MARTIN GAVIN

As manager of his father's farm of one hundred and forty acres, located on the Elwood Pike about five miles north of Elwood, Mart Gavin, as he is familiarly known, is one of the progressive young farmers of Madison county, and has laid a substantial foundation for a successful career.

Mart Gavin was born where he now resides, July 1, 1891, a son of Martin and Elizabeth (McManaman) Gavin. His father was born in Ireland, was twelve years old when he came to America, and after landing in New York City, the family came west and finally located in Rex county, Indiana, where he was reared to manhood. He later came to Madison county, and from modest beginnings has acquired a generous estate and prosperity, and is one of the influential men of this section. The eight children in the family are named as follows: Mame, Michael, Nora, Nellie, Mart, Maggie, Ruth and John.

Martin Gavin as a boy attended the country schools and finished his education in the Catholic school at Elwood. All his early associations were with farm life, and when he arrived at manhood he was well prepared to take up the management of the old estate, which he now conducts in a progressive and up-to-date manner, and is one of the men who are proving the profitableness of agriculture in Madison county. He is well known socially in Elwood and vicinity, and is a member of the Knights of Columbus and the Catholic church. In politics he is a Democrat.

As manager of his father's farm of one hundred and forty acres, located on the Elwood Pike about five miles north of Elwood, Mart Gavin, as he is familiarly known, is one of the progressive young farmers of Madison county, and has laid a substantial foundation for a successful career.

Mart Gavin was born where he now resides, July 1, 1891, a son of Martin and Elizabeth (McManaman) Gavin. His father was born in Ireland, was twelve years old when he came to America, and after landing in New York City, the family came west and finally located in Rex county, Indiana, where he was reared to manhood. He later came to Madison county, and from modest beginnings has acquired a generous estate and prosperity, and is one of the influential men of this section. The eight children in the family are named as follows: Mame, Michael, Nora, Nellie, Mart, Maggie, Ruth and John.

Martin Gavin as a boy attended the country schools and finished his education in the Catholic school at Elwood. All his early associations were with farm life, and when he arrived at manhood he was well prepared to take up the management of the old estate, which he now conducts in a progressive and up-to-date manner, and is one of the men who are proving the profitableness of agriculture in Madison county. He is well known socially in Elwood and vicinity, and is a member of the Knights of Columbus and the Catholic church. In politics he is a Democrat.

EVERY LITTLE THING I DID

My Autobiography

Chapter I. Family History

On my mother's side of the family there are my grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Barnes. Grandfather Barnes, who worked with the Pennsylvania Railroad until his death. They traveled all around and finally bought a house in Richmond, Indiana. My grandmother still lives there. On my father's side, there are my other grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Woody. My grandfather was a painter and had a job in one of the first factories that made cars. Later he painted houses and furniture. After he married my grandmother, he became a school teacher and taught for many years. They, like my other grandparents, lived in Richmond, Indiana. My grandmother still lives in one of their houses. My grandfather died in 1954. My grandmother's are good friends and would like to be with each other all the time. Some people think this is unusual for grandmother's. My mother lived in many places. When she was attending college, she majored in music and was a good singer. Dad said my father worked at a gas station when he met my mother. Now he works for the Prudential Insurance Company. The thing I like to hear best about my father is what a great painter he was when he was little. He got mad at my grandmother one day when he was young and took a blueing rag and painted the living room walls. It gave the living room a new look and it was a rented house, which made things worse for him.

Chapter II Early Childhood

February 14, 1946 at 8:15 a.m. was the day and time that poor stork got me to the hospital. I really don't see how we made it. To begin with, my weight was 8 pounds and 63 ounces, and on top of that, the stork wasn't a very good flyer[.] My parents are Mr. and Mrs. John Woody. After staying in the hospital some time, the doctor finally let me go home. It was a nice home with lots of other children on the same block. The house was on S.W. "A" street in Richmond, Indiana. I had no brothers nor sisters. But my mother had a friend whose baby came a month after I did. So she must have been my first friend. When her mother came over, she would bring Judy even if we were too little to notice each other. By the time I was three months old, I was reaching for every thing I could find. By four and one half months I had found a way to get more attention, if I didn't think I was getting enough, just by artificially coughing.

I first started talking at 11 ½ months[.] My first words were "daddy," "pretty," and "dog." I have loved dogs ever since then. I was walking alone at 14 months which was a mistake, because the thing I remember best about my childhood is the falls I took. We had some stairs that went to the back door and at the side of the door were the basement stairs. When ever I fell down the first pair of stairs I also managed to fall down the basement one's too. I was a pretty good child from what I hear. I never cried and wasn't bad very often. When I was three, now I had other friends; Kay Spencer, Tommy, Marica and, of course, Judy Thomas. Kay and I used to hide up in her attic, and Judy and I were always fighting. Marica and I had lots of fun playing in the sandbox.

