Notes for John Kelly:

- From the Book
- "HISTORY OF MUSKINGUM COUNTY"
- page 485-486

John Kelly, Zanesville, Ohio, is well known throughout the township as one of the wide-awake, enterprising agriculturists, and his fine farm of 238 acres are kept in the very best condition. He was born in Muskingum county, Ohio, March 17, 1820, and was one of nine children, two now living, born to Isaac and Mary (Gad) Kelley. Both natives of the Old Dominion. The parents were married in their native state and subsequently moved to Muskingum County, Ohio, where all their children, except the eldest, were born. Hamilton, The eldest child was a native of Virginia. The others were named as follows: Wesley, Ignatius, Simeon, Elizabeth, John, Nathan and Benjamin.

Mr. Isaac Kelley settled in this county, on the land now occupied by our subject, in 1810, and began immediately to clear it of the oak timber with which it was covered. By hard work and industry he soon had a good home, and being a man of good judgment and considerable ability, he held a number of local offices, among them that of justice of the peace. In their religious views he and Mrs. Kelley were members in the Methodist church and active members of the same. He died on the old homestead, in this county, on March 1, 1860. When' seventy-five years of age.

His son, the subject of this sketch, received his scholastic training in the common schools of pioneer days, and at an early age manifested a taste for farm life. On June 22, 1865, he wedded Miss Jane Drake, who was born August 8, 1842, and who was the Daughter of George and Catherine (Tatham) Drake natives of England.

George Drake-came from his native country in 1820, first settled in Pennsylvania, and moved from there to Zanesville, Ohio, and thence to Muskingum township, where he became a successful tiller of the soil. He died in this township when nearly eighty-three years of age. His wife, Catherine was the daughter of John and Kestibal Tatham, who came from England about 1820. Mr. Tatham brought his entire family. George Drake and Catherine were married in Pennsylvania. After married Mr. Kelly located on his present farm, and has ever been a practical and successful farmer. He has a fine residence good out buildings and everything about the place denotes the owner to be a man of thrift and energy. He has held a number of township offices and is one of the best citizens.

The six children born to his marriage are named as follows: Samuel E., born June 12, 1867; George M, born March 7, 1869; John H., born August 8, 1871; Allen P., born October 20, 1878; Harold C., born October 4, 1875; and Florence M., born August 2, 1886.

Mrs. Kelley had one brother, George, in the Civil war, and he served three years in a Kansas regiment. Samuel E. Kelley married Miss Fannie Wilkinson, and is now farming in Falls Township. The Kelley's are descend from old pioneer stock and have reason to be proud of their ancestors.

Children of John Kelly and Jane Drake are:

- 42 i. Samuel Edwin⁴ Kelly, born June 12, 1867 in Muskingum County near Zanesville Oh; died November 9, 1893 in Muskingum County near Zanesville Oh.

BENJAMIN KELLY.

Benjamin Kelly was born in Falls township, Muskingum count, in 1860 His paternal grandfather, Isaac Kelly, was a native of Pennsylvania and became one of the early settlers of central Ohio, taking up his abode in Muskingum county when it was still a largely undeveloped region. His son, Nathan Kelly, was born in this county and in his youth assisted in the arduous task of developing a new farm. The occupation to which he was reared he made his life work, engaging in the tilling of the soil up to the time of his death. He married Miss. Mary Crabtree, a daughter of William and Sarah ('Wilkeson) Crabtree, both of whom were natives of England, and they came to America in 1810, crossing the Atlantic in a sailing vessel. They settled in Falls Township and were also pioneer settlers of Muskingum County. Mr. Kelly passed away about 1891 and is still survived by his widow. They were the parents of five children. of whom three are still living. namely: Alfred, - a farmer. who resides in Zanesville: Charles A., who is living on the old homestead in Falls township: and Benjamin. Benjamin Kelly pursued his education in Walker schoolhouse and was reared to farm life, early becoming familiar with the practical methods of tilling the soil, harvesting the crops and caring for the stock. In his early life he followed farming and dairying and was thus engaged until 1898. when he came to Zanesville and entered the undertaking business in partnership with his brother-in-law under the firm name of Kelly & Lasure. Since 1903 he has been alone in business and he now has a very large patronage. He took a course in embalming under prominent representatives of that business and received a diploma for his proficiency. In 1882 Mr. Kelly was married to Miss Martha A Richey, who was born in fall township, Muskingum County, and is a daughter of John H and Ellen T (Wilkeson) Richey. Mr. Kelly belongs to the modern Woodman camp at Zanesville, to the Independent Order of Foresters and Improved Order of Red Men, while in politics he is a democrat. He is a genial man of kindly spirit and cordial disposition and is highly esteemed by many friends in Zanesville and Muskingum County.

