June later took assembler positions with Monsanto and Beckman, opened a Candy Store called Olde Fashion Confections with her Uncle Buck Burke, retired from Hughes Aircraft in 1990, but went back to work as an assembler elsewhere. All this was done while caring for her husband "Chic" as he struggled with Multiple Sclerosis.

June enjoyed gambling, especially Bingo, Slots, Poker and Gin rummy. In 1991 she was baptized by the Calvary Baptist Church of Riverside and attended services regularly.

History of Antelope County Nebraska

... Elgin Churches, Trinity Lutheran Church

The beginnings of Trinity Congregation go back to the year 1893. A number of Lutheran families around Elgin had been attending services at the Lutheran Church near Clearwater Creek for some time. At their request the Rev. Henry Koester of Clearwater Creek began conducting services in the public school house three miles west of Elgin. The next two years services were held in the Reinhard Papke home two miles west of Elgin, and for two years after that in the Richard A. Ganskow home three miles west of Elgin. Following that, they again conducted services in the public school until they moved to their permanent quarters in Elgin.

In 1903 the Rev. F. Neben accepted the call to the Clearwater Creek Parish. Under his leadership, Trinity Congregation organized on September 24, 1905, with seven charter members, namely, Richard A. Ganskow, Friedrich Glampe, Hermann Glampe, Heinrich Gronau, Johann Gronau, Reinhard Papke, and John Pinnt. The first officers were John Pinnt, elder, and Reinhardt Papke, treasurer.

In 1906 the congregation decided to build a church in Elgin. They set to work immediately and completed the church the same year. They dedicated the church on January 20, 1907. The church cost $1,800.00. One thousand five hundred dollars of this amount was paid in cash and the balance of $300 was paid some years later...

*Some information taken from Clifford Schwarting and Lavern Krone.

Around 1918 Nebraska was plagued with tornados, disease, poor crops and Anti-German sentiment. "Anti-Americanism" laws passed in Nebraska during the end of World War I. These laws made it illegal to speak or teach German in public schools and churches. Telephone operators where even instructed to distort German language telephone calls. The disparate German communities throughout Nebraska where harassed by official policies. When laws where not effective, the Klu Klux Klan was enlisted to persuade German-Americans to "forget" their ways. Eventually, German-American Culture, Food, Language and Customs where abandoned in Nebraska. Meanwhile, the US Government opened the former Sioux Indian territories of Roberts County, South Dakota to white settlement at extremely low prices.

Seeing opportunity, the Gronau brothers, Johann, Heinrich and Julius moved north with their families from Madison and Antelope counties Nebraska. Unfortunately, South Dakota's land was riddled with glacial stones and poor land. Johann Gronau (1867) purchased three farms and planted flax. After the first harvest, no other crop would grow. He eventually went bankrupt in South Dakota. A similar fate affected Julius and Heinrich. Most of their children would move to Minnesota, Michigan, and Washington State and even back to Nebraska. Some remained farmers but most pursued other occupations. Of those who stayed in farming, like my Grandfather John August Rudolf Gronau (1902), life was tenuous, uncertain, and often filled with struggle. Few farmers thrived.

12. Santo Parlato, born 24 Aug 1889 in Valledolmo, Palermo, Sicily, Italy; died Oct 1969 in Rochester, Monroe, New York. He was the son of 24. Fortunato "Fred" Parlato and 25. Maria Carolina Concetta

Parlato. He married 13. Maria Antonia "Anna" Parlato Abt. 1918 in Rochester, Monroe, New York.

13. Maria Antonia "Anna" Parlato, born Bet. 30 Sep 1894 - 1898 in Valledolmo, Palermo, Sicily, Italy; died 07 Feb 1969 in Rochester, Monroe, New York. She was the daughter of 26. Francesco "Chicho" Parlato and 27. Mattea "Martha" Parlato.

Notes for Santo Parlato:

A Santo Parlato (age 17) (occupation- Shoemaker) immigrated to New York on the SS Lombardia and arrived March 04, 1907 from Palermo, Sicily. As per the original manifest, his final destination was 18 Morgan St Rochester, New York; the home of his Uncle Luigi Parlato. A Francesco Parlato (age 39) (occupation- day laborer) traveled on the ship too. His final destination was Buffalo, Erie, New York to meet his brother Giuseppe Parlato.

... and a Santo Parlato (age 17) immigrated to New York on the SS Liguria and arrived March 12, 1907 from Palermo, Sicily. A Francesco Parlato (age 39) traveled on the ship too. Both are listed as Valledolmesi. It's possible Francesco was Santo's Uncle. Both are listed as Valledolmesi.

I find this to be an incredible coincidence. One must be in error or Santo and Francesco were transferred to the SS Liguria for some reason.

Notes for Johann August Rudolf Gronau:

My Gronau family was originally from Neu Vargow, a small block of houses in the Village of Vargow, Stolp, Pomerania, Prussia. It's local Parish was the town of Mickrow. In 1871, after Otto Von Bismarck's victory in the Franco-Prussian War, Prussia was incorporated into the new German Confederacy. The County of Stolp was in East Pomerania. It remained a German possession until 1945.

After World War II, Prussia was dissolved by the Allies and Pomerania was divided into two regions. The Western region remained German; the Eastern was annexed by Russia and became provinces of Poland. After the Russian Annexation, nearly all Germans from Polish Pomerania were killed or expelled by the Russian Army.

The German history of Pomerania is nearly unknown to the Polish people living there today. Most of the old documents of these former German areas are now in Germany. Mickrow is now called Mikorowo and situated in Slupsk, Pomorskie, Poland.

The Clearwater Cemetery in Nebraska has many deaths dated from 1903 to 1905 of various ages, including Johann Gronau (1839) and his son Robert Gronau (1885). I think there may have been a diphtheria epidemic in the area at that time but this hypothesis hasn't been confirmed as of 8/2003.

