Notes for David Shortess "Dave" Searer:

Obituary: Ill Health Causes Death

Body of David S. Searer found along river bank in Lake Park.

David S. Searer, aged 62 years, 2 months, 6 days, of 323 West Fourth Street, committed suicide by cutting his throat and wrists along the Juniata River near Silver Sand Avenue, not far from his home, late Wednesday. Thompson B. Shimp, 489 West Fourth Street, and other relatives ffound the body about 9:30 pm lying partly in the water along the northern bank of the river. The victim evidently walked a short distance after he cut himself an staggered and fell into the stream.

He had been suffering from ill health for some time. His act was caused by despondency, members of the family said. He left his home about 10 o'clock Wednesday forenoon saying he intended to walk over the town.

Dr. Robert W. White, Mifflin County Coroner, issued a death certificate stating that he came to his death by suicide.

Boy scouts and firemen joined in the search for the missing man after the mysterious absence of Mr. Searer was reported to police authorities about 6 pm. The hat of Mr. Searer was seen floating on the river surface by someone walking along the riverbank.

Searer was supposedly seen at 10 am on Grove Avenue headed towards the river. A trail of blood for 600 feet was discovered from Rosewood Avenue to Silver Sand Avenue. It is thought the wounds were caused by a pocket knife.

The wrist watch he was wearing stopped at 10:20 am and the time of death was set as shortly before that time.

Police Cheif H.O. Landis and Policemen James Ryan, Albert Beason, and Eugene Palm conducted this investigation.

Born in Decatur Township, december 31, 1883, he was the son of the late Edward F. and Sophia Snook Searer.

He is survived by his second wife, the former Helen Hamilton. His first wife was the former Carrie Clark who died February 21 1938.

Five brothers and three sister are living: Lester B. Searer, 55 North Pine Street; Emory A Searer of Rockville; Jesse I. Searer, 315 Shaw Avenue; Arthur F. Seare of New Castle; Fern D. Searer, 116 Chestnut Street; Mrs. Tillie Worrall of Akron, Ohio, widow of Frank Worrall; Mrs. Ephram (Elsie) Moist, 39 Spanogle Avenue; Mrs. Frank (Alice) Schellenberg, 108 Highland Avenue.

Mr. Searer was an employee of the Standard Steel Works Division, Burnham for 43 years. During his later life he was foreman of the foundry. Last June, when his health began to fail, he retired.

He was a member of Trinity Reformed Church and of the Bible Class, Arlanda Mertz, teacher, and also of Lodge 663, Elks, Juniata A eric 419, Eagles and of Nest 1189 Owls.

Friends may call at Freitz Funeral Home after 4 pm Saturday until services there Sunday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock. His pastor, Rev. Dr. Frederick A. Rupley will officiate. Burial will be made in Mount Rock Cemetery.

Last will and testament of Jesse I. Searer, Sr.

Know all men by these presents, that I Jesse I. Searer, SR., being of sound mind, memory and understanding, do make, publish and declare this instrument to be my last Will and Testament, here by revoking and making void any and all former will by me at any time heretofore made.

First: All just debts, funeral expenses and taxes of any kind, including federal and state inheritance, transfer and succession taxes, with which my estate is properly chargeable or which will be chargeable by law upon devises and sequests here under, shall be paid promptly by my executor and charges out of my principal residuary estate as soon as it conveniently may be done after my decease.

Second: I hereby give and bequeath all my tools and machinery in my possession to my son Jesse I. Searer, Jr., to be his absolutely.

Third: I hereby give and bequeath the contents of my home, situated at 324 Shaw Avenue, Lewistown, Mifflin County, Pennsylvania, to my daughter, Helen Brown, to be hers absolutely, excluding the tools and machinery which have herein before bequeathed to my son.

Fourth: I hereby direct that my daughter, Helen Brown, be given the opportunity, within sixty (60) days from the date of my death, to purchase my home situated at 324 Shaw Avenue, Lewistown, Pennsylvania, upon the payment of one thousand ($1,000.00) dollars each to my son, Jesse I. Searer, Jr., and my daughter Pearl Wagner. If my daughter, Helen Brown, does not desire to purchase the home on these terms, I hereby direct that my home shall be sold and the proceeds equally divided among my three children, Helen Brown, Jesse I. Searer, Jr., and Pearl Wagner.

Fifth: I hereby give, devise and bequeath all the rest, residue and remainder of my estate, real, personal and mixed, of what soever nature and where soever situate, to be divided equally among my three children, Helen Brown, Jesse I. Searer, Jr., and Pearl Wagner, share and share alike.

Sixth: My hereinafter named executor shall have the power to sell and dispose of my real and personal estate in any manner he so sees fit, whether at public sale or private sale and upon such terms and conditions as he may deem appropriate.

Lastly: I do hereby nominate, constitute and appoint my son, Jesse I. Searer, Jr., to be the executor of this my last will and testament.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 26th day of April, 1960
