Notes for DELILA J BROCK:

Record of marriages in Barry Co., Mo. shows a marriage between Delila J. Brock and Florinton R. Bennett on August 13, 1874. Same marriage summary for Barry Co. shows her sister Elizabeth Brock married a Talor Daugherty on October 2, 1870. Family Bible of Oscar Hewlett states Jane Brock married F.L. Bennett on August 13, 1874 and that F.L. Bennett died March 5, 1875. Unable to explain why the Bible states the middle initial is L instead of R. The Bible also states that a son Clarence Leroy Bennett was born August 7, 1875. Cemetery Marker for Clarence states he was born in 1879. Since Jane was only sixteen when she had Clarence it is possible she pushed his date of birth up to hide the fact she was so young or Clarence may have lied about his date of birth to hide the fact he was even older than he had told his much younger wife Lora who he predeceased. The 1880 Census shows Jane Bennett age 22, and son Leroy Bennett age 4, living with sister Sarah and her husband John Daugherty in Roaring River. This record confirms her sons earlier date of birth. The same 1880 Census for Roaring River Township also shows an Alonzo Shrum, the name of Jane's third husband, living with his wife Jane and two step children by the name of Leonard. Marriage record in Barry Co., Mo. dated September 12, 1880 between a D. J. Bennett and J. M. Hewlett. Another Record of a marriage performed by C. G. Kelley MG (Magistrate in 1886 between Alonzo Shrum of Roaring River and Jane Hewlett of Roaring River, in Barry County, Mo. The 1880 Census states the age of Jane's brother-in-law John Daugherty was 26, and sister Sarah 24. In 1940, when Jane's daughter Minnie registered the name Mathis with Social Security, she stated her mother's maiden name was Jane Brock. The Grave Marker for Jane is inscribed "Jane M. Hewlett" with no mention of Delila as the first name. During her marriage she would have been Mrs. J. M. Hewlett which could account for this discrepancy. We also know that Jane had two sisters named Sarah and Elizabeth (Betty) Brock and that they married Daugherty brothers. In the 1870 Census I find two sisters living with their Aunt Elizabeth (Brock) Daugherty and her husband Josiah in Barry Co., Mo. Josiah had three sons by a previous marriage, William T (T could stand for Talor), John G. and James H. According to Joe Hewlett he heard from the family that two Daugherty boys married the sisters Sarah and Elizabeth Brock. Question is where was their youngest sister Delila J. Brock who would have been 10 years old when the 1870 census was taken. The 1870 Census states that Sarah could not read or write and that Elizabeth could only write and states they were not attending school. I do find a Jane Brock age 10 living in a Rooming House and attending school in West Belleville, Illinois with residents all with different last names which causes me to wonder if one of them could be a relative of Delila J's. The name of the female running the place was a Maria Pickford age 39, which means she would have been born about 1831. We know Jane Brock later owned and operated a very successful Boarding House in Oronogo, Mo.

Delila Brock is listed in 1860 Census for Elk Horn, McDonald Co., Missouri page 65 with her parents and sisters Elizabeth and Sarah.

Notes for IRA WALTER FERGUSON:

{Clips from Latham, Kansas, newspapers--about Ira W. Ferguson}

Aug. 1, 1890--Ira Ferguson returned home from Longton yesterday.

July 3, 1891--Ira Ferguson made a business trip to Winfield on Wednesday.

Sept. 25, 1891--Ira Ferguson, who had been sojourning at Burrton for several months past, returned home Monday.

{NOTE: There was no newspaper in Latham Mar. 1893-Dec. 1901, durnit!}

(July 14, 1902 Ira and Minnie's second son who was born April 6, 1903, would have been concieved on or about this date.)

July 26, 1902--Local News of the Week--Mrs. Ira Ferguson has gone on an extended visit with her mother in Oronogo, Missouri.

Sept. 6, 1902--

Mrs. Ira Ferguson has returned from a two months visit with her mother in Oronogo, Missouri.

Sept. 27, 1902--

Mrs. Ira Ferguson and daughter Cecil left Thursday for Oronogo, Missouri. Ira will join them there shortly.}

(Note: Ira and Minnie permanently separated sometime after she left to visit her mother in Oronogo and the birth of their second child on April 6, 1903.)

Feb. 27, 1904--Ira comes to Latham from St. Louis for his sister, Eva Shafer's, funeral.