The deceased came from Wisconsin in 1874 and settled in Kalamazoo where he took a homestead and has followed the occupation of farming ever since. Mr. Kohl was in his sixty-ninth year and was sick about a month with kidney trouble. He was an honest, upright man and was respected by all who knew him. He leaves a wife and six children, four sons and two daughters, besides a large circle of friends and neighbors to mourn his death. Notes for Albrecht Friederich Kohl:

They Called it Meadow Grove by Mrs. Lenora Kuchar 1979

pg. 17-18

Mrs. Albert Kohl, the former Louise Ganskow, came with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gottlieb Ganskow, three brothers and one sister from Volin, Germany/ (Wollin, Stolp, Pommern)?, at the age of four. They settled at Norfolk where her father owned and operated a brick kiln. Her mother died when she was eight and she and her sister cared for the younger brothers. Louisa Ganskow married Albert Kohl on April 13, 1891. Albert, who was born in Wisconsin, came with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Kohl, in a covered wagon at age of two. They took a homestead in Kalamazoo Precinct. Albert had two sisters and three brothers. During those years the closest town was Columbus from where supplies were hauled by ox team. Mr. Kohl also remembered his father using oxen for plowing. Mr. and Mrs. Albert Kohl began housekeeping in Green Garden Precinct. In 1896 they moved to a farm seven miles south and three-fourth east of Meadow Grove where they lived for fifty-five years. They moved to Madison in 1951. Their children are Oscar, Fred, Ruth Kohl Ganser, Eva Kohl McKnight, Viola Procknow, Elwood, Irvin, Elmer, Clarence and August is deceased.

The family table usually included twelve to fourteen people as the nine children, parents and often relatives were present. When they attended church at Kalamazoo it meant sixteen-mile drive in an open-air vehicle with a hot brick for a foot warmer.

Mr. and Mrs. Kohl are now deceased. Mrs. Kohl lived until she was 98 years of age.

The 1930 Nebraska Federal Census lists Irving, Clarence and Elwood's father as born in Illinois. It's possible they were only Louise Ganskow's children.

Notes for Giuseppe "Joseph" Parlato:

Joseph's parentage of Richard Parlato is still not 100% verified. This is the evidence I have so far.

As per Jean Herzog Giles, a Joseph Parlato was married to someone else while with Ida McKeen. Ida worked for the Herzog family as a maid. Ida McKeen was originally from Auburn, New York.

Anecdotal evidence

As per Jennie Morelli Parlato (1927), her brother-in-law Giuseppe "Joseph" Parlato (1905) had a girlfriend Ida while married to his wife Della Shoenfield (1907). He had a son with her born around the same time as his other son Joseph F. Parlet. David Parlet (1956) confirmed this relationship.

Richard Joseph (Parlato) Signor highly resembles Giuseppe "Joseph" Parlato's (1905) nephew Joseph John "Giuseppe Luciano" Parlato (1930).

Further confirmation of a Joseph Parlato (1905)/ Ida McKeen (1912) household may be factually confirmed in the 1930 Census (pending).

26. Francesco "Chicho" Parlato, born 03 Nov 1867 in Valledolmo, Palermo, Sicily, Italy; died 14 Oct 1944 in Buffalo, Erie, New York. He was the son of 52. Don Giuseppe Parlato and 53. Maria Antonina Bellanca. He married 27. Mattea "Martha" Parlato Bet. 1888 - 1892 in Valledolmo, Palermo, Sicily, Italy.

27. Mattea "Martha" Parlato, born Abt. 1876 in Valledolmo, Palermo, Sicily, Italy; died 22 Jan 1941 in Columbus Hospital/ Buffalo, Erie, New York. She was the daughter of 50. Vincenzo Giacomo Parlato and 51. Maria Antonia Vacanti.

Notes for Francesco "Chicho" Parlato:

Francesco Parlato's birth certificate states his mother as Maria Antonia Bellanca/Bellavia and birth as Nov 3, 1867. Francesco's death certificate states his mother as Petrina Panzica and birth as Nov 2, 1865. The father has the same name in both, and Francesco's eldest daughter is rumored to be named Maria Antonietta. The Parlatos tended to use the Greek naming system therefore, I'm assuming both documents speak of the same Francesco Parlato.

Chicho was a middle-man in Sicily for a flour milling company. He had to leave Italy rather quickly. He came to America with his son Pippino who was the oldest boy. Chicho was sponsored and worked for the Gugino Macaroni Company as a driver. Pippino went to school in the beginning and in the meantime, they saved every penny that they could. After approximately a year, Chicho sent for the remainder of the family. That would be, wife Mattea and children Anna, Lucy, Vincent James, and Nicholas. When they arrived at Ellis Island, Anna was refused entry because of a "skin condition". She was sent back on the next boat "alone" to live in a convent until such time that the skin condition would correct itself. After about a year she came to America.

They were very, very poor. The boys (Pippino and Nicholas) only went to school a short time. The family needed money in order to support themselves, so the boys would do everything they could to make a dollar. Chicho, regardless of how poor he was always wanted the best. He would insist on the best of "food". He would go to the butcher and demand the very best cuts of meat and then charge it. The bills would accumulate and accumulate, but no matter how minimal the amount of payment, he always made sure the balance was taken care of. He never let anybody down in paying his debts.

Chicho's wife Mattea was a very sickly person. However, sometimes her daughter Jennie said she "enjoyed poor health". She had a prolapsed uterus and diabetes.

A Francesco Parlato (age 39)) immigrated to New York on the SS Liguria and arrived March 12, 1907 from Palermo, Sicily. A Santo Parlato (age 17) traveled on the ship too. Both are listed as Valledolmesi. It's possible Santo was Francesco's Nephew.

