Generation No. 2

2. MICHAEL² CREIGHTON (*ROBERT*¹) (Source: Mary Ann Taylor, Lincoln, Maine, Creighton Descendant, Mary Ann (Creighton) Taylor, (Written to her nephew, David Law Creighton, March 7, 1893).) was born 02 Jan 1802 in County Down, Ireland, and died 06 Oct 1884 in Waterford, New Brunswick, Canada. He married JANE MAGEE 31 Oct 1831 in Old Stone Church, St. John's, New Brunswick, Canada, daughter of WILLIAM MAGEE and MARTHA WICKS. She was born 21 Mar 1798 in Raseehill, County Fermanagh, Ireland, and died 21 Jan 1886 in Waterford, New Brunswick, Canada.

Notes for MICHAEL CREIGHTON:

Source: "Northwind Southwind", The Legacy of Michael Creighton. by James Harris Creighton.

Michael Creighton was born 02-01-1802 in County Down, Northern Ireland. So far little is known about the family before that time. Although there had been Creightons in Ulster since the late 1500's, Michael's father (first name unknown) came directly from Scotland to County Down. He married a Miss Galway, also from Scotland and they had 6 children, 4 sons and 2 daughters. Michael was the eldest son from his father's second marriage, this time to an Irish woman named Nancy Ennis. In all, there were 2 sons and 2 daughters from this marriage. Michael therefore grew up in a very crowded household, 10 children all told. The location of the homestead was a farm that is still named The Course, just outside Downpatrick. From old family correspondence from one of his daughters, it was also near St. Patrick's gravesite.

The Rabbit

Michael Creighton was born into an established social order that went centuries into the past. In essence, society still lived under the old Feudal System, with all of the laws and rules governing land ownership and property rights. Society was rigid, laws were harsh, and penalties were severe for lawbreakers. By the time Michael had reached the age of 23, he was already branded as a troublemaker. In his youth he enjoyed playing on St. Patrick's grave while on his way to school, and in 1825 he shot a hare on someone else's property. This one lone rabbit not only changed his life, but also affected all of his future generations to come.

By the laws of Ireland, the shooting of hares was illegal for every social class except Landlords and their sons. Michael was caught, jailed, and stood trial for his crime. Under normal regulations, he would have received a long prison sentence or deportation for life. But because he was the son of a Freeholder, he was given the options of choosing where he would like to be deported to. He had to leave Ireland for seven years, and had the choice of America, Tasmania, Van Diemen's Land, or Canada. He chose Canada, and arrived at St. Andrews, New Brunswick in 1825. What became of his family in Ireland may never be known. There is no record of his brothers and sisters, or what became of his parents. In the 1830's an epidemic wiped out thousands of people all across Northern Ireland, and in 1849 came the potato famine. There are still many Creightons in County Down and Tyrone. There is some indication that one or more of his brothers followed him to Canada and settled at Sussex Corner. Still another reference is to a 6 week or 6 month trip he once took to somewhere in Upper Canada to visit yet another brother. Perhaps someone will eventually come forward with all of the missing links that Michael left behind him.

Dutch Valley Pioneers

Michael Creighton found himself in a strange new land. After spending his first 2-3 years in Saint John New Brunswick, he met Miss Jane Magee who was also from Ireland. They shared a similar Scotch-Irish heritage, and the couple hit it off. Michael asked Jane to marry him, and she agreed. To support a wife Michael needed money, and for three years he was away in Boston to make his fortune. This would place him in Boston from 1828-1831. Upon his return to Canada, Parson Grey married them in St. John at the old stone church on October 31, 1831.

The newlyweds set their sights on the wilderness N/E of St. John. There was a new settlement starting in Dutch Valley, 55 miles from the city. Their combined fortune amounted to 500 pounds. Michael and Jane drove the first horse-drawn wagon into Dutch Valley, now the town of Waterford, N.B. For 90 pounds they purchased a farm property and Michael began to build the homestead from the wilderness.

