Notes for THOMAS WELCH:

This family lived in Franklin County, Indiana until about 1834. Then they moved to the next county west -- Decatur County. They left there in 1853 and moved to Jackson County, Iowa, where Christopher remarried and where Flora and Thomas married. Thomas married a daughter of Armstrong Hawkins. Martha Hawkins was also a daughter of Armstrong. Then in the 1860 census Christopher Welch, Enoch Welch, Abisha Welch and Jasper Davis (with wife Flora) are all side by side Marian Township, Mercer County, Missouri. In 1870 what is left of the family is in Jackson County, Iowa. Then in 1880 they are in Smith County, Kansas (Thomas and Abisha and their families). Then you know they went to Oklahoma in either 1900 or 1901 (have not located them in census) and in 1910 they are living side by side in Caddo County, Okla. Thomas Welch died in 1911 and Catherine died in 1933. Both are buried (I believe) in the Binger Cemetery in Binger, Okla. (Caddo County).

Notice all the deaths in Aug. and Sept. 1868. Christopher Welch, Isaac, Enoch, Fletcher and Flora all died. They are all buried at Esgate Cemetery in Maquoketa, Iowa. Armstrong and Mary Davis Hawkins are also buried there. They both died in Aug. 1869. Armstrong and Mary Davis married on 17 March 1836 in Franklin County, Indiana. So the two families go back a long way knowing each other.

Notes for SARAH CATHERINE HAWKINS:

Thomas Welch

and

Catherine Hawkins

This certifies that on the 16th day of Jan 1855 I, William Huntley, a Justice of the Peace, united Thomas Welch aged 21 years and Catherine Hawkins aged 18 years in the Holy Bonds of Matrimony.

CATHERINE HAWKINS was born in Franklin County, Indiana, July 7th, 1837, and passed away November 30th, 1933, at the home of her son, Bish Welch, near Eakly, Oklahoma, aged 96 years, 4 months and 13 days.

At the age of sixteen years she moved, with her parents, to Jackson County, Iowa, where in 1855, she was married to Thomas Welch. To this union was born twelve children, seven of whom are living. They are J.T., Bish, William and Mrs. Albert Erkanbrack, of Oklahoma, Mrs. Ed Hastings and David Welch of Iowa, and Arch, of Edmonton, Canada. There are also twenty-five grandchildren, sixty great-grandchildren and five great-great-grandchildren; also one sister, Mrs. Cornelia Brown, and a brother, Armstrong Hawkins, both of Iowa, left to mourn her passing, besides hosts of other relatives and friends.

Most of Mr. and Mrs. Welch's early married life was spent in Jackson County, where they reared their family to manhood and womanhood. In 1901, with several of their children, they moved to Caddo County, Oklahoma, where Mr. Welch passed away, July 9th, 1911. Since that time "Grandma" has made her home with her children -- part of the time in Iowa, and later in Oklahoma.

She was of a pleasant, kind disposition, and loved by all who knew her. Several years ago she was united with the Baptist Church, of which she remained a faithful member, and one cannot but feel that such a sweet, gentle spirit has surely entered into her reward.

Wm Huntley, JP

STOVE EXPLODES, MRS. ALBERT WELCH FATALLY BURNED...

Center Junction, IOWA, AUG.11,1913

Mrs Albert Welch died 7 o'clock , after 7 hours of suffering.

About noon Mrs. Welch undertook to start a fire in the range with what she thought was kerosene, but no sooner had she applied a lighted match than there was a terrible explosion which threw burning oil all over her. She screamed & ran across the street to her neighbor, Clarks, but before any one could aid her, her clothes were completely burned from her body. Doctors were summoned & everything possible done for her but without avail. Edwin Lowe Jr., was hurriedly summoned to Center Junction to assist his near friend, Albert Welch, whose wife had been so terribly burned that day. Mrs. Welch died that evening. The funeral service was held in the Nashville Church at 10 a.m. Wednesday & the body was buried in the Cemetery at Buck Horn..
