Generation No. 1

1. RICHARD¹ HALL^{1,2} was born Abt. 1729.

Notes for RICHARD HALL:

By Sarahjane Doyle Nelson Swatstad, 1999

Richard Hall was born about 1729. From "A History of the New River Settlements" by David Johnson, it is believed he came from New York to early Botetourt Co., Va. As the country grew county lines changed, where someone lived remained the same, and the name of the county changed. It is believed Richard came to South Branch and North Fork of Botetourt County by Stouble's Creek around 1752-1753.

When General Braddock was defeated on the Ohio, July 1755, the whole frontier of Western Virginia was thrown open to the ravages of the Indians. Richard Hall is listed on page 24 in 1756 as living about 30 miles from Fort Prince George.

His son David was born 1754 and when the Revolutionary War was fought between Great Britain and the Colonies, 1775-1783, he was an infantry Corporal in Capt. Epp's and Capt. Bufford's divisions from 1779-1781. , " A Valley and It's People", By Roderick Lucas.

Asa Hall Sr., and Jesse Hall came to the Roanoke Vally about 1790, near what is now Shawsville, near Christiansburg, Va. which is about 20-30 miles from what is now Pearisburg, Va, were Richard Hall and his son David lived.

Notes for DAVID HALL:

Notes by Elke A. Hall

DAVID HALL was born ca. 1754 (according to his Revolutionary War Pension Application) and ca. 1745-50, probably by 1780 he married SARAH ROLLINS (she died by May 1838 in Giles Co., daughter of Anthony Rollins and ...), as son Benjamin was born 5 May 1781. Benjamin was born in Dinwiddie County.

David Hall Sr. died by Nov. 1837 in Giles Co.

His will is in the Giles Co. Will Book B, page 182:

His estate was appraised at $148.75 on 2 December 1837. Appraisers were David Hall Jr., George Bolton, James Stewart, John Johnston was administrator. Benjamin Hall sold land to George Bolton, adj. James Stewart and Akers.

George Bolton probably sold the land to Peter Bish: Peter Bish left a will recorded in Pulaski Co. on 7 April 1842, Pulaski co WB 1, p. 33) he mentions debts he owes French and Pack. He devised all his land 417 a. to his son Isaac who was to maintain his mother and sister Sally. He was to pay the other heir. Abraham, Samuel, Emanuel and David Bish, and Catherine Cain, certain cash sums. A deed was to be made to daughter Susan Gordon and her living children for the land purchased of Dimond in Giles Co. on Spruce Run, daughter Sally was to have the land he bought of George Bolton, being 115 a. in Giles Co. on a branch that empties into Walker's Creek and 50 a. bought of French and Pack which adjoined. Wife Phebe was to have $50.00. The remainder of the French and Pack land, 350 a. was to be sold. Henry Wysor, Jr. and Moses Hoge were executors.

Peter Bish's property in Giles Co. was listed separately and incl. the following: 1 cupboard, a falling leaf table, a bureau, a spinning wheel, 3 chairs, a still cap and worm, 7 tubs, 4 kegs, and a tract of land by name of the Hall tract big survey, 380 a. valued at $.50 an acre (Pulaski Co. Will book 1, p. 38).

In the 1850 census, James Stewart, age 71, was born in Ireland, and lived with his son William Stuart, age 30, born in Ireland, in #490, next to Obediah Diamond #489. Lucinda Diamond (16) lived with William Stuart, whose father James appraised David Hall's estate. Jonathan Cunningham lived in #488, he witnessed Sarah Hall's will. Charles Hall, David Hall's other son, lived in #483.

They had been living in Big Rye Hollow by 1790, close to Henley Chapman (Henley Chapman was the first Commonwealth Attorney in Giles Co. and owned the land around Mountain Lake in Giles Co., land that Christopher Gist visited before he went to Richard Hall's.)

In 1806, the First Giles Co. Court was held at the house of George Pearis on May 13, 1806. Henley Chapman, Gentleman, produced in court a license to practice law in the Superior and Inferior Courts of this Commonwealth. The Chapmans are said to have come from Charles Co., Maryland. Charles, son of DAVID HALL, Sr., was born ca. 1784, married Jemima Chapman, daughter of John Chapman and Sally Abbott. John's sister Jemima, aunt of Jemima Chapman Hall, married Murdock McKenzie, she was killed by Indians in May 1778. John Chapman's father was Isaac Chapman, born in Charles Co., Maryland and married Sarah Cole in Culpeper Co., Virginia.

