Notes from Helen Inderhees 1966.

In 1866 the house Bernard and Helena were living in was sold and they had to find another place to live. There were very few houses built during the War. They went to Mt. Adams and finally found a two room house for sale on Carney Street. Helena said there was one large room down and one large room up and a large porch upstairs, but no way to get up as there was no stairs. They had to go out the back door downstairs, up the hill and to a front door upstairs. The first thing Bernard did was build a stairway up to the second floor and as soon as they had the money, one room to the rear and one room on top, one room to the front and so on until they had a house of nine rooms.

Bernard and Helena Cremering grave site is marked at St. John's Cemetery on Vine Street in St. Bernard Ohio with a large white monument. In raised letter's the Cremering name is shown on the bottom. Bernard's name, date of birth, death and age at death in recessed letters is on the left side and Helena's name, date of birth, death and age at death in recessed letters is located on the right. Located at the top center is a symbol which includes an anchor, cross and a heart each overlapping the other. The following is grave stone terminology with religious explanations.

Anchor

Early Christians devised clever signs so that they could guide one another to the secret places where they worshipped. The anchor is a disguised cross when you see it in a Christian setting. From its utility, the further meaning of Christ as that which prevents us from drifting off and becoming lost comes. One rarely sees anchors on inland gravestones, so the presence of the symbol on a tomb may carry all the above religious overtones or it may just mean that the deceased was a sailor. An anchor with a broken chain stands for the cessation of life

Cross

Christians behold the hope of resurrection in the cross. The cross can also stand for nationalist divisions, especially between the Western Church and the Eastern. Orders of crusading knights often devised their own crosses as they set forth to pillage infidels and fellow Christians. The cross also appears in Japanese heraldry where it stands for the four quarters of the earth or the four cardinal directions. Or it merely pleases the eye

Heart

Stylized hearts stand for the affection of the living for the dead.

General: When John was about 21 he was engaged to marry. They had their rooms rented and furniture bought and their banns of marriage called when John became seriously ill, as there was an epidemic of Small Pox, and he died in a few days. His girl and his sister Joanna always kept up their friendship and they would visit each other. Some years later she married another man and had two daughters who died in their teens. She married HEINRICK JOSEPH MARIA INDERHEES¹⁷ February 1885¹⁷, son of JOSEPH HEES and JULIA MEURER. He was born March 21, 1848 in Osnabruck, Germany¹⁸, and died August 07, 1920 in Mt. Adams, Cincinnati, OH¹⁸.

Notes for JAHANNA GERTRUDE CREMERING:

Notes from Helen Inderhees, 1966.

Joanna was the eldest child of Bernard and Helena Cremering. In her early years she lived around St. Paul's Church. She remembered the Civil War and the soldiers and cannon camped at the end of the street where they lived. In the evenings they would play games and sing songs for the soldiers.

Notes for HEINRICK JOSEPH MARIA INDERHEES:

Source of information: Helen Inderhees written in 1966

Henry was the eldest of three children; his two sisters were Helena and Caroline. He lost his parents when he was about five years old. He did not remember anything about his parents or sisters as the children were separated at the parents' death. He never knew any of his Father's family. His Mother's brother was a Catholic Priest, Dr. Henry Meurer, connected with the Cathedral in Osnabruck and he became the children's guardian.

When Henry was about eight or nine years old, he went to live with Dr. Meurer and grew up in his home. He lived there until he was about fourteen when it became time for him to learn a trade and find work. His Uncle had two places where he could go, either a Goldsmith making jewelry or as a painter and decorator. He chose the painter and lived with this man and learned the trade. He liked this man very much and also the work; but, in Germany at the time, when a boy was eighteen, he had to enter the Army and as Dr. Meurer's own Father had lost his life in a war, he thought it would be better if his nephew went to America. His Uncle loaned him the money which he later repaid.

He chose to come to Cincinnati, Ohio as he remembered his teacher in school speaking of this city and decided to come here. He came to Cincinnati in 1866 - arriving in the Pennsylvania depot. He saw a boarding house across from the depot and applied for admission. The people's name was Mr. and Mrs. Henry Keutz and he liked Mrs.

Keutz very much as she was very kind to him. He stayed with them and when they moved to Mt. Adams he went with them until he married.

When he arrived in the Pennsylvania Depot he saw a church on top of the hill and when he asked the name he was told it was Immaculate Conception Church and said "some day I am going to live there".

When he arrived here there were hard times and many people were out of work which made it hard for him to get started in his trade, but he took anything he could get. His first job was moving freight in the Pennsylvania Depot. Later he got started in his trade and also went to Night School. He saved his money for a number of years and could now speak English and started in business for himself as a painter and Decorator. He also worked at night in a Building Association. He had a nice business going and painted and decorated some of the finest homes and churches in the city. When we got our first machine we rode through the suburbs and he would point out the places where he had painted and the names of the people who lived there. He had quite a few men working for him. Around 1883 Mr. Greive came to him and said he would like to get his son John started in the business; at first Father did not like the idea of a partner as he was doing very well by himself, but after considering it he decided maybe it would be better as then he could devote more time overseeing the men and mixing the paint and John Greive could take care of the office and get new customers. Their office and plant was on upper Broadway. In winter they did quite a lot of work in the South especially in New Orleans.

