[CHAP. LVII.] CAMPAIGN IN NORTH ALA. AND MIDDLE TENN.

HDQRS. MEMPHIS AND CHARLSTON R. R. DEFENSES

Huntsville, Ala., January 3, 1865

Sir: I have the honor to submit the following report of the capture and destruction of Paint Rock bridge, on the 31st ultimo, the facts not having been obtained by me until today:

When I left Stevenson on the 19th ultimo, under orders from the general commanding to reoccupy this place and the railroad, I received written orders to leave fifty, infantry and verbal orders to leave one piece of artillery and twenty mounted cavalry at Paint Rock bridge. I reached there on the morning of the 20th ultimo. and left the piece of artillery, the twenty cavalry, and Company G of the Thirteenth Wisconsin Veteran Volunteer Infantry, fifty-six strong, the whole commanded by Second Lieut. Samuel C. Wagoner, Company G. Thirteenth Wisconsin. I also left a corporal and one man of Battery D, First Missouri Light Artillery, to drill a gun squad which I directed to be detailed from the infantry to work the piece. These, together with Captain Kennimer's company of home scouts, nominally about thirty strong, constituted the garrison of the place. I spent considerable time with Lieutenant Wagoner, and. gave him full and explicit directions to place the gun upon an elevation northeast of the bridge, to encamp his command near it on the same elevation, to immediately fortify his position by throwing up a redoubt of logs, earth, and rock on the summit of the elevation, giving him specific directions to carry up the face toward the mountain, which approaches quite near the bridge at that point, sufficiently high to protect the gunners in case of attack from sharpshooters in the mountain, to put every team necessary, of which there were several at the place, and every available man, upon this work immediately, and press it to an early completion, and to picket thoroughly every approach to his camp, throwing out his cavalry as vedettes. I endeavored to impress upon his mind that he was liable to attack at any time, and that the utmost vigilance on his part was required to save him from disaster. About a week afterward I received a note from Lieutenant Wagoner stating that he had information that there was a large force of rebels in the vicinity of Claysville, on both sides of the river, the substance of which I telegraphed to you, and the reply of the general commanding, which was immediately forwarded to the lieutenant, reiterated in the strongest language the instructions which I had already given him. I deeply regret the necessity which compels me to state that Lieutenant Wagoner entirely disregarded the most vital of the orders. He did not fortify his position, and he put out no picket, except one man on the bridge, and had no camp guard, except one sentinel at the gun, and, incredible as it seems, although he had notice from several sources on Friday evening that the enemy were within a few miles of him in force, he did not increase his pickets or take a single precaution to guard against surprise. The attack was made by the combined forces of Mead and Johnson, and that of Whitecotton from the other side of the river, amounting in all, as nearly as I can learn, to about 400 men, at 4 o'clock in the morning. The enemy came from the mountain east of the camp, and was first discovered by the sentinel at the gun. He fired and gave the alarm, but before the camp could be aroused the whole force was in it, and the garrison overpowered and most of it captured. The lieutenant and 37 men of Company G and 1 artilleryman were captured. Nineteen of Company G, the other artilleryman, the cavalry, and the home scouts escaped; only a few of the latter were in camp the balance being absent on a scout. The prisoners were taken to the river by Whitecotton's command at Claysville, and were, doubtless, sent to the other side. The balance of the attacking force went north. They burned and cut the bridge so that it fell into the river, and they left the gun unspiked, but mutilated the carriage. I go there tomorrow, and will then be able to give an account of the loss of arms, camp and garrison equipage, &c.

Very respectfully, your obedient servant,

WM. P. LYON,
Colonel Thirteenth Wisconsin Veteran Vol. Infantry, Comdg.

Marriage Notes for Samuel Wagoner and Mary Cormany:

to: Descendants of Samuel and Mary Wagoner

from: Steven L. Dahlstrom

subj: Wedding Date of Samuel C. Wagoner and Mary Hall Cormany

date: November 22, 1999

A Review of Conflicting Evidence:

Recently I have been attempting to discover the name of the parents of Samuel C. Wagoner. During this search, I obtained a copy of the official register from Coventry Township, Summit County, Ohio. A copy of this record is included for reference. It is stated that on the 6th day of January 1853, Joseph K. Wagoner (who I believe to be a brother of Samuel Wagoner) appeared and made application for a marriage license for Samuel and Mary. The record is incorrect in that it states that Joseph (rather than Samuel) is over the age of 21. Samuel's name should appear here as this is an attestation that the groom is of age. At any rate, the license was issued by the probate Judge, C. Bryan. The next entry on this page denotes the fact that on the 5th day of February 1853, P. J. Spangler filed his certification that the parties were joined in marriage on the 9th of January 1853.

