- x. VICTOR PAUL FARRIS, b. Nov 19, 1923, Oklahoma City, OK; d. Apr 28, 1992, Oklahoma City, OK.

Notes for VICTOR PAUL FARRIS:

OBIT: FARRIS Lt. Col Victor Paul, November 19, 1923 - April 28, 1992, Oklahoma City. Lt. Col. Farris was only 19 years old when he boarded the train in Oklahoma City to join the Air Force in World War II. He quickly became an officer and a navigator, and flew 35 difficult missions in a B-17 over Nazi Germany. After the war he returned home and attended the University of Oklahoma to obtain a Law degree. Soon after completing his studies, he was called back into the Air Force to serve in the Korean War. He returned home safely, this time to teach ROTC at OU, his alma mater. After this assignment, he combined his military career with his legal profession and served with the Judge Advocate General's Office and the Office of Special Investigations, first in Europe and later in Formosa. While there he served in an advisory capacity to the government of Chiang Kai-shek. With the acceleration of the war in Vietnam, Lt. Col. Farris returned to flying but, as in World War II and the Korean War, he kept quiet about his many heroic deeds. He received, among many other medals, the Air Medal with six Oak Leaf Clusters, the Air Force Commendation Medal, the Republic of Vietnam Campaign Medal, the Republic of Vietnam Gallantry Cross with Palm, and the Bronze Star. In 1970, he retired from military service and returned to Oklahoma City. Victor keenly felt the loss of his brother, Dr. Edward M. Farris, last November. Survivors are Dr. Emil Farris, Bruce Farris, Lorraine Solomon, and Marquita Hilt. Other survivors include Jenny Rahal, Victoria Monsour, Bill Farris, and nieces and nephews. His time, his possessions, and his life were all gifts that he gave away freely to others, His life was always full of extraordinary challenges that made great demands on him, and that he always met with great courage. In life he was loved and cherished by his family and many others, and as he passes from this earth, so also will the memory of him be loved and cherished even more.

Notes for PAULINE FARRIS:

"PAULINE FARRIS EDDIE HONORED" (by Marti Farha Ammar):

Pauline Farris Eddie is the first person who comes to my mind when I think about heroines and specifically my heroine is my Sitti. Sitti is an Arabic word which means "my grandmother." It is not just the word for grandmother, but it also includes the personal pronoun "my" by the long ee ending.

Sitti was born Pauline Farris and became Pauline Farris Eddie when she married my grandfather, B.D. "Babe" Eddie. Sitti was born in Oklahoma. Her parents were both immigrants from Lebanon and therefore Sitti spoke colloquial Lebanese Arabic and maintained a strong cultural connection to her Arabic heritage.

When I think of all the things that make Sitti special from other Lebanese/Arabic grandmothers, I realize that in many ways Sitti was just like the stereotypic grandmother in almost every culture. She loved her family first and foremost. Although she had only one child, Gloria, she gave her life to her, her development, and later her family which included her husband Philip and their five children.

Sitti was certainly the power behind the man, though she never demanded attention or recognition. When Giddi (my grandfather) became successful in the feed business almost overnight, Sitti found herself among politicians, heads of states, and occasionally world leaders. Sitti who hardly had a high school education was always dressed elegantly, used language carefully, and knew how to hold her head high in situations beyond her experience.

Although, in many ways Sitti was like other grandmothers and certainly grandmothers of our Arabic tradition she was indeed unique in many other ways. I believe that Sitti was truly in love with Giddi when she married him. Many young girls of her generation and even today in Arabic culture are "fixed up" with an eligible boy from a similar background. I believe Sitti and Giddi actually fell in love and lived the rest of their life very lovingly. Among all of my memories of married couples in our family and the Lebanese community, Sitti and Giddi are the two that I remember kissing each other and showing controlled but obvious affection for one another. The last time Giddi went to the hospital before he died I remember hearing Sitti talk about him to one of her sisters with a giggle in her voice full of romantic love.

As one of her five grandchildren, I have such fond memories of Sitti that I think of her everyday of my life. I was with Sitti when she left us. She was scared and I was scared, but until her last breath I know that she was trying to comfort me and take care of me, worried that I would be alone until another person came. Whenever any one of us called her on the phone and she would hear us say Sitti, she always responded with the word "albi" meaning "my heart". I can hear her say it even as I write this.