He became a citizen in April 5, 1879. He married Anna Cremering in February 1885 and went to New Orleans on their honeymoon.

The data you have on the Paint Store is from 1915. This was just after the start of the store and my grandfather Henry was the president and his eldest son Henry Jr or as we knew him as Harry was the Sec-Treas. After Henry died, Harry became the president and my uncle Lawrence and my father Edward joined the firm. I believe my father was the corporate Secretary. My Aunt Helen and Lawrence were also a corporate officer but I do not remember what. Helen never worked at the store that I know of. Hope you follow this and if not, let me know.

Note from Helen Inderhees, 1966.

I remember when President Taft was elected, they had a big celebration here in Cincinnati in his honor. It was in Summer and many small boats and launches were decorated with colored lanterns and horns blowing as the Island Queen and the President and his party went slowly up the river with fireworks on both sides of the river. In Eden Park they gave each person a lantern with a lighted candle; that was a sight I cannot forget as the thousands of lighted lanterns looked like fireflies in the dark. We brought chairs up on the roof of our house to see the celebration as did many more people on the hill.

Notes for VINCENT BOHNE:

Father Hubert Bohne, C.P., Holy Cross Province (1901-1984)

[June 22, 1984]

Born Vincent Anthony on August 25, 1901 in Cincinnati, Ohio, he was the son of William Bohne and Elizabeth Cremering. He was educated at Immaculata Parish school on Mt Adams and then went to St. Xavier High School in Cincinnati for two years. At the end of this time he decided to enter the Passionists. He said that he was inspired by Fathers John Philip Maerder, C.P. and Alexis Quinlan, C.P., who both served at Immaculata Parish. In the fall of 1917 he entered the Passionist Preparatory College which was then located in Cincinnati on Mt. Adams at Holy Cross Monastery. In 1918 he went to the novitiate in Louisville, Kentucky where his master of novices was Father Jerome Reutermann, C.P. and professed his vows on September 16, 1919. His religious name was Hubert. He was then sent to St. Paul, Kansas for studies from 1919 until 1923 where the rectors were Fathers Luke Callahan, C.P and Bernard Brady. C.P. From 1923 until 1926 he studied at Chicago, Illinois where Father Edwin Ronan, C.P was rector. He then went back from 1926 until 1927 to Cincinnati where Father Bertrand Abell, C.P. was rector and he was ordained on February 27, 1927 by Bishop Paul J. Nussbaum, C.P. who was then the bishop of Marquette, Michigan. Father Bohne was assigned to Normandy, Missouri as a student but was quickly chosen to pursue graduate studies in Rome. In 1930 he completed his doctorate in Canon Law at the Angelicum. Upon his return to the United States he was sent to Normandy as a professor. There for a short time at the preparatory seminary he was then assigned to St. Paul, Kansas from 1931 until 1934 where he served as professor; from 1934 until 1936 he was in Des Moines, Iowa and then from 1936 until 1943 he was assigned to Louisville, Kentucky. In 1943 he was then sent to Birmingham, Alabama to join Father Michael Caswell at St. Mary's Parish, Fairfield, Alabama. But this assignment lasted for a short time and 1944 found Father Bohne back in the classroom in Louisville where he remained until 1953. Local Louisville superiors at that time were Fathers Joseph Gartland, C.P, Julius Busse, C.P., Gordian Lewis, C.P., and Boniface Fielding, C.P. From 1953 until 1954 his ministry was retreat master at Detroit, Michigan where Father Julius Busse was rector; then in Cincinnati, Ohio from 1954 until 1955 where Father Gilbert Kroger, C.P. was rector; then on to Houston, Texas from 1955 until 1956 where Father Conleth Overman was rector. From 1956 until 1977 he was assigned to the community in Louisville where he was a professor, preacher, and assistant at various parishes. Rectors during this era were Fathers Ronan Dowd, C.P., Roger Mercurio, C.P. Simon Herbers, C.P., William Browning, C.P. and John Anthony Parenza, C.P. His final assignment was at Sierra Madre, California from 1977 until 1979. He then retired to Chicago, Illinois from 1979 until 1984 as a resident of Daneo Hall. He was known affectionally as "Doc" among his Passionist brethren. A high degree of intensity and interest was part of his personality. He was a devoted fan of the Cincinnati Reds. He died of a massive coronary in Chicago.

Source for notes 1 through 5, Frank Raymond Weber.