...and a Francesco Parlato (age 39) (occupation- day laborer) immigrated to New York on the SS Lombardia and arrived March 04, 1907 from Palermo, Sicily. As per the original manifest, his final destination is Buffalo, Erie, New York to meet his brother Giuseppe Parlato. A Santo Parlato (age 17) (occupation- Shoemaker) traveled on the ship too. He has a final destination of 18 Morgan St Rochester, New York; the home of his Uncle Luigi Parlato. Both are listed as Valledolmesi

I find this to be an incredible coincidence. One must be in error.

Emma Frederiksen was the love of his life after she died he wrote the following song in remembrance of her.

My Princess "E"

Though you've been called away, our Love will always stay.
A Monument of Love and Life, so true.
And now I share alone, fond memories to atone, a Love, a Life, a Dream of Ecstasy.
But now the Sun shines and all in Faith you're mine.
A Faith from now until Eternity.
So now I bid adieu to a personage so true.
My love, my life my Princess "E"

HERMAN BLANK.

Located very pleasantly in section twenty-six, township twenty-one, range three, is to be found the somewhat notable gentleman whose name introduces this biographical writing. Mr. Blank has been identified with the history of Madison county from a very early date, and during his residence in the region has been instrumental in a large measure for the present prosperity enjoyed by the entire population.

Mr. Herman Blank is a native of Pomerania, near Berlin, Germany, born April 14, 1841. His parents were Wilhelm and Dora (Bessert) Blank, typical farmers of that country. He received a limited education.

In 1866 Mr. Blank left his home for America, crossing as an emigrant, and landing in New York City, in which place he spent but a few days, then came west to Portage, Wisconsin, where he remained for eight years, working as section hand on the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railroad.

He became dissatisfied after several years in that state, so bought a team of horses and started to drive through the rough country for Nebraska. After a long and tiresome trip, he finally landed in Madison County, filing on the homestead, which he now occupies, and on which he has used up two sod houses, finally erecting a good frame dwelling some twenty years ago.

During the first few years here, Mr. Blank found the usual obstacles to overcome in the shape of crop failures caused by unfavorable weather conditions, blizzards, etc., but, like so many other sturdy pioneers, he stuck to his determination to win for himself a home and competence, and his possessions today are a silent testimony of his success. He has in all one hundred and sixty acres of fine land, also a complete set of substantial farm buildings, all kinds of stock, the place well supplied with fruit and shade trees, and altogether, it is one of the very up-to-date and valuable properties in the region.

In 1880, Mr. Blank was united in marriage to Miss Molly Rudat, the ceremony-taking place in Green Garden Township, Madison County, Nebraska. Mr. and Mrs. Blank have a family of five children, as follows: Lizzie, Minnie, Annie, Herman and Samuel.

45. Mildred B(r)asham, born Bet. 1828 - 1853; died Unknown.

Notes for Benjamin Taylor:

Company C 63rd VA Inf. CSA (Captain Stephen B. Cornutt's Company, also known as the "Marshall Rifles," named for General Humphrey Marshall) was organized April 6, 1862 at Moccasin Gap mainly from Grayson residents. The Grayson Militia and militias from other southwestern counties were mobilized in early 1862 by Marshall after a Federal incursion at Pound Gap. This was a ruse to obtain further recruits for the Army.

Fateful orders sent down to Grayson were issued by Colonel Isaac Neff, commanding the 25th Militia Brigade. Special Order No. 1 read:

Headquarters, 25th Brigade Va. Militia Wytheville, Virginia March 24, 1862 You are hereby ordered to report as early as practicable with your command at the old Court House in Russell , requiring each man to bring with him any private fire arms that he may have--also a part of blankets and change of clothing. Such as can will bring cooking utensils for which they will be paid. You will report to these headquarters your arrival at the place of rendezvous. By Command of Brig. Gen. H. Marshall (Signed) Isaac Neff Col. Commanding 25th Brig. Virginia Militia

Lieutenant Colonel J. W. Vaughn, commanding the 78th Militia Regiment responded on March 25:

In compliance with the above order Commandants of Companys of the 1st Battalion 78 Regiment are hereby ordered to notify their men to assemble at Gregory's Store on Elk Creek Tuesday morning the 1st day of April 1862 by 9 o'clock and in addition to the above equipment they are required to furnish themselves with four days rations. Thence to proceed to join the 2nd Battalion under the command of Major I. M. Young. The Grayson militia formed all of the original Company C and much of Company G. This company was personally sworn in by General Humphrey Marshall. The company was at Abingdon on May 1, 1862. Thirty-six members of this company were transferred to Co. G, January 17, 1863. Company strength February 29, 1864 was 80 men, not including officers. The company was at Chickamauga, Rocky Face Ridge, Resaca and other important battles in Georgia. It was reported that the company lost 27, killed, wounded or missing in May and June 1864. J. O. Brewer reported, 51 years after the war was over, 30 men "served to the end of the war." This number is high, since official records indicate some of his list could not have served to the end.

Officers:

Stephen B. Cornutt, Captain
Joseph Young, 1st Lieutenant
John Blair Waugh, 1st Lieutenant/Captain
Troy H. Spencer, 2nd Lieutenant
Bennett Rector, 2nd Lieutenant/1st Lieutenant
William H. Scott, 2nd Lieutenant
Kenly C. Atkins, 1st Lieutenant
James Nelson Ingoldsby, 2nd Lieutenant

CHAPTER VII

MARY BOURN

Mary Bourn born 23 Apr. 1799 (almost certainly Grayson) , died 2 Sep. 1835. She was the fifth child of Stephen Bourn and Rosamond Mallory. She married Col. Archelaus Cornett, born ca. 1779 died 1847 (will Aug. 1847). This writer finds no civil record of Mary. The family of Archelaus and Mary with their children is enumerated (no wife or children's names) in the 1830 Census, and Archelaus and the children (Mary had died) appear in the 1840

Census. Cornett at that time was Canute, then Cornute and Cornutt. Archelaus was the son of James Cornutt and wife. Molly is the wife's name mentioned in the will of James. More on this Cornutt family is found in the chapter entitled RELATED FAMILIES. Archelaus graduated from a Virginia Military Academy. Army records show that he was a Captain in the Texas War, and a Major under Gen. Winfield Scott in the Mexican War. He retired a Colonel. He and Mary are buried in the family cemetery on their land in Grayson, in the area of Comers Rock.

Interesting to note, the Canute coat-of-arms is made up of the following:

- The crown represents Nobility
- The color blue represents Truth
- The lions represent Bravery
- The shield represents Military
- The 8 hearts represent A Great Lover (!)

The eight known children of Mary and Archelaus are:

Stephen B., James C., George Bourne, John, William, Rosemond, Polly, and Levaniah. Information on these children is here given:

Notes for Phillip Fruehan:

Philip Freehorn Suicides

Placing a loaded 32 calibre revolver into his mouth and firing, Philip Freehorn sent a bullet into his Brain causing instant death. The rash act was committed at 2:30 o'clock yesterday morning in the rear yard of his residence at 711 Hampton St., while he stood between the coal shed and the barn. The causes which led to the deed are unknown but it is supposed that Freehorn was suffering from temporary insanity. he was always regarded as a gentleman and had lived a happy life at home. So far as his domestic and financial circumstances were concerned there seemed to be no reason for ending his existence. Coroner Roberts was notified immediately by Patrolman John McColligan, who was called to the house by a stranger who was passing at the time and heard the report of the pistol shot.

On Thursday night he retired at the usual hour and yesterday morning about 2 o'clock he arose from his bed and taking his revolver went down stairs. His wife got up and followed him down and asked him where he was going. He said he was going out to the barn, as he thought he heard someone there. She said " No Philip, don't go, there's no one there." but he persisted and went up the yard while his wife stayed at the door of the house. When Freehorn reached a point between the outhouse and the barn, he placed the revolver in his mouth and pulled the trigger. The ball went crashing into his brain and he fell to the ground dead. Mrs. Freehorn upon hearing the shot was terrified for an instant, and was afraid to go to the place where her husband lay. She called to Mr. and Mrs. Dean who lived next door, and Mr. Dean dressed and went up to where Freehorn lay in a pool of his own blood.

About four years ago Freehorn, who was a huckster, was driving along Pittston Ave. near Maple St. and attempted to cross the street car track in front of a rapidly approaching car, with the results that the car struck the wagon and hurled Freehorn a great distance. In falling he struck on his head and was in a precarious condition for some time. While he apparently recovered, at times he was troubled with violent headaches, which left him in a condition verging on insanity. A few weeks since he fell and dislocated his shoulder blade and has done little work since. During his latest trouble the headaches have been rather frequent, with the results his friends feared that he would do himself bodily harm. Th past week or so he felt pretty well and was thinking about resuming work and would have done so but or the excessive heat, from which he suffered very much.

Freehorn was 63 years of age and was a German. he has resided at his late home for a number of years and was quite well known. he always bore a good reputation was respected in the neighborhood. His neighbors are at a loss to account for his taking his own life, unless he was temporarily insane. he is survived by a widow and two young children, who feel the loss of the husband and father keenly. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Interment will be made in Pittston Ave. Cemetery. Scranton Republican, July 21, 1901, p. 11.

The funeral of the late Philip Freehorn, who suicided at his home at an early hour Friday morning, took place yesterday afternoon from the family residence, 711 Hampton St. and was largely attended. Scranton Republican, July 23, 1901, p. 11

Grayson Revolutionary War Pension Applications 1832:

On the 24th day of September 1832 personally appeared in open Court, before the Justices of the Court of Grayson now sitting Dennis Fielder a resident of Grayson in the State of Virginia aged seventy six years, who being first duly sworn in according to Law, doth, on his oath, make the following declaration in order to obtain the benefit of the act of Congress passed June 7th 1832. This applicant says that he entered the service of the United States as a volunteer for three months under the command of Capt John Clark in the month of May 1776 or 77, as well as he now recollects, and marched to Petersburg in Virginia where he remained until his time of service expired. Col. George Walker had the command of the troops at Petersburg while this declarant was there. This declarant again volunteered his services for 3 months under the command of Capt of John Clark, and marched to Prince Edward Court house in the month of March of the same year of Lord Cornwallis' surrender at York Town in Virginia, where this declarant remained with others until his time of service again expired. The troops at Prince Edward Courthouse Va. was commanded by Col. John Halcomb or Holcome & this declarant with others was there guarding the Military stores at Prince Edward Courthouse Virginia. This declarant volunteered his services a third time for 3 months and marched from Prince Edward Courthouse in Virginia in the same year last aforesaid, under the command of Capt Richard Hallan, or Holland, with a number of British prisoners whom it was ordered should be taken to Winchester Va, but afterwards orders were given to March the said prisoners to the Barracks in Albemarle Va., where they were taken, and delivered to Col Lindsay, and shortly afterwards the declarant was discharged & went home having served in the whole 9 months. This declarant resided in the of Prince Edward in Virginia at the different times he volunteered, and continued to live in that until the year 1789, when he removed to Grayson , then Montgomery , where he has resided ever since. This declarant was born in Goochland , Virginia, 21st day of April in the year 1756, but has now no record of his age. He saw Baron Stuban and his forces pass Prince Edward Courthouse while he was stationed there, the Baron was then marching towards the South. This declarant never received any discharge from the services, his Captain told him he would give him one, if he would come for it, but this declarant never did apply for it because he supposed it would not be long before he would again be called into service, always holding himself ready to march whenever it was deemed necessary he should do so. This declarant in known to John Bird, Joshua Martin & Stephen Bourne in his present neighborhood who will testify to his character for veracity, and as to his service in the revolutionary War. He is also known to John Fielder, a contemporary survivor who knows that he did serve as is herein stated, and set forth. This declarant hereby relinquishes every claim whatever to a pension or annuity except the Present, and declares that his name is not on the pension roll of the agency of any State. Sworn to and subscribed the day & year aforesaid.

