Notes for SAMUEL RANGER:

Wayne Carpenter: source of basic information on Samuel and Hannah. They had seven children; Joel was the oldest. Wayne's wife is descended from Samuel Jr., born 1777. "... served during the Revolutionary War and received a government pension and later lived with his son in Vermont where he died in 1830."

Also from Wayne: "Samuel RANGER (b. 1742) served in the Rev. War and my wife has joined the DAR because of his service. After the Rev. War the family moved to near Rutland Vermont where Samuel eventually died. Later several members of the family moved to near Batavia, Genessee County, New York. After the opening of the Erie Canal and transportation across Lake Erie, Samuel (Jr.) and Joel moved to Michigan. Joel first moved to Palmyra, Lenawee County (about 10 miles from me) and lived for some time. He was one of the organizers of the Palmyra Presbyterian Church. He is buried in a cemetery near Palmyra. His brother, Samuel (jr.) moved to Seneca Twp., Lenawee County, Michigan, about 25 miles from Joel. He lived their [sic] until his death in the mid 1860's. He and his wife are buried at the Old Cemetery in Morenci, Michigan."

Conflicting dates on marriage: One of Wayne's documents says 9/21/1767; another says what appears on family page. Same on death date: 4/14/1830 in some documents; another says what appears on family page.

Rutland Co., VT, Genealogical Gleanings, p. 153: Act of Congress Passed 3/18/1818 [apparently granting pensions]. On list is Samuel Ranger, age 87, private, Mass. Continental Line. Died 4/14/1830.

Birthplace info from Mormon family sheet Sudbury, Worcester, Mass. (in error?). Mike Ranger's listing is given.), and died 15 Apr 1849 in Palmyra, Lenawee Co., Michigan (Source: "Cutter Family in New England", p. 279-80.). He married ROSANNA CUTTER (Source: Wayne Carpenter.) 24 Sep 1804 in Brookfield, Worcester, Massachusetts (Source: Wayne Carpenter. "Cutter Family of New England", p. 279-80. Mike Ranger: site.), daughter of NATHANIEL CUTTER and SARAH WYMAN. Confirmed in "Cutter Family of New England", p. 279-80. Can't find town on Princeton on map.), and died 23 Sep 1847 in Palmyra, Lenawee Co., Michigan (Source: Mormon family sheet from Wayne).

Notes for JOEL RANGER:

1840, Twp?, Lewanee, MI, p. 150: Joel's household: 1 male 70-80 (this Joel?), 1 female 60-70, 1 female 30-40, 1 female 20-30 (young Joel's wife Mary L.?), and two males 20-30 (young 22 yrs. Joel?). Is Joel the old man (Orrin's father) or one of the younger ones (brother) married to one of the females?

Also, up a few lines, is one Nathan Gibbs. Later, in 1850 census, Nathan and his wife Anna live with Sarah A. Ranger, 25, and her daughter Clarissa N. Ranger, 2. There is some confusion as to whether Sarah was the daughter of Nathan or the daughter of Julius Gibbs, also listed on the same 1840 census page. In 1840, Nathan's household: 1 male 70-80, 1 male 40-50, 1 male 30-40, 1 female 60-70, 1 female 30-40, 1 female 5-10, 1 female under 5. In 1850, Nathan's household includes Nathan, farmer, age unclear, maybe 47 or 57, b. VT, Anna, 42?, b. NY, Martha, 13?, b. MI, a male, name unclear, 5?,

b. MI, Sarah A. Ranger, 25, b. NY, and Clarissa N. Ranger, 2, b. MI.

"Cutter Family in New England", p. 279-80: moved west [to Michigan] in 1834.

GenServ record from Gary Beaumont (BEAA8BA) shows Reuben as son of Bela Armstrong. No confirmation that this is the same Reuben, but the birth date agrees and in the absence of conflicting information, the data on Reuben's ancestry is entered into this program (12/8/98). How did Reuben get to Vermont for marriage in 1809? His older brother went to Rensselaer Co. NY (near VT). I do not trust Beaumont's locations, and perhaps some of the dates. Will investigate.

parents (?). Also with her dau. Clarissa (2), b. Mich.

Goldie Totman says her father was Julius Gibbs, b. 8/12/1792, d. 1/4/1880. There is an entry for Julia (or Julius) Gibbs on the same page with Nathan in the 1840 census. If Julia/Julius was her family, why did she go to live with Nathan when Amos died?

Is Anna mother of Sarah - or did Nathan have a different first wife. The three children in the census are far apart in years.

Notes for SAMUEL MONTGOMERY RANGER:

1860 census, Medina Twp., Lenawee, MI, p. 689: Age 42, farmer, b. Vt. (Not clear, but it isn't NY), with wife Nancy [sic], age 33, and two children, Levi, 14, and Charles, 7. Nancy, Levi, and Charles all b. MI. Also with them a George Bailey, age 8, b. Ohio. Not one of their children according to info from Wayne Carpenter. Who is this Samuel in the censuses?

1850 census: not present in father's household.

1840 census, Chesterfield Twp., Lucas Co., Ohio, p. 225. Apparently this Samuel, son of Samuel, is one of the 20-30 year-old males living with his father. This calls the marriage date into question, as does the age of Nancy at marriage. Therefore, the parentage of Marshall T. is in question also.

Mike Ranger: Sam b. ca. 1820, wife "Jenny". I have merged with this Sam.
