Notes for JOSEPH BENJAMIN MILLER:

[Mllr.FTW]

His death certificate number is Whatcome County #189, 1909. Buried at Bay View Cemetery, Bellingham, WA. Family lore says 12 children. Possibly, his granddad's last name was "Müeller."

According to his great-grandson, he was 200 lbs and 6'4" and once beat the hell out of a man for calling him a rebel during the Civil War.

He was a farmer.

Died Dec 1 1909, Interred Dec 4 1909, Age 87, cause of death General Debility, Burial Permit #2338

Children of MARY JACOBS and JOSEPH MILLER are:

- i. LEONIDAS⁴ MILLER⁷, b. 1844, Dearborn Co IN⁸; d. July 03, 1864, Boston Iron Works, GA⁸.

Notes for LEONIDAS MILLER:

[Mllr.FTW]

Age 18 (when enlisted, I assume). Residence Canton, Jackson, Co., Iowa. Nativity Indiana. Enlisted August 12, 1862, mustered August 30, 1862. Taken prisoner April 9, 1863, Deer Creek, Ark. Returned to company October 14, 1863. Wounded June 16, 1864, Kenesaw Mountain, GA. Died of wounds July 3, 1864, Boston Iron Works, GA.

Iowa volunteer. 26th Infantry, "A" company. Private. Application #358.850, certificate #384-360.

Family lore was that his death was the result of a cannon ball removing his leg or legs. Yech.

After he was captured he was exchanged at City Point VA. he seems not to have returned to his unit but rather he went home to IA. in June of 1863 he was arrested (at a cost of $56.) and returned to the 26th IA. He had deserted, this was not unusual because it was a matter of honor. When you were exchanged you gave your word not to take up arms again unless the person for which you were exchanged broke their word and returned to the war. Also he may not have died at Boston Iron Works but rather Baston Iron Works. The records are hard to read and were written in the 1880's.

David V. Miller, at his snug farm, on section 27, in Brandon Township, makes a specialty of draft horses, and in connection with this industry has built up for himself an enviable reputation. He is a native of Dearborn County, Ind., and was born Aug. 6, 1846. He is the son of Joseph B. and Mary (Jacobs) Miller, who were also natives of the Hoosier State, and removed thence to Iowa in December, 1856, settling first in Canton, Brandon Township. The following year they changed their location to the farm now occupied by their son, our subject. Upon this the father resided until the fall of 1886, then removed to Arkansas County, Ark.; the mother in the meantime dying in Brandon Township, in 1876.

To Joseph B. and Mary A. (Jacobs) Miller there were born fourteen children, eleven of whom grew to manhood and womanhood. Leonidas, during the late war, served as a Union soldier in the 26th Iowa Infantry, and was killed while on duty; David V., our subject, was the second child; Mary became the wife of Robert Ralston, of Brandon Township, and was the mother of two sons, William and Augustus; she died when about twenty-one years old. Joseph H. is a resident of South Fork Township, this county; Clarence C. resides in Dallas County, Iowa; Ann E. is deceased; Charles A. lived in Arkansas, and died May 1, 1889; Martha J. is the wife of David Rimmer, of this county; Michael H. is farming in Brandon Township; Julia is the wife of George Sinkey, of Brandon Township; Sarah E. (Mrs. William Blood) resides in Farmers' Creek Township, this county. After the death of his first wife, Mr. Miller was married a second time, and is now living in Arkansas.

David V. Miller, our subject, spent his boyhood and youth at the parental homestead, occupying himself in farm pursuits, and worked considerably at the cooper's trade. On July 14, 1872, being ready to establish a home of his own, he was united in marriage with Miss Helen Caven, of Brandon Township. They were the parents of six children, namely: Mary (died May 8, 1889), Myrtle, Maude, Amanda, John J., and Mina. In politics Mr. Miller is a National Greenbacker. He has served as School Director in his District, but aside from this has declined the responsibilities of the office-holder. He has a good farm of 230 acres, with fair improvements, and is surrounded with all the comforts of life. Without making any great stir in the world, he has pursued the even tenor of this way as a reliable and law-abiding citizen, and has contributed his full quota to the dignity and respectability of his township.

Notes for CHARLETON MILLER:

He became a teacher and left IA. He taught school in different towns going west until he got to San Francisco. He signed on to a whaling ship as a cook. He had learned that trade when he was in school he worked his way through school as a cook. He landed in Hawaii and went back to teaching for a family of a wealthy plantation owner. After a short time he left Hawaii and went to the Phillipines and taught and became the superintendent of schools for some province. He came down with malaria and was cared for by some Spanish priest. He learned to speak Spanish from them, he also learned to speak the local Phillipine language. After recovering from his illness he went to work for the U.S.A army doing what I don't know but he became friends with Gen. Leonard Wood. He next went to work for the Dept of State. His next assignment was to Nagasaki Japan. He had taught himself Japanese, he was quite good with languages. He spoke and wrote Spanish, Japanese, Chinese, Italian, French and German. When he was in Nagasaki he had a bout with Malaria and went to see a doctor Sakaguchi, Dr Sakaguchi's daughter Sidzu assisted him. Sidzu and Carleton were married in 1905.

Under pressure from his superiors in the state department and after a demotion and transfer to Sri Lanka Charleton resigned from State in 1914. He settled in Hawaii thinking that the racial climate would be better for his family, he was wrong.

g. Carleton and Sidzu had 5 children.

After giving birth to Clarence, contacted septicemia due to negligence on the part of the cdoctor -- who was eventually "run out of town" -- probably not a hard thing to achieve in Sumas. Anyway, she almost died, being in a coma with a high fever. It was four months until she was up and around again. She never wanted to have any children after that, which, I assume, meant no sex. She also had one of those "near death" incidents where she was on a "beautiful island" during her coma.
