Notes for BERTON H. MURPHY:

Burton Murphy was about 6ft 5in tall with a Strong muscular build, He worked as a oil field pipe line maintainer and pump house repairman. This meant he had to walk miles checking pipes for leaks. He was repairing a pump house system on one occasion and the pump house exploded, he was burned severely and his lungs were damaged. He continued to work sparingly after this accident. My mother used to tell this story about her father, they were out for a drive one winter day and became stuck in the snow, Her father went to the back of the car and lifted the back end of the car from the snow and to solid ground. My mother Alberta , as a child never forgot that incident and often spoke about it. The divorce of her parents divided the family and took a heavy toll on the three children.

Notes for JAMES HENRY ENSELL:

James Henry Ensell went to work on the Pennsylvania Railroad when he was 16 years old. But on his application for employment he stated his age as 18. which would figure to be the year of 1918. He worked out of Buffalo, NY, he lived in Olean, NY, that means he had to drive 65 miles to work, he was on call so when his train crew was called to work he would drive to Buffalo, make his scheduled run to Renova, PA and a return run back to Buffalo, then drive to his residence in Olean,NY. During WW1 James enlisted into the Navy, he held the rank of Pharmacist mate. He returned to his prior profession on the Penn. Railroad after his release from the military. His Railroad run from Buffalo to Renova, Pa would take two days and he would have two days rest before being called for another run. He was a conductor, Flagman, Brakeman and Engineer. He loved his family , and worked very hard to support his children. He had a large garden and enjoyed planting vegetables and his grape vines were his pride. He was a tall man with a lean build, the kindest smile and always greeted you with a humorous Hello. I miss my DAD ! He idolized his wife and they both moved to Venice, Florida for their retirement years. He had a large motor boat and loved taking his children and grand children fishing in the Gulf Of Mexico, He and my mother always took a vacation every year and visited their seven children, and we loved their visits, and will always cherish the memories of two wonderful parents. James did not know very much about his relatives, so that is what inspired me to start a genealogy interest , and search for Ensell history. Written By John R. Ensell - 1998

The 1920 Federal Census shows he is in the US Navy, Stationed at the Navy Hospital located in Philadelphia, Pa. held the rank of Pharmists Mate.