Notes for Alfred Kelly:

From PAST AND PRESENT OF MUSKINGUM COUNTY. Pg 278 & 281

ALFRED KELLY

Alfred Kelly, living in Zanesville, was born in Falls township, Muskingum county, January 7, 1852, his parents being Nathan and Mary (Crabtree), Kelly. His paternal grandparents were Isaac and Mary (Gadd) Kelly, who came to this county at an early period in its development, making the journey on horseback from Wheeling, West Virginia, to Muskingum township, for there were then no railroads. They located where Alfred Kelly was born and were early pioneer people of the locality. assisting largely in the development and improvement of that part of the state. They were also interested in the moral growth of the community and were devoted members of the Methodist church.

Nathan Kelly was born in Falls Township in 1822, was educated in Muskingum Township and throughout his life followed the occupation of farming. He prospered in his undertakings and at one time owned four hundred acres of valuable land in connection with good town property. He married Miss Mary Crabtree, whose parents were natives of Manchester, England, and became pioneer residents of Muskingum County. Mr. Kelly gave his political support to the democratic party and for three years served as a member of the county infirmary board, was also on the school board and filled the office of township trustee. He won the respect, confidence and good will of all who knew him and. honored and esteemed by all, he passed away in October. 1893 when seventy-one years of age. His widow still survives and is living on Lee Street, in Zanesville, in the seventy-sixth year of her age. They were the parents of five children, three sons and two daughters and the sons are yet living, namely Alfred; Charles, who occupies the home place and Benjamin, who is an undertaker of Zanesville.

Alfred Kelly was a public-school student in his youth and afterward successfully engaged in teaching for eight years. Through the summer months he followed farm work on the old homestead and through the winter seasons was identified with the educational development of the county, teaching his first term of school when but seventeen years of age. He became a land owner when about twenty eight years of age and with laudable ambition he worked to extend his realty possessions until he is today the owner of three hundred acres of rich and arable land in Muskingum county, together with town property in Zanesville, Taking charge of his home farm he placed it under a high state of cultivation and added to it all modern equipments and accessories. He erected good buildings and extended the work of improvement along many lines and he continued his active farm work until 1903, since which time he has lived retired. He had, however, taken up his abode in Zanesville in 1899 and has since made his home in this city.

Mr. Kelly was married in 1878 to Miss Mary L. Crossland , a sister of Dr. Crossland and a daughter of George and Alvira (Mutchler) Crossland, the former a native of England, while the latter was born in Muskingum county but is of German descent. Mr. Crossland is now deceased but his widow yet survives and lives with her son, Dr. Crossland, on Seventh Street in Zanesville. Mr. and Mrs. Kelly have two children Lillie F., born in August, 1881 : and Iva E., born In May, 1891The elder daughter is a graduate of the high school and business college of Zanesville and possesses considerable musical talent. The younger daughter is also a high-school graduate.

