11981. Private communication from Don Bemus, communication--6/2003- Subject: Orice E. / Erskine Bemis Date: Fri, 13 Jun 2003 11:56:48 -0400 From: "Don" <dbemus@adelphia.net> "The Orice E. Bemis and the Erskine Bemis (m. Lucy Fisher) you are listing are the same person. He is our GGF and we have plenty of info on him, to include a published bio, civil war records, census records 1850 - 1920, etc.. His real name is Horace Erskine Bemis, son of Silas J. and Laura Richardson Bemis and grandson of Asahel and Betsey Wood Bemis. Known brothers of Silas J. are William of MN/Dodge/Ellington and Jason W. of MN/Owatonna. Suspected brothers of Silas J. are Erastus of Piqua, Ohio and Martin C. of Piqua, Oh, Urbana, Oh, Union City, IN, Los Angeles. We have Wm's obit stating Jason is his brother, Silas J. and Jason owning property together in Corry, Pa., Wm & Erastus sharing 'business address' and possibly residence in Cincinnati 1849 - 1850 city directory; Erskine living with Martin C. in Urbana in 1870 census, Silas J. in a Urbana, Oh boarding house in 1880 census, etc." We have never positively located Asahel. There are 3 we can not eliminate, possibly all the same individual; 1820 NY/Saratoga/Galway (Aranel Bemis); 1840 NY/Jefferson/Clayton (Asel Bamans); and 1850-1860 NY/Cattaraugus/Yorkshire > 1870-1880 WI/LaCrosse/Farmington (Asahel/Aell Bemis). The Asahel in Yorkshire & Farmington is married to a Emeline H. (Harriet) and they have a child age 5 in the 1850 census so for this to be the right person Betsey Wood would have to have died in the 1841 - 1843 timeframe. We believe the Asel Bamans family in Clayton, NY to be the Asahel / Betsey Wood family and that she did in fact die shortly after the 1840 census and therefore the Asahel in Cattaraugus and Farmington is very likely the same person.

13767. 1890 Veterans Census, Census takers in 1890 were required to collect information on any man living in their district who had seen service during the Civil War. A fire destroyed almost the entire 1890 census for the whole country, with only a few sheets surviving. However, the veterans census was kept in another place and so survived unharmed. A statewide index of this veterans census has been published for New York, but all it gives is the name of the soldier (or his widow) and the place of residence. In this list, the entire citation for each man is listed, and wherever possible, those which in the original only had a widow's or soldier's name were annotated as to what unit he served with. The handwritten census itself is comprised of over 100 pages which are arranged by towns. Researchers may view the microfilm at the Malone library, or any of the larger libraries in New York. Copies may also be ordered from the National Archives or the Family History Library in Salt Lake City. Several names are nearly illegible, and every effort was made to transcribe them faithfully, but mistakes were inevitable.
