Notes for Edward Samuel Hull:

The Civil War took a devastating effect on both the Hull and Fennell families. Both Ed and Laura lost their fathers in the war, Samuel Hull as POW died in Elmira Prison, Ny. while William Fennell died while serving under General Beauregard, he was killed at Swift Creek, VA. Ed wa a farmer and Laura took care of a growing family. One granddaughter remembers her grandmother as very soft spoken woman with long curls down her back. When Ed died, two men built the casket, and the ladies lined it. It was then placed on a bed of a two - horse wagon and the family walked behind it. They walked all the way from the house near Cummings to the old family cemetery located across the road from Mt. Olive Baptist Church on old Saltketcher Road. The granddaughter remembered as the children tired, they were allowed to ride on the wagon with the deceased grandfather, herself included. Ed and Lauras names appear on the 1892 Membership Of Mount Olive Baptist Church along with their mothers. When in 1911 Deep Branch Bapltist Church aligned with Southern Baptists, the Hulls were among the members. Edward Hull was the first elected deacon to serve at the new church.

Notes for Thomas Burton Sr. Crapse:

He was a farm laborer at the home of Ruchard Bullard and his wife Elizabeth Benson Bullard. His Civil War Records state that he married Mary Bullard in Oct. of 1854. His home was a log cabin on the farmland that is known as the Old Tom Crapps Home Place in Dyal School Community on Road #535, just a short distance from the Bacon County Line.

Thomas Sr. enlisted in the Volunteer Army Infantry on Mar. 4, 1862 and was assigned to Co. F 47th Regiment and died of Typhoid Fever in a Savannah Hospital on Oct. 5, 1862. His wife, Mary was taken by horse and wagon to go and bring his body home for burial, by a black slave descendant named Bishop (Ole Bish) The trip there and back took several days, and this was told by Aunt Nance, who was the daughter of Bish and also a midwife and living in one of the Black Quarters cabins on the farmland of Dennis Smith, near the Dyal School.

More About Priscilla Ellen Cook:

Burial: Schaffer-Hull Cemetary, Early Branch, SC

Notes for Samuel F. Hull:

Samuel Hull and His wife Priscilla's brother Andrew Jackson went to enlist together. Only both were captured and held as POW. Samuel died in Prison in Elmira, NY and buried there. His body was never returned home to the South. Andrew Cook did come home with the sad news. Samuel had 2 sons, Edward and John. John died at 29. He is buried at Schaffer/Hull cemetery. Samuel's wife later remarried to Schaffer. Samuel was taken prisoner in Virginia. He was wounded. He died while in the Union Prison Camp, Elmira, NY. He was with the SC 11th Regiment as Private. There are 2 Samuel Hull's with CSA records according to the Union records. They may be the same Samuel Hull's both were with SC Regiments. Sometimes that happened when a soldier would be in two different regiments and assumed 2 different people. All we have to go by is what Union records show, since most of our records were destroyed when Sherman's troop came thru and burned the capitol, and most of the courthouses were burnt along with a lot of Southern history and its paperwork.

***Samuel names appears as Samuel F. Hull and Samuel E.

Hull. On Civil war Records it has down Samuel Hull and Samuel J. Hull( will try to determine if same man) I think Samuel E. Hull is the correct name since Edward Samuel Hull was his son and he has same name. (speculation)

Notes for Samuel F. Hull:

Samuel Hull and His wife Priscilla's brother Andrew Jackson went to enlist together. Only both were captured and held as POW. Samuel died in Prison in Elmira, NY and buried there. His body was never returned home to the South. Andrew Cook did come home with the sad news. Samuel had 2 sons,

Edward and John. John died at 29. He is buried at Schaffer/Hull cemetery. Samuel's wife later remarried to Schaffer. Samuel was taken prisoner in Virginia. He was wounded. He died while in the Union Prison Camp, Elmira, NY. He was with the SC 11th Regiment as Private. There are 2 Samuel Hull's with CSA records according to the Union records. They may be the same Samuel Hull's both were with SC Regiments. Sometimes that happened when a soldier would be in two different regiments and assumed 2 different people. All we have to go by is what Union records show, since most of our records were destroyed when Sherman's troop came thru and burned the capitol, and most of the courthouses were burnt along with a lot of Southern history and its paperwork.

  - ii. George Fennell, died in Savannah, Ga.

Notes for George Fennell:

As told to me, by Beatrice Hull Smith on April 19, 2005.

