In 1960, the census shows the Shutt children living with different families in the area. James Shut (sp), age 15, was living with the Kimel family in northern Davidson County. John, age 12, is living with the Mock family in southern Forsyth County. Louisa, age 20, is living with the Hill family in southern Forsyth County. Soloman Shutt, age, 46, and wife, Nancy, age 36, and several small children are living two doors down from Daniel Spaugh, his wife, Anna, and their children, Timothy, Mariah, and Belinda, age 13, in northern Davidson County.

In the 1870 census, Belinda (listed a Malinda), age 24, is still living with her parents, Daniel and Anna Spaugh, and a 4 year old child, Chelaco (Angelico). James Shutt is married with 3 children ages 4 and under in southern Forsyth County, Freedburg (sic) Post office area.

Family legend states that Belinda was not allowed by her father to marry, although she had 3 children. Angelico Spaugh's marriage certificate to Ransom Eli Craver lists her father as James Shute. Friedberg Moravian Church baptism records list Angeline Clara Isabella Spaugh, born June 16, 1865 to Belinda Spaugh and James Shutt, baptized August 10, 1865. James C.
