

Descendants of William Adams

Generation No. 1

1. WILLIAM<sup>1</sup> ADAMS was born Feb 3, 1593/94 in Shropshire, England, and died 1661 in Ipswich, Essex, MA. He married WIDOW 1619.

Notes for WILLIAM ADAMS:

He came to America in the Spring of 1628 and settled first at Cambridge, then at Newtown, where he was made Freeman in 1639. He moved to Ipswich before 1642. He was one of the first settlers there, as can be seen in land grant records. He was probably one of the first 100 persons to settle in New England. William left a Will, of which there is no trace, except that it was proved at Ipswich Court on Mar 25, 1662. In 1668, Nathaniel and Samuel executed Articles of Agreement concerning the estate of their father, in which reference was made to the Will, to their mother as living, to their brother John and sisters. William, Jr. died in testate and administration was granted by Ipswich Court to his father and brother John; upon the father's death, Nathaniel, was put in his place.

Children of WILLIAM ADAMS and WIDOW are:

- i. WILLIAM<sup>2</sup> ADAMS, JR., b. 1620, England; d. Jan 18, 1659, Ipswich, Essex, MA; m. ELIZABETH STACEY, 1647; b. Abt. 1630, Ipswich; d. 1655.

Notes for WILLIAM ADAMS, JR.:

In May 1635, at age 15, he came to America in the sailing ship Elizabeth and Ann. He moved to Ipswich where he made a land exchange in 1651.

Notes for SAMUEL ADAMS III:

He is our ancestor to serve in the Revolutionary War - as a Sergeant with Capt Whitney's Company. Two almost identical severe weather incidents happened to his family, though 10 years apart. In March 1781, lightning descended the chimney of his home, struck down his wife (who was resuscitated) killed a dog near the andiron, from which his daughter had just risen, and killed two sheep at the end of the barn. About 10 years later, in June 1791, he and his two sons, rushed to an Oak tree to avoid a sudden shower. Their dog preceded them and reached the tree before they did. It was instantly killed when lightning struck and destroyed the tree, and one of his sons was knocked senseless by the lightning bolt, but was revived.

Notes for JOHN ADAMS:

He lived on the same farm as his father, which he inherited.

No direct relationship to President John Adams can be found, although he could be a distant cousin. (President John Adams was born in 1735 and died in 1826 and was our 2nd President). When John died at Hamilton, there were six children named: Silsbee, Susan and Mary in Hamilton; Samuel and Charles in California; John Quincy in Illinois. John's Will was dated Jul 5, 1860.

John Adams Will: Know all . . . by these presents that I John Adams of Hamilton in the County of Essex and Commonwealth of Massachusetts of . . . being of sound and disposing mind and memory do make and publish this my last will and testament, hereby revoking all former wills by me at any time made. First, It is my will that all my just debts and funeral expenses be paid as soon as may be after my decease. Second, I give to my Executor herein after named the sum of one hundred dollars, but to be held by him in trust for benefit of my son Samuel Adams to paid over to him in such sums as my said Executor may think best, but the whole amount to be paid to my said son as in case of his death, to his heirs within two years after my decease. Third, I give to my daughter Susan, wife of George Smith the sum of two hundred dollars. Fourth, I give to my daughter Mary Adams the sum of five hundred dollars. Fifth, I give and desire my son Silsbee the use and improvement, for and during his natural life, of my homestead Estate in Hamilton aforesaid -- and at his death it is my will that the said Estate shall go to the heirs of any said son of Silsbee. This gift and desire is upon the condition that said Silsbee or his heirs, shall within two years after my decease pay to my son Charles Adams the sum of six hundred dollars. I intend to include in the description homestead Estate, the land lying between the road by the house and the river and the spring log so called lying nearly opposite the house, with the building on said land. Sixth, All the rest and residue of my Estate, both real and personal of which I may die seized and possessed, I give and bequeath to five of my six children to with to my sons, John Quincy Adams, Silsbee Adams, Charles Adams, and to my daughters Susan A. Smith and Mary Adams, and their heirs, to be divided equally between the five aforesaid children. Share and share alike, and in the case of my aforementioned children should not be living at the time of my death, is my will that the share of such deceased child should descend to his or her heirs by light of assentation. Seventh, I appoint Daniel E. Safford of Hamilton to be the Executor of this my last will and testament. In witness whereof, I have hereto put my hand and seal, this fifth day of July in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and sixty. John Adams.

She married PHILIP OLA DEWATER Oct 9, 1911 in Wichita, Sedgwick, KS, son of ELIJAH DEWATER and ELIZABETH WEBBER. He was born May 31, 1890 in Hutchinson, Reno, KS, and died Jul 29, 1951 in Waterloo, Black Hawk, IA.

Notes for CLARA ETTA ADAMS:

At age 7 or 8, her family moved to Anthony. After two years they moved again, this time to Viola. Clara attended school until 8th grade and then became a substitute teacher. She also worked as a switchboard operator. When she was 17, she moved to a large farm near Clearwater, as a housekeeper-helper.

Census:

1910 - Viola, Sedgwick, KS (17) (w/Parents)

Notes for PHILIP OLA DEWATER:

As a young boy, he lived on farms in Oklahoma and Kansas. When Philip was five years old, his father died, so he and several siblings were placed in a Masonic Orphanage, which has since burned down. He remained in the orphanage until he was 12, at which time he returned to help his mother on a farm in Clearwater. At age 20, he hired out as a farm hand. Philip and Clara were 21 and 18 years old when they married at Wichita. In 1915, they traveled by covered wagon, northeast to Dakota City, a small town in north central Iowa.

On the 1920 Federal Census for Springvale, his last name was spelled with a capital "W."

Notes for KEITH CHARLES DEWATER:

After he joined the Navy, he changed his name from Charles Keith to Keith Charles. The reason, as the story goes, is that when he reported for recruit training, he was told there were too many with the first name of Charles so he was asked to use his middle name.

Census:

1930 - Denver, Bremer, IA (9) (As Charles K) (w/Parents)

Notes for PEARL KATHRYN THORP:

Census:
