Notes for LLOYD COLEMAN DAVENPORT, SR.:

Friends and family knew my father as 'Lot ... he was a self taught self made man... I understand that he only had an 8th grade education... But, he was an excellent artist, well versed in electronics (as it was at that time), and an avid decoy carver and painter. He also enjoyed collecting and restoring antique guns and rifles and had an extensive arrowhead collection. He was a true jack of all trades... he painted houses, restored old boats, fixed about anything mechanical and even built our home at 29 Burton Ave., Crisfield, MD. with help from his half brother, Seward Evans and a couple other of his friends. He was a Master Sargent in the Crisfield National Guard for many years. Dad worked for the C & P Telephone company up until his death, with over 20 years service - and was even the 'Manager for Crisfield back when every town had a manager. His true passion was music... he adored Patsy Cline, Jim Reeves and most Big Band leaders and his pride and joy was his hi-fi stereo system... Both he and Mom almost always worked two or more jobs as we were growing up... after all, it wasn't easy raising five 'crumb snatchers' as they used to say in Crisfield...

Notes for BERNICE ANN HOWARD:

My mother was better known as Bubbles or Bubs, among friends and family. Rumor has it that she bubbled as an infant whenever she cooed... but my father often referred to her as "the Last of the Mohicans" a reference to our supposedly connection to an Indian heritage, although I have not been able to locate any ancestor of that extraction. He also referred to her stubbornness as "Pure Howard-topia" ... and she was... She worked for the English Grille Company for many years as a waitress and hostess both in Salisbury and Westover MD. until her retirement. She was an excellent seamstress who sewed many of our school clothes over the years both as a financial necessity by having five children to raise as well as the pride of it. We wore those shirts and dresses and passed them down to the next in line until they wore out. For many years and until her death, she loved to create stuffed dolls and toys for all her children, grand children and great grand children. She made hundreds of them, some huge and some very small and delicate of any creature or character she could think up... and they are still cherished possessions of all of us who have them to this day.

He was born October 22, 1954 in McCready Memorial Hospital, Crisfield, Somerset County, MD..

Notes for DELORES DAVENPORT:

Delores was known as Toot or Tootie by almost all who knew her. Anyone will tell you that she was one of the kindest and thoughtful people they ever met. Toot and Bruce married at a very young age, and many relatives thought that it wouldn't last, but as usual, anything that she loved lasted until her death. Bruce went into the Army very shortly after their marriage and eventually retired from the Army. Tootie was the ideal military wife. She was known all over Germany and 'Stateside' as "Sarge"... she was the organizer ... she organized the family household, girl scout outings and church functions with the ease of a field marshal. Her home was better organized than any field hospital or kitchen ... EVERYTHING had a place and a place for everything... According to a conversation I had with her at her Doctor's office, she told me that it was while on a field trip in Germany that when was exposed to Fallout from the Chernobyl Nuclear disaster. She was told at that time that it might take 8 to 10 years for the exposure to manifest itself or if she might have problems ... and almost 10 years to the day she was diagnosed as having cancer... a form of Leukemia. She went through all the attempts of chemotherapy and as a last resort she opted for a bone marrow transplant. After quite awhile a suitable donor was found and the transplant was performed... all seemed to be going wonderfully when out of nowhere she had a massive rejection caused by Host versus Graft Disease that her body could not overcome.