1. Henry was arrested on the evening of his wedding because he was unable to keep control of his horse drawn carriage.
2. Henry was the first to own an automobile in Mt. Adams.
3. Although Henry was not a big drinker of alcohol, during prohibition he purchased a still and kept it in the side yard between his house and his neighbors house.
4. When automobiles first came out and before Henry could afford to buy one, he built garages behind, and down the hill from his house and rented them.
5. Henry shut down his business as a broom manufacturer with his brother Bernard when another company owned by blind people opened a broom company. He said he didn't want to compete with the blind.

He married FLORENCE TER DOEST⁷⁶ October 22, 1919⁷⁷, daughter of EDGERT DOEST and ANNA EGGERS. She was born February 10, 1891 in Erie Ohio⁷⁷, and died June 25, 1967 in Residence, 2757 Linshaw Ave. Cincinnati, OH⁷⁷.

Notes for BERNARD CHARLES JR. CREMERING:

Information received from Tim Spayer Research Paper, March 2000.

Benard Jr. was first a stenographer in the Department of Public Safety. He later became a bond salesman for Provident Bank. In 1931-32 he made a "fatal " decision and took a job as a Junior Investment Broker, or stockbroker. It was "fatal" in that soon following the Great Depression hit. He lost everything. Because of this, his wife, Florence Terdoest, who formerly was a secretary, belittled herself by doing laundry for a wealthy neighbor. At this time, any job was worth the effort. Before the depression, they both lived in a house in Hyde Park which they purchased from Judge John Druffle.

Notes from conversation with Bob Glankler May 10, 2000. After a long fight with congenital heart Failure Marcella was admitted to Hospital and had one leg amputated, due to poor circulation, with the understanding that her second leg may need to be removed as well. Her daughter Dorathy was told that she may not recover from the surgery. A hospital staff approached Dorathy and asked what her wishes were. She responded by asking for Marcella's suffering to be minimized as much as possible. Upon hearing that the staff introduced themselves as members of HOSPICE and that they would take over from here. Marcella died in her sleep and was suffering no pain at death.

Although not common, there are documented cases of Angels visiting people prior to death. During the Homily at the funeral mass Father Thomas A. Nevels told about an evening when Marcella called her daughter Dorathy into her bedroom. She asked Dorathy to bring the children in so she could thank them for the beautiful singing. Dorathy responded that there were no children in the house.

Notes for LAWRENCE EDWARD CREMERING:

I have an unfortunate addition to our family tree. My father passed away on 8/12/01. My Mother had a memorial service on his birthday 9/10/01. My Dad's Alzheimer had started to effect him to the point where my Mom could no longer care for him. He entered into a nursing home 7/1/01 and ultimately died from acute myocardial infarction which was basically from complications from his disease.

My Dad's sister Adele flew in from El Paso Texas where she is currently residing - her plane was supposed to leave Grand Rapids on 9/11/01 aprox 10:00 but due to the plane crashes she was held up for a few days. Hope your family is doing well.

Take care,
Jim Cremering

Obituary:
MONTGOMERY

Joseph C. Ketterer, who owned and operated the Ketterer Co. advertising firm, died suddenly Friday. The Montgomery resident was 70.

Mr. Ketterer graduated from Purcell High School in 1944 and attended Xavier University. He served in the Air Force during the Korean War.

In 1955 he found the Ketterer Co., a promotional advertising company in Sycamore Township. He also was on the board of the Specialty Advertising Association International from 1981-1986, serving as its chairman in 1986.

Mr. Ketterer was a founding member of the Tri-State Advertising Specialty Association, serving as a board member and also its president. He earned the organization's person of the year award.

"He was often honored for his business achievements," said a son, Thomas Ketterer of Deer Park, "but his example to us reflected the importance that family held in his life. He was a mentor to many and an inspiration to most everyone who knew him," his son said.

A former Deer Park resident, Mr. Ketterer served on the Deer Park school board as well as the Moeller and St. Savior boards. He also was a member of the Purcell Alumni Association.

Other survivors are his wife of 46 years, Vivian; another son, Stephen of Atlanta; a daughter, Joanne Moniaci of Mason; two brothers, Carl of Dillonvale and Bernard of Amelia; three sisters, Martha Lasch of North College Hill, Betty Oeters of Dillonvale and Mary Huey of Denver; and three grandchildren.

Services have been held.

Memorials can be sent to St. Rita School for the Deaf, 1720 Glendale-Milford Road, Cincinnati 45215.

Notes for SANDRA ELAINE COE:

My sister-in-law died suddenly on Thursday Sept. 13, 2001. She was shopping at the local Walmart store when she started feeling ill. When she sat down to rest, an employee asked if she was OK. She responded that she would be fine in a couple minutes. The employee then asked if she needed to call someone. When Sandy got up to make a call she fainted and never regained consciousness. Her husband Rick and daughter Brittany handled the death and funeral remarkably well. She was loved by all our family and will truly be missed. Mass of the Resurrection was held at Good Shepherd Catholic Church on Monday Sept. 17, 2001 in Cumming, GA by Father Peter Rau. Her cremains were buried Wednesday at Sawnee View Garden, Cumming, GA
