Generation No. 1

1. JOHN<sup>1</sup> DENNARD was born 1799 in GA<sup>1</sup>, and died 1856 in Newton Co., GA. He married MARY ANN ALMAND July 21, 1819 in Elbert Co., GA, daughter of THOMAS ALMAND and NANCY DAVID. She was born August 12, 1803 in Petersburg, Dinwiddie, VA, and died Aft. 1870 in Newton Co., GA.

Notes for MARY ANN ALMAND:

There is a question as to Mary's birthdate. Some records have her the second child, others the third. Her sister, Martha, is sometimes given the earlier birthdate. In the 1850 census, Mary gave her age as 45; in the 1860 census her age is 56, and in the 1870 census her age is 67. Go figure!?!)

Sophronia is listed in the Newton County Record Book - Marriage Records 1822-1903 as S. E. Donnard with her marriage to W. J. J. Gallaway on September 14, 1864.

On page 81 of that same book is listed the marriage of Columbus Hart to Sarah E. Galeway on July 14, 1868.

The 1870 census of Newton County, GA. shows:

Hart, Columbus 20 MBlacksmith

Notes for ELLEN J. DENNARD:

Ellen J. Dennard, I believe, was listed as Allen, son of Thomas Washington, in the 1870 census. I have come to this conclusion with the following evidence:

John Floyd's obituary lists as a survivor Mrs. Ellen Ellington, a name of a sister I had not heard before.

In the book at the Conyers library, I found mentioned that Stephen Benjamin Ellington, b 3-16-1863 in Newton County, d 11-22-1900, buried in Ellington Cemetery was married on 9-10-1885 to Ellen Dennard. Unfortunately I don't think I wrote the title down but it had to do with widows and mothers of CSA soldiers receiving pensions etc. - it could be the book, A History of Rockdale County. I have page 667 listed.

In the 1900 census, Kanzada Dennard was a widow (of T. Washington Dennard) and head of a household. Living with her was Eugenia (their daughter who never married), Eliza Sparks, Kanzada's sister, and Ellen J. Ellington, daughter, born September, 1866 which is about the time that Allen in the 1870 census was born.

1870 Census - Newton Co. showed:

Thomas W. Dennard 50 M
Kanzada 44 F
Martha 26 F
James 21 M
Sanford 19 M
Mary 17 F
Melvina 13 F
Eugenia 10 F
Jefferson Davis 9 M
George W. 6 M
Allen 3 M
Charlie 1 M

1900 Census - Rockdale Co. Showed:

Dennard, Kazanda 70 F
" , Eugenia 40 F Daughter
Sparks, Eliza 81 F Sister
Ellington, Ellen J. 33 F Daughter

These pieces of evidence lead me to believe that Allen was really Ellen. I think a little more 'digging' will turn up a marriage record on Stephen and Ellen. Perhaps a birth date and other connection will turn up as well. I will be checking the 1880 census records.

Notes for RACHEL ELIZABETH NORTON:

Obituary, The Conyer Times, 1898

"Mrs. Jno. I. Dennard, Sr., died very suddenly at her home in Sheffield District last Tuesday, and was buried at the Almond graveyard Wednesday. Mrs. Dennard was in her usual health and went to the woodyard and stooped to take some wood. She fell in the act and was carried in the house in an unconscious condition where she soon expired. She leaves a husband and many relatives and friends to mourn her death."

She is buried next to John I. Dennard, Sr., her husband. There was at one time a stone (not a tombstone) to mark her grave. But, when I visited there in April, 1997, there was no marker for her. John I.'s first wife, Arminda was on the left, John was in the middle, and a spot on his right is where we think Rachel Elizabeth is buried. Carolyn Golowka, 4-22-1997.

He was married to Miss Annie Winburn 58 years ago. Mr. Dennard was one of our oldest and most substantial citizens being 80 years at the time of his death. Friday evening last, at 8:45 o'clock, Mr. George W. Dennard died at his home in this city on McDonough Street after a long illness with consumption.

The best medical skill and all of the best known remedies were tried, but the "Great White Plague" had fastened itself upon him and could not be dislodged.