Tommy and I were just good friends. One day Tommy and I took a walk and didn't tell anyone where we were going. We walked over to a big highway and that was why I got my first punishment. I had to sit on a chair in the corner and I didn't like it. The first pet I remember much about is my dog "Betsy." I was five when I got her and we still have her. I remember the day we got her. We were going to a wedding that day and mother said we could look at dogs but not buy one. So we got "Betsy." The first thing I did when we got her home was to run over to all the neighbors with Betsy under my arm.

We went to the Smokey Mountains that year and it was lots of fun. The thing I remember best about it was the first night in the motel I couldn't sleep so I was in and out of my bed many times. Then one night we were in the mountains and I wanted Dad to read me a certain story but it was in the car and he wouldn't go get it and this made me very mad and finally I said, he could read something else. But he said I had been bad and he wouldn't read. He then turned out the light and went to bed. I can't ever remember being so mad at anyone as I was with Dad that night. Once I left my bike in the neighbors drive. When he saw it he just run right over it. When I was little, I also used to dress Betsy up in doll clothes. Betsy loved to go out in the middle of the street and if a car was coming both ways, she would sit down and we had to go out and get her.

Chapter III School Life

When I was five, I started to kindergarten. I bothered mother with questions all the way to the new school. When I got there, I saw lots of other children and had to look at all the toys. I finally found one I really liked and played with it for the rest of the time. I guess I was pretty happy. But when I went into the first grade, I didn't like it very well because of my teacher. I just didn't like her. Second Grade was fun for we saw lots of films and the work wasn't hard. My grandfather Woody died that year. I don't remember much about my third grade in Richmond because in November, we moved to Vincennes. We lived on North 5th Street and I finished the third grade at Clark School.

Just before I started the fourth grade, we moved to Old Orchard Place and I went to school at Washington School. My teacher was Miss Wall. She was one of my favorite teachers. I didn't care for my teacher in the fifth grade. So I was glad when school was out. I got out early because we went to Florida, and started school in the sixth grade later because we went to Colorado and I went to school with a friend there four days. My sixth grade teacher was, Miss Clark. She was a nice teacher I helped us to be better ready for Junior High.

When I started Junior High, I found out just how different things could be. I was a little nervous the first day but soon that was over. I had to hurry and take a lot of books home the first few days, but soon I got used to it all. The thing I like best about Junior High is that we didn't have in grade school, is we have more freedom. Also we didn't have any band in grade school. We didn't have clubs, either, and it's just a lot more fun. I was very happy when our band got a first division in a contest at Indianapolis.

Chapter IV Travels and Activities

I think travel is wonderful. You see many interesting places, people and things that you can't always see in your home town. I've been to lots of places, Florida, New Orleans, Washington, D.C. and New York.

The trip I enjoyed most was the one when we went to New York. We saw plays of all kinds. We saw Radio City Music Hall and television shows too.

One night we went for a walk and this mad, mad in the mind, man had fallen out of the car. The last night I was there, we saw the Flower Drum Song.

We had a lot of fun in Florida too. Dad had a convention in Hollywood, Florida, so Mom and I went with him. The hotel was right by the ocean so I was in the water as often as I could be. We went to Cypriss Gardens and saw the water skiers. We went to Silver Springs, and took a ride in a glass bottom boat. It was interesting to see deep into the water. We went to a wax mueasem too. It had all sorts of figures. From Kings and Queens to famous baseball players. We saw porpoises at Marineland too. It was fun to watch them going through hoops, play basketball, and to pull a little dog on a board. I thought I'd seen some big cities, but when I got to Washington, D.C., I thought we'd never find our motel. When we finally did, it was close to 10:30 p.m.

We visited the Senate and the House of Representatives. We saw the Capitol and the White House too. On our way out of Washington, we went to Mr. Vernon to see George Washington's estate.

New Orleans was an exciting town also. We saw many beautiful houses.

One had a fence with a cornstalk design on it. We ate at many famous places. We visited pretty churches and many other places. The value of travel, to me, is there is interesting places, education, fun and many other things to be gained.

As far as hobbies are concerned, I don't have to many. I like to play badminton, listen to records, read and dance. I have no real favorites. I think hobbies are nice for spare time. I like clubs. I belong to Job's Daughters and Girls Council. If you're going to join a club, you have to be interested in what the club does, and like the things the club does.