The next page of exhibits is a Transcript of Record of Marriages, dated August 19, 1914. This confirms that the first record is accurate. This transcript can be found in the Civil War Pension file of Samuel Wagoner and was used as evidence of the marriage. In addition, the index of marriages for Summit County is filed by year, and the record clearly is recorded in 1853. All records prior to and subsequent to the record are filed chronologically.

However, the third document conflicts with the first two. In the same pension file of Samuel Wagoner, appears this Declaration for Widow's Pension. Here, on August 17, 1914, Mary H. Wagoner, aged 82 years declares that she is the widow of Samuel C. Wagoner and that he was married under the name Samuel C. Wagoner to said Mary H. Wagoner Cormany on the 9th day of January, 1852 by Rev. P. J. Spangler in New Portage, Ohio. She signs the document. Also signing the document are two of her daughters, Sylvia J. Menor and Lura B. Logan. The daughters are attesting to the identity of Mary Wagoner.

Finally, I have included a copy of the Obituaries of Samuel (S. C.) Wagoner and Mary (Mrs. S. C.) Wagoner. In both of these reports, their wedding date is shown as the 29th day of January 1852 (although his obituary in the Abilene Daily Reflector of August 19, 1914, shows their date of marriage as January 5, 1852).

Conclusion: I am updating my records to show that Samuel C. Wagoner and Mary Hall Cormany were joined in marriage on the 9th of January 1853 based on the official and independent record of the State of Ohio. I can understand that Samuel and Mary may have wanted us to believe that the wedding occurred one year earlier due to the circumstance of the unconfirmed birth date of Silvia Jeanette Wagoner on April 11, 1853. I will leave any other interpretation to the reader and of course would be convinced otherwise should unknown facts reveal themselves.

A. C. Menor's Life History One of Much Interest

Armstrong C. Menor was born in Ashland county, Ohio, August 3, 1845. When a boy, with his mother, he moved to Wisconsin settling at Spring Grove. He enlisted in Co. G., 13th Wisconsin Vol. Inf. Jan. 5, 1864. He served in the army of the Cumberland under General Thomas in active service one year, and was captured at Paint Rock Bridge, Alabama, Dec. 31, 1864. He was confined in the prison at Cahava, Alabama, on March 16, 1865, and in the hospital at Jefferson City, Missouri. He was discharged from the service at Madison, Wisconsin, July 21, 1865, returning to his home.

He was married to Sylvia Wagoner Aug. 4, 1872, at Broadhead(sic), Wisconsin. They came to Kansas and settled in Phillips county in 1874 remaining here until moving to Abilene in 1899 making this city his home since. Three children were born to them, one dying in infancy and two remaining, Mrs. Gertie Roberson and Vere. These with the widow survive him.

He was converted and joined the Methodist Episcopal church nineteen years ago and held some official position all through his church life. He was a trustee of this church.

He has been in ill health since July 1988. His recent illness commenced last July and the greater part of the time was confined to his home. He passed peacefully away Sunday, Jan. 7, at 8 a. m. aged 60 years, 5 months, and 4 days. Funeral services were held in the M. E. church Tuesday afternoon at 2:30, Rev. Robt. V. Maloney officiating. The I. O. O. F. and the G. A. R. societies of which he was a member attended in a body. The G. A. R. had charge of the services and the grave. The floral offerings and the presence of such a large congregation indicated the esteem in which the deceased was held.

RESOLUTIONS OF G. A. R.