174. Stephen "Devil" Bourn, born 31 Oct 1760 in Louisa , Virginia; died 10 Mar 1849 in ,, Grayson, Virginia. He was the son of 348. Stephen Bourn and 349. Hannah Minitree?. He married 175. Rosamond Mallory 04 Sep 1792 in Comers Rock, Grayson, Virginia.

175. Rosamond Mallory, born 20 Apr 1767 in ,, Grayson, Virginia; died 28 Nov 1848 in Fries, Grayson, Virginia.

Notes for Stephen "Devil" Bourn:

In writing of Stephen Bourn, Mrs. Cutchshaw says: "... we searched and found a third great grandfather named Stephen Bourn but known as "Devil Steve." It is not definitely known at what date this Stephen Bourn left Louisa , Virginia and came to Grayson (earlier Montgomery ). Certainly he was a Grayson landowner. According to family traditions, he lived on his brother William's land for some years before purchasing his own land. An 1800 deed of 260 acres on Elk Creek (William Bourn to Stephen Bourn) may be his deed. The price was "for 100 pounds current money," Deed Book I, page 338-339. This has not been proved by a title search on the land Stephen and Rosamond are buried on, but this particular deed seemed the most likely.

"In 1956 in Grayson, we were shown a very old original document by Mr. and Mrs. John C. Bourne, both now deceased. It had been handed down to John from his father Wiley Ballard Bourne, and to Wiley from his father Stephen R. (or Red Steve), son of Stephen and Rosamond Mallory Bourn. This paper has been inadvertently destroyed in a fire, but the I saw it and held it in my hands. We remember the following written on this document: Stephen Bourn - Commissioned a Sgt. - Continental Army - (dated) 17__ (cannot remember the exact date) - (signed) George Washington. There is a record of Stephen Bourn in the Elk Creek area in the Montgomery Militia in an undated list, 1777 - 1790. The Militia defended the frontier against the British, Tories, and Indians. The various companies were supposed to have all men between 18 and 50 enlist, attend musters, and be ready to go if ordered out on any expeditions.

"The first vital statistics record of residence in Grayson by 1800 is the 1878 marriage record of late bloomer son James Bourn. In it he says "born Grayson Co." and James was born in 1800 (Bible record). James' brothers William, Stephen and George who were born before James, married early, but that is the problem. The early marriage records do not give added information such as place of birth, etc. Brother William's death record () does not list of birth. The 1842 death of brother George is too early for 1853-1870 records. The same for sister Mary. Brother Stephen R. Bourn's death record in 1873 should be at Richmond, but is not. We have been unable to find a civil marriage record for Stephen and Rosamond, nor can we find the parents of Rosamond.

"Some one suggested that his nickname probably only derived from a playful or prankish character. However, stories handed down within the family, suggest a character quite the opposite - in fact, rather like his namesake. Among these stories, it seems that he, a slave dealer, not only whipped his own slaves, but whipped the slaves of the other early settlers who did not have the stomach for it. To quote from a letter to us from Rev. Stephen Winton Bourne, deceased, also a descendant of Stephen Bourn, "He was not a Christian. He was a slave owner, successful farmer, and a good liver. I once heard a man say that he was a great help to the people in the way of giving them advice."

Stephen had large peach orchards from which he made peach brandy. His children married well, and they themselves reared fine families. Despite the name tag, he was a person of some importance. The money owed him at his death was considerable. Listed in the appraisement of his estate (Will Book #3, 1849-1869) are notes he held on a respectable percentage of the men in the , which reads Like an early "Who's Who." Some listed who were in debt to him were Stephen Gray Bourne, Hasten Fulton, Stephen Hail, Minitree Jones, Francis Cornett, Samuel Fulton, Henry Mallory, Samuel Byrd, Jr., John Hines, William Vaughan, Robert Vaughan, John Vaughan, John Shoop, John South, Payton Hill, John Collins, John Trimble, and Noah Anderson. These early appraisals are fascinating. In this one, a very large inventory, we list a few interesting items besides the usual "bed and furniture," cupboards, books farm equipment, barrels, hogsheads, and buckets. There was bacon by the hundred pounds at $8.00, "dried" beef by the hundred pounds at $5.00, buckwheat by the bushel at 40 cents, oats by the bushel at 25 cents, corn by the barrel at $2.00, tallow by the pound at 8 cents, soap by the pound at 6 1/2 cents, wool by the pound at 20 cents, a musket and shot gun $3.00, three flax wheels, two cotton wheels, three horses named Jolly, Nice, and Joel, two Fillys, a goodly assortment of cows and steers (red backed, white backed, brindle backed, brindle sided), "soal" leather by the pound at 25 cents, upper leather 50 cents, two oxcarts, one "needle" case, "window" curtains, quilts and one "cover-lid," pewter ware, "the bottom of one small trunk," and a man's saddle for $1.00 (it sold for an incredible 80 cents). His slaves were listed last with their appraisal value: One Negro boy Wilmington - $800, one Negro boy Loyd - $650, one Negro boy Powell - $650, one Negro Kennely - $220, one woman and child - $600, one girl Nancy - $275. It appears, from the sale record, that Dennis Wright bought Wilmington; James Cornett bought Loyd; and David Garrison bought Powell, Syntha (the unidentified woman), Nancy, and "the children." Evidently Kennely was quite young, too. William (Buck) Bourn, oldest son of Stephen bought his parents' Bible for $1.50. This was probably the one handed down to Dean Bourne, Martinsville, Virginia."

Information from the Dean Bourne Bible contained birth dates for Stephen, Rosamond and all of the children; marriage date for Stephen and Rosamond; death date for Rosamond: "Rosamond Mallory Bourn the wife of Stephen Bourn - Deceased on Tuesday evening at half after ten o'clock at night on the 28th day of November 1848 and her corpse was interred on the 30th at two o'clock in PM or afternoon - Registered by James Bourn - Rosamond M. Bourn Deceased at the age of 81 years 7 months and 8 days with Diarrhea and decay of the Bowels."