In my days of happiness and my days of sadness I always talk softly and quietly to my Sitti, wondering if she hears me and knows how much I miss her. Sitti is my heroine because she taught me about true love and life. She taught me about hard work and sacrifice. She taught me how to hold my head up with dignity, never apologizing for who we are and where we came from. Sitti is not only my heroine she is also my "albi" today and forever.

Notes for LOUISE ("LOU") HELEN BAYOUTH:

(From "Southern Federation of Lebanese American Clubs Magazine", December, 1987)

"LOUISE BAYOUTH FARRIS: A LOVING TRIBUTE"

Louise H. (Bayouth) Farris, 75, of Tulsa, Oklahoma passed away suddenly on Monday, August 10, 1987. A Trisagion Prayer Service was held Wednesday evening, August 12, 1987. St. Antony's Orthodox Christian Church in Tulsa over-flowed as many friends and relatives came to show their love and respect during her funeral services at 10:00 a.m. on Thursday, August 13, 1987. The Rev. Fr. George Eber of Tulsa officiated and was assisted by Rev. Fr. Michael Keiser (formerly of Tulsa) who flew in from Florida after hearing of Louise's death. Interment was at Ridgelawn Cemetery in Collinsville, Oklahoma.

Mrs. Farris was born Louise Helen Bayouth on February 26, 1912 to Sol H. Bayouth and Aliha Bayouth in Amorita, Oklahoma. When Louise was 12 her mother, Aliha, died suddenly of a brain hemorrhage. Shortly after her mother's death, her father returned to Lebanon for two years with Louise and his other children. Louise, who was the eldest daughter, was like a mother to her six brothers and sisters as she helped care for them. While in Lebanon, she became fluent in the Arabic language and learned the Lebanese heritage which she carried with her throughout her life. Her father, Sol, met and married Salwa Andeel Bayouth before leaving Lebanon and returning to Oklahoma. As Salwa was not fluent with English upon coming to this country, Louise continued to help with the raising of both her original 6 siblings plus 4 additional brothers and sisters who were later born to Sol and Salwa. Salwa and Louise became not only mother and daughter, but were like sisters and best friends throughout the years until Salwa passed away in 1984. Her father, Sol H. Bayouth of Collinsville, Oklahoma, was a well-known merchant and benefactor to many Lebanese and Non-Lebanese throughout the Southwestern United States until his untimely death as the result of an automobile accident in 1954.

As a young woman, Louise attended school in Collinsville, Oklahoma and was a member of The Order of Rainbow for Girls.

She married her husband, William M. Farris, in 1945 at which time she owned and operated Tulsa Grocery in Downtown Tulsa. By the early 1950's, they owned Farris Grocery and Market which was a prominent business in suburban Tulsa at that time. In the early 1960's, they also operated Lou's Laundry and Drycleaning in Tulsa as well as Farris Department Store in Broken Arrow, Oklahoma. Farris Grocery was their last business until it was closed in 1964. In 1965, Louise went to work for Kinney's Shoe Store in Tulsa's Southland Shopping Center. She was awarded trophies as the top salesperson of all Kinney's Shoe Stores in 1974 and 1977.

Louise was a very active member of St. Antony's Orthodox Christian Church in Tulsa since it was founded. She served as treasurer of the Ladies Auxiliary for 25 years. As a memorial, the family asked that friends contribute to the Louise Farris Memorial at St. Antony's Church.

Louise was a very active member of the Salaam Club of Tulsa. The success of the club and preserving the Lebanese heritage and traditions through future generations was very important to her. On the day of her death she was actively selling ads for the Convention Book for Baalbek Festival '87 which is the Labor Day Weekend Convention that the Salaam Club hosts in Tulsa every three years. As a tribute to her hard work and as an expression of love, the Salaam Club dedicated the Convention Book In Loving Memory of Louise H. Farris.

In addition to her husband, Louise is survived by : two daughters, Wadiha "Dee" (Mrs. Emile) Farhood of Houston, Texas and Marcia (Mrs. Amos) Wooten of Broken Arrow, Oklahoma; two sons, Merhige W. "Bill" Farris (and wife Lisa) of Wichita, Kansas and Dr. Donald J. Farris of Tulsa; five grandchildren, Tracy and E.J.

Farhood of Houston, Texas, Monica and Christian Habeeb Wooten of Broken Arrow, Oklahoma, Matthew Merhige Farris of Wichita, Kansas; five brothers, Kay M. Bayouth of Collinsville, Okla., A.B. "Bus" Bayouth of Skiatook, Okla., Eddie J. Bayouth of Sapulpa, Okla., Emile S. Bayouth of Cleveland, Okla. and Tex Bayouth of Hominy, Okla.; four sisters, Inez Jones, Juanita Jorishie, JoAnn Naifeh, all of Tulsa, Okla., and Delores Sallee of Collinsville, Okla. Louise was preceded in death in 1983 by a brother, William S. Bayouth.

