Notes for LEONIDAS MILLER:

[Milr.FTW]

Age 18 (when enlisted, I assume). Residence Canton, Jackson, Co., Iowa. Nativity Indiana. I 12, 1862, mustered August 30, 1862. Taken prisoner April 9, 1863, Deer Creek, Ark. Returned October 14, 1863. Wounded June 16, 1864, Kenesaw Mountain, GA. Died of wounds July 3, Iron Works, GA.

Iowa volunteer. 26th Infantry, "A" company. Private. Application #358.850, certificate # Family lore was that his death was the result of a cannon ball removing his leg or legs. Ye

After he was captured he was exchanged at City Point VA. he seems not to have returned to rather he went home to IA. in June of 1863 he was arrested (at a cost of $56.) and returned to had deserted, this was not unusual because it was a matter of honor. When you were exchanged your word not to take up arms again unless the person for which you were exchanged for broke returned to the war. Also he may not have died at Boston Iron Works but rather Boston Iron Works records are hard to read and were written in the 1880's.

David V. Miller, at his snug farm, on section 27, in Brandon Township, makes a specialty of draft horse connection with this industry has built up for himself an enviable reputation. He is a native of Dearborn Ind., and was born Aug. 6, 1846. He is the son of Joseph B. and Mary (Jacobs) Miller, who were at the Hoosier State, and removed thence to Iowa in December, 1856, settling first in Canton, Brandon Township. The following year they changed their location to the farm now occupied by their son, our subject. His father resided until the fall of 1886, then removed to Arkansas County, Ark.; the mother in the meantime in Brandon Township, in 1876.

To Joseph B. and Mary A. (Jacobs) Miller there were born fourteen children, eleven of whom grew to manhood and womanhood. Leonidas, during the late war, served as a Union soldier in the 26th Iowa Infantry killed while on duty; David V., our subject, was the second child; Mary became the wife of Robert Brandon Township, and was the mother of two sons, William and Augustus; she died when about twenty years old. Joseph H. is a resident of South Fork Township, this county; Clarence C. resides in Dallas Iowa; Ann E. is deceased; Charles A. lived in Arkansas, and died May 1, 1889; Martha J. is the wife of Rimmer, of this county; Michael H. is farming in Brandon Township; Julia is the wife of George Si Brandon Township; Sarah E. (Mrs. William Blood) resides in Farmers' Creek Township, this county. The death of his first wife, Mr. Miller was married a second time, and is now living in Arkansas.

David V. Miller, our subject, spent his boyhood and youth at the parental homestead, occupying his pursuits, and worked considerably at the cooper's trade. On July 14, 1872, being ready to establish for himself, he was united in marriage with Miss Helen Caven, of Brandon Township. They were the parents of five children, namely: Mary (died May 8, 1889), Myrtle, Maude, Amanda, John J., and Mina. In politics he is a National Greenbacker. He has served as School Director in his District, but aside from this has discharged the responsibilities of the office-holder. He has a good farm of 230 acres, with fair improvements, and with all the comforts of life. Without making any great stir in the world, he has pursued the even tenor of his way as a reliable and law-abiding citizen, and has contributed his full quota to the dignity and respectability of his township.

Notes for WILLIAM R. RALSTON:

Maquoketa Record

September 7, 1898

William R. Ralston was the son of Robert and Mary Ralston; he was born May 5, 1866, at Emeline county, Iowa. August 18, 1890, he was married to Miss Ora Huston of Emeline. Two children were now aged 5 and 7 years. Mr. Ralston died August 25, 1898, aged 32 years 4 months and 20 days. A good neighbor, a kind husband and father, and a good jovial fellow, liked and respected by all who knew him. He left a wife and two children who sadly mourn his death. His sudden and unexpected death has cast a gloom seldom felt over the entire community. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Delrumple of Union church, Emeline, Saturday, August 27, at 2 o'clock. The church was crowded and several hundred were present. There were many unable to gain an entrance. The remains were sealed in a beautiful casket and followed by a large concourse of relatives, friends and neighbors to his last resting place in the Canaan cemetery where he will await the final resurrection morn.