She told me that when Grandmama Laura was young, they lived on old Salketcher Road, and that Sherman and his troops camped within distance of their home. Her brother George had something wrong with his arm. Sherman insisted that the boy go with him when he left camp. Insisted or kidnapping, he insisted he could help the child. George went with him and lived with him up North, later to return to Savannah, Ga. where he sat up home. Grandma Laura said that they had Indian in them. From her earlier pictures and long dark hair and eyes, she looked to have some in her, maybe George looked so too, because of the Indians that had their village on the Salketcher Road. There is a place across from the main road on swamp side where arrowheads are in abundance or use to be. George and Laura's father William was killed while serving under General Beauregard at Swift Creek, VA.

OF Archives and History indicating that a Sarah Varnadore has received a pension through 1834 o Leonards Revolutionary War Service. This is not new information but as to whether it is wife or daughter is in question. A daughter unmarried could draw her fathers pension and most beleive thi is what happened. Even though the wife would have been 108 yrs old, itis not impossible that it was she who drew the pension as they say don't bet the house and farm on it!!!

Notes for Jacob Varn:

Jacob Varn was born about 1746 in Orangeburg Township Berkely Co., Sc He was the son of John Peter and Mary Varn. He married about 1768 Mary Chasserea or Copeland. Jacob Varn (Warne, the German spelling) was granted 300 acres of land situated in Berkely Co on Camping Creek in the fork between Broad and Saludy Rivers bounded on all sides by Vacant Land. He was granted this on Feb 12, 1773. The grand is shown in the SC Archives in Royal Grants Vo. 22 page 372. This land was surveyed July 13, 1772 and is shown in SC Archives Colonial Plats. Vol. 21 pg 327. The memorial is dated Oct 18, 174 and is Sc Archives Memorials Vo. 13 page 60. Jacob Varn was granted 100 acres in Craven County on the Waters of Saludy River on May 25, 1774. Jacob Varn served in the American Revolution. He enlisted and served from Oct. 10, 1781 until Aug 12, 1782 as a private in Captain Pollmer's Company, Colonel Watson's Regiment from SC. This is showing Revolutionary Accounts AA, Account 1258-X Jacob Warn, SC. He also appears in a jury list as a petit juror in Saxa-Gothha, Orangeburg District 1778-79. Jacob Varn is shown as the head of a family in the 1790 census of Orangeburg District, Sc. John Hire deeded 25 acres of land to Jacob Varns of St. Matthew Parish, Orangeburg District on Jan. 19, 1791. Jacob Varn moved to the Beaufort Dist. after that. He is granted 107 acres situate in the district of Beaufort Prince Williams Parish on the aters of the Whippy Swamp the waters of Saltketcher on Dec. 6, 1802. The acreage had been surveyed June 8 1797. Jacob Varn is last Shown on the 1800 Census for Prince William Parish, (later Hampton Co.) Beaufort Dist., SC. He died there about 1805. Mary Varn died after 1820.

Military service: Bet. 1781 - 1782, Private/American Revolutionary War

Notes for Mary Copeland:

Land deed shows Jacob Varn and his wife Mary Copeland...Her brother was Jacob Copleand, Jr. born 1758, SC. Her birth year maybe 1755??There is much controversy regarding Marys last name, I am using the Copeland because I have data going back over 100 years provided to me by Vireen Varn Tyree, She did the majority of the family tree research that all of us use today. If the dates that are shown for Mary's birth in the Chassereau files are correct them Mary would have at least 5 children before she was 19.

While this may be possilbe, I do not believe that it is the case. writtten by Edward Breland

Still not sure of Copeland or Chassereau for last name.

193. Unknown

Notes for John Cook:

John Cook was a Revolutionary War soldier, revealed in Pension Application at the National Archives, Washington, DC.

John Cook was counted among the inhabitants of Prince Williams Parish of the Beaufort Judicial District in the 1800 - 1830 Federal Censuses. Judging from the census it would appear his sons made their homes near him. His sons would be Gadi, Leavie, Thomas and William Cook.

John Cook first applied for his pension in Charleston, SC. The Certificate was sent to Col. C. J. Colcock of Hickory Hill, SC. For some reason maybe due to burning and plunder of the war documents had been lost or misplaced so he traveled to Coosawatchie in April 1824 for reinstatement, in this application it states that John Cook served in the Second Continental Line, Colonel Isaac Mott's Company.

In some Census lists it does not state John Cook as living in this area, but in his Power of attorney due to his reinstatement it is stated that He was a resident of South Carolina for 20 years and was native born South Carolinian. His sons state this also according to census records.

264. Henri Varnadoe, born in France.

Child of Henri Varnadoe is:

- 132 i. Leonard Varnado, born 1717 in France; died in Orangeburg District, S.C; married Sarah Hutto 25 May 1742 in Orangeburg, Sc.

266. Isaac Hutto, born 1697 in Switzerland; died 15 Aug 1752 in Orangeburgh, SC. He married 267. Maria Catherina Von Stern.