Mr. Dennard was 47 years of age and was raised in Sheffield Districe, and for about seven years had resided in Conyers. He was a member of the Baptist church and lived a consistent Christian life.

The funeral was conducted at the Baptist church Sunday morning, Rev. R. L. Robinson officiated. The interment was in East View in charge of the K. of P.'s.

Notes for WILEY FLOYD DENNARD:

Information on Wiley Floyd Dennard received from Hope Clark Waggoner, 3955 Crown Shore Drive, Dallas, TX 75244-7226 on March 1, 1997.

Other information found when I visited Conyers, GA in April, 1997

The 1920 Fulton Co., GA Census (37/52/25/4) indicates that Wiley F. Dennard, age 72, was a boarder with Josephine Prater.

The 1870 Census shows Wiley F. in Telfair Co., GA with his wife, Mary A., a son, Wiley, age 7 (probably her son by her marriage to Wiley F. Dennard, son of John Dennard and Mary Dennard), and a daughter, Mahala, age 1. Sources from Hope Clark Waggoner, 3955 Crown Shore Drive, Dallas, TX 75244-7226, received 3-1-97.

Dennard Wiley	M	22	GA	Section Master, RR
" Mary A.	F	26	GA
" Wiley	M	7	GA	(See note #1)
" Mahala	F	1	GA

Note #1: Wiley may be the step-son of Wiley F. Dennard in that Wiley, who is 7 years old may be the son of Wiley F. Dennard's uncle (Wiley F. Dennard) who was killed in the Civil War. Newton County marriage records show that Wiley F. Dennard (who was killed in the Civil War) Married a Mary A. Wilburn in 1861. Assumption is that his nephew married his widow, who's son was Wiley (age 7). The Mary A. above is Mary A. Windburn, the mother of both children shown in the 1870 Census.

Notes for MARY A. WINBURN:
The best guess I have at this time is that Mary Winburn and Mary A. Wilburn are the same person. Mary married Wiley F. Dennard on Sept. 1, 1861. He joined up with the Army of N. VA during the Civil War and was killed on April 14, 1862. She then remarried Wiley Floyd Dennard and he took in her son, Wiley, by her first husband. Trying to confirm or unconfirm this.

Marriage Notes for SUSIE ALMAND and LUTHER STILL:

The Solid South, August 8, 1891
Surprised the Old Folks

Last Tuesday evening just a few minutes past 6 o'clock Mr. Luther Still was married to Miss Susie Almand, daughter of Elder John F. Almand, at the residence of Mr. J. M. Huff, Rev. John F. Wallis officiating. The parents of the young lady objected to the marriage, hence it occurred at Mr. Huff's. Miss Almand went for a horseback ride Tuesday evening and alighted at Mr. Huff's. Everything was ready in a few minutes and the groom elect was on the ground with the license and preacher and the ceremony that made them one was soon performed. A note was attached to the horse telling the sad news and the animal was sent home to inform the family.

The young couple repaired to the home of the groom's father to receive the congratulations of their many friends.

THE SOLID SOUTH wishes that the young couple may always be just as happy as they are now and that nothing but prosperity may ever fall in their path.

May Dennard Welch's Certificate of Death indicates that she was born August 13, 1872. This is probably in error and that she stated her age younger than she was. The following indicates that she was born about August 13, 1869>

The 1870 Census, Telfair Co., GA:

Denerd, Wiley F., age 22
Denerd, Mary A., age 26
Denerd, Wiley, age 7
Denerd, Mahala, age 1

Dennard, Gus, E., age 11, born about 1869
Dennard, William F., age 9, born about 1871
Dennard, Hardeman, age 7, born about 1873

Gus E. Dennard was probably Ovid.