Although her death was a sudden loss to all who knew her, she had a very full life. She touched many. The lasting influence that Louise had on others is well summed up in the following inscription that has been placed at her grave site: "YOU ARE EVER A PART OF OUR LIVES; ALL THE GOOD YOU HAVE DONE WILL LIVE IN OUR HEARTS FOREVER".

Notes for PHILIP FARHA:

(From "Wichita Eagle" newspaper obituary on March 8, 2006)

Farha, Philip F., of Wichita, born May 15, 1919 in Lebanon, passed away in his sleep Thursday, March 2, 2006. The youngest of eight children, Phil moved to Wichita in 1921 with his mother and siblings. He graduated from Wichita State University with a degree in business administration. During World War II, Phil served as a captain in the U.S. Air Force's Finance Department. In Wichita, Phil also partnered with his four brothers, founding a local grocery store chain - appropriately called Farha Brother's Super Markets - and F&E Wholesale food distributors. After serving as the operating manager of the eight Farha Brother's locations, Phil began to pursue real estate investments in Wichita and with B.D. Eddie Enterprises in his wife's hometown of Oklahoma City. Praised for his business acumen, Phil was a member of the Board of Directors at First Federal Savings and Loan Association in Wichita, as well as Citizens National Bank, and Liberty National Bank and Trust Company in Oklahoma City. He was also an active alumnus of Wichita State University, serving on the Board of Trustees and the National Advisory Council. Though always humble and private, Phil's self-proclaimed greatest source of pride was his "five-and-ten" - five children and 10 grandchildren - with whom he always cherished time spent together. Phil is survived by his wife of 58 years, Gloria Eddie Farha of Wichita; daughter Paula Farha of Petaluma, CA; daughter Toni Colyer of Paradise Valley, AZ; son B.D. Eddie Farha of Washington, DC; daughter Marti Farha Ammar of Beirut, Lebanon; and son and daughter-in-law Clay and Jamie Farha of Oklahoma City. Phil is also survived by his 10 grandchildren: James Colyer III, Alex S. Ammar; Kelli Colyer Lieurance; Chad Ammar; Christopher Colyer, Kami Colyer, Leann Farha, Philip Farha, Clint Farha and Christine Farha. Trisagion and funeral service 7 p.m., Thursday, March 9, St. George Orthodox Christian Cathedral (7515 E. 13th St., Wichita, KS 67206). Interment 11 a.m., Friday, March 10, Serenity Mausoleum at Old Mission Cemetery (3424 E. 21st St., Wichita, KS 67208). Memorials may be sent to the Gloria and Philip Farha Endowed Scholarship at Student Support Services, Wichita State University (1845 Fairmount, Wichita, KS 67260); and St. George Orthodox Christian Cathedral. (From Oklahoma City University Website:2006)

Professor Sandy (Farris) Martin is a professor of OCU's Mass Communications Department since 1972. Martin specializes in advertising, public relations and mass communications law. Martin is a former advertising agency account supervisor and professional public relations consultant for national accounts including McDonald's, Lear Jet, United Paint and Chemical, and Quaker. Martin has extensive experience in strategic advertising, public relations planning and persuasive communications. Martin is one of the first advertising professors in the nation to introduce integrated marketing communications as a core aspect of advertising and public relations education. Martin helped develop OCU's masters of bachelor arts specialization in integrated marketing communications. Martin has served as a visiting professor in Japan, Singapore and Russia. Martin has trained business executives from Taiwan and Russia. She has consulted in areas of corporate image, crisis communication, political communication, and integrated communications for her clients. Martin is a member of the American Advertising Federation and Oklahoma City Advertising Club. She has served as first vice-president and as a member of the Board of Directors. She has received recognition for Outstanding Teaching from the Sears-Roebuck Foundation, the Fred Jones Foundation and was named Educator of the Year by the American Advertising Federation in 1992. For 10 years, Martin supervised OCU's American Advertising Federation Student Competition Team. During those years, the team, usually the smallest to compete, consistently placed in top ranks at the competition. The team has continued its success under new leadership. Martin completed her graduate studies in Advertising and Journalism Management at Oklahoma State University. Martin received her bachelor's degree from OCU.