He constructed a log house and a barn, roofing both with bark. Here in this log house they began the family legacy with the birth of four of their five children, Robert, Mary Ann, William and Samuel. Michael then built a large frame house and barn, where Michael Creighton Jr. was born on June 20, 1840. The family remained on the original property for 19 years. Then, around 1851, Michael traded his farm property with that of a neighbor named Isaac Teakles. He remained on this farm until his death from cancer in 1884 at the age of 82. Throughout his life, Michael always wore a white shirt. Jane Magee Creighton outlived Michael by 2 years, joining him in 1886. They are buried together in the Creightonville (Methodist) Cemetery, between Sussex Corner and Waterford. They were true pioneers, carving a home out of the vast north woods. They sank their Scotch-Irish roots deep into Canadian soil, beginning a new tree that continues to sprout growth to this day.

Notes for HERBERT FENIMORE CREIGHTON:

As was reported in the Sussex Weekly Record:

19 Dec. 1881. At Sussex on 17th: a terrible accident occurred about a mile and a half below the Sussex Railway Station about four o'clock in which a father accidentally and fatally shot his little son, (nearly) four years old. Michael Creighton, who is a milk dealer and resides on the McMonagle farm, had been threshing during the day, had just returned home with his team. While in the barn with several children a wild goose flew quite close to the barn and settled on the ground. (Herbert F.)

Herbert ran in the line of fire and was killed. He lies with his brother Millage C. Creighton who died of Typhoid Fever in 1895 and his father Michael who died in 1897.

15. HARRIS EDGAR⁴ CREIGHTON (MICHAEL³, MICHAEL², ROBERT¹) was born 03 Feb 1867 in Sussex, New Brunswick, Canada, and died 1949 in VT or MA. He married ADA LORENA FRENCH 1898 in Malden, MA, daughter of JOHN FRENCH and JANE MACKENZIE. She was born 23 Jun 1880 in Tryon, P.E.I., Canada, and died 1957 in Wellesley, MA.

Notes for HARRIS EDGAR CREIGHTON:

We have a case of double sibling marriage. Harris Edgar and Silas R. Creighton marry sisters, (respectively) Ada Lorena French and Beatrice Elizabeth French. Harris and Ada marry in Malden, MA where Ada had gone to reside with her brother, Albert Henry French, after the death of both of her parents in about 1895 in Tryon, P.E.I., Canada. This information is according to Harris' sister, Ruby Lorena Creighton Colclough on April 27, 2000. After the marriage, the couple moved back to Tryon, P.E.I., where their first born son, John Leonard was born. In about 1902 they moved from Canada to the U.S. (probably Cambridge, MA) where their second child, Reginald Edgar, was born. In about 1905, they moved to Enfield, NH where they birthed the last four of their children and worked a large farm. We seem to lose track of Harris during the next few years. His last child, Ernest Albert, is born in 1912. Sometime after that he departed and lived a separate life. We know that in 1926/7, he was living in Cambridge, MA. John Leonard took his bride-to-be, Sylvia Susan Poore, to meet him before their marriage in January of 1927 and we have the details reported by Sylvia. After that time, he showed up in only a couple of documentable places. We know he was living for a very short time in about 1935 with a daughter, Doris Mildred Creighton Beers, and her family in Melrose, MA. We also know of his living in about 1949 with his son, Harold Creighton, in Wakefield, MA. He was very reclusive and secretive. We do not know where he died. It is possible that he had a residence in Vermont (town unknown) as upon his death his son, Reginald Edgar went to Vermont and drove his Model-T Ford back to Randolph, MA where he and his family lived. It is even possible that he died in Vermont. There was some evidence of an accident involving a logging mishap which allegedly put him in the hospital and we believe he died from that incident. We have no death records as of this time. We would appreciate any information leading to the knowledge of his place of death or any other information regarding Harris.