267. Maria Catherina Von Stern, born 1700 in Germany.

Notes for Isaac Hutto:

His parents apparently migrated to Germany, because it was fro Germany that he and his wife and children came to America. They came with other emigrants fro the Lower Palatinate on the Rhine River to Germany. Isaac and his family probably arrived on the Oliver which docked in Charleston, SC on July 20, 1735. The SC Gazette of JULY 26, 1735 says of the arrival of the ship Oliver:

On Sunday last arrived here Capr. Robert Robinson mentioned in our last, with about 200 Palatines, most of them being poor, they are obliged to sell themselves and their children for their passages ( whis is six Pistoles in Gold per head) within a fortnight from the time of arrival according to the agreement the made with the Captain, or wlse to pay one Pistole per head more to be carried to Philadelphia.

It is certain that Isaac indentured himself for on Feb. 22, 1738/39 he petitioned for 350 acres of land stating that he was now out of servitude and listing a family consisting of himself, his wife, one son 15 yr. old (Charles), daughter 16 (Anna), daughter 13 (Sarah) one son 12 (peter) and a son 2 (jacob). His grant of 350 acres on Limestone Creek and town lot No. 282 on Fenwick Street was surveyed on JUL

25, 1739. He received the Royal Grant on Mach 1, 1744. Isaac took an interest in the affairs of the community and the local Church. REverand John Ulrich Giessendanner mentions his name on several occasions in the church record and recorded his death as follows.

1752 - On Monday Aug. 17 was buryed the Body of Isaac Hottow, a Settler in this township for Several years past, who died suddenly on Sat. Aug. 15th in the Evening in the Path, as he was going home and was found and taken up dead between his house and the Town of Orangeburgh, no Mark, of any Fall or Violence done him could be seen on his Body. He left a wife and 7 children, 4 of which are married. He was aged 57 years and buryed at his own plantation.

His widow, Mary Catharina remarried in 1753.

A fortunate circumstance is the Rev. John Giessendanner who was a Luthran minister IN 1738 and who was ordained in the Church of England in 1749 kept a record of baptisms, marriages, and death of his congregation, without this careful records the beginnings of the Hutto clan would be virtually unknown.

And because Sherman burned Orangeburgs courthouse, only a few of the present Hutto lines have been carried back to the children and grandchildren of Isaac & maria Catherina. He spelled the name Hutto as Huttow/Otto/&Hottow.

Census of 1624-25 - there were 680 free people and 467 white servants and 23 Negroes. Of the freemen 25 left descendants in well known families which can be traced to the present day. Eight of the servants were ancestors of Virginia families of the same standing. Among the freemen referred to one of these was Christopher Branch, 1620. The Father and grandfather of Christopher are styled gentlemen, but his great grandfather was a prosperous merchant of Abington. Christopher sailed on the ship "London Marchment" with his wife Mary Addie and 9 month old Som Thomas. Christopher and Mary married at St. Peters in London, England. Christopher and his wife Mary settled in College Land Virginia and they were listed on the town roll in 1623. He also lived on the James River at Arrowhattocks and Kingsland in Henrico County, Virginia. Grants of land received from the Crown, are shown on Captain John

Smiths original map of Virginia. Christopher became a Justice and member of House of Burgess. His third Great Grandfather was Sir John Branch, Lord Mayor of Abington.

Due to his father Lionel having been disinherited from the family fortune and because of his unthriftiness, the financial circumstances of this 18 year old son

Christopher, were not very favorable. This is what may have been what led Christopher and his bride to seek a better life in the New World. remarrying. In October 1634, Christopher patented 100 acres at Arrowhatts in Henrico County, which includes part of what is now Chesterfield County. Arrowhatts was on the north side of the James River. It is shown on the Map of Captain John Smith, who was the leader of the Virginia settlement. The eventual and permanent home of Christopher was Kingsland his plantation immediately opposite of Arrowhatts, on the south side of the James River, in what is now Chesterfield county. At Kingsland he patented another 100 acres in Sept. 1636. Christopher was a successful tobacco farmer. He also acquired a large plantation in the extreme northeast part of Chesterfield, bounded on the north by the James River and the south by Proctors Creek. Kingsland Creed runs through he property and takes its name from Christopher's plantation. He was a slave owner. The first slaves arrived in Jamestown in 1619 about the time he arrived from England. He represented Henrico County in the Virginia House of Burgess in 1629 which was the first democratic legislative body in America. In 1656 he was appointed a justice was literate for he wrote the will of John Ely. That will left a bequest To Master Christopher Branch, Sr. for writing my will, 100 good hogshead of tobacco. At the time of Christophers death, in either Dec. 1681 or Jan. two of which were well-worn Bibles. Thomas Jefferson third president of The United State and the author of the Declaration of Independence was the gr-gr-gr grandson of Christopher and Mary Branch.