Information from the Hattie Porter Sage Bible of the Family of Stephen (R) Bourn contained birth dates for Stephen, Rosamond, Stephen (R), Milly Martin (wife of Stephen (R)), plus birth records for the children of Stephen (R) Bourn, death dates for Stephen, Rosamond, Stephen (R), Milly, and some of the children of Stephen (R).

As of 1982, Mr. Greg Dixon from Maryland has bought the land Stephen and Rosamond are buried on - Rt. 1, Fries, Virginia.

(Information on the family of Stephen Bourn came from "Stephen Bourn And Rosamond Mallory Descendants, 1650 - 1982" by Lura Elizabeth Cutchshaw, 9 E. Gordon Road, Apt #1, Newnan, GA 30263 - second printing 1983.)

Notes for Mary Vanover:

Mary Vanover 5 (Cornelius 4-1) was born in Sussex , New Jersey about 1782 and came south as a child, living for a time in Rowan , North Carolina, before moving to what is now Alleghany , North Carolina, before 1800. She married about 1802, William Taylor, son of John and Mary Taylor. He was born about 1775 in Virginia. During the first years of their marriage, William and Mary (Vanover) Taylor lived along New River in Grayson on land deeded to them by William's father. About 1818, they moved over onto Elk Creek in what in now Alleghany , North Carolina, where it appears that William took over his father's old mill. The records of Little River Baptist Church show that he became a member there in 1818. William Taylor made his will October 17, 1823, leaving his home farm and the mill to his son John and the rest of his property to be distributed among his children. He apparently died later in the same year. After William' s death Mary (Vanover) Taylor moved back to Grayson , Virginia, living near her mother-in-law, Mary Taylor. The records of the settlement of her estate in Grayson, Virginia, show that she owned a large track of land and much personal property, including slaves Tom and Aggy. William and Mary (Vanover) Taylor are supposed to be buried on a ridge overlooking New River on their old farm in Alleghany , North Carolina (or Grayson, Virginia).

349. Hannah Minitree?, born Abt. 1726 in Louisa , Virginia; died Bef. 1814 in Louisa , Virginia.

Notes for Stephen Bourn:

Stephen Bourn died before 17 Oct 1811 in Louisa , Virginia. He was buried. At this time, we do not have proof of the death date of Stephen Bourn. His will was proved 9 August 1814, but there is a 17 October 1811 Louisa deed of land from John Bourn Armstrong to David Bourn, the sale being "land in Louisa --- being part of a tract of land Stephen Bourn, Sr., dead, possessed." This deed was recorded 12 April 1812, Deed Book M, page 44. Evidently, Hannah had died by 1814, since their daughter Frances inherited her land by 1815, according to the tax list. It may be that Hannah's death was the reason Stephen's will was finally probated in 1814.

The Louisa , Virginia will of Stephen Bourn: "In the name of God amen I Stephen Bourn of the of Louisa being weak and low, but of sound mind and memory do make this my last will and desire it may (be) received by all men as such after all my just and lawful debts are paid. I will and dispose of my property in the following manner. Item after the decease of my wife Hannah Bourn I give to my daughter Frances Bourn thirty seven acres of land on the south side of my tract to include the house and orchard but in case said daughter Frances should die without lawful heirs of her body it is my will and desire that the said thirty seven acres of land be equally divided between my other children and their heirs. Item it is my will and desire the remainder of land my household and kitchen furniture, plantation tools, and stock of every kind by equally divided between my sons William Bourn, John Bourn, Stephen Bourn, and my daughters Hannah Bourn, Ann Pulliam, Elizabeth Mallory, Sally Sterdevan, Frances Bourn and my grandson John Bourne Armstrong. ----- written 20 March 1810. Proved in court 9 August 1814"

Louisa Court Minutes contain the following: "At a court of Quarter session continued for Louisa on Wednesday the 10th of August 1814 ... A relinquishment of John B. Armstrong to qualify as executory to Stephen Bourn's will proved by George W. Pulliam and ordered recorded ... It appearing to the satisfaction of the court that Stephen Bourn has been dead more than three months ... the executors those named in the will of said Bourn having refused to qualify and no person applying for administration on said decedent's estate the same is therefore ordered into the hands of the Sheriff to be administered according to law ... It is ordered that John S. Fleming, Jno. Bowles, William Dandredge, Thos. Anderson or any three of them do appraise the estate of Stephen Bourn, deceased and make report to the court."

The relinquishment of Anderson Bowles is recorded in the Court Minutes of August 9, 1814, on the day Stephen's will was probated. No relinquishment of William Bourn, Stephen's son, to qualify as executor, has yet been found.

Two deeds have been found pertaining to the settlement of the estate of Stephen Bourn in Louisa , one of which proves that Stephen was the father of Stephen Bourn of Grayson (known as Devil Steve) and of Elizabeth Mallory, wife of George Mallory, also of Grayson .

One deed was made 28 August 1850, but it refers to a prior transaction: "... And. (probably Anderson) Bowles ... did, about the 4th day of March 1824, purchase of Sundry heirs and Legatees, in the Estate of Stephen Bourn, late of Louisa , State of Virginia, their entire interest in the landed Estate of said Stephen Bourn -- which will more fully appear by reference to a deed made on the 4th day of March 1824 from Lewis Hoil (acting under a Power of Attorney, from said heirs) ..."

Neither this deed, nor the Power of Attorney, has yet been found. It is thought that Lewis Hoil, was really Lewis Hale, who was the son-in-law of William Bourn and his wife, Rosamond Jones. Lewis Hale was in the Legislature in Richmond in March of 1824.

