandchildren, Caroline, Benjamin and Edward Poh. He is buried as 'Christ Herman' at Forest Lawn Cemetery. There is no grave marker.

1875 New York State records contains this schedule of wages in the 7th ward which was the neighborhood for a lot of German immigrants. This area of town known as the fruit belt because of the many streets named after fruits.

1875 Wages:

Notes for MARGARETHA SCHMIDT:

The church at Griffin Mills Cemetery is St. Paul's Lutheran Church - which adds to my idea that the family was Lutheran.

No death record found at the City of Buffalo Clerk's Office, or at East Aurora or the Village or Town of Aurora. The records may have been at the Village of East Aurora, but all of the records before 1907 were destroyed in a fire, so there is no way of knowing now.

I did not find Catherine Poh in the St. Paul's German United Evangelical Church records even though her obituary says there was a funeral there.

St. Paul's German United Evangelical - Washington Street between Genesee & Chippewa - Otto Burger
 Dates back to 1842 when a number of families separated themselves from St. John's Evangelical Lutheran. The original church of brick (built 1844) stood on the east side of Washington St. between Chippewa & Genesee. Earlier services had been held at Pearl St. Presbyterian church on the corner of Pearl and Genesee Streets. About 1851, many members left and formed St. Stephen's United Evangelical Church- also known as St. Mark's. A new church was built in 1881-1882 on Ellicott Street between Tupper & Goodell which was still standing in 1920 with a membership of 120 people. It appears based on FHLLC records that St. Paul's & St. Mark's merged at a later date. Film information is noted as; St. Paul's & St. Mark's United Church of Christ with scattered records dating back to 1842. Film #s 1901556, 0901557, & 1902318

LANCASTER- In Vacaville, August 8th, Dr. Charles Lancaster, a native of Maine, aged 73 years, 4 months and 29 days.

Dr. Lancaster Dead

Expires at His Home Early Monday Morning.

Dr. Charles E. Lancaster passed away at his home here early Monday morning, the cause of death being heart trouble. His age was 73 years. Dr. Lancaster was a native of Maine. At the outbreak of the civil war, he enlisted in the federal army and served with distinction until peace was declared. He gained the rank of captain. He took up the profession of dentistry and began practice in California shortly. About two years ago he married Mrs. Elizabeth Coulter of Vacaville. and since that time has been a resident here. He was a member of the San Juan Masonic lodge and past grand patron of the order of the Eastern Star of Montana. Surviving are a widow, Mrs. Elizabeth Lancaster, and six children. Ralph E., Charles E. Jr., and Eugene Lancaster, Mrs. S.H. Masters of Oakland, and Mrs. F. Pinkham of Vacaville. The funeral services were held in Oakland Tuesday under the auspices of the Masonic lodges.

Nevada County had 9 townships in 1967. Under the name Lancaster, I located the following information for that surname:

RE: Nevada Township- John A. Lancaster, National Exchange Hotel, Broad Street. He is listed with a S.L. Hasey. They probably owned it. The hotel is still there and called just the National Hotel.

RE: Bridgeport Township- North San Juan would be in the Bridgeport township. North San Juan was the principal town of a series of villages and mining camps, situated at intervals of two or three miles along the north side of a ridge. It appears to have been named around 1853 and was one of several mining communities.

Notes for CHARLES S. HERRMANN:

Charles Herrmann was the youngest of the Christopher and Margaretha Herrmann family. I first found him in the 1855 census records as four years old. In 1870, he is the last child home at age 18. Then by 1875 Charles is a brass finisher is married to Elizabeth, and they have two children, Louisa and John. In 1880, there is another child- Minnie. In 1881, there is tragedy and joy- the death of John, and the birth of Edward William Herrmann. In 1885, the fifth child, May is born. But by 1885, he is living at 37 Chester with his nephews Benjamin and Edward Poh. They are all in the Brass Foundry business. Benjamin Poh and Charles S. Herrmann are listed as brass finishers in the 1885 Buffalo City directory and Edward Poh is listed as a molder. 1892, Charles is 41 years old and had moved out. He went to live with his sister, Christine Maidwell and her family at 196 Laurel Avenue. In 1900, Charles S. was living with his sister at 71 Olean Street in East Aurora and now listed as a pattern maker. It may be the same job with a different title. In 1910, he was living as a boarder at 479 Genesee. He was admitted to Buffalo German Hospital in September 15, 1914 and died a few days later at the age of 64. He is buried in a single grave at Pine Hill Cemetery (The old Buffalo Cemetery at Mt. Calvary). Most all of his entries are written as Charles S., but the cemetery records list him as Charles Herman.

Lancaster, dau of Dr. Charles E. ... born in 1869 ... 1869B-396

Death of Mrs. Wm. H. Randall, Avant Courier Nov. 21, 1902

" The sudden death of Mrs. William H. Randall at her home in Bozeman Monday Nov. 17, was a shock to the family and their many friends in Gallatin County. Mrs. Randall had for some time been a sufferer from diabetes, but was not thought to be in a very serious condition. The deceased was born in San Francisco, Cal. and at the time of her death was 33 years of age. She came to Bozeman with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. C. E. Lancaster in 1889 and has made her home here though her parents returned to California, and her mother died there a few years ago. She was married to Mr. Randall about ten years ago. Mrs. Randall is survived by her father and two sisters, her husband and four children, to whom the Courier extends heartfelt sympathy. The funeral took place from the family home on Church Avenue South Wednesday afternoon, Rev. O.F. McHargue officiating. A large number of sympathizing friends followed the remains to their last resting place in the Bozeman cemetery."

Notes for WILLIAM HAMPTON RANDALL:

From: Bill Grummons, Saturday, January 19, 2002

"I did a preliminary search through "The History of Bozeman and Gallatin Valley" by Phyllis Smith. There was an amusing article on the arrival of Lord James and Lady Isabella Randall, in 1885. Very high stationed Brit's, that spent their time looking down their noses at the "natives" aka. homesteaders to Gallatin County. They did not endure themselves to the people. Lord "Jem," as Isabella called him, insulted the men by calling them "cow servants" and when Isabella had female callers, she would not allow them in the parlor, but left them standing in the kitchen. It was not long before they quit coming. James Randall's brother, Frank Randall, had first come to Montana in 1880, and not much has been printed about him, by Phyllis... Bill Grummons"

Email from Bill Grummons, Jan. 23, 2002

"... According to the 1891-93, Directory, there is listed one William H. Randall. He was living on 1st Avenue, S.W., in Bozeman His occupation was, MINER. The last bit of information is: he was born in OHIO.

I checked further, in the same directory under Lancaster, and found, one, C. E. Lancaster, D.D.S. Dr. Lancaster, had his offices on S. 2nd Avenue. His listed residence was, California. If this information is correct, both William and Margaret were either, 22, 23, or 24 years of age, depending on what year they come together. The next directory book was not until 1900-01, in which neither of the above mentioned Lancaster's or Randall's were to be found. Oh yes, there was a William H. Randall listed, living at 26 Mendenhall, Bozeman. He was a grocer, and his wife's name was Edna..

It is hard to claim any proof of anything about this. Unless like many people who come to Montana love the summers, but find the cold winters not to their liking. They may have done what a lot of them do. move to Denver, where the winters are more mild.

I would like to suggest you call Phyllis Smith at the Gallatin Pioneer Museum, at (406) 522-8122..."