1900 Census:

Fulton Co, GA: Dennard, H. A., age 47, calculates to about 1873
Dennard, William, age 48, calculates to about 1872
Chatham Co., GA: Dennard, Ovid, age 51, calculates to about 1869

Best assumption for real birthday:

Mae Dennard Welch, August 13, 1869\
Ovid Dennard, Sept. 18, 1870
Hardeman A. Dennard, 1872

Notes for HARDEMAN ANDREW DENNARD:
Source #1:

Family information by his daughter, Cora Lenora Dennard

Hardeman Andrew Dennard was born in Georgia. His birthday was June 5, 1873. Little is known of his younger years. He moved to Atlanta and met his wife, Lula Lewis. They were married in 1900 in Atlanta, Georgia. They had three children: Lena Mae, born June 5, 1901; Marhta Lee, born December 22, 1902; Cora Leonora, born April 29, 1907. His wife died from complications during the pregnancy of their fourth child. She had a tubular pregnancy and passed away on October 10, 1910. It was most difficult for him to raise three young girls and work full time. Therefore, the children were brought up by relatives.

Hardeman lost his leg to something called "White Swelling." The real cause was never known. He used crutches to get around. He was a dispatcher for the Atlanta Police Department.

A letter from Uncle Otis to Tom Ivey, a cousin:

"Atlanta, Feb. 14th.

Dear Tom,

Was very glad to hear from you. I will start off by saying for you to overlook the many mistakes I make in typing. I will be 87 in April and my typewriter is just about as old. I am in very good health other than age and I cant do anything about that.

MY FATHER, JOHN I DENNARD MARRIED ELIZABETH PLUNKETT, and she is SISTER LIZZIE to my Aunt Mattie.

MY GRAND FATHER MARRIED A. THROWER (my name is Otis Thrower). Marvin Thrower is my second cousin. My GRANDFATHER HAD FIVE SONS, FLOYD, who had five wives, He burried four and the last one buried him. BEN, JUNE, JOHN (my father) and ALfonzo (half brother)

He had three daughters that I know of and I think Uncle Alfonzo had a sister, but I am not sure. Aunt ANNIE MC CORD, Aunt Pinky Norton (do not know her given name, but Rockdale County is full of Nortons. She had sixty five children, grand children, great gran children when she died. Aunt MATTIE IVey, your Grandmother

I do not know who is the mother of Alfonzo. I know that my Grandfather and his two wives were burried in old cemetary below Conyers on the left side of the railroad a mile or two from Conyers. I tried to find their graves a few yers back but I think the stones had been misplaced. They were just field stones whe my father showed them to me many years ago.

Uncle June had Gertrude, Daisy, Lottie -- June & Gladis. I think he must have been married twice. (I am not sure) I know that June & Gladis were the youngest, and I did not know the older ones. I d o not know how many children Uncle Ben and Uncle Floyd had. I know uncle Floyd had quit a few as I have run into some of the gradchildren a few times.. I think my father may have been born in Campbell County, but I know when he as a small fellow he lived near Yellow river, going out the road by East View Cemetary. He lived on this side of the river (Conyers). I tried to find the place a few years back but the road has been changed and I could not locate the site..

I had four brothers, Ernest, Reuben, (Me), Hewltee and Harold. Hewlett died when he was three year old. Ernest died twenty five years ago and his wife died the day I received your letter. She was 91.

Reuben died six years ago and his wife died last year. She was 92. Harold lives in Tampa Fla and he might be able to give you information and I know he would be glad to hear from you. His address J.H. Dennard 4024 W. Alva, Tampa, 33614. He has one son, John and he is still living at home.

Ernest has seven children. Ralph, had three daughter and one son. One daughter lives out from Conyers but I do not know her married name. Ralph S wife also lives in Conyers. Elmar had four sons and a daughter. Elizabeth had a son & daughter. Dorothy has two sons and Raymond two daughter, Rudy has a son & daughter,

Reuben has one son and he lives in California. I do not have any childred, but by my second marriage I have three children, then grandchildren and five great grandchildren

P.S. I have herd my Father us the the name HUMPHREYS in connection with his family. Possibly in connection with Alfonzo. (Also Bulah) Hope this may be of some use to you and please overlook the typig as I can half see with this light.

Aunt Annie McCord had one son. Jim and a daughter, Lilly, and I am under the impression that their wer some more. (The name Humphrieys may have been in connection with them.

Love, Otis (signature)

Uncle Jun's wife was Aunt Mollie. I know she was the mother of June & Gladis"
