Notes for HENRY HOLLADAY, JR.:

There is no "Wirtten documentation" to prove Henry's children. With the exception of Henry Jr.'s son "Henry" who was named in Henry Sr.'s will in 1800, the other seven are only known by circumstantial evidence gathered by family and other researchers over the past two decades. Most of these conclusions were reached as follows:

Starting in 1800 NC-Orange County, Henry Jr. had one son 16-26, one daughter 10-16, three sons under 10, and two daughters under 10. All 7 of these were born in NC-Orange. The 1820 TN-Williamson Census lists Henry Jr. with one son 10-16. He had to be born in Tennessee. Henry Jr. sold the land he inheirited in 1800 by 1803, and purchased land in TN-Williamson in 1804. There was no Census in TN in 1810, and by 1830 Henry had moved to TN-Henry County. Henry's oldest son was most likely Peter, b. abt 1784/5. He was named for Henry Jr.'s wife, Sarah Quackenbush's father, Peter. Rachel was next, b. bet 1785 and 1790. Rachel married Martin Trantham in TN-Williamson in 1812. Martin was the father of several of Rachel's siblings that married Tranthams.

Thomas was the most likely third child. He was born abt 1791, and married Margaret Butticks. Next was Sally, b. abt 1796. She married Jesse Trantham in 1818. Next was Henry (3), b. abt 1797. Henry (3) married Elizabeth Trantham in 1815. Next was John Christmas Holladay, b abt 1798 m. Sally Trantham. The youngest son was probably William, and one daughter is unknown, most likely b. bet 1792 and 1795.

These children of Henry Holladay, Jr. were determined through marriage records, tax records, census records, and the process of elimination as children of other Holladays in Tennessee and North Carolina during the period. This is the best information available as of the end of this year, 1997.

Children of HENRY HOLLADAY and SARAH QUACKENBUSH are:

- i. PETER⁵ HOLLADAY, b. Abt. 1784, Orange Co. N.C. (Source: Henry Holaday, Jr. had a son in 1800 NC Census bet 10-16. In TN-Williamson Peter and Henry both show up in tax rolls w/same spelling. Henry Jr.'s father in law was "Peter" Quackenbush.); m. LETTISIA HARTGRAVE, 12 Feb 1812, Williamson Co, Tennessee (Source: Williamson Co., TN Marriage Records 1800-1850).
16. ii. RACHEL HOLLADAY, b. Aft. 1790, Orange Co. N.C..
- iii. THOMAS HOLLADAY, b. Abt. 1791, Orange Co. N.C.; m. MARGARET BUTTICKS, 11 Apr 1812, Williamson Co, Tennessee (Source: Williamson Co., TN Marriage Records 1800-1850).

(Source: WFT Vol. 20, #2302.); d. 1910, Oden, Montgomery, ARK..

Notes for JACOB PARKER HOLLIDAY:

All of the information on the children of Jacob Parker Holliday (as this line of the family spells it) comes from Carolyn Haney, great great granddaughter of Jacob Parker through his son James Thomas, and from Lewis E. Bailey, another descendant. ELC 11/2000

Notes for FANNIE ELIZABETH WARDLOW:

Carolyn Haney says: "Somewhere I read that Fannie Warklow has an Indian who was pregnant by the husband of the couple she lived with. (They came up from Chicasaw, Mississippi. He was a brother to Jacob Parker Holliday.) Since Great Grandpa Tom's mother was deceased, his daddy, Jacob Parker Holliday, married her. I guess it was a marriage of convenience--he needed a wife and she needed a husband. The census records show that she already had a boy named James Oscar (they spelled it Osker in the census) before she married Jacob Parker Holliday. The boy was about the same age as my great grandpa." 3/21/2001 ELC

- iii. JAMES ACKER HOLLADAY, b. 18 Feb 1855, MISS. (Source: srasher@ionet.net, 7/29/97); d. 02 Dec 1943, Altus, ARK (Source: Clarence R. Williams - 8/97); m. MARTHA H. NORVELL, 24 May 1874, White, ARK (Source: Clarence R. Williams - 8/97); b. 10 Feb 1858, TN; d. 10 Nov 1933, ARK.

Notes for JAMES ACKER HOLLADAY:

The 1880 U S Census list J. A. Holladay in Perry County as 25 years old, a wife, "M. H." as 22, J. W. as 3, and E. W. as 1. The Census lists E W as a "dau", but that is Uncle Lije, and obviously a Male. The Censustaker must have made a mistake.