David and Sarah's children were:

1 Judith was born ca. 1780/81, she married Jesse Diamond on July 3, 1802 in Montgomery Co. Va. (The printed entry says Judith "Hale", however, this should say Judith "Hall," her parents refer to Judith as Juda Diamond in their wills.) Surety for this marriage was Joseph Benjay, age of Judith was proven by Joseph Benjey, who was her uncle.

2 Benjamin was born 5 May 1781 in Dinevidia (Dinwiddie County), Virginia. He married Margaret McKenzie on July 6, 1799 in Montgomery Co., VA. She was said to have been born ca. 1770. Margaret was the daughter of Murdock McKenzie. Benjamin Hall died 3 July 1859 (Mercer Co. Death Record Book 1, page 7)., 78 years, 1 month, 28 days old. Mercer Co. records state that he was born in Denevidia (Dinwiddie) County.

3 Charles was born ca. 1784, he married Jemima Chapman, daughter of John and Sally (Abbott) Chapman.

4 JAMES was born ca. 1785, he married MARY "POLLY" HARLESS on 13 August 1819 in Giles

Co. She was born ca. 1801.

5 David, Jr. was born ca. 1794 - 1800, he probably died by 1839, as he is not mentioned in his mother's will.

1779 David Hall joined the company commanded by Cpt. Epps of the regiment commanded by Col. Buford of Virginia and served for 18 months to 1781 in the Revolutionary War. In his book "Another such Victory" Thomas E. Baker states that " on.. bivouacked around Guilford Courthouse. For nearly two months these reels and Cornwallis' Redcoats had marched and countermarched. At long last, Greene was willing to risk and engagement. In one of the most bitterly contested battles of the American Revolution, Lord Cornwallis' Redcoats met and defeated Nathaniel Greene's rebels. But the cost of this victory was high. At day's end, 500 of the British troops lay dead or wounded in the fields and thickets surrounding Guilford Courthouse. Crippled by the loss of 1/4 of his army, Cornwallis abandoned both the pursuit of Greene and his plans for the conquest of North Carolina. Seven months later , the Redcoats had to surrender at Yorktown.

The rebels were called the "Over the Mountain Men", they were a hard lot, toughened by the daily struggle of life on the frontier, and not likely to be intimidated by mere threads of violence. They fought in South Carolina, Ninety Six, King's Mountain, North Carolina. On Oct. 14, 1780 General Washington offered the Command of the Southern Dept. to Maj. Gen Nathaniel Greene of Rhode Island. Greene assumed command at the Army's winter encampment near Charlotte, North Carolina, on Dec. 3, 1780. He found conditions worse than expected. The men were poorly fed, wretchedly closed, miserably equipped. the combination of a poor diet and inadequate winter clothing had led to epidemic outbreaks of diarrhea, dysentery and other ailments which incapacitated about half of the troops. Greene penned a note to Gov. Thomas Jefferson, protesting that "no man will think of himself bound to fight the battle of a state that leaves him to perish for want of covering." He ordered that all sheeting material and Osnaburg , a coarse linen cloth, that could be collected to be sewn into overalls. He directed hides be collected to be sown into shoes by Moravian craftsmen. 1790 David Hall was listed on the 1790 Montgomery Tax List between Back and Neck Cr., Sinking Run, head of Bear Springs, Walker's Cr. , White Glade on New River, same area as Thomas Copley.

1810 Census - Giles Co. - Charles and DAVID HALL are listed.

Virginia, Giles County Court:

On this 30th day of May 1826 personally appeared in open Court being a Court of record for the County of Giles which proceeds according to the Course of the Common law with Jurisdiction with the point of amount of keeping a record of these proceedings.

David Hall, a resident of the County of Giles aforesaid, aged upward of seventy two years, who being first duly sworn according to law doth on his oath make the following declaration in order to obtain the provisions by the act of Congress of the 18th of March 1818 or the first day of May 1821, that he the said David Hall enlisted on the --- day --- in the year 1779 for the term of eighteen months in the County of Bedford in the State of Virginia under Captain Epps in the company commanded by the said Cpt. Epps and was marched from the County of Bedford and the State of Virginia to Hillsborough in the State of North Carolina, attached to the regiment commanded by Col. Buford in the line of the State of Virginia on Continental establishment and that the said Regiment to which he belonged was attached to the Brigade of General Gates and that he continued to serve in the said Corps eighteen months, the full term of his enlistment when he was discharged at Salisbury in the State of North Carolina, which discharge he has lost, his occupation was a farmer, that he was and that he has one son that lives with him named James , about 35 years of age, which son has a family of his own to support and that he has some small grandchildren to support, they being the children of an unfortunate dissipated son who is unable to support them and that he relinquishes every claim whatever to a pension except the present application and that the following are the reason for not making earlier application for a pension to wit:

That he was in indigent circumstances and being in possession of but little property either real or personal and he would have been entitled to a pension under the Act of Congress passed on the 18th day of March 1818 if he had made application for the same at that time yet he was not willing to become a burden to his county while he was able to support by his labor as a farmer which he was able to do and is not with reluctance that he has thus called on his county for support and in pursuance of this act of the first of May 1820 I do solemnly swear (swear) that I was a resident, citizen of the United States, on the 18th of May 1818 and that I have not since that time by gift, sale or in any manner disposed of my property or any part thereof with the intention to diminish it as to bring myself within the provisions of the act of Congress entitled and get to provide a certain person in service in the State of Virginia of the United States in the Revolutionary War passed on the 18th day of March 1818 and that I have not nor has any person for me any property or securities or debt due to me nor have any income other than what is contained in the schedule below.

A schedule of this property of David Hall as follows , to wit:
about 20 acres of land worth about sixty dollars, one horse being worth about $30, six head of cattle worth about $26, two sows and pigs worth about $5, one water pail and piggin, two pots, one oven, one pewter dish, bason and six plates and 6 iron spoons worth about ten dollars and he the said David Hall further states on oath that no material changes have taken place on his personal property from the 18th day of March 1818 until the present unless one horse being dead, the other property somewhat the same.

And that he has sold and conveyed to Henley Chapman one hundred and fourteen acres of the poor broken high land for the sum of one hundred dollars which sum the said Chapman has paid me and which money has all been used for the necessary support of myself and family. Sworn and subscribed to in open court the 30th day of May 1826.

I, David French, Clerk of Giles County, do certify that it appears to the satisfaction of the court that the said David Hall did serve in the Revolutionary War as stated in the preceding declaration against the Common Enemy.

David Hall of Giles Co. in the State of Virginia who was a private in the company commanded by Cpt. Epps of the regiment commanded by Col. Buford in the Virginia line for the term of eighteen months from the year 1779 to the year 1781. Subscribed on the Roll of Virginia at the rate of 8 dollars per month to commence on the 6th day of October 1826.

Certificate of pension issued the 21st day of October and sent to D. French, Esquire, Giles C.H. , Virginia. Arrears to 4th of March 1827, $ 39.73 semi annual allowance ending ... $39.73.

(In 1830, a James Hall was listed with other neighbors from Giles Co., Jesse and Forest Farley, John Clay etc. in the Harlan County, Kentucky, Census.)

Summer's History of Southwest Virginia and Washington County, p. 325 mentioned Col. Buford, in the summer of 1780, he was in command of a body of Virginia troops, had been surprised and his command cut to pieces by Col. Tarleton at the Waxhaws in NC. Buford's men, when surrounded by Tarleton's forces, begged for quarter which Tarleton declined to give and they were cut to pieces without mercy. The circumstances attending this slaughter were well known to all the mountain men engaged in the battle of King's Mountain and the word "Buford" had been adapted as the password by the mountain men before engaging in this action, and when the British were driven into low ground and were offering to surrender, numbers of the mountain men were heard to cry out: "Give them Buford's play," and after the surrender of the Americans continued to slaughter the British for some time, notwithstanding the efforts of the Whig officers to prevent the slaughter. (In 1774, Cpt. Thomas Buford from Bedford was in the Second Division under Col. Fleming's command with Cpt. Love of Botetourt, Cpt. Shelby and Cpt. Russell of Fincastle. Col. Buford was wounded at the battle of Point Pleasant.)

