She was born February 24, 1846 in Des Moines Co., Iowa, and died April 20, 1934 in Fairfield, Jefferson Co., Iowa.

Notes for GEORGE WASHINGTON ZION:

From family history papers.

George Washington Zion was born in Pleasant Grove, Iowa, January 10, 1842.

At the age of 20 still living in Pleasant Grove, he is listed in the private rank August 11, 1862, at Keokuk, Iowa. He served in this organization - Company C. 30th regiment of the Iowa Infantry. He was discharged May 30, 1865. (Infantry means walking)

On May 30, 1865 he was shot in the hollow of the throat while foraging in North Carolina. After being shot he was taken captive for three days. They took his watch and money. He was taken to a old womans home and there laid him on the flood his boots were covered in blood.

Recognizing the lady as an old acquaintance asked for her oldest son. The young man came in and took my grandfather back to his people. The north treated his wounds until he was strong enough to have the bullet removed. It had gone Through his right lung, with few nurses available they run a silk handkerchief thru the wound.

The south refused him any food or water while he was held captive, many wanted to shoot him but others said let him suffer. The bullet was as large as a hazelnut.

His Colonel's name was Charles H. Abbott, a very good friend of his grandfather Charles Abbott was killed May 22, 1863 at Vicksburg, Mississippi. His home was in Oakland. He (Mr. Abbott) had been riding a very fine horse, one of his own and he wished to have it taken back to his wife. His last words were "George" will you please do one thing for me, take my horse to my wife? He delivered it safely to Mrs. Abbott after an awful struggle to save it. She (Mrs. Abbott) took a picture of my grandfather holding the colonels horse and sent a picture to George's wife.