C.L. (Clarence Leon) Miller (b. circa 1886) and his younger brother Percy David Miller (b. circa 1886) were born in Iowa and moved to Whatcom County by 1910, where they worked in the lumber and shingle industry. In 1919 C. L. was married to Johanna Miller and they had a son, Clarence Miller, who served in WWI as a corporal. C.L. also owned an 80 acre dairy farm near Sumas.

By 1910 C.L. Miller and Percy D. Miller both resided in Sumas, Washington and worked in the shingle industry. By 1918, they had established Miller and Sons. Percy sold out his interest to his brother in April 1919 and continued to work in the timber industry. The two brothers established the Miller-Lidstone Lumber Company in 1919 with L.W. Lidstone who was bought out at the end of the year.

C.L. Miller in particular was involved in numerous other business partnerships. This may reflect the the business, especially during the Depression, as well as the need to partner with many individuals to land with timber. C.L. operated mostly in Whatcom County, although he also engaged in busine and King County. Some of these partnerships included the Miller Logging Company (begun in 192 brother Percy and R.E. White) and the Miller-Allen Company (begun in 1931 with W.R. Allen). In partnered with R.E. Hagin to establish the Miller-Hagin Shingle Company and ran a mill owned by Shingle Company. By 1938 he was working with Paul Gilfilen and they had established Miller-Gil he was working with John German and had begun Miller-German which was dissolved in 1950. In established Olsen-Miller Cedar Mill with Oscar J. Olsen. In 1941 it would change to the Whatcom Company with P.K. Knutson added to the partnership, although in 1944 Miller would buy him out. Clarence Miller joined his father in the shingle business and became a partner in Miller and Sons.

After giving birth to Clarence, contacted septicemia due to negligence on the part of the cdoctor eventually "run out of town" -- probably not a hard thing to achieve in Sumas. Anyway, she almost a coma with a high fever. It was four months until she was up and around again. She never wanted children after that, which, I assume, meant no sex. She also had one of those "near death" incidents was on a "beautiful island" during her coma.

The Wilbur Register. Wilbur, WA - Thursday, August 12, 1943 Young Matron Dies Suddenly
The Wilbur Mission Church was well filled Monday afternoon when the funeral service of Mrs. M. Samuel Guyler Miller) was conducted by the pastor, the Rev. W. A. Kincaid.
Mrs. Miller died very suddenly at her home in Wilbur, Saturday. She was 26 years of age, a daughter of C. E. Jerred and his late wife and a member of their family of 21 children. Her childhood home was in the region, but she lived in Wilbur about two years, her husband having bought the Monaghan cottage hill.

Besides her husband and small daughter (Raedine Carole Miller), she is survived by her father (Cec Jerred); and 17 brothers and sisters. (Margaret Schiminske-Jerred, Mrs. Miller's mother, preceded her 17, 1939.)

Music for the funeral service was provided by Mrs. Guy Hansen, with Mrs. Vance Davidson as accompanist. Pallbearers were A. V. Squire, Jake Stare, Jack Snodgrass, Joe Kennedy, J. K. Alderson, and an intimate friend of the bereaved husband, Lonnie Williams of Keller.

Interment was made in the Wilbur Cemetery, with the Phillip Funeral Home in charge.

had schizophrenia and died of exposure after becoming lost found sometime last of Oct or first Nov

Audrey's son went missing from Riverview Hospital and wasn't found for 6 weeks. He died from the elements. It was in the fall. Oct. 8 (approx. date of death) 1990 age of 30. He had been in hospital just to adjust his medication for his condition, I think it was schizophrenia he had and he had been in hospital but needed to have his meds adjusted so was in the hospital at that time. He had always been a good boy from the time he was very young. He was the oldest of 4. His father wasn't a good father and Anyway Audrey was wondering if there is German -Jewish in the background. Oh Irene Burrows age of 93, in 1999, I have Feb 28 and her daughter-in-law Mavis, died the same year at age 71 in Edmonton Alberta
