Notes for MAGGIE E. FISHER:

She lived on N. Augusta St. in Staunton where she owned two single houses #216 and #220 as well as one double house, # 224 and #226.

She gave the single houses and contents to a John H. Patterson and his wife,

Mae. She gave the double house and lot a Helen Hisey for her lifetime. Upon Hisey's death, the house was willed to Carl Fisher and his wife, Mary and their survivors for as long as they lived and occupied the property. Upon their deaths, the property would go to John and Mae Patterson and their survivors.

The Kyles owned a cemetery lot and vault on "C" Street in the Thornrose Cemetery where Mervin was buried.

Maggie wanted a bronze Casket, similar to her husband's and to be placed in the vault with him.

Her estate was estimated to be $43,000 ($14,000 in realty)

She nominated the National Bank of Staunton to be the executor of her estate.

She was born 11 Apr 1892 in Montrose, Randolph County, WV, and died 09 Sep 1990 in Elkins, Randolph County, WV.

Notes for WILLIAM DANIEL FISHER:

Before his marriage, he had a cleaning and barber shop in Jenningsston, which became a ghost town when the lumber industry moved away. Jenningsston was located on the Dry Fork Railroad which connected Hendricks and Harman.

After he married Bessie Moore Fisher, he joined his father in law in operating Moore & Co. until the depression forced him to seek other employment. For a time, he was the sign foreman for WVDOH, District 8. He then leased properties in WV and surrounding states for various oil & gas companies. He was on a special assignment in Pochontas County when he succumbed to a heart attack and died in Marlinton, WV.

Notes for DIANE FISCHER:

Her father's, Harold Newton Fischer's, obit stated that Diane lives in Fresno, CA..

She has three children and five grandchildren.

Do not know the given names of her husband, children or grandchildren.

In Harold's Funeral Service, Mr. Wil Seymour was the Old Testament Lector and Mr. Christopher was the New Testament Lector. How were they related to Harold?