"The Burford Family" - College of W&M, notes Col. Abraham Buford, son of John and Judith Beauford, was born in Culpeper Co., VA 31 July 1749 and married Oct 4, 1788 Martha McDowell, daughter of Samuel and Mary McClung McDowell. In June and July 1775, relations between Lord Dunmore and the house of Burgesses were strained to the point of rupture. The committee appointed by the burgesses took measure to raise a militia and 300 men assembled at Culpeper Courthouse, one third of them were Culpeper men who adopted a flag bearing the device of a coiled rattlesnake and the motto "Don't tread on me". They were dressed in green hunting shirts, with "Liberty or Death" on their breasts, buck tails in their hats, and tomahawks and scalping knives in their belts. Howe, in his history of Virginia, says Culpeper county furnished five companies, eighty four men each, and Cpt. Buford's company was among them. These volunteers, under Col. Stevens, marched to Williamsburg, where they joined Col. Woodford's forces. William Hall of Tazewell was in this group, and marched to Great Bridge on the Elizabeth River in Norfolk. During the campaign of 1778-79, the Continental Army held its own in the North and finally wore out the British forces and compelled them to begin operation in the south. The actual seat of the war was transferred to North and South Carolina. The Virginia troops had gradually decreased in number in four years, from six thousand to 2500. In early 1780, Col. Buford was in Virginia enlisting new men for the relief of Charleston. In May he left Petersburg with about 300 men and one field piece, and proceeded as far as Lanman's Ferry on the Santee, when he received intelligence of the surrender of Charleston. General Huger, senior officer in Carolina, was asked for instructions. He directed Col. Buford to retire to Hillsborough, by the way of Camden, taking with him or destroying the stores that had been collected there, and also to move from that place thirty or forty prisoners. Col. Buford was made Colonel of the Third Virginia on February 12, 1781 and served in that capacity until the close of the war. After the war, he moved westward, to Kentucky, where he died on June 30, 1833.

He married (1) NANCY BELLE WHITE^{51,52} September 19, 1855 in Pulaski Co., Va., daughter of ACLES WHITE and ELIZABETH MAWLES. She was born 1838 in Marrs Mill Creek Va. Giles Co., and died 1858 in Pulaski Co., Va.. He married (2) LOUISA MOWLES^{52,53} October 06, 1859 in Mercer Co., W.Va., daughter of THOMAS MOWLES and ELIZABETH. She was born December 30, 1833 in Botetourt Co., Va., and died Aft. 1880.

Notes for JAMES M. HALL:

By Sarahjane Doyle Nelson Swatstad

James M. Hall, a framer by trade, the father of Alexander Hall, was born in Giles Co., Va. near Pearisburg, Va., the county seat, about 30 Dec 1834. (Note Elke A. Hall has him born 19 Feb 1834) His parents were James and Mary Hall. About the age of 20 he married Nancy White, the daughter of Acles and Elizabeth White, on 19 Sep, 1855. They had three children, Alexander, the oldest, born in Giles Co., Va. and twins James and John were born near Pulaski, Va. Nancy died young, possibly at the birth of the twins in 1858.

On 6 October 1859 he married Louisa Mowles, she was born in Botetourt Co., Va. James and Louisa married in Mercer Co., Va., which is now W.Va. but moved very soon after their marriage to Tazewell Co., Va. Maiden Springs District. The 1860 Census taken in March of that year places them there.

(James and Louisa are in the 1860 Tazewell Co. Census, Maiden Springs district. James, a blacksmith, was 25 years old, Louisa, his wife, was 24. Their children Alexander, 3, John D., 2, and James H., 2, lived in their household. William Mowles, 24, a farm laborer, also lived with them.) As yet, I'm not sure where the family was in 1870 -- I believe they may have been in Grayson Co., Va. The marriage records of Tazewell Co., Va. of Gus Hall says his parents were James & Louisa Hall and that he was born in Grayson Co., Va.

With the Civil War in 1863, Military records show James M. Hall a private in two different regiments, at different times, one in Mercer Co., Va. and one from Tazewell Co., Va.

In the 1880 Census of Tazewell Co., Va. we find Alexander Hall, a blacksmith, as head of the household. Living with him are, Erastus a brother and blacksmith, Louisa his stepmother, and a nephew William Manse (or Mowles), 4 years old. Apparently, there was a sister, (Ollie) possibly born in Grayson Co., Va or in Ashe, Co., N.C. during those missing 20 years. How long James M. Hall lived after 1867 when Gus was borned is unknown at this time. { () by Wade. }

Notes for ALEXANDER HALL:

Notes By: Sarahjane Doyle Nelson Swatstad

Alexander Hall, a blacksmith, the oldest son of James M. and Nancy B. White Hall was born in Giles Co., Va. in July of 1857. When he was about one and one half years old, his mother died during childbirth to twins James and John. When the twins were about two their father married Louisa Mowles in Mercer Co., Va. They then moved to Maiden Springs in Tazewell Co., Va. in 1859 or 1860. Alexander married Margaret M. Cruey 3 May 1882. Her father Andrew J. Cruey was a wagon maker in Maiden Springs. They had nine children: Nanny Lou, Mary J., Bettie, Gracie, Earl Preston, Andrew J., John H., Cornelius, and Robert who died of Rheumatic Fever at the age of 10 or 11. He grew up during the Civil War, possibly following his father after the war into Grayson Co., Va. and Ashe Co., N.C. and then returning to Maiden Springs. His wife, Margaret, died shortly before 1910 with five children still at home. Cornie, the youngest, was only four or five. World War I came in 1917 and the three boys, Andrew, John, and Earl all served in France at the same time. They all came home, however Earl who had been gassed was mentally affected. I'm not sure of the events leading to the death of Alexander. But I was told by my grandmother, Nannie Lou, that one evening in 1919 he went down by the creek and committed suicide with a knife to his throat.

Alexander and Margaret, her parents, and some of their children; Betty, Mary, Andrew, Robert and Earl; are all buried in Jones Chapel Cemetery, Cedar Bluff, Va. There are no markers for Alexander, Margaret, or Robert.

He is remembered as being a pleasant happy man over six foot tall with red hair and riding a white stallion.

Sept. 28, 1928 Clinch Valley Paper, Tazewell, VA:

Death of J. D. Hall

The death of John David Hall occurred on the 7th day of September. Mr. Hall was 69 years old and the end was not unexpected as he had been in failing health for several months. Beside a wife, he leaves five daughters and five sons to mourn his passing, one daughter having preceded him to the Great Beyond many years ago. The funeral was conducted by Rev. W. D. Larrow, pastor of the Methodist Church, and the remains were laid to rest in the family cemetery near Liberty Hill. Mr. Hall was, and had been, a devoted member of the Christian Baptist church for many years. He seemed to have a desire to help others and especially young people, giving them advice, which was profitably received by many. He was loyal and will be missed by all who knew him, friends as well as his immediate family and relatives.

Notes for HERBERT BEE DOYLE:

Herbert Bee Doyle as written by Sarahjane Doyle Nelson Swarstad

Herbert B. Doyle, a brakeman, switchman, and later a flag man for the Norfolk and Western Railroad, was born 13 February 1886 in the Beaver Pond District, now Bluefield, Mercer County, W.Va. He was the fourth child of nine. His parents were William Montgomery and Sarah Evelyn Winfery Doyle.

He was reared on a farm, which is now located on the old Bluefield- Princeton Rd., off highway 460 The quite valley of south western West Virginia, in the Appalachian Mountain range, among the Maple, Catalba, Oke and Birch trees with an abundance of wild to hunt and clear streams to fish, would be considered a utopia to raise children today.

When he was in his late teens he hired on with the Norford and Western Railway; since his older brother, William C., was already working and earning good money with the railway. Part of his job to ride the train to Richlands, Va. and back to Bluefield.

While in Richlands, Va. he met Nannie Lou Hall , who was born 13 July 1883. Her parents were Alexander and Margaret M. Cruey hall. Bee and Nannie, with another couple, ran away by horse and buggy to Bristol, Tenn., because they were not of age, and married 19 November 1903. He was 17, she was 20.

They lived in Bluefield, W.Va. until about 1914 when he received a transfer from N.& W. Railroad to Roanoke, Va. They had six children: Herbert Wade, Lucy B., Aileen, Clyde, Sarah Virginia, Elizabeth France.

Clyde, who died, age 2 mo, 11 days, of whooping cough and spinal meningitis, is buried Jones Chapel, Cedar Bluff, Va.

Wade died 20 June 1963, Tucson Az of a coronary from complications of emphysema and buried South Lawn Cemetery, Tucson Az.

Frances died 5 Sept 1985 of cirrhosis of the liver, buried Green Memorial Cemetery, Roanoke, Va.

Aileen died 15 Oct 1998 of double pneumonia, She had been bed ridden with arthritis for a number of years, and buried in Roanoke, Va.

Herbert Bee was the kindest man I ever knew. No matter the problem he could always find a way to make a person laugh, either by a riddle, song or a story. One could always find him in the vegetable garden, or in the evening, if he could find someone to go with him, "The Rialto Theatre", for a western movie, and afterwards, a chocolate ice cream cone, at Granden Rd. Drug Store.