Aug. 12, 1905--An old fashioned family reunion took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T.T. Ferguson last Sunday. Nearly all of their children, grand-children, and seven great-grand-children were present and enjoyed the occasion. Two sons, Ira, who is in the street car service in St. Louis, and Wm. Ferguson of Eminence, Mo., could not be here. Those here from other places were, Geo. Ferguson of Wolcott, Ind., Frank Ferguson and wife, of Winfield. In all there were forty present representing four generations. Mr. Ferguson has lived in and near Latham for 26 years. He now owns a beautiful little home one-half mile west of town where he has lived for the past 18 years, and where this day was spent. Mr. And Mrs. Ferguson and the large number of relatives enjoyed the day's visit together very much and may they all live to see other happy reunions like this.

May 27, 1909--Ira Ferguson, who is working at the barber trade in Hot Springs, Arkansas, is expected home the last of the week, also James Ferguson, who is traveling in Oklahoma and Arkansas. When the boys all get home they intend to have a genuine old fashioned family reunion, and when cousins, uncles, aunts, nephews, nieces, brothers, sisters and all get together, there will be enough to make quite a showing.

July 17, 1909--Ira Ferguson came in Tuesday evening from Hot Springs, Arkansas, for a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. T.T. Ferguson, and other relatives.

July 23, 1909--(Ira attended a birthday party in Latham given for Otto Sontag and Henry Sensenbaugh.)

Note: Ira returns home around the end of September, 1911 with a new wife.

Oct. 12, 1911--

A NEW BARBER SHOP: Some two weeks ago Mr. & Mrs. Ira Ferguson arrived from St. Louis where Mr. Ferguson has been in the barber business for the past several years, and it is their intention to make Latham their home in the future. Mr. Ferguson has purchased the old post office building, now occupied by G.N. Jackson as a barber shop, from his father T.T. Ferguson, and last week went to Winfield and purchased a comparatively new barber outfit to be placed in the building as soon as Mr. Jackson vacates the same.

We understand that Mr. Ferguson is a splendid workman and will no doubt receive his share of the patronage. Mr. Ferguson informs us that they will make their home with his parents in order that they may make the burden of house keeping lighter on his aged mother and father. Mr. Ferguson hopes to get to be nicely fitted up and at work in his new place of business by the last of this month or the first of next.

Nov. 2, 1911--

FERGUSON & JACKSON--This week G.N. Jackson and Ira Ferguson formed a partnership and hereafter will conduct the City Barber shop. Some time ago Mr. Ferguson purchased new furniture which has been installed, and now Latham can boast on one of the best equipped and neatest shops in Southern Kansas. The boys invite you all to see their new place. See their ad and notice next week.

Feb. 8, 1912--Mr. & Mrs. Ira Ferguson now occupy the Hinton property on Walnut street.

May 30, 1912--Born to Mr. & Mrs. Ira Ferguson, Tuesday morning, May 28, an eight pound baby girl. Dr. McKinney reports that the condition of father Ira is critical at times, but has hopes he will soon be able to take his old position at the shop.

Birth Certificate for Audrey Ferguson states she was born on May 28, 1912 and her mothers maiden name was Emma Johnson. It also states her mothers age on her last birthday was 36 and her place of birth as Missouri. I found a Death Certificate in St Louis, Missouri for Audrey Ferguson that shows she died on May 29, 1914 of Scarlet Fever. The Certificate lists her birthplace as Kansas and date of birth as May 28, 1912. It states her fathers name was Ira Ferguson and her mothers maiden name was Emma Stockel and the mothers place of birth as Illinois.

Aug. 15, 1912--Ira Ferguson was in Winfield Monday on business.

Sept. 5, 1912--{Last ad for City Barber Shop with Ira Ferguson, proprietor.} With years of experience in the barber business in the larger cities, I believe I can please you. Two bars Colgate's Shaving Soap for 15c. For men who shave themselves this is your opportunity to get goods at a low price. Ira Ferguson, Propr.

Feb. 12, 1914--Ira Ferguson arrived Wednesday morning from St. Louis where he has been in the barber business since he left Latham some months ago.

Feb. 19, 1914--Ira Ferguson has returned to St. Louis after a 10 day visit to his parents, Mr. & Mrs. T.T.

Ferguson.

Aug. 8, 1918--Comes from St. Louis to Latham to attend his mother, Hannah's, funeral.

{Last entry we have for Ira.}