Chapter V Games and Sports

I enjoy watching basketball, but I wouldn't want to play it. I like it because it is full of excitement.

About the only game I like to play is badminton, and not even that if its too hot. I'm not too good in sports, so I usually watch instead of play. Sports can give people confidence. It also helps keep them in good condition. Sports bring enjoyment, entertainment and, of course, team work. To me, football is hard to understand. There just isn't a bit of enjoyment in baseball, for me, so I like basketball. Its easy to follow and an awful lot of fun to watch. You don't freeze to death either.

Chapter VI My Future

The future, that's something I think a lot about. First, I want to finish High School and college. I would like to buy clothes for department stores. Of course, it is very possible, I will have changed my mind by the time I'm out of high school. After that, I'm not sure what will happen. Maybe I'll get married and maybe I won't. What's my ideal home life? That's a question I'm not quite sure how to answer. I think it's important to figure things out without fights, and members of a family not speaking to each other for hours. Going to church is another things that makes a better home. As far as joining clubs are concerned, I couldn't say what I will join because I don't know what lies ahead. My opinion of a successful life is to live it the best way you can. If you have a good job, a happy family, and fulfilled your purposes for God on this earth, what more can you ask for?

EVERY LITTLE THING I DID

[by] Marilyn Woody

My Autobiography

Chapter I. Family History

On my mother's side of the family there are my grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Barnes. Grandfather Barnes, who worked with the Pennsylvania Railroad until his death. They traveled all around and finally bought a house in Richmond, Indiana. My grandmother still lives there. On my father's side, there are my other grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Woody. My grandfather was a painter and had a job in one of the first factories that made cars. Later he painted houses and furniture. After he married my grandmother, he became a school teacher and taught for many years. They, like my other grandparents, lived in Richmond, Indiana. My grandmother still lives in one of their houses. My grandfather died in 1954. My grandmother's are good friends and would like to be with each other all the time. Some people think this is unusual for grandmother's. My mother lived in many places. When she was attending college, she majored in music and was a good singer. Dad said my father worked at a gas station when he met my mother. Now he works for the Prudential Insurance Company. The thing I like to hear best about my father is what a great painter he was when he was little. He got mad at my grandmother one day when he was young and took a blueing rag and painted the living room walls. It gave the living room a new look and it was a rented house, which made things worse for him.

Chapter II Early Childhood

February 14, 1946 at 8:15 a.m. was the day and time that poor stork got me to the hospital. I really don't see how we made it. To begin with, my weight was 8 pounds and 63 ounces, and on top of that, the stork wasn't a very good flyer[.] My parents are Mr. and Mrs. John Woody. After staying in the hospital some time, the doctor finally let me go home. It was a nice home with lots of other children on the same block. The house was on S.W. "A" street in Richmond, Indiana. I had no brothers nor sisters. But my mother had a friend whose baby came a month after I did. So she must have been my first friend. When her mother came over, she would bring Judy even if we were too little to notice each other. By the time I was three months old, I was reaching for every thing I could find. By four and one half months I had found a way to get more attention, if I didn't think I was getting enough, just by artificially coughing.

I first started talking at 11 ½ months[.] My first words were "daddy," "pretty," and "dog." I have loved dogs ever since then. I was walking alone at 14 months which was a mistake, because the thing I remember best about my childhood is the falls I took. We had some stairs that went to the back door and at the side of the door were the basement stairs. When ever I fell down the first pair of stairs I also managed to fall down the basement one's too. I was a pretty good child from what I hear. I never cried and wasn't bad very often. When I was three, now I had other friends; Kay Spencer, Tommy, Marica and, of course, Judy Thomas. Kay and I used to hide up in her attic, and Judy and I were always fighting. Marica and I had lots of fun playing in the sandbox.

Tommy and I were just good friends. One day Tommy and I took a walk and didn't tell anyone where we were going. We walked over to a big highway and that was why I got my first punishment. I had to sit on a chair in the corner and I didn't like it. The first pet I remember much about is my dog "Betsy." I was five when I got her and we still have her. I remember the day we got her. We were going to a wedding that day and mother said we could look at dogs but not buy one. So we got "Betsy." The first thing I did when we got her home was to run over to all the neighbors with Betsy under my arm.

We went to the Smokey Mountains that year and it was lots of fun. The thing I remember best about it was the first night in the motel I couldn't sleep so I was in and out of my bed many times. Then one night we were in the mountains and I wanted Dad to read me a certain story but it was in the car and he wouldn't go get it and this made me very mad and finally I said, he could read something else. But he said I had been bad and he wouldn't read. He then turned out the light and went to bed. I can't ever remember being so mad at anyone as I was with Dad that night. Once I left my bike in the neighbors drive. When he saw it he just run right over it. When I was little, I also used to dress Betsy up in doll clothes. Betsy loved to go out in the middle of the street and if a car was coming both ways, she would sit down and we had to go out and get her.

