Notes for MARYLAND SLONE:

Notes from email from Bill Reynolds (Grandson of Maryland Slone and Sarah Reynolds) to Phyllis Reynolds Goelz on 4/28/2003:

My father was among the first graduates of Caney Creek Settlement School, which eventually evolved into Alice Lloyd College. After graduating from CCSS, he went to Philadelphia to attend the University of Pennsylvania. After graduating from Penn he got his MD degree in 1931 from Temple University. For the next forty years or so he practiced medicine in Philadelphia, specializing in OB-GYN. He retired to the little coastal resort town Of Stone Harbor, NJ in the early 1970's.

Although he talked frequently of returning permanently to Knott Co. he never did. I know of a few occasions that he visited briefly--the death of his father, Maryland Slone, and of his mother, and I believe when he and his half brother Herman Tuttle sold the farm.

In 1927 he and my mother, Margaret Hoff Longaker, married in Phila. My mother had been one of my father's teachers at CCSS in the early to mid-1920's. My mother was born and reared in Phila., but got to Caney Creek through a Wellesley College connection with June Buchanan, co-founder, along with Alice Lloyd, of Alice Lloyd college.

In his declining years my father(and mother) lived with my family in Bordentown, NJ, just south of Trenton, NJ where he died in Mercer Medical Center in 1983.

Child of SARAH REYNOLDS and MARYLAND SLONE is:

61. i. DR. CHESTER REYNOLDS⁶ (SLONE), b. Dec 27, 1902, Knott Co, KY; d. Mar 19, 1983, Trenton, NJ.

Chester Reynolds was among the first graduates of Caney Creek Settlement School, which eventually evolved into Alice Lloyd College. After graduating from CCSS, he went to Philadelphia to attend the University of Pennsylvania. After graduating from Penn he got his MD degree in 1931 from Temple University. For the next forty years or so he practiced medicine in Philadelphia, specializing in OB-GYN. He retired to the little coastal resort town Of Stone Harbor, NJ in the early 1970's.

Although he talked frequently of returning permanently to Knott Co. he never did. I know of a few occasions that he visited briefly--the death of his father, Maryland Slone, and of his mother, and I believe when he and his half brother Herman Tuttle sold the farm.