I spent all my summer vacation with my grandparents, when I was a child, and I cannot ever remember hearing a cuss word from his mouth. The worst was, " Carnsarn the carsarn luck".

Sometimes we would take a drive in the car, not often, because the city bus was more convenient and cheaper. But when we did, the route would take us down thru Norwich area and Shaffer's Crossing, thru the railway tunnel. This tunnel was enclosed on both sides, so you couldn't see the other side of traffic. Then he would blow the horn, on the country setting, not the city setting, tapping the horn in such a way that the horn sounded like a train whistle. Many times he would let me sit on his lap and steer the car. I thought I was driving! Other times, he would drive to the railway yards, tapping the horn in such a way that the engineer driving the train, would answer with the toots of the train whistle. It was a lot of fun.

When he retired from the N.&W. Railway, he was bored and lonesome for people, other than family. He got a job driving a taxi cab. Once he was stopped by the police. When he asked what was wrong, the policeman said, "Nothing, I just wanted to give you a reward for your good driving habits."

Sometimes he would take his vacation time, ride the train to Bluefield, W.Va., where we lived, without telling anyone he was coming. Many times, by chance, we would look out a window, and there he would be, walking up the road. We all would be very excited. One of us, would run to meet him, while everyone else would try to straighten the house before he could reach the front door.

He loved the Lord and he could really preach, even though he had no formal training to be a minister. He was the guest speaker for many small churches around Roanoke, Va.

Nannie Lou was a wonderful person too, her family always came first. When any of her children or grandchildren were sick or needed her in anyway, she would drop what she was doing and go to them.

As a child, I was always sick. She was probably at our house more times than any other. When I was 6 years old, I had pneumonia. I remember, lying in bed, while Mother, daddy, the doctor, and Ma Ma (That's what we call her.) were sitting at the foot of my bed, and the doctor said, " This is the crisis, if she makes it through tonight, all will be well". I remember, thinking, "What's a crisis?". My grandmother asked the doctor if he minded her trying something, and went to the kitchen, made a mustard poultice and put it on my chest. During my recuperation, and before I could even return to school, I had German Measles and then mumps. Not just for me, but this is only one of the many examples how she saved our lives; During a time before antibiotics were invented.

Nannie Hall Doyle had other talents. Dressmaking. I was always amazed. She could look at a garment in the department store, purchase material, go home, cutting her own pattern, creating a garment exactly like the one she had seen downtown. All of her grand daughters were very lucky to be the recipients of these lovely garments. In fact, she made my mother's wedding dress.

Herbert Bee died 6 August 1960 of heart failure and emphysema (he had a functional genetic heart mitral valve prolapse) He is buried at Greenlawn Cemetery in Roanoke, Va.

In 1954, Nannie Lou Hall Doyle suffered a stroke, which left her unable to remember many of her family and to care for herself. Her oldest daughter, Lucy, quit her job and stayed home lovingly caring for her mother and father, only leaving the house once in 9 years, and that was to bury her father. Nannie Lou Hall Doyle, died 20 September 1963. She is buried at Greenlawn cemetery in Roanoke, Va.

Herbert Wade Doyle as Written By Sarahjane Doyle Nelson Swarstad.

Herbert Wade Doyle, the oldest child of Herbert B. and Nannie Lou Doyle , was born 8 January 1905 in Bluefield, Mercer County, W.Va. About 1914 or 1915 his parents moved to Roanoke, Va., where he grew up, studied to be a minister: but either was unable to continue his studies or felt this was not the right profession for him, and became a salesman working for a variety of firms during his life.

He married Runella Louise Walters 17 June 1930, They had four children, Sarah Jane, twins Nancy Lou and Herbert Wade , Jr. , and William Alexander.

Durning World War II he worked for Linde Aire Products, a Division of Union Carbide, in Charleston, W. Va. Several time he tried to enlist. His greatest desire was to be an Aerial Reconnaissance Photographer. This was not to be, however, because of a deferment due to his priority job. He was transferred to Bluefield, W.Va. where the family lived until 1955 when they moved to St.Albans near Charleston, W. Va. In 1958 the doctors advised him to move to a warm climate for his emphysema. His daughter Sarah Jane and her family were living in Tucson, Arizona with an Air Force assignment at that time, and he decided to give Arizona a try.

Wade died , 20 June 1963 and is buried at South lawn, Tucson, Arizona. his wife Runella , who died 17 march 1970,from head injuries in an auto accident near Chandler, Arizona is buried next to him.