Chapter III School Life

When I was five, I started to kindergarten. I bothered mother with questions all the way to the new school. When I got there, I saw lots of other children and had to look at all the toys. I finally found one I really liked and played with it for the rest of the time. I guess I was pretty happy. But when I went into the first grade, I didn't like it very well because of my teacher. I just didn't like her. Second Grade was fun for we saw lots of films and the work wasn't hard. My grandfather Woody died that year. I don't remember much about my third grade in Richmond because in November, we moved to Vincennes. We lived on North 5th Street and I finished the third grade at Clark School.

Just before I started the fourth grade, we moved to Old Orchard Place and I went to school at Washington School. My teacher was Miss Wall. She was one of my favorite teachers. I didn't care for my teacher in the fifth grade.

So I was glad when school was out. I got out early because we went to Florida, and started school in the sixth grade later because we went to Colorado and I went to school with a friend there four days. My sixth grade teacher was, Miss Clark. She was a nice teacher I helped us to be better ready for Junior High.

When I started Junior High, I found out just how different things could be. I was a little nervous the first day but soon that was over. I had to hurry and take a lot of books home the first few days, but soon I got used to it all. The thing I like best about Junior High is that we didn't have in grade school, is we have more freedom. Also we didn't have any band in grade school. We didn't have clubs, either, and it's just a lot more fun. I was very happy when our band got a first division in a contest at Indianapolis.

Chapter IV Travels and Activities

I think travel is wonderful. You see many interesting places, people and things that you can't always see in your home town. I've been to lots of places, Florida, New Orleans, Washington, D.C. and New York.

The trip I enjoyed most was the one when we went to New York. We saw plays of all kinds. We saw Radio City Music Hall and television shows too.

One night we went for a walk and this mad, mad in the mind, man had fallen out of the car. The last night I was there, we saw the Flower Drum Song.

We had a lot of fun in Florida too. Dad had a convention in Hollywood, Florida, so Mom and I went with him. The hotel was right by the ocean so I was in the water as often as I could be. We went to Cypriss Gardens and saw the water skiers. We went to Silver Springs, and took a ride in a glass bottom boat. It was interesting to see deep into the water. We went to a wax mueasem too. It had all sorts of figures. From Kings and Queens to famous baseball players. We saw porpoises at Marineland too. It was fun to watch them going through hoops, play basketball, and to pull a little dog on a board. I thought I'd seen some big cities, but when I got to Washington, D.C., I thought we'd never find our motel. When we finally did, it was close to 10:30 p.m.

We visited the Senate and the House of Representatives. We saw the Capitol and the White House too. On our way out of Washington, we went to Mr. Vernon to see George Washington's estate.

New Orleans was an exciting town also. We saw many beautiful houses.

One had a fence with a cornstalk design on it. We ate at many famous places. We visited pretty churches and many other places. The value of travel, to me, is there is interesting places, education, fun and many other things to be gained.

As far as hobbies are concerned, I don't have to many. I like to play badminton, listen to records, read and dance. I have no real favorites. I think hobbies are nice for spare time. I like clubs. I belong to Job's Daughters and Girls Council. If you're going to join a club, you have to be interested in what the club does, and like the things the club does.

Chapter V Games and Sports

I enjoy watching basketball, but I wouldn't want to play it. I like it because it is full of excitement.

About the only game I like to play is badminton, and not even that if its too hot. I'm not too good in sports, so I usually watch instead of play. Sports can give people confidence. It also helps keep them in good condition. Sports bring enjoyment, entertainment and, of course, team work. To me, football is hard to understand. There just isn't a bit of enjoyment in baseball, for me, so I like basketball. Its easy to follow and an awful lot of fun to watch. You don't freeze to death either.

Chapter VI My Future

The future, that's something I think a lot about. First, I want to finish High School and college. I would like to buy clothes for department stores. Of course, it is very possible, I will have changed my mind by the time I'm out of high school. After that, I'm not sure what will happen. Maybe I'll get married and maybe I won't. What's my ideal home life? That's a question I'm not quite sure how to answer. I think it's important to figure things out without fights, and members of a family not speaking to each other for hours. Going to church is another things that makes a better home. As far as joining clubs are concerned, I couldn't say what I will join because I don't know what lies ahead. My opinion of a successful life is to live it the best way you can. If you have a good job, a happy family, and fulfilled your purposes for God on this earth, what more can you ask for?