Burial: 1949, Evergreen Cemetery, Stoughton, MA

Notes for ADA LORENA FRENCH:

Ada Lorena French and her sister, Beatrice Elizabeth French married brothers (respectively) Harris Edgar Creighton and Silas R. Creighton. The lives of these two families parallel each other quite a bit. Both sisters are removed to MA on the death of their parents in about 1895. Both sisters are married in MA a few years and a few miles apart. They both move to NH and own farms near each other and both raise large working families. The place where their lives separate is sometime after 1910, when Harris leaves Ada to manage the farm and children on her own. She and her older sons take over the responsibilities of her absent husband/father. She stayed on the farm as long as she could and then moved back to the Boston, MA area where she operated boarding houses to fund the family she was raising alone. Her oldest son, John (Len) Leonard, worked for the Railroad and gave his mother most of his pay until his marriage. The other children did what they could to help, but all had families of their own to raise and feed. Ada did an exemplary job amid very difficult circumstances including war years where she saw her brother, Crandell Michael, go off to fight more than once. She raised a large and loving family through sheer tenacity and perseverance. We are, because of her, very "strong stock".

17. CRANDELL MICHAEL⁴ CREIGHTON (*MICHAEL*³, *MICHAEL*², *ROBERT*¹) was born 12 Dec 1881 in Sussex, New Brunswick, Canada. He married VIOLA M. UNKNOWN 1915. She was born Abt. 1900.

Notes for CRANDELL MICHAEL CREIGHTON:

He enlisted in the Canadian Army in the NB Rangers through the Boer War 1897-1902, and subsequently served in the American Army as well in WWII, in 1916. After that the family lost touch with him. According to Crandell's sister Alberta's obituary, he was still living in July of 1951 in the United States.

He was recently located by his brother Harris' grandson, James H. Creighton, on a 1930 Census living at Ft. McPherson, Fulton County, GA with a wife and two children. We have no record of his death.

Notes for PRISCILLA CREIGHTON:

Both Priscilla and her sister, Marguerite, were, at first, safely removed from a house fire in April of 1932, but followed their mother back into the house when she went back to get the baby, Joan. Both girls lived long enough in the hospital to tell their father what had happened. They died on April 11. The baby, Joan, died the following year in February of 1933, as her lungs were badly affected by smoke inhalation. The girls mother, Isabel, was also severely burned, but remembered nothing about the fire or getting the girls out up to the day she died.

Notes for JAMES HARRIS CREIGHTON:

James Harris Creighton
11/28/46 – 6/11/05

James “Jim” Creighton died Saturday 6/11/05 from heart failure. He was born in Loudon, New Hampshire November 28, 1946, the son of John and Sylvia (Poore) Creighton.

Jim and his wife Kathi have been married for 10 years and lived a quiet life in Dewey, Arizona where they found much happiness together. He spent nearly 30 years in the architectural field as a landscape and architectural designer, with 2 design projects taking National awards. After a 10 year stint in the reprographics field and managing a blueprint shop, he was once again doing architectural work as a Cad Drafter at Arizona Blueprint in Prescott Valley.

Jim had many talents and used his free time to continue doing Indian related art. His screen name “Eaglepipe” was synonymous with his artwork. He was adopted into the Omaha tribe of Macy, Nebraska in 1972. Among some of Jims Indian works was a feather bustle he made for a 9 year old boy, he had started making his own 17th century Penacook outfit, did beautiful beadwork and paintings as well as marketing hand sewn traditional tipis. Jim spent many years, along with the help of his sister Susan, researching and writing about their ancestry and published 2 books, one for each side of his family.

Jim is survived by his wife Kathryn May Creighton, his mother Sylvia Susan (Poore) Creighton-Horgan who turned 98 years old in April, two daughters Buffy Lynn and Lisa Jill, one Grandson Christopher Michael (with another grandchild due in a couple of months), six older siblings: John Leonard Creighton, Jr., Virginia (Creighton) Horgan, Daniel Lyle Creighton, Beatrice May (Creighton) Nadeau, Perley Glen Creighton and Benjamin Harry Creighton; one younger sibling: Susan Lorena (Creighton) Curtiss. He also leaves 19 nieces and nephews and 28 grand nieces and nephews.

A memorial service is scheduled for Saturday, June 25, 2005 at 9:00 a.m. at Fain Park in Prescott Valley, Arizona. (2200 North 5th Street)

His friends have set up an account for Memorial Contributions at the Bank of America in Prescott Valley in name of James H. Creighton Memorial Fund Account # 75-3194494. (7490 E. State Route 69, Prescott Valley, Arizona 86314 - (928) 772-8200)

Jim, you will always remain in our hearts and thoughts, always.