Again the roll of Eternity has been called and our Comrade A. C. Menor has been transferred from the Grand Army on earth into the greater host beyond the silent river. In the sixties in the strength of youth he quickly responded to his country's call, afterwards in the maturity of manhood he enlisted for Christian service and now has passed on to receive the reward of a well spent life. We, his surviving comrades of Abilene Post No. 63, appreciating his patriotic service and true Christian character hereby extend to the family and friends of our departed comrade our sincere sympathy and commend them to the mercy of Him, without whose care not even a sparrow falleth to the ground.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our sincere thanks to the friends and neighbors who so kindly assisted us during the illness and death of our beloved husband and father. -- Mrs. S. J. Menor and Son -- D. E. Roberson and Family.

Notes for Mariam "Maye" Ardell Witham:

Obituary - Mercer [Phillips County Review, Phillipsburg, Kansas, May 27, 1948]

Mariam Ardell Witham, daughter of William J. and Lovina Howard Witham, was born in Green county, Wis., on November 20, 1872, and passed away in Agra on May 3, 1948, at the age of 75 years, 5 months and 13 days.

In 1874, the family came to Kansas and located in Crystal township in Phillips county, where Maye, as she has always been known, grew to womanhood. From this home she went to one of her own as the bride of Horace B. Wagoner in March 1889. To them five children were born. One daughter died in infancy.

With the exception of three years spent in Iowa they lived in this community until the husband and father passed away on September 12, 1901, and was laid to rest in the DuBois cemetery.

In August 1905, she was united in marriage to John Mercer of Agra, at Norton, Kans., and in September they established a home in Sherman county, Kansas. Three sons and one daughter were born to this union and then again, great sorrow came into her life when her husband died on her birthday, November 20, 1917. In February 1921, she came back to Agra where she kept a home as long as she was able to do so. For the past few years she has lived with her youngest daughter in Los Angeles, Calif., and with her sons in Wyoming. A few weeks ago, while at the home of her son, Charles at Blue Rapids, Kans., she became ill and because her greatest desire was to come back to Agra, her niece and nephew, Gladys and Leo French, welcomed her and her children into their home where for the past two weeks everything possible was done for her comfort and care until the end came.

Although her life had many hardships, she found joy in the beauty of flowers and in the other beauties of nature. Especially did she love the spring time and all the little things which interested her children. Many years ago she became a member of the United Brethren church and lived a life true to her faith. Her Bible was her daily comfort and guide.

Of her own generation, she is survived by a brother, Ralph Witham of Agra, and a sister-in-law, Mrs. Etta Witham of Kensington. Her parents and two brothers, Fred and Moses Witham and two infant sisters and one brother preceded her in death. Also a step-son, Fred Mercer, passed away four years ago at Portland, Ore.

Surviving her are eight children, Charles Wagoner, Blue Rapids, Kans.; Vern Wagoner, Longview, Wash.; Faye Wagoner Cooley, Manhattan, Kans.; Hazel Wagoner Peterson, Penrose, Colo.; Jay Mercer, Billings, Mont.; Ernest Mercer, Worland, Wyo.; John Mercer, Cody, Wyo.; and Esther Mercer Petty, Los Angeles, Calif.; two step-children, Elsie Mercer Jupe, Goodland, Kans., and Lloyd Mercer of Denver, Colo. Also surviving her are 29 grandchildren, 21 great grandchildren, several nieces and nephews and many friends.

Funeral services were held Wednesday, May 5, at 2 p. m. at the Christian church in Agra with Rev. F. M. McDonald in charge. Mrs. Harold Scanlan and James Witham sang the beautiful hymns with Mrs. Howard DuBois at the piano. Pallbearers were Carl Freeland, Keith Wagoner, Warren, Osgood and Gerald Witham and Eugene French. The flowers were carried by Mrs. Floyd Beedy, Mrs. Carleton Munyon, Mrs. Millard Sims and Barbara, Mrs. Ivan DuBois, Mrs. Hazel Sargent, Mrs. Duane Dillon and Miss Bonnie Witham. Interment at West Cedar cemetery.

Card of Thanks

We wish to express our sincere appreciation and deep gratitude to all our relatives and friends for their many deeds of kindness, expressions of sympathy and beautiful floral offerings extended to us during the recent illness and passing of our dear mother and sister. Especially do we thank Mr. and Mrs. Leo French, Rev. McDonald and those who furnished the music. The children and brother of the late Mrs. Maye Mercer.

Notes for Faye Pearl Wagoner:

Faye Pearl Wagoner Cooley, born on the 28th day of October, 1895, in Agra, Phillips County, Kansas; daughter of Horace Bennett Wagoner and Miriam Ardell Witham Wagoner.

