Notes for REBECCA JANE HAAS:

Obituary as it appeared in the February 2, 1923 issue of the Starkweather Times, Starkweather, Ramsey County, North Dakota.

Called to her Reward.

Saturday night, January 27th, at the home of her son, Roy, occurred the death of Mrs. Rebecka Jane DeHart. Mrs. DeHart had not been ill, but died of ripe old age and quietly and peacefully depart this life. Only a few days before, she celebrated her eighty-third birthday, and the large number of friends who gathered for the occasion was a beautiful tribute to the honor and esteem in which she was held. To her sons and daughters she was a kind and loving mother, to the scores of friends she was "Grandma DeHart" and what word is more expressive of love and esteem than "Grandma".

Rebecka Jane Haas was born in Pennsylvania January 21st, 1840, and was married to William DeHart at Shelbyville, Indiana, where they lived for five years, and then moved to Illinois. They came to the Starkweather territory in 1900, and so were numbered with the pioneers. Mr. DeHart died December 12th, 1906, and since that time Mrs. DeHart has resided with her son, Roy, who has a splendid farm home two miles north of town. She is survived by three sons: L.B. DeHart who lives in California, A.P. DeHart of Illinois, J.L. DeHart of Starkweather, and two daughters, Mrs Mildred F. Downer of California, and Mrs. C.A. Fisk who lives in Illinois.

Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Thos. A. Simpson, in the Community church, Monday afternoon, and was largely attended.

Notes for WILLIAM DEHART:

Obituary as it appeared in the December 14, 1906 issue of the Starkweather Times, Starkweather, Ramsey county, North Dakota.

William DeHart died last Wednesday morning after an illness of only a few days, the immediate cause of death being a paralytic stroke. Mr. DeHart was born in Franklin, Pennsylvania, Dec. 26th, 1836, and was at the time of his death almost 70 years of age.

He was married to Rebecca Jane Hess (s/b Haas) at Commonstown, Pennsylvania Oct. 21st, 1860 removing at once to Shelbyville, Indiana, where they remained for four years. In 1864 they moved to Illinois where they remained until 1900 at which time they came to North Dakota renting a farm near here. There was born to Mr. & Mrs. DeHart eight children, five girls and three boys of which three girls and three boys are still living. The deceased leaves these and the wife to mourn his loss. The youngest son, J.L. lived with his parents near this place and recently bought a farm to make a home for his parents during their old age. L.B. DeHart another son recently moved from here to California. A daughter lives in California, and a son and two other daughters live in Illinois. The funeral will be held from the home tomorrow at 12 o'clock. Rev. McLeos of this place preaching the sermon, and the body will be laid to rest in Starkweather cemetery. Mr. DeHart's friends were limited only to the number of his acquaintances and the sorrowing relatives have the heartfelt sympathy of all in their bereavement.

Notes for SUSAN ALICE DEHART:

Note that appears in Family Bible:

Dearest Alice, thou hast left us
and thy loss we deeply feel;
But 'tis God that has bereft us
He can, all our sorrows heal.

But again we hope to meet you
When the day of life is fled;
There in heaven with joy to greet you
Where no farewell tear is shed.