The second deed is dated 17 September 1824, Deed Book T, page 293, Louisa , Virginia: "Between Stephen Bourn Sr. and George Mallory and Betsy his wife of the of Grayson and State of Virginia of the one part and Anderson Bowles of the of Hanover ... of the other part Witnessed that the said Stephen Bourn Sr and George Mallory and Betsy his wife for and in consideration of the sum of Seventy Dollars ... have bargained and sold ... unto the said Bourn the elder deceased to which the said Stephen Bourn Sr and George Mallory and Betsy his wife are lawfully entitled as heirs of the said Stephen Bourn the elder late of the of Louisa by his last Will and Testament ... dated 17 September 1824"

On the tax lists of Louisa a William Bourn and a Stephen Bourn, Jr. are listed as "Patrollers" in 1775. Patrollers scouted the area looking for runaway slaves. This is the last year that these two are found on the tax lists in Louisa . It is likely that these are the brothers who went to Grayson about that time.

In "Revolutionary War Record Books, Fincastle - Montgomery Counties" (found in the Courthouse at Christiansburg, Virginia) in "Court Martial for 2nd. Battalion, Nov. 1781," Stephen Bourn, Jno. Bourn and others of Capt. Morgan's Company were "fined for not attending musters."

In the supplement to "Grayson : A History in Words and Pictures," in a militia list for the Elk Creek District, 6 Sep 1782, John Bourn is listed with 3 (tithables ?). In a list of men from Elk Creek District sworn into service in 1782, John and William Bourn are listed, with Charles Morgan, Capt. Another list of Elk Creek names Stephen Bourn; Charles Morgan, Capt. He was married to Hannah.

ACCORDING TO NOTES FROM MACK HOLLIDAY'S PROGRAM:

(This article appeared in the "Mountain Eagle Newspaper". It was copied at Eastern Kentucky State University by J. D. Cornett and sent to Mack Holliday's mother).

John Cornett was born in 1727 in South Hampton, England. He was the son of Earl Cornett and grandson of Erin Cornett. In 1740, he sailed to the colonies with six of his brothers. They worked as indentured servants on an English Lords farm near Philadelphia, Pa. for seven years.

After gaining his freedom, John went to Henrico , Virginia. (near Richmond) and raised tobacco for a living. He was taxed for land there on 3-24-1747.

There is no record of the last name of his first wife. His will lists six sons and no daughters. He had no children by his second wife, Elizabeth Bacon Mosley, who was a widow with two sons, Langston and Benjamin, ca. 1822.

John died about 1776 at Elk Creek, Virginia. His grave has not been found by any Cornett Family Researcher.

He was a member of the Saint Johns Episcopal Church.

Four of his sons fought in the Revolutionary War. These four were later given land grants in Kentucky for their war time service. William and sons settled on Line Fork, Kentucky. Nathaniel and Roger settled in Benge, Clay, Kentucky, along with their Uncle Roger Cornett.

696. William Bourn, born 1685 in „New Kent, Virginia; died Bef. 1740. He was the son of 1392. William Bourn and 1393. Mary Vaughan.

Notes for William Bourn:

On 11 July 1719, William Bourn received a land grant of 300 acres, in Louisa , Virginia Land Book #10, page 433 as follows: "George, To all, Know ye that for divers good causes and considerations, but more especially for and in consideration of the sum of five shillings of good and lawful money for our use paid to our Receiver General of our Revenue, in this our Colony, Dominion of Virginia As also for and in consideration of the Importation of five persons to dwell within this our said Colony and Dominion whose names are Nicholas Stephenson, Mary Casupe (?), Eliza(beth) Johnson, Elander Mathews and Joan Hogan. We have given, granted and confirmed and these presents for us our heirs and successors do give grant and confirm unto William Bourn of New Kent one certain tract or parcel of land containing three hundred acres - lying and being on both sides of Narrow Neck Creek in the aforesaid and bounded as followed, to wit, beginning at a white oak in Major Nicholas Meriwethers line on the upper side of Narrow Neck Creek running South thirty west three hundred and sixteen poles to a red oak thence south fifty one East a thirty four poles, Creek in a (?) one hundred twenty four poles to a white oak thence north forty one east at one hundred poles - branch at one hundred and forty branch at two hundred eighty four jumping branch in all three hundred fourteen poles to a white oak in the said Meriwethers line - thence along his line north fifty two west one hundred and seventy eight poles to the beginning. WITH all et To have hold et to be held et Yielding and paying et provided et In witness et witness our trusty and well beloved Alexander Spotswood our Lt. Governor at Williamsburgh under the seal of our said Colony the Eleventh day of July one thousand seven hundred and nineteen in the fifth year of our Reign. Lt. Governor Alexander Spotswood"

This land was in the part of New Kent which became Hanover in 1721 and which became Louisa in 1742. It is located south of the South Anna River, near the Hanover line, on both sides of Narrow Neck Creek, later called Duncan's Creek and now called Jones Creek. This land remained in the possession of Bourn descendants for almost one hundred years and parts of it were owned by Bourns for many more years than that. Eighty acres of this land is still carried on the tax books of Louisa , as "formerly William Bourne, Senior's land."

On 8 April 1711, the same Parish Register shows Ann Bourn, wife of William Bourn, Jr died. William married again and they had five known children. The loss of the Hanover records for this period makes it impossible to know when William Bourn, Jr (II) died. His land was apparently inherited by his son, William Bourn III. In 1740, two years before Louisa was formed, William Bourn (III) sold for L5, 152 acres of the 300 acre tract, that part lying on the "upper side of Narrow Neck Creek" to Stephen Bourn, brother of William (III). (Louisa , Virginia Deed Book A, page 386). (Information from "Stephen Bourn and Rosamond Mallory, 1950 - 1982" by Lura Elizabeth Cutchshaw, 1983.) He was married to Unknown about 1710 in New Kent , Virginia.