She was united in marriage to Guy Manford Cooley on May 24, 1914. To this union were born two daughters and two sons. She passed from this earth the 15 day of April, 1970, at the Community Memorial Hospital, Marysville, Kansas.

She is survived by her children-Miriam E. Funke, Blue Rapids, Kansas, Gerald M. Cooley, Frankfort, Kansas, H. Maxine Davin, Manhattan, Kansas, and Alan J. Cooley, Blue Rapids, Kansas. One brother, Charles H. Wagoner, Blue Rapids, Kansas, and one sister, Hazel L. Peterson, Canon City, Colorado. Also remaining are three half-brothers, Ernest Mercer, Alma, Kansas, Jay and John Mercer, Billings, Montana and one half-sister, Esther Petty, Chula Vista, California . Eight grandchildren and eight great grandchildren, and a host of other relatives and friends. Read at the funeral of Faye Pearl Wagoner Cooley: Faye Wagoner Cooley was born in Agra, Phillips, Kansas. Her father died in 1901. She moved to the Sherman County, Kansas area in 1905 when her mother remarried John Mercer. She grew to womanhood there and met and married Guy Cooley. She and her husband farmed, living in a soddy on the prairie near Edson, Kansas. When her husband was severely injured she worked at various jobs to keep the family together. In the early 30's it was determined that she needed to have surgery to repair damage from a previous surgery. While she was in the hospital her husband was placed in the Home for the Feeble Minded in Larned, Kansas and died there several days later. Faye moved her family back to the Agra area where her mother was living. She got a job in Hollenberg, Kansas as a telephone operator. In those days you needed to call the operator to make even a local call. She also baked bread, tailor made clothing for people and took in washings and ironings to support her family during the depression. She frequently took in other members of her family and at other times had to rely upon family and friends to help with the raising of her children. Her son Gerald entered the United States Army before World War II. He sent his mother money and she used a portion of that to put her other son Alan through electrician's school in California. After the war, Alan worked at Ft. Riley Army Base in Manhattan, Kansas. His mother lived with him and he provided a home for her during most of his adult life. In the late 60's Faye needed closer care. In lieu of the nursing home environment her children moved her into a small home next door to her daughter, Miriam Cooley Funke in Blue Rapids, Kansas. She lived there until her death in 1970. Facts regarding Faye Wagoner Cooley's life compiled from oral facts supplied by her children.

Occupation: Faye worked at several jobs to support her family during the time of her husband's illness and after his death. She was employed at the local grocery store in the Brewster area. After her husband's death she worked in Hollenberg, Kansas until the early 1940's as a telephone operator.

Notes for Thomas Emery Waldbillig:

Obituary:

May 25, 1965 - Missoula Man Killed By High-Tension Line

A Missoula crane operator was electrocuted early Tuesday when the cable from the truck-crane he was operating made contact with a high tension line carrying 12,000 volts.

Thomas E. Waldbillig, 31, 1610 Missoula Ave., was operating an M&S Ready-Mix crane near Ft. Missoula when the accident occurred.

Detective Ralph Fisher, sheriff's department, reported that Mr. Waldbillig was working near the M&S Company's pre-stress plant near Ft. Missoula and had backed his truck about 18 feet from a high-tension line. Fisher said the cable from the crane was swinging back and forth, striking the electrical line.

Mr. Waldbillig got out of the cab of the truck, walked back to the crane section and was electrocuted when he touched that part of the truck, Fisher reported.

Fisher said three men witnessed the accident and that they reported attempting to warn Waldbillig of the danger but their shouts were apparently not heard because of engine noise from the truck.

Mr. Waldbillig was born Dec. 17, 1934, in Missoula. He was graduated from Missoula County High School in 1954 and went to work as a mechanic for M&S Ready-Mix immediately after graduation. In 1956 he entered the Army Engineers Unit and was discharged in 1958. He then returned to work for M&S Ready-Mix. He was a member of Missoula Lodge 13, AF&AM.

He is survived by the widow, Janice; two sons, Wayne, 5, and Mark, 1, and a daughter, Patricia, 4.

Funeral arrangements are pending at Squire-Simmons-Carr Mortuary.
