Notes for William Thomas Dunagan:

William joined Captain Haywood's Company of Partisan Rangers at Woodville, Haywood County, Tennessee. This company became part of the 15th Tennessee Cavalry. He was paroled at Gainesville Alabama in 1865. William was only 15 when he enlisted. The story was told to me by Bob Dunagan that William was resting on a sawdust pile, when General Forrest gave him an order, just after he got up a Yankee shell hit the pile he was lying on, blowing it apart.

William worked as a mechanic on sawmills and cotton gins around Eaton and on the Mississippi River below Dyersburg. He got sick while at Memphis, and came back to Tom's place below Central where he died. William did not have a headstone until I got one through the V.A. in 1991 . The S.C.V. and 31st. Tenn. Inf. had a memorial service during the Dunagan family reunion.

William was living with his grandmother Margaret Arnold in the 6th District. in 1880

She was born Jan 14, 1940 in Stokenchurch, Buckinghamshire, England, and died Jul 01, 2006 in Gibson County, Tennessee.

Notes for Gillian Ann Cockerill:

Gillian Ann Dunagan,

Gillian Ann Dunagan, "Jill", 66, of Trenton, TN, passed away Saturday, July 1, 2006 at home with her family at her side, after a courageous battle with ovarian cancer.

She was born January 14, 1940 in Stokenchurch, Buckinghamshire, England. She was the daughter of the late Maud Louise and Ernest Cockerill of England.

She is survived by her husband, Jimmy Dunagan of Trenton, Tennessee and their children, Kelly Kish of Arlington, Wendy Harris and husband Jon of Collierville, Miles Dunagan and wife Shelby of Atoka, and her six grandchildren, Nicholas, Mabry, Ethan, Carson, Jessica and Tully. She leaves her sisters, Margaret Goodge and Maisie Jenkins of England and a brother Henry Cockerill and wife Mary of New Zealand.

She was preceded in death by a brother, Eric Cockerill and sister, Millie Keen of England, and son-in-law, Lonny Kish.

She was a devoted wife, mother, grandmother and friend. She was a retired hairstylist and took great pride in the English Tea Room that she had opened in Trenton until her health made it impossible. Her kindness, joy and enthusiasm for life will be greatly missed by everyone who knew her.

There will be a Memphis visitation on Monday, July 3, 2006 at Forest Hill East Funeral Home from 5:00 P.M. until 8:00 P.M. Trenton visitation will be July 5, 2006 from 2:00 P.M. until 4:00 P.M. with services immediately following at Shelton Funeral Home in Trenton, TN with burial in Walnut Grove Cemetery.

The family requests that all flowers be sent to Shelton Funeral Home in Trenton, Tennessee.

Notes for Geneva Catherine Dunagan:
Geneva Harris,

Geneva Catherine Dunagan Harris was born December 4, 1920, the eldest child of Horace H. Dunagan and Ruth Childress Dunagan. She passed away on August 26, 2006 at age 85.

Her childhood years were spent on a farm near Yorkville, Tennessee. She was a 1940 graduate of Yorkville High School. Geneva married Charles Hinton Harris on June 8, 1940. Their marriage was followed by a life on the Harris farm, four miles west of Trenton, where the land and home place have been maintained for over 100 years. The United States government employed Geneva for over 30 years, having joined the labor force at the Milan Army Ammunitions Plant during World War II and then working for many years at the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service office in Trenton before her retirement in 1982. Charles and Geneva were married for 56 years prior to Charles's death on October 1, 1996. Two children were born to them, John Thomas and Mary Kathryn.

Geneva was a faithful member of Bethany Church of Christ for over 60 years. She was active in the Gibson County Farm Bureau and NARFE. She loved gardening and collecting plates and teapots. She enjoyed helping others and spending time with her family and many friends.

Her husband, Charles Hinton Harris, her parents, Horace H. Dunagan and Ruth Dunagan Poteet Delaney, her brothers, Mack Dunagan, Horace Dunagan, Jr., and J. C. Dunagan and a sister, Sula Allmon, preceded Geneva in death.

Geneva is survived by her step-mother, Martha Dunagan of Yorkville, Tennessee; a son and daughter-in-law, John and Betty Harris of Lenoir City, Tennessee; a daughter and son-in-law, Mary and Buddy Gresham of Medina, Tennessee; her grandchildren, Jackie and Rhea Rippey of Nashville, Tennessee, Teresa and Dr. Barry Scott of Mayfield, Kentucky; Angela Harris, Felix and Jodi Gresham, and John Gresham all of Nashville; great-grandchildren, Jonathan and Hope Scott of Mayfield, Kentucky; surviving sisters, Jamie Bell of Jackson and Kay Pafford (Gordon) of Yorkville; brothers, Jim Poteet (Marietta) of Monteagle, Tennessee and Grover Poteet (Betty) of Trenton; many other caring relatives and friends, and a special caregiver, Donna Craddock of Rutherford, Tennessee, who gave her so much support and care during the difficult last months of her life.

Funeral services will be Monday, August 28, 2006 at Shelton Funeral Home in Trenton, TN at 2:00 P.M.

Visitation will be Sunday, August 27, 2006 from 5:00 to 8:00 P.M.

Pallbearers to serve are grandsons, Felix Gresham and John Gresham, special friends, Frank Shivers and Leon Moore, and her nephews, Gene Allmon, David Allmon, James Dunagan, and Dr. Nick Dunagan.

Honorary pallbearers will be Mahlon Greene and Wilburn George.

The family wishes to express tremendous gratitude to the employees and residents of Summer's Landing Retirement Community, to Frank and Jeanette Shivers, to Leon and Sue Moore, to Donna and Billy Craddock, to the members of Bethany Church of Christ, and to countless other Trentonians who showed Geneva a great outpouring of compassion, presence, love and kindness. An abundance of caring friends is surely one of life's most precious blessings.