Mr. Kelly belongs to the Modern Woodmen camp and attends the services of the Methodist Episcopal church. His political support is given to the democracy and has been honored with several local offices, serving as justice of the peace of Falls Township and also as assessor and township treasurer in Muskingum Township. He has always lived in this county and the fact that many of his warmest friends are those who have known him from boyhood is an indication that his has been an honorable, upright career. He takes great pride in what has been accomplished in the county- and as a citizen he has always been public spirited and progressive, giving his aid wherever possible to further the general good.

Children of Alfred Kelly and Mary Crossland are:

- 83 i. Lillie F⁵ Kelly, born August 1881.
- 84 ii. Iva Ethle Kelly, born May 1891.
- 85 iii. Clay Kelly, born July 6, 1885; died March 22, 1889 in Muskingum County near Zanesville Oh.

49. Charles A⁴ Kelly (Nathan³, Isaac², Isaac¹) was born July 15, 1855. He married Julia Lunder. She died March 1, 1937.

Notes for Charles A Kelly:

CHARLES A. KELLY.

Charles A. Kelly is one of the men of influence and prominence in Falls Township, holding a position of prestige in the regard of his fellow townsmen because of his business ability, his loyalty and progressiveness in citizenship and his devotion to duty. He resides about five miles north of Zanesville upon the farm on which he was born July 15, 1855. He is a son of Nathan Kelly a native Of Muskingum township and a grandson of Isaac Kelly, who was born in Virginia and when a young man came to this county, casting in his lot with the early settlers whose labors proved the foundation for the present development of this part of the state. He became a prominent farmer of Muskingum County, successfully carrying on agricultural pursuits and also laboring for general progress and improvement. He married a Miss Gadd and their son Nathan was reared upon the home farm in Muskingum Township in the usual manner of farm lads of that period. Having reached adult age he married Miss Mary Crabtree a native of Falls Township and a daughter of William Crabtree a native of England. Mr. and Mrs. Kelly became the parents of five children, of whom three are living: Alfred, of Zanesville; Charles A.; and Benjamin, who is an undertaker of Zanesville. In 1865 the father purchased one hundred and sixty-six acres of land the farm upon which his son Charles now resides and at once began the development of his property, making it his home until within two years of his death, when he returned to Muskingum township, where his last days were passed. He had prospered in his business undertakings, having become well-to-do. In politics he was a democrat, exerting considerably influence in the local ranks of his party, and he served as a director of the county infirmary for two terms and also as township trustee. His wife is still living and is a resident of Zanesville.

Charles A. Kelly, reared upon the home farm, attended the district schools for the requirement of an education that would equip him for the cares and responsibilities of life and received practical training in the farm work under the direction of his father. His choice of a companion and helpmate for life's journey fell upon Miss Julia Lunder and that he was successful in his suit is indicated by the fact that they were married. She was born in Zanesville. A daughter of Thomas Lunder, a native of Ireland. Mr. and Mrs. Kelly have become the parents of five children: Alice Fay, Clarence A., Lillian S., Bessie and Beatrice.

In order to provide for his family Mr. Kelly has always carried on farming and is now the owner of one hundred and sixty-five acres of land, pleasantly and conveniently situated about five miles north of Zanesville on the Dresden road. His place is well equipped and is neat and thrifty in appearance. He carries on general farming and also engages in the dairy business, keeping from fifteen to twenty cows for that purpose. He also raises hogs and sheep and his sales of stock add a considerable fund to his financial resources each year. His political affiliation is with the democracy and his fraternal relations with the Masons, belonging to Lafayette lodge. During a lifelong residence in Muskingum County he has become widely known and as a representative of an old pioneer family, as a businessman of enterprise and reliability and a citizen of advanced ideas he deserves mention in this volume.

Children of Charles Kelly and Julia Lunder are:

- 86 i. Alice Fay⁵ Kelly.
- 87 ii. Clarence A Kelly.
- 88 iii. Lillian S Kelly.
- 89 iv. Bessie Kelly.
- 90 v. Beatrice Kelly.