Notes for Cornelius Vanover:

3. Cornelius Vanover3 (Cornelius 2-1) was born 1716, in Somerset , New Jersey. He was baptized in the Dutch Reformed Church of the Raritan (now Somerville) , Somerset , New Jersey, on 12 April 1716. His maternal uncle and aunt, Adriaen Henderson and Susanna, acted as godparents. Cornelius was named, in the typical Dutch fashion for his paternal grandfather, Cornelius Van Hovgem of Midwout (Flatbush), Kings , Long Island, New York. He married Maria Buys , daughter of Matthew "Thys" and Elizabeth "Lizbet" Buys of Kings , Long Island, New York. Cornelius Vanover and (1) Maria Buys were married on 6 May 1738 at the Dutch Reformed Church of New York City. They lived in Somerset , New Jersey. From 1739 until 1754, Cornelius and Maria (Buys) Vanover had five children who were baptized at various Reformed Dutch Churches in Somerset , New Jersey area. The Vanovers had moved from Somerset to Sussex , New Jersey by 1 June 1761 when they first appear in the Sussex , New Jersey records. Cornelius Vanover married (2) Tiney whose surname has not been learned. He is listed as an insolvent debtor in 1770 (Sussex , New Jersey) and apparently died shortly thereafter.

Notes for Thomas Landreth:

Thomas Landreth's Ancestry is copied from Eugene Landreth's Book: Forebears and Descendants of Landreth Pioneers.

"This researcher cannot document that these were all brothers. Some researchers declare they were..others say not. Some say that the descentdants of Thomas were never connected nor see to associate with the other Landreths. Some say Thomas and Benjamin were sure to have been brothers. Some say William and Nathaniel were brothers...Some say John was a brother to the others...but when all the beliefs are combined they include all thes to be brothers. This researcher makes no claims whatever but finds evidence that all were associated, including Thomas' descendants. However, for the sake of simplicity, a separate chapter will be recorded for each."

Notes for William Bourn:

William Bourn Sr was born about 1650. He died on 12 Jun 1716 in New Kent , Virginia. He was christened. William Bourn was listed in 1686 in New Kent , Virginia as one of the "head rights" claimed in a land grant to Nichols (Nicholas) Wyatt. In 1689, he was a land owner in New Kent . In 1698, 1700 and 1705 his tithables were assigned to road duty. In 1704 he was taxed on 140 acres. This land was apparently in present Hanover , which was formed from New Kent in 1721. On 28 December 1711 he married Mary Vaughn, this being presumed a second marriage. On 12 June 1716, he died. (Information from St. Peter's Parish Register.)

William Bourn, Sr was probably the father of Stephen and William Bourn, Jr. The St. Peter's Parish Register contains data on these two men, but there are no birth records as the first pages of the Register are missing. If they were born before the parish was formed, the Bliss land Register would have the records, but it has been lost. Notes for Jan Cornelissen Buys:

Jan Cornelis Buijs was born August 1629 in Brielle, Zuid-Holland, Netherlands. Jan, known as the soldier, was our immigrant ancestor. He arrived in America in 1648 at 19 years of age. He settled in Long Island, New York, was married about 1651 and began a family. He took the Oath of Alliance in 1687. Jan was married three times and had a total of twelve children. We (the Buice Family) are descended from the first marriage to Eybe Lubbertse. Eybe was born in the parish of Blaricum, county of Nord, Holland, the daughter of Lubbert Gysbertsen and Divertje Cornelis.

Jan Cornelis was also known by alias, Jan Damen. Jan Cornelis Buijs had a extremely wealthy uncle who was without children and an heir. The uncle, Jan Jansen Damen, brother of Hendrickje Damen of generation V, adopted his nephew and our Buijs/Buys ancestor became a wealthy man. Please note Jan Buys/Damen's children kept their surname Buys as their inheritance would come through their father who was a Buys originally.

Notes for Hendrick Willemse Buijs:

Hendrick Willemse Buijs married Aetgen Cornelis Becelle, 4 January 1604, in the parish of Brielle, county of Zuid, Holland. One can deduce from the marriage date that Hendrick and Aetgen were born about 1570 - 1584. They were members of the Dutch Reform Church. Hendrick was the chief of police/alderman for Brielle from 1625-1630. (I have pictures of the Townhall of Brielle, which may have his statue outside the building) Hendrick did have an official Coat of Arms. (picture taken from the "Book of the Dutch Nobility".) The name on the Coat of Arms is Hendrick B'uijs. The ' stands for an "e", the name was earlier written Beuijs. In 1629 Hendrick was allowed by the states of Holland to add the color silver in his arms. He chose to color the sky silver. Silver was the color for the lower nobility. Hendrick received this honor because he was the mayor of Brielle (third one of the Beuijs family).

We know they were a family of ship owners, thus the ship on the Coat of Arms. A "buis" is a small sailing boat used mostly for herring fishing in the North Sea. His home was located on a street called Nobelstraat and his house was called "the house with the waning moons".

Notes for Jan Jansen Damen:

1632-- Gulian VINGE died before 30 April 1632. His widow, Adriane CUVELLIER married second, 30 April 1632, to Jan Jansen DAMEN. He was probably the "Jan Damont, laboureur" who had signed the round robin of Walloons seeking passage to "Virginia" in 1621. If so, he undoubtedly migrated to New Netherland with the other Walloons in 1624, --- long after the VIGNES had arrived there. After his marriage to Ariaentje CUVEL, Jan Jansen DAMEN removed to New Amsterdam, "where he was elected one of the Eight Men; amassed considerable wealth, and was one of the owners of the privateer La Garce. In 1649-50 he went to Holland with C. van TIENHOVEN, to defend Peter STUYVESANT against the complaints of Van der DONCK and others, and died on his return, 18 June 1651." He appears to have not had children of his own, but he adopted Jan Cornelis BUYS (who assumed his name), son of his sister, Hendrickje (DAMEN) BUYS.
